PRESCRIBED RATE OF INTEREST BILL, 1978

(Published on 30th June, 1978)

MEMORANDUM

A draft of the above Bill, which it is proposed to present to the National Assembly is set out below.

2. The object of the Bill is to prescribe a rate of interest on judgement debts. At common law the rate of interest is 6 per centum which does not reflect the present economic realities of the 20th century. The rate of interest at common law is now considered out-dated.

3. Section 3 provides that if the rate of interest has not been fixed by any Act or agreement or trade custom then the prescribed rate of interest shall apply to such judgement debt, unless the Court orders otherwise.

4. The Minister is under section 3 (2) empowered to prescribe the rate of interest.

5. Section 4 provides that every judgement debt which would not be subjected to interest were it not for that provision shall bear interest at the prescribed rate from the date determined by the Court.

Q.K.J. MASIRE,

Minister of Finance and Development Planning.

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS

SECTION

1. Short title
2. Interpretation
3. Interest on a debt to be calculated at prescribed rate
4. Interest on judgement debt

A BILL

entitled

An Act to provide for the calculation of interest on a debt, in certain circumstances, at a prescribed rate, for the payment of interest on certain judgement debts and for matters connected therewith.

Date of Assent:

Date of Commencement:

ENACTED by the Parliament of Botswana.

1. This Act may be cited as the Prescribed Rate of Interest Act, Short title 1978.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires "judgement debt" means a sum of money due in terms of a judgement or an order, including an order as to costs of a Court and includes any part of such a sum of money but does not include any interest not forming part of the principal sum of the judgement debt. Inter-pretation

Interest on a debt to be calculated at a prescribed rate

3. (1) If a debt bears interest and the rate at which the interest is to be calculated is not governed by any other written law or by an agreement for a trade custom or in any other manner, such interest shall be calculated at the rate prescribed under subsection (2) as at the time when such interest begins to run, unless a court, on the ground of special circumstances relating to that debt, orders otherwise.

(2) The Minister by notice published in the gazette may prescribe a rate of interest for the purposes of subsection (1).

Interest on a judgement
debt

4. (1) Every judgement debt which but for the provisions of this subsection would not bear interest after the date of the judgement or order by virtue of which it is due shall bear interest at the rate prescribed under section 3 from the day on which such judgement debt is payable, unless that judgement or order provides otherwise.

(2) Interest payable in terms of subsection (1) may be recovered as if it formed part of the judgement debt on which it is due.
