CONSTITUTION OF BOTSWANA

Authorization to Exercise Functions of the Office of President

TO: THE HONOURABLE KEBATLAMANG PITSIEYOSI MORAKE, M.P. MINISTER OF HEALTH

WHEREAS it is provided by section 36 (1) of the Constitution that whenever the President is absent from Botswana or considers it desirable so to do by reason of illness or any other cause he may, by directions in writing, authorize the Vice-President or in the absence of the Vice-President, a Minister, to discharge such of the functions of the office of President as he may specify and the person so authorised may discharge those functions until the President's return to Botswana or the revocation of such authorization, as the case may be;

AND WHEREAS the Vice-President is out of the country on official business;

AND WHEREAS I intend to be absent from Botswana from the 28th January, 1991 and I consider it desirable to issue directions as aforesaid;

NOW THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers vested in me as aforesaid I authorize you, KEBATLAMANG PITSIEYOSI MORAKE, in your capacity as Minister of Health, to discharge with effect from 28th January, 1991 all the functions of the Office of President, except —

- (a) the power to dissolve Parliament in accordance with the provisions of section 91 of the Constitution;
- (b) the power to appoint to the office of Minister or Assistant Minister in accordance with the provisions of section 42 of the Constitution;

Provided, however, that you can appoint the present Ministers or Assistant Ministers to act in place of any Minister who is otherwise not available;

- (c) the power to remove a Minister or Assistant Minister from office in accordance with the provisions of section 43 of the Constitution;

until my return to Botswana or this authority is revoked by me, which ever happens first.

GIVEN under my hand and the Public Seal at GABORONE this 28th day of January, 1991.

An Act to amend the Customs and Excise Duty Act

Date of Assent:

Date of commencement:

ENACTED by the Parliament of Botswana.

1. This Act may be cited as the Customs and Excise Duty (Amendment) Act, 1991. Short title

2. The Customs and Excise Duty Act, hereinafter referred to as "the Act", is amended by substituting for the long title thereto the following — Amendment of long title
Cap. 50:01

"An Act to provide for the levying of customs and excise duties and a surcharge; the prohibition and control of the importation, export or manufacture of certain goods; and for matters incidental thereto".

3. Section 2(2) of the Act is amended — Amendment of section 2

(a) by substituting for the definition of "customs duty" the following definition —

" "customs duty" means, subject to the provisions of subsection (3), any duty leviable under Schedule No. 1 (except Parts 4 and 5 thereof) or Schedule No. 2 on goods imported into Botswana";

(b) by deleting the definition of "customs tariff";

(c) by substituting for the definition of "entry for home consumption" the following definition —

" "entry for home consumption" includes entry under any item in Schedule No. 3, 4 or 6";

(d) in the definition of "illicit goods", by deleting the comma and words ", sales duty goods";

(e) by substituting for the definition of "manufacture" the following definition —

" "manufacture", when used as a noun, includes, in the discretion of the Director, any process —

(a) in the manufacture or assembly of any excisable goods;

(b) in the conversion of any goods into excisable goods;

(c) whereby the dutiable quantity or value of any imported goods specified in Section B of Part 2 of Schedule No. 1, or excisable goods is increased in any manner;

(d) in the recovery of excisable goods from excisable goods or any other goods; or

(e) in the packing or measuring off of any imported goods specified in Section B of Part 2 of Schedule No. 1, excisable goods; and when used as a verb, has a corresponding meaning; and "manufacturer" has a corresponding meaning;";

(f) by substituting for the definition of "officer" the following definition —

" "officer" means a person employed on any duty relating to customs and excise by order or with the concurrence of the Director, whether such order has been given or such concurrence has been expressed before or after the performance of the said duty;";

(g) by deleting the definitions of "ordinary duty", "sales duty" and "sales duty goods".

Insertion of section 4A

4. (1) The Act is amended by inserting immediately after section 4 the following new section —

“Duties and powers of Permanent Secretary, Commerce and Industry

4A. (1) Any duty imposed or power conferred by this Act on the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Commerce and Industry may be performed or exercised by him personally or by an officer under a delegation from or under the control or direction of the said Permanent Secretary.

(2) Any decision made under subsection (1) by any such officer may be withdrawn or amended by the Permanent Secretary or by the officer (with effect from the date of making such decision or the date of withdrawal or amendment thereof) and shall until it has been so withdrawn, be deemed, except for the purposes of this subsection, to have been made by that Permanent Secretary.”

