BOTSWANA DEFENCE FORCE AMENDMENT BILL, 1997

(Published on 21st February, 1997)

MEMORANDUM

A draft of the above Bill, which it is intended to present to the National Assembly, is set out below.

The Bill proposes to amend section 73 of the Botswana Defence Force Act to enable the Commander to deal summarily with charges made against officers below the rank of Brigadier and providing that offences involving ranks from the rank of Brigadier would be remanded for trial by the High Court.

The proposed amendment has necessitated redefining appropriate superior authority in section 2 in respect of Lieutenant Colonels and Colonels. Thus it is proposed the appropriate superior authorities for a Lieutenant Colonel and Colonel should be officers of the ranks of Brigadier and Major General respectively.

Clause 4 proposes to amend section 74 to include detention as one of the punishments which a commanding officer may award summarily to non-commissioned officers and also to increase the period of detention from 28 days to 45 days.

Clause 5 and 6 are consequential amendments to the above.

P.H.K. KEDIKILWE,
Minister of Presidential Affairs and Public Administration.

Bill No. 3 of 1997

EXTRADITION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1997

(Published on 21st February, 1997)

MEMORANDUM

A draft of the above Bill, which it is intended to present to the National Assembly, is set out below.

The object of the Bill is to amend the Extradition Act (No. 18 of 1990) in order to fully implement the Commonwealth Scheme for the Rendition of Fugitive Offenders and so simplify the extradition process by obviating the need for an extradition agreement before the extradition of fugitive offenders can take place between Botswana and other Commonwealth countries.

Clause 3 of the Bill therefore enables the Minister to declare any Commonwealth country to be a designated country. The effect will be that the extradition of a fugitive offender to or from Botswana from a designated country and vice versa, will not be dependent upon the existence of a formal extradition treaty between Botswana and the designated country.

*Minister of Presidential Affairs
