Bill No. 16 of 1980

DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITIES AND PRIVILEGES (AMENDMENT)
BILL, 1980

(Published on 11th April, 1980)

MEMORANDUM

A draft of the above Bill, which it is proposed to present to the National Assembly, is set out below.

2. Under the Diplomatic Immunities and Privileges Act (Cap. 39:01), as amended by Act 46 of 1977, the President may confer diplomatic immunities and privileges only on a restricted class of international organizations and on the representatives, committee members, officers and envoys, and the like, of such organizations.

3. These organizations must, as the law stands, be organizations of which one or more sovereign powers or the government or governments thereof are members.

4. Examples of such organizations, on which the President has conferred diplomatic immunities and privileges, are the European Economic Community, the Organization of African Unity and the United Nations Organization.

5. Because of the present state of the law, the President does not have the power to confer diplomatic immunities and privileges on the International Committee of the Red Cross or on its representatives and officers, and the like.

6. The reason for this is that no sovereign power or its government is a member of the International Committee of the Red Cross. On the contrary, it is an institution of a purely private character, wholly independent of any government. Its membership is composed exclusively of Swiss nationals, not exceeding 25 in number, each of whom is elected by the votes of the existing members.

7. The object of the Bill is to amend the Diplomatic Immunities and Privileges Act in order to give the President the power to confer diplomatic immunities and privileges on the International Committee of the Red Cross and on its representatives and officers, and the like.

A.M. MOGWE,
Minister of External Affairs.
