Bill No. 36 of 1983

CUSTOMS AND EXCISE DUTY (AMENDMENT) (NO. 2) BILL, 1983
(Published on 18th November, 1983)

MEMORANDUM

A draft of the above Bill, which it is proposed to present to the National Assembly, is set out below.

2. The object of the Bill is to amend the Customs and Excise Duty Act (Cap. 50:01) in order to comply with Botswana's treaty obligations under Article 10 of the Customs Union Agreement by bringing the Customs and Excise Duty act into line with the changes which have been recently made to the customs legislation of the Republic of South Africa.

3. Clause 2 amends section 25 to indicate that the owner of any dutiable goods in a customs and excise warehouse may not, except with the permission of the Director, enter into any agreement whereby his ownership of such goods is transferred or such goods are pledged or hypothecated to any other person (e.g. registration of a notarial bond over movables) and the person in whose favour such goods are pledged or hypothecated may not enter into any agreement whereby any rights so obtained are ceded to any other person.

The object of this amendment is to prevent an importer from alienating property in the form of imported goods in a customs and excise warehouse which would otherwise have been available as security in respect of duty due to the State.

This clause will come into operation 30 days after the publication of the Act in order to allow interested parties time to take the necessary steps to comply with the provisions.

4. Clause 3 amends section 39, subsection (3), to fix the time when goods for export by means of various modes of transport are deemed to have been exported from Botswana.

This clause will also come into operation 30 days after the publication of the Act in order to enable exporters to comply with the provisions.

5. Clause 4 corrects a textual omission from an earlier amendment to section 41, subsection (3) (a) (ii), clarifies the circumstances in which substitution of a bill of entry may be allowed and defines the period within which application for a retrospective tariff determination or retrospective amendment of a schedule must be submitted.

These amendments accord with administrative practice established over a number of years and are solely introduced to serve as a more specific restatement of requirements already in force.

6. Clause 5 amends section 59 to —

- (i) extend from three to four months the period during which a provisional charge to anti-dumping duty may be imposed on imported goods;
- (ii) reduces from three to two months the additional period which may be requested by an exporter only.

7. Clause 6 amends section 80 (4) to define the period within which an application for refund of duty arising from a retrospective tariff or value determination must be lodged.

8. Clause 7 amends section 111, subsection (2) (a), to make it clear that conditions prescribed by the Director may include the furnishing of security before goods are allowed to pass from his control.

9. Clause 8 provides for the commencement of certain amendments with retrospective effect and stipulates the effective dates of each of such amendments.

10. Clause 9 provides for the extension of the expiry date of the rebate provision in paragraph (2) of tariff heading No. 66.05 in item 311.02 of Schedule No. 3 to the principal Act.

P.S. MMUSI,
Vice-President and Minister of Finance and Development Planning.
