NATIONAL REGISTRATION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1993

(Published on 30th July, 1993)

MEMORANDUM

A draft of the above Bill, which it is proposed to present to the National Assembly, is set out below.

Under the existing provisions of section 12 of the National Registration Act, a new identity card is to be issued where the original has been lost, damaged or destroyed. The object of the Bill is to amend section 12 of the National Registration Act to provide for the issue of a duplicate identity card on payment of the prescribed fee where the original has been lost, damaged or destroyed.

D.N. MAGANG,

Ag. Minister of Labour and Home Affairs.

A BILL

—entitled—

An Act to amend the National Registration Act

Date of Assent:

Date of Commencement:

ENACTED by the Parliament of Botswana.

1. This Act may be cited as the National Registration (Amendment) Act, 1993.

Short title

2. The National Registration Act is hereby amended by substituting for the provisions of section 12 thereof, the following new provisions —

Amendment of section 12
of Act 01:02

"Duplicate
of identity
cards

12. (1) Where a district registrar, who is informed of the loss, damage or destruction of an identity card, is satisfied as to the loss, damage or destruction of the identity card, he may recommend to the Registrar of National Registration that the owner of the identity card should be issued with a duplicate of the identity card on payment of the prescribed fee.

(2) When a duplicate of an identity card has been issued, the Registrar shall inform all the district registrars and such other authorities as the Minister may by regulations prescribe, of the issue of the duplicate identity card as soon as may be practicable.

(3) Where an identity card which has been lost is subsequently found, the duplicate shall be returned by the owner to the Registrar of National Registration for cancellation.

(4) Any person who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding P250."
