2. Section 3 (2) (b) of the Hypothecation Act, 1977, (No. 40 of 1977), provides that a document evidencing a hypothecation entered into under section 3 shall be lodged by the authorized creditor, together with the prescribed fee, with the Registrar of Deeds within 30 days of its execution and shall be registered by him in the manner of a notarial deed.

6. Section 5 (1) of the Agricultural Charges Act provides that a copy of a certificate of indebtedness, such as is referred to in section 4 of the Act, shall be lodged by the National Development Bank with the Registrar of Deeds within 30 days of the signature and shall be registered by him in the manner of a notarial bond.
