(2) A person shall not be prosecuted for an offence under this section without the written consent of the Attorney-General.”

Repeal of section 64
of principal Act

4. Section 64 of the principal Act is hereby repealed and the following new sections are substituted therefor —

“Piracy

64. (1) A person commits an act of piracy if being —

- (a) the owner or master of a ship, he sails the seas in her without authorization from the government of any country with the object of committing depredations upon property or acts of violence against persons or if, from or by means of the ship, he commits any such act of depredation or violence;
- (b) a member of the crew or a passenger of a ship, he conspires with any other person to rise against her master and officers or to seize the ship or if, in common with any other person, he engages in any act of hostility against her master and officers.

(2) A master or seaman commits an act of piracy if he betrays his trust, runs away with his ship or goods belonging to her or yields them up voluntarily to any person contrary to his duty or conspires or combines with or attempts to corrupt any master, officer or seaman to yield up or run away with any ship or goods or makes or endeavours to make a revolt in the ship.

(3) A person belonging to a ship commits an act of piracy if, upon meeting a ship at sea or in any port, harbour or haven, he forcibly boards or enters her and, though he does not seize or carry off the ship, throws overboard or destroys any part of the goods belonging to her.

Punishment
of piracy

64A. (1) A person who commits an act of piracy shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction thereof shall be liable to imprisonment for life or any lesser term.

(2) A person who, with intent to commit or at the time of or immediately before or immediately after committing an act of piracy in respect of any ship, assaults, with intent to murder, any person being on board, or belonging to, the ship or injures any such person or unlawfully does any act by which the life of any such person may be endangered shall be guilty of an offence and upon conviction shall be liable to suffer death.

Jurisdiction over piracy

64B. (1) The High Court has jurisdiction to try —

- (a) an act of piracy wherever committed, if committed on board a Botswana ship;
- (b) an act of piracy committed within the territorial waters of the Republic;
- (c) an act of piracy committed by a citizen of Botswana on the high seas or in a foreign port or harbour or in foreign territorial tidal waters.

(2) For the purpose of establishing jurisdiction an act of piracy may be regarded as having been committed where any part of the act was committed.”.

5. Section 322 of the principal Act is hereby amended by substituting for that section, the following new section —

“Person suspected of possessing, carrying or conveying stolen property

322. Any person who is found by a peace officer to be in possession of, or carrying or conveying in any manner, anything which is reasonably suspected of having been stolen or unlawfully obtained and he is unable to give a satisfactory account as to how he came by it is guilty of an offence.”.

No. 21

of 1986

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS

SECTION

1. Short title
2. Amendment of section 11 of Cap. 27:01

An act to amend the Pensions Act

Date of Assent: 23.12.86

Date of Commencement: 31.12.86

ENACTED by the Parliament of Botswana.

1. This Act may cited as the Pensions (Amendment) Act, 1986.
2. Section 11 of the Pensions Act is amended by the substitution for subsection (2) thereof of the following new subsections —
 - “(2) The legal personal representative of an officer holding a pensionable office, who could have retired from service under the provisions of the Constitution or of the Public Service Act but who dies prior to such retirement, shall be entitled to receive the gratuity that would have been payable to the officer, if he had exercised his option to retire, and a death gratuity equivalent to three times the amount of the annual pension that would have been payable to the officer if he had retired prior to his death.
 - (3) Where an officer dies after retirement from public service under the Government of Botswana, having been granted or having become eligible for a pension under this Act, the Minister may, with the concurrence of the appropriate Commission in accordance with section 117 of the Constitution, grant to the legal personal representative of the deceased officer —
 - (a) a death gratuity equivalent to three times the annual amount of the pension of the deceased
