CONSTITUTION OF BOTSWANA

Authorisation to Exercise Functions of Office of the President

TO: THE HONOURABLE DANIEL KEATAMETSE KWELAGOBÉ M.P., AND MINISTER OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT, LANDS AND HOUSING

WHEREAS it is provided by section 36 (1) of the Constitution that whenever the President is absent from Botswana or considers it desirable so to do by reason of illness or any other cause he may, by directions in writing, authorise the Vice-President or in the absence of the Vice-President, a Minister, to discharge such of the functions of the Office of the President as he may specify, and the person so authorised may discharge those functions until the President's return to Botswana or the revocation of such authorisation, as the case may be;

AND WHEREAS there is no Vice-President;

AND WHEREAS I intend to be absent from Botswana from the 7th June, 1998 and I consider it desirable to issue directions as aforesaid;

NOW THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers vested in me as aforesaid I authorise you, DANIEL KEATAMETSE KWELAGOBÉ, in your capacity as Minister of Local Government, Lands and Housing, to discharge with effect from the 7th June, 1998 all the functions of the Office of the President, except —

- (a) the power to dissolve Parliament in accordance with the provisions of section 91 of the Constitution;
- (b) the power to appoint to the office of the Minister or Assistant Minister in accordance with the provisions of section 42 of the Constitution;

Provided, however, that you can appoint the present Ministers or Assistant Ministers to act in place of any Minister who is otherwise not available;

- (c) the power to remove a Minister or Assistant Minister from office in accordance with the provision of section 43 of the Constitution;

until my return to Botswana or this authority is revoked by me whichever happens first.

GIVEN under my hand and the Public Seal at Gaborone this 5th day of June, 1998.

F.G. MOGAE,
President.

I.S. KIRBY,
Custodian of the Public Seal.

A BILL
—entitled—

An Act to provide for the registration of engineers and for purposes connected therewith.

Date of Assent:

Date of Commencement:

ENACTED by the Parliament of Botswana

PART I — Preliminary

Short title
Interpretation

1. This Act may be cited as the Engineers Registration Act, 1998.
2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires - “Board” means the Engineers Registration Board established by section 3;
“Minister” means the Minister responsible for administering this Act;
“Register” means the register of engineers kept in accordance with section 5(2), and includes all or any particular parts thereof as the context so permits or implies;
“Registered Engineer” means a person whose name is for the time being entered in the register as a registered engineer;
“Registrar” means the Registrar of the Board appointed in accordance with section 5(1).

PART II — The Engineers Registration Board

Establishment of the Engineers’
Registration
Board

3. (1) There is hereby established a Board, to be known as the Engineers’ Registration Board, which shall have responsibility for regulating the activities and conduct of registered engineers in accordance with the functions and powers conferred upon it by this Act.
- (2) The Board shall —
 - (a) be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal;
 - (b) in its corporate name be capable of suing and being sued;
 - (c) for and in connexion with the purposes of this Act, be capable of acquiring, holding and disposing of movable and immovable property in its corporate name; and
 - (d) generally have such powers as are necessary for the proper exercise for its functions under this Act.

(3) The provisions of the Schedule shall have effect as to the constitution and proceedings of the Board and otherwise in relation to the Board.

4. No member of the Board shall be personally liable for any act or omission of the Board done or omitted in good faith in the course of carrying out the responsibilities and functions of, or exercising the powers conferred upon, the Board.

Members
not to be liable

PART III — The Registrar and the Registry

5. (1) The Minister shall appoint a Registrar of the Board, who may be a public officer, and who shall hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of his appointment.

Appointment
of Registrar and keeping of engineers'
register

(2) The Registrar shall keep and maintain a register in which the name of every person entitled to have his name entered therein shall be entered as soon as is practicable after his being accepted by the Board for registration, showing against his name —

(a) the date of entry;

(b) his address;

(c) his qualifications;

(d) the engineering discipline in which he is registered, that is to say, whether as civil engineer, mechanical engineer, electrical engineer, or as the case may require; and

(e) such other particulars as the Board may from time to time direct.

(3) All changes in the particulars registered under subsection (2) shall be entered in the register by the Registrar.

6. Any person may inspect the register and any documents relating to any entry therein, and may obtain from the Registrar a copy of or an extract from the register or any such document, on payment of the prescribed fee.

Inspection of register

7. (1) In any legal proceedings, a paper purporting to be a copy of or an extract from the register or any document kept by the Registrar, and purporting to be certified by the Registrar to be a true copy or extract thereof, shall be admissible as prima facie evidence of the contents of the register or such document.

Proof of documents

(2) The Registrar shall not, in any legal proceedings to which he is not a party, be compellable —

(a) to produce the register or any document kept or published by him, if its contents can be proved under subsection (1); or

(b) to appear as a witness to prove any entry in the register, any matter recorded in the register, or any such document, unless the court for special cause so orders.