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall be deemed to have come into operation on 14th. October, 1987.

Amendment of section 5

5. Section 5 of the Act is amended —

(a) in subsection (2) thereof by deleting the words “or sales duty goods”;

(b) by substituting for subsections (11) and (12) thereof the following subsection —

“(11) (a) An officer may stop and board any vehicle in Botswana and may search any such vehicle or any person found therein or thereon for goods upon which duty has not been paid, or in respect of which he has reasonable cause to believe that there has been a contravention of any provision of this Act, and may freely remain on such vehicle in pursuance of his duties.

(b) If any vehicle, or any place, safe, chest, box, package or container (as defined in section 1 (2)) thereon is locked and the keys thereof are not produced on demand, the officer may open such vehicle, place, safe, chest, box, package or container in any manner.

(c) An officer shall have free access to and the right to rummage every part of any such vehicle and to examine all goods on board, with power to fasten down hatchways and to mark any goods before offloading, and to lock up, seal, mark or otherwise secure any goods on board the vehicle, including any apparatus thereof, and he may also demand from the driver of any vehicle or the pilot of any aircraft concerned or the person in charge of any other vehicle the production of any document to which any provision of this Act relates.

(d) If any lock, seal or mark placed upon any goods on board a vehicle by an officer in terms of the provisions of this section is wilfully opened, broken, obliterated or altered, or if any goods which have been locked, sealed, marked or otherwise secured in terms of this section are removed or if the hatchways of any such vehicle are, after having been fastened down by an officer, opened without his consent, the pilot of any aircraft concerned or the person in charge of any other such vehicle, as the case may be, shall be guilty of an offence unless he proves that it was not possible for him to have prevented the act in question.”;

(c) in subsection (13), by renumbering the present subsection as paragraph (a) thereof and by adding the following paragraph —
“(b) If such person fails to stop, the officer may take such action, including the use of force, as he may deem necessary to stop such person.”; and

(d) by adding after subsection (15) the following new subsection —
“(16) No person shall be entitled to any compensation for any loss or damage arising out of any bona fide action of an officer under this section.”.

6. Section 6 of the Act is amended by deleting subsections (4), (5) and (6) therefrom. Amendment of section 6

7. Section 7 of the Act is amended by inserting immediately after subsection (1) thereof the following new subsection — Amendment of section 7

“(1A) (a) The pilot of an aircraft arriving in Botswana shall, unless the Director has granted him special permission to land elsewhere, make his first landing at a place appointed as a customs and excise airport in terms of section 6:

Provided that the provisions of this subsection shall not apply if the pilot is forced by circumstances beyond his control to land at a place not so appointed and he reports to the Customs Officer nearest to the place where he was so forced to land or to the Customs Officer at the first place of entry or customs and excise airport appointed in terms of section 6 at which he next arrives.

(b) Such pilot who is forced by circumstances beyond his control to land at a place in Botswana not appointed as a place of entry in terms of section 6 shall take all precautions necessary to prevent any contravention of this Act in respect of any goods in such aircraft.”.

8. The Act is amended by deleting section 8 therefrom. Deletion of section 8

9. Section 9 (1) of the Act is amended by substituting for paragraph (g) thereof the following paragraph — Amendment of section 9

“(g) all non-duty-paid imported goods and all excisable goods shipped at a place in Botswana as aircraft stores; and”.

10. Section 12 of the Act is amended by substituting for subsection (2) thereof the following new subsection — Amendment of section 12

“(2) Such station master or other person shall not permit any such goods to be removed from the railway premises before due entry thereof unless the Customs Officer allows such goods to be so removed, subject to such conditions as he may in each case impose, before such entry.”.

