Bill No. 5 of 1995

JUDGES (MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS)(AMENDMENT)
BILL, 1995

(Published on 31st March, 1995)

MEMORANDUM

A draft of the above Bill, which it is proposed to present to the National Assembly, is set out below.

2. The purpose of this Bill is to bring into effect the recently announced eight per cent increase in salaries and allowances; and also to amend the provisions relating to the payment of salaries and allowances to the Chief Justice and puisne judges. The Bill also seeks to amend the provisions relating to the appointment of those judges to the Bench.

3. Under the existing provisions of the Judges (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1992 (No.13), the emoluments of the Chief Justice and judges of the High Court, as provided in the Act, consist of their salaries and allowances which are specified separately.

4. Clause 3, therefore, provides for the amendment of the provisions relating to the salaries and allowances of the Chief Justice and the judges contained in the Judges (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act to include in the salaries the allowances payable under the Act. This is to enhance the salaries payable to our judges of the superior courts. The distinction as drawn between salaries and allowances in the existing law does not serve any useful purpose.

5. The Clause also seeks to make provision for the appointment on contract of, and payment of a gratuity in lieu of a pension to, persons who are otherwise eligible to be appointed to the Bench on pensionable terms. The new section 5A, therefore provides that a gratuity may be paid in lieu of a pension to a judge entitled to be appointed on pensionable terms.
