I — DUKWI WELLFIELD EXTENSION AND RESOURCE EVALUATION PREQUALIFICATION

THE GOVERNMENT OF BOTSWANA through Department of Water Affairs intends to commission a consultancy for the extension of the Dukwi Wellfield and resources evaluation. The Wellfield is located to the North Eastern part of Botswana, along the Francistown-Nata Maun Road (130 km from Francistown). Dukwi Wellfield currently supplies Sowa Pan Project and Township, Nata and Dukwi Villages. It is the only source for the areas mentioned above and the Wellfield was never designed to supply all the present demand centres nor was the resources evaluated. The main components of the consultancy shall include the siting of exploration and 20 production boreholes and preparation of tender document for the drilling and test pumping, as well as drilling and test pumping supervision. It will also include quantification of the extractable resources under various abstraction scenarios using a computer based aquifer model.

Consultants interested in being considered for short listing for this project are invited to request pre-qualification documents including background information and instruction to consultants, from the Department of Water Affairs.

Address: Private Bag 0029, Gaborone Botswana.

- SCHEDULE

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 128 of the Road Traffic Act, the Minister of Works, Transport and Communications hereby makes the following Regulations —

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Road Traffic (Manufacturers and Suppliers of Number Plates) Regulations, 1992. Citation

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Trade and Liquor Act and the Industrial Development Act, 1988 no person shall manufacture or supply vehicle number plates unless he is registered with the Department of National Transport as such a manufacturer or supplier, as the case may be, and is in possession of a valid permit issued under the provisions of subregulation (3). Registration of manufacturers and suppliers of number plates

(2) An application to be registered as a manufacturer or supplier of vehicle number plates shall be made to the Department of National Transport at the Ministry of Works, Transport and Communications, in Form NTC 32A in the Schedule hereto, and accompanied by the fee specified in the form.

(3) After consideration of the application, and such further information as it considers necessary or desirable, the Department may, at its discretion register the applicant as a manufacturer or supplier of number plates, subject to such terms and conditions as it shall specify, and may issue a permit, in Form NTC 32 in the Schedule hereto, to such effect, valid for one year from its date of issue.

(4) Any such registration and permit shall be personal to the applicant and not transferable, and shall cease to be valid if the manufacturer or supplier ceases to carry on the business of number plate manufacturer or supplier.

(5) Any such registration and permit may be cancelled at any time if the manufacturer or supplier concerned is convicted of an offence under these Regulations.

(6) Any renewal of such permit shall be dealt with as an original application, but subject to such fee as may be specified on the form for renewals.

3. A registered manufacturer or supplier of vehicle number plates shall keep and maintain records of all such number plates manufactured or supplied by him, and of all persons to whom such plates are supplied, and shall make such records available for inspection, at any time, by any police officer or authorized representative of the Department. Records to be kept

4. (1) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of these Regulations shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of P500 and to imprisonment for six months. Offences

(2) Where any fee payable under these Regulations has not been paid, the court convicting the person responsible, whether or not any other penalty is imposed, may impose a fine of an amount equivalent to the amount of the unpaid fee, and the payment of such fine shall operate in satisfaction of any civil debt due under section 28 of the Road Traffic Act, and shall be disposed of in the same manner as the fee payable under these Regulations.
