Special Criminal Court Session — 1st November 1993 — 15th December 1993

CURRENTLY THERE ARE 59 murder cases pending before the High Court in Lobatse, and 25 in the High Court in Francistown. These are cases where indictments have already been filled. It appears there is in the pipeline 25 murder cases to be indicted before the High Court in Francistown, and possibly another 50 cases to be indicted before the High Court in Lobatse.

In the circumstances therefore, the Chief Justice, after consultation with the other judges, has decided that there should be a special criminal court session to deal with these murder cases commencing from 1st November, 1993 — 15th December 1993, both dates inclusive.

In the High Court — Lobatse, one judge will be assigned to deal with civil matters and urgent applications. The other four judges would be exclusively assigned to deal with the pending murder cases.

In the High Court — Francistown, the 2 judges would with effect from 1st November 1993 — 15th December 1993, deal with the pending murder cases in their courts, but will alternate on Fridays to deal with civil matters.

It is hoped that with the co-operation of the Attorney-General's Chambers, the attorneys and the public, these cases might be concluded, or at least substantial number of the cases would have been concluded before the next legal year in February, 1994.

W.G. GRANTE,
Registrar & Master.
