KGATLENG DISTRICT COUNCIL (REFUSE) BYE-
LAWS, 1992

(Published on 27th March, 1992)

ARRANGEMENT OF BYE-LAWS

BYE-LAW

1. Citation
2. Application
3. Interpretation
4. Charges for collection of refuse etc.
5. Removal of refuse from private premises
6. Accumulation of refuse
7. Deposit of refuse
8. Penalties

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 29 of the Local Government (District Councils) Act, the Kgatleng District Council, with the approval of the Minister of Local Government, Lands and Housing, hereby makes the following Bye-laws —

1. These Bye-laws may be cited as the Kgatleng District Council (Refuse) Bye-laws, 1992. Citation

2. These Bye-laws shall apply to the village areas specified in the Schedule to these Bye-laws and to such village areas as the Council may, by resolution, from time to time, specify: Application

Provided that no such resolution of the Council shall have force and effect unless 14 days prior notice of such resolution and the terms thereof has been communicated to the inhabitants of any village area affected or likely to be affected by the operation of such resolution.

3. In these Bye-laws, unless the context otherwise requires, — Interpretation
“Council” means the Kgatleng District Council;

“refuse” includes any filth, rubbish, trash, rubble, garbage, excrement, waste product from any source, derelict vehicles or tyres, and any matter which may be offensive, or a nuisance, or injurious or dangerous to health, or favours the breeding of flies or mosquitoes, or the harbouring of rodents;
“refuse dump” means any piece of land designated by the Council, in consultation with the land board concerned, for the disposal of refuse.

4. The Council may, by resolution, impose such charges in respect of the collection by it of refuse and the emptying of dustbins and septic tanks from or on institutional or private premises as it may, from time to time, determine. Charges for collection of refuse etc.

5. (1) The Council may, by notice in writing served on the owner or occupier of private premises, require him to remove from such premises, within three days after service of such notice, any refuse thereon. Removal of refuse from private premises

(2) If any owner or occupier of private premises on whom a written notice has been served in accordance with the provisions of sub-bye-law (1) fails to comply with the requirement to remove refuse stated in such notice, the Council may, by its employees or agents, enter upon the premises and remove the refuse therefrom, and may recover from such owner or occupier any expenses incurred in carrying out such removal.

Accumulation of refuse

6. No tenant or occupier of premises shall allow or permit any refuse to accumulate or remain on such premises so as to be offensive or constitute a nuisance to the public, or be or likely to be injurious or dangerous to health, or favour the breeding of flies or mosquitoes, or harbour rodents.

Deposit of refuse

7. (1) Any person who removes refuse from a village area as specified in accordance with the provisions of bye-law 2, shall deposit such refuse at a rubbish dump and at no other place.

(2) No person shall deposit any refuse in or near a public place:

Provided that the provisions of this sub-bye-law shall not apply to the deposit of refuse at a refuse dump, or in a receptacle for the deposit of refuse provided by the Council, or provided by the owner or occupier of private premises and approved by the Council.

(3) No person shall deposit any refuse in, or cause or permit any refuse to enter any river, stream, pool, spring, well, borehole, dam, catchment basin, canal or any source of water supply.

Penalties

8. (1) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of these Bye-laws shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, for a first offence, to a fine of P10 or in default of payment to imprisonment for one month, and for a second or subsequent offence to a fine of P25 and to imprisonment for three months:

Provided that where the offence is in respect of the provisions of sub-bye-law (3) of bye-law 7, the penalty for a first offence shall be a fine of P15 and in default of payment to imprisonment for six weeks, and for a second or subsequent offence shall be a fine of P60 and to imprisonment for six months.

(2) Where any person is convicted of an offence under bye-law 5, the court convicting him may, in addition to any penalty imposed, order such person to pay to the Council such expenses incurred by the Council in removing the refuse as may be assessed by the court.

