ENACTED by the Parliament of Botswana:

PART I Introduction and Interpretation

Citation

Interpretation

1. This Act may be cited as the National Archives Act, 1978.
2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, —
 - “authorized officer” means an officer of the National Archives authorized by the Director to do anything in accordance with the provisions of this Act;
 - “Council” means the National Archives Advisory Council established under section 20;
 - “Director” means the Director of National Archives appointed under section 5;
 - “historical records” means any records, other than public and judicial records, which are declared as such under section 15;
 - “judicial records” means any records constituting the official records of any proceedings before the court, commission or board of inquiry, other judicial or quasi-judicial body or person, which —
 - (a) are in the custody of —
 - (i) such court, commission, board, body or person;
 - (ii) any Ministry, Department, other agency of the Government or a prescribed body; or
 - (iii) any person lawfully committed with such custody; or
 - (b) have been transferred to the National Archives or place of deposit under the provisions of this Act.
 - “National Archives” means the National Archives of Botswana established under section 3;
 - “place of deposit” means a place of deposit declared as such under section 4;
 - “public archives” means —
 - (a) all public records which —
 - (i) are specified by the Director as being of enduring or historical value; and
 - (ii) have been transferred to the National Archives or place of deposit under the provisions of this Act; and
 - (b) any records, documents or other material acquired for the National Archives in terms of section 5 (4) (h);
 - “public records” means —
 - (a) any records of the Government which —
 - (i) are in the custody of the Government; or
 - (ii) have been transferred to the National Archives or place of deposit under section 10;

(b) any records of a prescribed body which are in the custody of such body or have been transferred to the National Archives under section 10; or

(c) any judicial records;

“records” includes any manuscript, newspaper, picture, painting, document, register, printed material, book, map, plan, drawing, photograph, negative and positive pictures, photocopy, microfilm, cinematograph film, video tape, magnetic tape, gramophone record or other transcription of language, picture or music, recorded by any means capable of reproduction and regardless of physical form and characteristics.

PART II National Archives and Places of Deposit

3. There is hereby established the National Archives of Botswana, for the storage and preservation of public archives other than those which are to be kept in some other place of deposit.

Establishment of National Archives Other places of deposit

4. (1) If it appears to the Minister that facilities exist for the safe-keeping and preservation of public records and their inspection by the public in some place other than the National Archives and that convenience so requires, he may, with the agreement of the authority or person responsible for that place, declare that place to be a place of deposit for public records of any category.

(2) Where the Minister declares any place to be a place of deposit for any category of public records, such public records which are selected for preservation shall be transferred to and preserved in that place of deposit in lieu of the National Archives and the provisions of this Act shall have effect accordingly.

PART III Director of National Archives and Custodians of Places of Deposit

5. (1) There shall be a Director of the National Archives who shall be a public officer.

Director of National Archives

(2) The Director shall, subject to such directions as may be given by the Minister from time to time, be the principal administrative officer in charge of the National Archives and shall be the custodian of the public archives.

(3) Where a Director has not been appointed in terms of subsection (1), any officer of the National Archives may be designated to discharge the functions of a Director conferred by the provisions of this Act, and any references to “the Director” in this Act shall be construed as reference to such public officer.

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2) and subject to such directions as may be given by the Minister, the Director —

- (a) shall direct, manage and control the National Archives;
- (b) shall preserve, describe and arrange all public archives;
- (c) shall accept and store any public records which are transferred to the National Archives;

- (d) may, if in his opinion it is necessary for their better preservation, bind or repair any public archives;
- (e) shall examine any public records in the custody of any Ministry, Department, or other agency of the Government and any judicial records and advise the custodian thereof as to the care, preservation, custody and control of such public records;
- (f) shall examine any public records of a prescribed body and advise it as to the care, preservation, custody and control of such public records;
- (g) may reproduce or publish such public archives as he may deem fit:

Provided that, in the case of public archives falling within paragraph (b) of the definition of "public archives", no such reproduction or publication shall take place without the consent of the person from whom such archives were acquired;

- (h) may, on behalf of the Government, acquire by purchase, donation, bequest or otherwise any document, book or other material which in the opinion of the Director is or is likely to be of enduring or historical value;
- (i) may compile, make available and publish indices and guides to public archives in the National Archives;
- (j) may require to be transferred to his custody or the custodian at a place of deposit any public records which he considers should be housed in the National Archives or a place of deposit;
- (k) may devise procedures relating to the listing, scheduling and destruction of public records and their transfer to, or withdrawal from, the National Archives or place of deposit
- (l) may prepare publications concerning the activities of, and the facilities provided by, the National Archives or any place of deposit;
- (m) may regulate the conditions under which members of the public may inspect public archives in, or use the facilities of the National Archives or any place of deposit;
- (n) may provide for the making and authentication of copies of, and extracts from, public archives required as evidence in legal proceedings or for any other purpose approved by the Minister;
- (o) may lend, with the consent of the Minister or the owner thereof if the document is not owned by the Government, any record from the National Archives or place of deposit for display at commemorative, trade, art or international exhibition or for any other special purpose approved by the Minister, subject to such conditions as the Minister or the owner thereof may impose with respect to such loan;
