Section VII Land Measurement

33 Now we would like to measure each of the crop and fallow fields that you have already mentioned.

Would you please show us the fields so that they can be measured.

(Visit each land area in the holding. Decide whether the layout accounts for the correct division of land areas into different fields depending on apparent differences in cropping - include fields of fallow land and make any necessary corrections on page before measuring the field. Make a detailed sketch and then measure each field using the directions in the Manual. Record your measurements on pages 7 onwards.)