4. Application for removal permit
5. Issue of removal permit
6. Refused application to be laid before Council
7. Period of validity of permit
8. Permit not transferable
9. Offences and penalties
10. Exceptions

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 36 of the Local Government (District Councils) Act, the Minister of Local Government, Lands and Housing hereby makes the following model Bye-laws —

1. These Bye-laws may be cited as the Natural Resources Protection (Model) Citation
Bye-laws, 1992.

2. In these Bye-laws, unless the context otherwise requires — Interpretation
“Council” means the District Council adopting these model Bye-laws;
“Council area” means the area under the jurisdiction of the Council concerned;
“firewood” includes any tree or any bush, or any part thereof, tree-pole, charcoal, or any solid natural substance commonly used as fuel;
“natural resource” includes any firewood, gravel, sand, soil, stones, thatching grass, veld product and river reeds;
“veld product” means any plant, root, fruit or tuber used either for consumption by humans or domestic animals or for medicinal or veterinary purposes.

3. No person shall remove any natural resource from the Council area except under and in accordance with the terms and conditions of a removal permit. Application for removal permit

4. (1) Any person who wishes to obtain a removal permit shall lodge a written application therefor with the Council Secretary in his capacity as Secretary of the Land Board, in such form as the Council Secretary may require. Removal permit required

(2) Every application under this bye-law shall clearly specify —

- (a) the kind of natural resource in respect of which the application is being made, and the quantity thereof that the applicant wishes to remove;
- (b) whether or not the applicant is resident in the Council area, and whether or not the natural resource is for use within the Council area; and
- (c) the purpose for which the natural resource is required.

(3) An application under this bye-law shall be in respect of one kind of natural resource only:

Provided that other applications for different natural resources may be lodged at the same time.

Issue of removal
permit

5. (1) Subject to the provisions of this bye-law, and after due consideration of an application made under bye-law 4, the Council Secretary shall issue a removal permit to the applicant on payment of such fee as shall be determined by the Council, with the approval of the Minister:

Provided that different fees may be determined in respect of different natural resources, and according to whether the natural resource is to be used within or without the Council area, whether the applicant is a contractor, or whether the natural resource is for the applicant's own use or for use by some other person, and whether or not such use by another person is for hire or reward.

(2) The Council Secretary shall not issue a removal permit in respect of any natural resource if the location of the place where it is to be used is not in Botswana.

(3) The Council Secretary shall not issue a removal permit which permits, or has the effect of permitting the removal of a quantity of firewood which exceeds 5 tons, or such other quantity that the Council, with the approval of the Minister, determines, or of any quantity of a natural resource which is in excess of that reasonably required for the purpose stated in the application.

(4) A removal permit may be issued subject to such terms and conditions as the Council Secretary may, in each case, determine, and which shall be clearly stated in the permit.

Refused
application
to be laid before

6. (1) Where a Council Secretary has refused to issue a removal permit in accordance with the provisions of bye-law 5, he shall lay such application, together with his reasons for refusing to issue a removal permit, before the next meeting of the Council following the date of such refusal.

(2) Where an application is laid before the Council in accordance with the provisions of this bye-law, the Council may, after due consideration, grant the application and direct the Council Secretary to issue a removal permit subject to such terms and conditions as the Council may determine, and which shall be clearly stated in the permit.

Period of validity of
permit

7. A removal permit shall be valid for such period as the Council or the Council Secretary, as the case may be, shall in each case determine, and which shall be clearly stated in the permit.

Permit not transferrable

8. A removal permit shall not be hired, ceded, transferred or made over to any other person in any way whatsoever.

Offences
and penalties

9. Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of these Bye-laws, or with any of the terms and conditions subject to which a removal permit is issued, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of P50 or in default thereof to imprisonment for three months, and in addition to any such penalty imposed or to which he is liable, may have any removal permit issued to him cancelled.

Exceptions

10. (1) The provisions of these Bye-laws shall not apply to Departments of the Government, or to contractors employed by the Government on public works projects to whom the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry concerned has issued an authorization in writing which is produced to the Council Secretary:

Provided that such contractor shall not thereby be entitled to remove any natural resource for any purpose other than the fulfilment of his contract with the Government.

(2) Where any contractor to whom such written authorization is issued removes any natural resource for any purpose other than the fulfilment of his contract with the Government, such contractor shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine equal to five times the market value of the natural resource so removed.