29. (1) Section 81 of the Act is amended —

Amendment
of section 81

- (a) in subsection (1) thereof by deleting paragraph (e) ;
- (b) in subsection (1) (g) thereof by substituting for the proviso to subparagraph (i) the following new proviso —
- “Provided that no such refund shall be paid to the State or any government, department, administration or any body, institution or authority mentioned in the notes to the said Schedule No. 5 or 6;”;
- (c) in the proviso to subsection (7) (a) thereof by substituting for the words and numerals “Schedule No. 3, 4, 6 or 7” the words and numerals “Schedule No. 3, 4 or 6”;
- (d) in subsection (8) thereof by substituting for the words and numerals “Schedule No. 5, 6 or 7” the words and numerals “Schedule No. 5 or 6”;
- (e) by substituting for subsection (10) thereof the following new subsection —
- “(10) Wherever the tariff heading or subheading or the tariff item or subitem under which any goods are classified in Schedule No. 1 is expressly quoted in any item of Schedule No. 3, 4, 5 or 6 in which such goods are specified, the goods so specified in the said item of Schedule No. 3, 4, 5 or 6 shall be deemed not to include goods which are not classified under the said tariff heading or subheading or tariff item or subitem.”;
- (f) by substituting for subsection (11) thereof the following new subsection —
- “(11) Any goods entered for use under rebate of duty under this section shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be entered for home consumption, but no entry in respect of any such goods described in Schedule No. 3 or 4 shall be valid unless the number of the tariff heading and subheading under which such goods are classified in Schedule No. 1 and the number of the item of Schedule No. 3 or 4 in which the said goods are specified are both declared on such entry and the industry in which and the purpose for which such goods are to be used, as specified in the said item, are declared on such entry:

Provided that the Minister may exempt entries in respect of any class or kind of goods from any or all of the requirements of this subsection.”;

(g) in subsection (12) (a) thereof by substituting for the words and numerals “Schedules No. 3, 4, 6 or 7” the words and numerals “Schedule No. 3, 4 or 6”;

(h) by substituting for subsection (13) thereof the following new subsection —

“(13) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act contained, the Director may, in respect of Schedule No. 5 or 6 for the purpose of calculating the amount of duty refundable on any imported or excisable goods or used in the manufacture, reconditioning, mixing or blending of any goods exported or marketed in Botswana, determine the quantity of such exported goods or such goods marketed in Botswana which shall be deemed to have been produced, reconditioned, mixed or blended from a given quantity of such imported or excisable goods or the quantity of such imported or excisable goods or which shall be deemed to have been used in the production, reconditioning, mixing or blending of a given quantity of such exported goods or such goods marketed in Botswana.”;

(i) by substituting for subsection (20) thereof the following new subsection —

“(20) The Director may refuse to accept an entry under rebate or an application for drawback or refund under any item of Schedule No. 3, 4, 5 or 6 from any person who has persistently contravened or failed to comply with the provisions of this Act or who has committed an offence referred to in section 86, 89, 90, 91 or 92 and he may cancel any registration under the provisions of this Act of such person or suspend any such registration for such period as he may deem fit.”;

(j) in subsection (21) thereof by substituting for all the words preceding paragraph (a) the following words —

“Subject to the provisions of the proviso to section 19(9) and items 412.07, 412.08, 412.09, 531.00, 532.00, 608.01, 608.02, 608.03, 608.04, 615.01, 615.02 and 615.03 of Schedules Nos. 4, 5 and 6 no rebate or refund of duty in respect of any loss or deficiency of any nature of any goods shall be allowed, but the Director may allow the deduction from the dutiable quantity of the undermentioned goods of a quantity equal to the percentage stated below in each case, namely —”;

(k) by substituting for subsection (22) thereof the following new subsection —

“(22) No person shall, without the permission of the Director, divert any goods entered under rebate of duty under any item of Schedule No. 3, 4 or 6 or for export for the purpose of claiming a drawback or refund of duty under any item in Schedule No. 5 or 6 to a destination other than the destination declared on such entry or deliver such goods or cause such goods to be delivered in Botswana otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act and, in the case of goods entered under rebate of duty, otherwise than to the person who entered the goods or on whose behalf the goods were entered.”; and

(l) in subsection (24) thereof by substituting for the words and numerals “Schedule No. 3, 4, 6 or 7” the words and numerals “Schedule No. 3, 4 or 6”.

(2) The amendment effected by paragraph (a) of subsection (1) shall be deemed to have come into operation on 1st October, 1989.

30. The Act is amended by substituting for section 82 thereof the following new section —

“General refunds in respect of imported goods or excisable
goods

82. (1) No refund of any duty or other charge in respect of imported goods, excisable goods or surcharge goods, other than a refund or set-off provided for under section 81 or 83, shall be paid or granted except in accordance with the provisions of this section and the regulations.

