Bill No. 6 of 1998

MOTOR VEHICLE ACCIDENT FUND BILL, 1998
(Published on 27th February, 1998)

A draft of the above bill, which it is proposed to present to the National Assembly, is set out below.

The purpose of the Bill is to replace the present Motor Vehicle Insurance Fund Act, which it will repeal. The new Act will retain most of the provisions of the old Act providing for the establishment of an autonomous Fund with full legal capacity, for the purpose of providing third party insurance cover for the persons who suffer as a result of a motor vehicle accident.

The Fund will operate as an administrative body under the direction of a Board and will be funded by way of a fuel levy. The monies of the Fund will be employed in compensating innocent victims of vehicle accidents in respect of loss and damage occasioned in consequence of injury or death caused by the negligent driving of vehicles.

The Act prescribes the procedure for claiming on the Fund and sets out the limitations on the amount claimable, dependent on the circumstances and class of claimant. It also sets out those circumstances where liability is excluded.

Vice-President and Minister of Finance and Development Planning.

(10) The income and revenues of the Fund shall be exempt from income tax.

12. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, and any conditions which may be prescribed relating to the submission of, investigation of, and processing of claims, the Fund shall be obliged to compensate any person (in this Act referred to as "the third party") in an amount that reasonably equates to the value of any loss or damage which he may suffer as a result of —

- (a) bodily injury to any person including himself; or
- (b) the death of any person,

directly caused by the negligent driving of a vehicle in a vehicle accident at any place in Botswana, except to the extent that such injury or death was occasioned in consequence of such third party's own negligence, and except where the accident occurs on any road, place or area to which the general public has no normal or temporary right of access:

Provided that —

Provided that where the claimant is a minor the Fund may proceed in terms of subsections (1) (b) and (2) of section 14 in respect of costs to be incurred after attainment of the age of majority;

(b) includes a claim for future loss of income or support, the loss shall be projected over the anticipated period of loss and the Fund may furnish the third party concerned with an undertaking to pay such amount as claimed, proved or agreed prior to such undertaking and shall thereafter pay the amount due in respect thereof by instalments payable monthly or yearly in accordance with such projection.

(5) Where a third party is entitled to compensation in terms of this section, and has incurred costs in respect of accommodation for himself or the injured or deceased party in a hospital, or has incurred the costs of treatment, the rendering of a service, or goods supplied, the person providing such accommodation, treatment, service or goods may claim the amount due therefor directly from the Fund on such form as may be prescribed, and any such claim shall be subject, mutatis mutandis, to the provisions applicable to any claim of the third party concerned.

(b) any amounts provided for the care and treatment of such minor; and

(c) any amounts representing future loss of earnings or support, shall be maintained, by the Fund, in an interest bearing bank account or shall otherwise be invested until such minor attains the age of majority, whereupon —

(i) the sums due, in terms of paragraph (a) of this subsection, and any interest accrued thereon, shall accrue to his estate, and

(ii) the remainder of the said amounts so provided in terms of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection, and any interest accrued thereon, shall accrue and revert to the Fund, and the Fund shall thereupon determine whether such amounts are still needed for the purposes of that paragraph, and, if necessary, pay over such remainder or portion thereof as needed, to him:

Provided that in the event of such minor failing to attain the age of majority, the remainder of the amounts provided in terms of paragraph (b) and the amount fixed in terms of paragraph (c) of this subsection, and any interest accrued thereon, shall accrue and revert to the Fund.

(2) The bank account containing the amounts, together with accrued interest thereon, provided and banked in terms of paragraph (b) of subsection (1), shall be operated solely by the Fund for the purposes of meeting expenses necessarily incurred in the care, treatment and support of the minor concerned, and any balance shall constitute the remainder stipulated in subsection (1) (ii) and the proviso thereto, and shall be so dealt with.

(3) For the purposes of paragraphs (a) and (i) of subsection (1), the word “sum” shall mean such amount as constitutes compensation for pain and suffering, disablement, disfigurement and loss of amenities.

15. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, and notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the compensation payable by the Fund in respect of a person injured or killed in a vehicle accident shall be calculated in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) The compensation payable by the Fund in respect of a vehicle accident caused solely by the negligence of the driver or owner of the vehicle in which the person or persons killed or injured was conveyed as a passenger shall not exceed P36 000 in respect of each such person or persons, irrespective of the number of claimants.

