GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 675

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE No. 96 OF 1982

Parties:

Printing and Kindred Trades Workers' Union of Kenya and Afropress Ltd.

Issues in dispute:

Payment to Arther A. Migoya his claim of KSh. 24,480 in respect of salary.

Underpayment to Arther Migoya.

Refusal by the management to pay Christine Muthone her terminal benefits.

THE Printing and Kindred Trades Workers' Union of Kenya shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Afropress Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi, on 24th January, and 7th December, 1983, and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses:

Claimants.—Arther Migoya.

Respondents.—E. N. Wainaina.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 18th December, 1979, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 1st October, 1982, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The grievant started working for the respondents with effect from 7th September, 1967, and was dismissed on 13th June, 1980. He is claiming a sum of KSh. 24,480 which he claims are his salary arrears due from the respondents at the rate of KSh. 1,360 per month from 1st February, 1970, to 31st July, 1971. He further claims from the respondents the difference between his salary and that of Joe De Souza being KSh. 1,540 on the ground that he was underpaid by that figure. He also claims acting allowance. Mr. De Souza's salary at the time was KSh. 3,000 and Mr. Migoya's salary was KSh. 1,460.

The whole dispute revolves around the time when Mr. Migoya was in Germany for advanced training in linotyping and monotyping. He went there on a scholarship offered by the German Government to Kenya Government for advanced professional training in Germany. The court is satisfied on the evidence that was produced during the hearing that the respondents' managing director at the time who was a German assisted Mr. Migoya and two of his workmates to get the scholarship through the German Embassy in Nairobi. Mr. Migoya himself made application for this scholarship.

On 16th January, 1970, Mr. Migoya and the respondents signed a document in which it was stated that he would begin "our advanced professional training" in West Germany on 2nd February, 1970, for a period of 1½ years. It was further stated in this document that during this time he would remain a member of the staff of the respondents and on his return he would be obliged to render services to them for a minimum period of two years. It was also stipulated in the same document that the respondents will pay the following contributions to his family for a period of 1½ years commencing on 2nd February, 1970:

"Rent for his house of KSh. 88.50 and any increase that might occur will be paid direct to the Nairobi City Council.

School fees for his three children in Agoro Intermediate School will be paid direct to the school.

The Gadia Mission Hospital will be instructed to render medical care to his three children, invoices for which should be sent to the respondents. Medical treatment was not to include his parents.

"An amount of KSh. 170 will be paid to his wife every month which she had to collect from the respondents personally only."

This document in the end stated that if for any reason he failed to come back after his official training this agreement will expire immediately. The same will happen if he failed to complete training in Germany on the foundation sponsorship.

Mr. Migoya has based his claim on this document for claiming salary for eighteen months when he was in Germany. The respondents have strongly resisted this claim saying that although they kept him in their employment they had released him for eighteen months to go for further training on scholarship as stated above and that apart from the benefits stated hereinabove they were not liable to pay him any salary.

The case on the claim for arrears rests on the interpretation of this document. It is obvious that there is no mention of any salary or wage in it whereas the respondents' obligations towards his children, wife and house rent are set out in details. The court cannot believe for a minute that such an important matter as Mr. Migoya's salary during the eighteen months he was to be in Germany was automatically understood and would be paid to him. If the salary was to be paid to him then his would have been the first item to appear in the document. Furthermore the evidence before the court shows that Mr. Migoya on his return from Germany worked for the respondents for about two years without raising any claim for salary for these eighteen months. As a matter of fact he wrote a letter from Germany to the respondents seeking some financial assistance complaining that the allowance paid to him was not enough on which to live. If he had understood that he was to be paid salary for eighteen months he would have asked the respondents to send part of that salary to Germany and not seek some financial assistance.

It is an unfortunate matter that the respondents failed to pay rent to the Nairobi City Council as they had undertaken to do with result that the house was repossessed by the City Council but when Mr. Migoya came back he was given KSh. 1,440 to look for accommodation. The respondents, however, paid the amount as agreed to Mrs. Migoya at the rate of KSh. 170 per month and complied with the other conditions also. In these circumstances the court cannot accept the claimants' submission that the aforesaid agreement places an obligation on the respondent to pay Mr. Migoya salary for eighteen months he was in Germany. It should be noted that the allowance that he was receiving in Germany was more than his monthly salary. Mr. Migoya admitted in cross-examination that his other colleague who was in Germany with him did not complain about any salary although he did say that perhaps he was paid. The respondents, however, denied that the colleague was paid any salary. The court is quite satisfied that Mr. Migoya knew that for the eighteen months he was to pursue advanced professional training in Germany he was not to be paid any salary as the respondents would not be benefitting from any service from him during that period. The fact that the respondents agreed to keep him in employment does not in the absence of a clear undertaking to that effect make them responsible to pay him salary for that period. Indeed Mr. Migoya is lucky that the respondents looked after his children and wife although they overlooked to pay rent to the Nairobi City Council. The court cannot accept Mr. Migoya's claim for payment of arrears of salary for this period amounting to KSh. 24,480 but the court feels that the respondents should pay him the house allowance they failed to remit to the Nairobi City Council. The court awards that they should pay him KSh. 2,700 only.

The court would now like to deal with his other claims of acting allowance and promotion. On the question of promotion the court would immediately dispose of this point because it would indeed be ridiculous for any employee to assume and take for granted that he is promoted after training in the absence of any clear letter to that effect. The court does not believe that Mr. Migoya had been promoted to Mr. De Souza's place when the latter left. In fact the evidence suggests that Mr. De Souza's responsibilities were taken over by the manager. The court would like to emphasize that promotion is a management prerogative and the court cannot accept a claim by an employee that he should have been promoted.

Regarding the other claim of acting allowance apart from the fact that the court was given the salaries of Mr. De Souza and Mr. Migoya, there is absolutely no other evidence to suggest that Mr. Migoya was asked to act in Mr. De Souza's place for any period of time. The claimants failed to give any details to the court. The court was not even given the dates when it is alleged Mr. Migoya acted in place of Mr. De Souza and it is indeed a very vague claim.

In the end the court would like to add that it is not a genuine claim and Mr. Migoya is only giving vent to his frustrations for not having been promoted as he thought he would be on his return from Germany. This is a mere speculative claim and the court must reject it. Mr. Migoya is entitled to only KSh. 2,700 which the court has awarded above and which the court directs the respondents to pay him.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 683

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified, it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in part A of the register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