(2) The Director shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (4), consider any application for a refund or payment from any applicant who contends that he has paid any duty or other charge for which he was not liable or that he is entitled to any payment under this Act by reason of —

- (a) an error in determining an assessment or calculating the amount thereof;
- (b) the duty having been assessed on a value higher than the value for duty purposes;
- (c) a determination under section 50 (11) or (15) or incorrect tariff classification;
- (d) the goods concerned having been damaged, destroyed or irrecoverably lost by circumstances beyond his control prior to the release thereof for home consumption;
- (e) all or part of such goods having been shortlanded, shortshipped or shortpacked;
- (f) the substitution of any bill of entry in terms of section 42 (3); or
- (g) the duty having been reduced or withdrawn as provided for in section 53 (2) or (3).

Substitution
for section 82

(3) Except with the permission of the Director, any application for a refund under this section shall not relate to more than one bill of entry or other document in respect of which the alleged overpayment was made.

(4) No application for a refund or payment in terms of this section shall be considered by the Director unless it is received by the Customs Officer, duly completed and supported by the necessary documents and other evidence to prove that such refund or payment is due under this section within a period of two years —

(a) from the date of entry for home consumption as provided in section 47 (2), of the goods to which the application relates; or

(b) from the date on which the charge to which the application relates was paid; or

(c) in the case where a determination of a tariff heading, tariff subheading or item referred to in section 50 (11) or of a value referred to in section 7 (4) is, under section 50 (15) or section 71 (7), as the case may be, amended with retrospective effect from a date before or on the date on which the duty to which the application relates was paid, or any such determination is made under the said section 50 (15) or section 71 (7), as the case may be, be withdrawn with such retrospective effect, and a new determination made with effect from such withdrawal, from the date on which such amendment is effected or such new determination is made or, if such amendment or new determination is published by notice in the Gazette, the date on which such amendment or new determination is so published; or

(d) in the case where any Schedule is amended with such retrospective effect, from the date on which such amendment is published by notice in the Gazette:

Provided that the Director may, in such circumstances as he may consider exceptional, consider any such application after expiration of such period.

(5) If, after considering any application for a refund or payment in terms of this section, the Director is satisfied that the applicant is entitled to any such refund or payment, the Director may pay to the applicant the amount due to him:

Provided that no refund shall be made under this section if, in the case of goods imported by post, the amount thereof is less than fifty thebe or, in the case of goods imported in any other manner, less than five pula or, in the case of excisable goods manufactured in Botswana, less than two pula, unless the Director is satisfied that exceptional circumstances exist which warrant such refund.”.

31. The Act is amended by substituting for section 83 thereof the following new section — Substitution
for section 83

“Set-off of certain amounts

83. (a) A licensee of a customs and excise warehouse who, in terms of the regulations, is permitted to pay any duty monthly or quarterly, and who —

- (i) paid any duty for which he was not liable; or
- (ii) granted any provisional refund in terms of section 81; or
- (iii) becomes entitled to a refund in terms of item 534.00 of Schedule No. 5 or any item of Schedule No. 6, may, subject to the approval of the Director, at any time within a period of two years from the date on which that duty was paid, such provisional refund was granted or such licensee became entitled to such refund, set off such duty, provisional refund or amount refundable against that particular duty for which such licensee subsequently becomes liable, except that the duty refundable in terms of the said item 534.00 be set off against the excise duty specified in Section B of Part 2 of Schedule No. 1 for which such licensee subsequently becomes liable, provided the monthly or quarterly accounts or bills of entry submitted by such licensee in respect of the payment of any duty against which any duty, provisional refund or amount refundable has been set off are accompanied by a full statement by such licensee, supported by a certificate by an officer, giving full particulars and a full account of the circumstances in respect of such set-off and by such documentary evidence as the Director may in each case require.

(b) If such set-off is not approved by the Director in terms of paragraph (a), it shall be debited to the account of such licensee.”.

32. Section 86 (1) (b) of the Act is amended by deleting the words “or sales duty goods” wherever they occur. Amendment of section 86

33. The Act is amended by substituting for section 87 thereof the following new section — Substitution
for section 87

“Non-declaration
of goods

87. Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with the provisions of section 14, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding P5 000 or treble the value of the goods in question, whichever is the greater, and to imprisonment for two years, and the goods in question and any other goods contained in the same package as well as the package itself shall be liable to forfeiture.”

A BILL

—entitled—

An Act to provide for the establishment of the Botswana College of Agriculture.