(3) Where the vehicle accident involves negligence or fault on the part of the driver or owner of more than one vehicle, and the loss and damage to any passenger, or person claiming in consequence of the injury to or death of such passenger, exceeds P36 000 in value, the liability of the Fund to pay compensation shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula —

- (a) it shall first be assumed that the whole loss and damage caused to such a person is quantified at Pula 36 000, which figure shall then be reduced to a figure which, in relation to the sum or Pula 36 000, proportionally represents the contribution made to such cause by the negligence of the driver or owner of the vehicle in which such passenger was conveyed; and
- (b) the resultant figure shall then be increased by such sum as proportionally represents the contribution made by the negligence of the driver or owner of the other vehicle to the whole of the loss and damage suffered:

Provided that where the loss or damage suffered by the person in terms of this paragraph exceeds Pula 50 000 the amount payable by the Fund shall not, subject to the other provisions of this section, be reduced below Pula 50 000.

(4) The compensation payable by the Fund in respect of the injury or death of a person in a vehicle accident shall be reduced in direct proportion to the contribution made by such person to the vehicle accident or to his own injury or death.

(5) The compensation otherwise payable by the Fund in respect of a driver of a motor vehicle involved in a vehicle accident shall be reduced by fifty percent where it is proved that the blood alcohol level of such driver exceeded eighty milligrams of alcohol per one hundred millilitres of blood within six hours after the accident in question.

(6) The compensation otherwise payable by the Fund in respect of a person injured or killed in a vehicle accident shall be reduced by twenty five percent, where such person was, in the circumstances stated —

- (a) at the time of the accident, not utilising the facility of a seat belt fitted to the vehicle for such purpose; or
- (b) being conveyed otherwise than in or on a properly constructed seat affixed permanently to the vehicle for that purpose.

(7) The compensation otherwise payable by the Fund to the driver of a vehicle, or his dependents, shall be reduced by fifty percent where the said driver was in unlawful possession or use of the vehicle, or where the vehicle was defective irrespective of whether or not such possession, use or defect contributed to the cause of the vehicle accident in question, and the same reduction shall apply to any passenger, in the vehicle, or his dependents, if it is proved that he knew or ought reasonably to have known of such unlawful possession or such defect.

(8) The compensation that the Fund is required to pay in respect of medical expenses on any claim shall not exceed such sum, or sums, as is or are currently prescribed and generally chargeable in terms of any accepted formal or informal tariff used in the medical profession in Botswana or South Africa.

(9) The compensation payable by the Fund to any person, including a dependent, in respect of any vehicle accident shall, where such person is entitled to be compensated or paid in terms of any workman's compensation, industrial law, or employment contract, be limited to such sum as represents the difference, if any, between the amount payable in terms of such entitlement and the amount otherwise payable in terms of this Act.

(10) The compensation payable by the Fund to any person in respect of any medical expenses or costs shall, where such person is entitled to be compensated or paid in terms of any medical aid scheme or contract be limited to such sum as represents the difference, if any, between the amount payable in terms of such entitlement and the amount otherwise payable in terms of this Act.

(11) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, the amount of compensation payable by the Fund in respect of any one vehicle accident shall be limited to a total of Pula 1 000 000, irrespective of the number of claimants, where such accident took place within the confines of, or bordering on the confines of, an aerodrome, airfield or airstrip, and involves damage to any aircraft.

(12) The compensation payable by the Fund in respect of any funeral, including burial, shall be limited to such sum as may be prescribed.

(a) in respect of a claim by any one injured party, to the sum of Pula 1 000 000.

(b) in respect of a claim by any dependent of a person injured or killed, to the sum of Pula 300 000.

(14) The limitations specified in this section shall be exclusive of any order for costs made by a court, or the costs of obtaining any medico-legal report.

16. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law and the provisions of sections 12, 13, 14 and 15, the Fund shall not be required to pay compensation —

(a) with the exception of the reimbursement of funeral expenses in terms of the proviso to section 12(1), where, but for the provisions of this Act, no right to compensation would have accrued to the claimant;

(b) to any third party, unless the claim has been instituted or prosecuted by such third party personally, or on behalf of him by —

- (f) where it is proved that the driver of a vehicle involved in a vehicle accident was under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs to the extent of being incapable of having proper control of such vehicle, in respect of any loss or damage to such driver, or in respect of any loss or damage to any passenger of such vehicle, where such passenger, not being a minor, was aware of, or ought reasonably to have been aware of, the condition of the driver;
- (g) in respect of any claim by a driver of a vehicle, or by a dependent of such driver, in the absence of satisfactory proof that the vehicle accident in question was reported to the police within the period prescribed in the Road Traffic Act for the reporting of vehicle accidents, or was reported in terms of section 18 of this Act, unless it is proved that the failure to so report was due to incapacity on the part of the driver as a result of the accident.