Date of Assent:

Date of Commencement:

ENACTED by the Parliament of Botswana

1. This Act may be cited as the Botswana College of Agriculture Act, 1991. Short title

2. (1) There is hereby established the Botswana College of Agriculture, hereinafter referred to as "the College", which shall be a body corporate, with perpetual succession and a common seal, capable of suing and being sued in its corporate name. Establishment of College

(2) The College shall have power, for any purpose which the Governing Council considers is necessary or expedient for or in connexion with the exercise of its functions or the achievement of its objectives under this Act, to purchase or otherwise acquire any movable or immovable property, to sell, lease, mortgage or otherwise alienate or dispose of any such property, or to enter into contracts or other transactions and do and perform any other things or acts for or in connexion with the proper performance of its duties.

Functions
and objectives of College

3. (1) The objectives of the College shall be to provide education and training in the science and practice of agriculture, and such other allied and related subjects as the Governing Council may, from time to time, and subject to the provisions of section 7, decide.

(2) For the purpose of achieving its objectives the College may, subject to the provisions of section 7, —

- (a) establish such halls of residence, faculties, institutes, schools, departments or other academic units, whether in Gaborone or elsewhere, as the Governing Council may, from time to time, consider necessary or desirable;
- (b) establish professorships, lectureships and other posts, whether academic or administrative, and grant fellowships, bursaries, exhibitions, scholarships, prizes and certificates as the Governing Council may, from time to time, consider necessary or desirable;
- (c) conduct research on its own or in collaboration with other national or international organizations in the field of agriculture or related sciences;
- (d) arrange symposia, workshops, seminars, conferences or similar activities in the field of agriculture or related sciences, and take whatever steps the Governing Council considers appropriate to stimulate and promote interest in agricultural and rural development;
- (e) provide advisory, consultancy and other services for the benefit of government departments, organizations and individuals in the field of agriculture and related sciences;
- (f) perform such other functions as are conferred on the College by or under this Act or any other written law.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) and any other provision of this Act, the award of degrees and diplomas of the College shall be the responsibility of, and shall be made by, the University of Botswana.

Governing Council

4. (1) There shall be a Governing Council for the College, which shall consist of the following persons —

- (a) the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Agriculture, who shall be the chairman;
- (b) the Vice-Chancellor of the University of Botswana;
- (c) one person nominated by the Minister of Education;

- (d) one person nominated by the Minister of Finance and Development Planning;
- (e) the Dean of the Faculty of Science at the University of Botswana;
- (f) four persons appointed by the Minister of Agriculture from among persons who are not public servants but who are active in the agricultural sector;
- (g) one person representing the University of Botswana Council;
- (h) one person representing the University of Botswana Senate;
- (i) two persons elected by the teaching staff of the College from amongst themselves;
- (j) one dean elected from amongst themselves by all the deans of the faculties of the College;
- (k) one student representing the student body of the College; and
- (l) the Principal of the College.

(2) The conduct of proceedings of the Governing Council, the frequency of meetings, the election of an acting Chairman in the absence of the appointed Chairman, the voting rights of the Chairman and the various members of the Council, and the number of members to constitute a quorum at meetings of the Council, shall be as provided in Statutes enacted by the Council.

(3) The Governing Council shall have overall power of control over and superintendence of the College, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing shall have power to —

- (a) administer the properties of the College, both movable and immovable;
- (b) administer the funds and assets of the College;
- (c) signify the acts of the College by use of its official seal;
- (d) on behalf of the College, receive fees, grants, gifts and any other monies, and make disbursements to other persons or bodies of persons;
- (e) subject to the provisions of this Act, appoint, on such terms and conditions as it may determine, such academic staff and employees of the College as it considers necessary or expedient for the proper performance of the functions of the College;
- (f) subject to the provisions of section 7, formulate the academic policy of the College and devise courses of instruction, study and research leading to the granting of academic awards; and
- (g) subject to the provisions of section 7, do all such acts or things as may be provided for by or under this Act, or which in its opinion are necessary or expedient for the proper functioning of the College.

5. (1) The Minister shall, after consultation with the Governing Council, appoint the Principal of the College, who shall, subject to the general control of the Governing Council on matters of policy, be the academic and administrative head and chief disciplinary officer of the Appointment of Principal, and other officers of the College

College, the Vice-Principal, who shall act as Principal when the post of Principal is vacant or the Principal is absent or unable to act, and other senior officers of the College, on such terms as the Governing Council may determine.

(2) The Governing Council shall, from amongst the academic staff of the College, appoint deans for the various faculties and heads of the various academic departments into which the College is divided.

Boards of faculties and departments

6. The Governing Council may establish boards for each faculty and each academic department of the College, and determine the composition, powers and functions of such boards.

Association with University

7. (1) The College shall be an associate institution of the University of Botswana, and in respect of degrees, diplomas or other awards to be granted by the University, the University Senate shall be entirely responsible for regulating the conduct of examinations, the marking of papers and the granting of such degrees, diplomas or awards.

(2) In respect of any matters concerning degrees, diplomas or other awards to be granted by the University, decisions of the Governing Council in the exercise of any of its powers under section 3, section 4(3), section 5(2), section 6 or the enactment of statutes under section 11 shall be subject to the prior approval of the University.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 4, 5 and 6 and of any other provision of this Act, the Governing Council of the College shall obtain the approval of the University in respect of —

(a) the appointment of academic staff and of deans and heads of departments who teach courses, or are responsible for programmes leading to the award of degrees or diplomas; and

(b) the establishment of boards for each faculty or department which is responsible for programmes leading to the award of degrees or diplomas.

Accounts of College

8. (1) The Governing Council shall cause to be kept proper books of accounts and records of the College with respect to the assets and liabilities, the income and expenditure and other financial transactions of the College, and shall cause to be prepared for each financial year a balance sheet showing such details.

(2) Not later than six months after the close of each financial year the accounts and balance sheet in respect of that year shall be audited by an auditor appointed by the Governing Council.

(3) As soon as the accounts and balance sheet have been audited, and in any case not later than six months after the audit, the Governing Council shall submit to the Minister of Agriculture a copy of such audited accounts together with the auditors report.

Annual report

9. The Governing Council shall, within six months after the end of each financial year, submit to the Minister of Agriculture a report on the conduct of the business of the College for that year.

10. (1) The Governing Council may enact statutes for the better carrying out of the purposes and provisions of this Act, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing may make provision for — Statutes

- (a) regulating the appointment, conditions of service, termination of appointment and retirement benefits of the staff of the College;
  - (b) determining the persons authorized to sign contracts, cheques and other documents on behalf of the College, and otherwise regulating procedure in relation to transactions entered into by the College;
  - (c) determining the academic year of the College; and
  - (d) securing that the seal of the College is kept in proper custody and is used only by authority of the Governing Council.
- (2) A statute shall be taken to be enacted if, but only if —
- (a) a draft of the statute has been circulated to the members of the Governing Council at least 14 days before the meeting at which it is to be considered;
  - (b) after consideration by the meeting, the draft has been provisionally approved either without amendment or with amendments of which notice in writing was circulated to the members at least 3 days before the meeting;
  - (c) the statute as provisionally approved has been circulated to the members of the Governing Council, and, where in the opinion of the Council it affects academic matters, to the members of the University of Botswana Senate, at least 14 days before the meeting at which it is proposed to confirm the statute; and
  - (d) the statute is, at the meeting of the Governing Council, confirmed without amendment, or only with such amendments as give effect to a resolution of the Senate in respect of the statute as provisionally approved and —
    - (i) notice in writing of any such amendment has been circulated to the members of the Council at least three days before the meeting; and
    - (ii) the meeting is held not less than one month or more than six months after the meeting at which the statute was provisionally approved.

11. (1) The Botswana Agricultural College existing before the commencement of this Act is abolished. Transitional and saving

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, on the commencement of this Act —

- (a) all assets and facilities of the Botswana Agricultural College existing before the commencement of this Act shall be transferred to the Botswana College of Agriculture established by this Act;
- (b) all students currently at such College shall become students at the College established by this Act;

- (c) the budget for such College as approved under a Ministry of Agriculture appropriation and any supplementary budget shall be transferred to the College established by this Act;
  - (d) all staff of such College shall be seconded to the College established by this Act on the same terms and conditions, for one year, within which period they will be required to decide whether to remain as public servants or to transfer permanently to the College;
  - (e) the Ministry of Agriculture shall provide such services at Content Farm for the benefit of the College as were available to the College existing at the commencement of this Act, until such time as the College has established its own facilities.
- (3) Diplomas granted by the University of Botswana prior to the enactment of this Act shall be as valid as if granted under this Act.