PART IV — *Registration*Qualifications for registration

8. (1) Subject to this Act, a person shall be entitled, on making an application to the Board in the prescribed form obtainable from the Registrar upon request, and on payment to the Board of the prescribed fee, to be registered under this Act and to have his name entered in the register as a registered engineer if he is —

- (a) a member of an institution of engineers, the membership of which is recognised by the Board as furnishing a sufficient guarantee of the required academic knowledge of, and practical experience in, engineering; or
- (b) a person who is the holder of a degree, diploma or licence of a university or school of engineering which is recognised by the Board as furnishing sufficient evidence of an adequate academic training in engineering; and
- (c) in the opinion of the Board a fit and proper person to be registered as an engineer.

Temporary
registration

9. (1) Where a person satisfies the Board —

- (a) that he is not ordinarily resident in Botswana;
- (b) that he is or intends to be present in Botswana in the capacity of an engineer for the express purpose of carrying out specific work for which he has been engaged; and
- (c) that he is, or immediately before entering Botswana was, in practice as an engineer in such a capacity as to satisfy the Board of his fitness to serve the public as a registered engineer, the Board may, as it thinks fit, direct that such person shall be registered either for a period not exceeding one year or for the duration of any specific work.

(2) An application for registration under this section shall be on the prescribed form, obtainable from the Registrar upon request, and accompanied by the prescribed fee, and the Board shall require an applicant to produce documentary evidence of his work or employment immediately prior to his entering Botswana, and may require him to appear before it for the purpose of considering his application.

(3) The registration of a person under this section shall subsist only for a period not exceeding one year, or for the duration of the work, as specified by the Board, and the decision of the Board as to whether or not the work has terminated shall be conclusive.

(4) A person registered under this section shall, in relation to the period or the work specified, and to things done or omitted in respect thereof, be treated as registered under this Act but in relation to other matters shall be treated as not so registered.

10. (1) The Board may at any time direct that the name of a person be removed from the register where such person has —

Power to remove from and correct
register

- (a) failed to respond within a period of six months from the date of a request sent by the Registrar by prepaid registered letter to the address appearing in the register against his name, asking him to notify the Registrar of his current address; or
- (b) requested that his name be removed from the register, in which case such person may be required to satisfy the Board by affidavit lodged with the Registrar that no criminal proceedings, or proceedings under section 12, are being or are likely to be taken against him; or
- (c) been found by the Board to be guilty of such misconduct as is described in section 12.

(2) The Registrar shall remove from the register the name of every person who dies, and shall remove from the register any entry which has been incorrectly or fraudulently made:

Provided that where an allegation of fraud or mistake has been made the Registrar shall give the person involved the opportunity to answer that allegation in writing before he so acts.

(3) Except in the circumstances specified in subsection (1)(a) and in subsection (2), the removal of a person's name from the register shall be notified by the Registrar to the person concerned, by prepaid registered letter addressed to the address appearing in the register against his name immediately before the removal, and the Registrar shall give that person the opportunity of being heard before he effects such removal.

(4) Subject to the provisions of section 9, a person whose name has been removed from the register shall, from the date of such removal, cease to be registered for the purposes of this Act.

11. (1) Where the name of any person has been removed from the register under section 10, the name of that person shall not again be entered in the register except by direction of the Board.

Restoration to the register

(2) Where the name of any person has been removed from the register, or the registration of any person has been suspended in terms of section 12 (1) (b), the Board may, either of its own motion, or on the application of the person concerned made in the prescribed manner, and in either case after holding such inquiry as the Board thinks fit, direct that —

- (a) the name of that person be restored to the register; or
- (b) the suspension of the registration of that person be terminated.

(3) A direction given by the Board under subsection (2) may include provision for the date upon which restoration to the register or the termination of a suspension of registration shall take effect, and for the payment by the person concerned of such fee, not exceeding the fee payable on an application for registration, as the Board may determine.

Powers to suspend
registration
etc.

12. If a registered engineer is convicted of an offence under this Act or of an offence of which dishonesty is an element, or is, after due inquiry held by the Board, found to have been guilty of an act or omission amounting to improper or disgraceful conduct in a professional respect, the Board may —

- (a) caution or censure such registered engineer;
- (b) direct that, during such period as the Board may specify, his registration shall not have effect; or
- (c) direct that his name be removed from the register.

Procedure at inquiry

13. (1) Upon any inquiry held by the Board under this Act, the person whose conduct is being inquired into shall be entitled to a hearing or to be represented by a legal representative.

(2) For the purposes of proceedings at any inquiry held by it, the Board shall have power to —

- (a) to administer oaths;
- (b) to summon persons to attend and give evidence; and
- (c) to order the production of documents and evidence.

(3) All summonses and orders issued under the hand of the chairman or vice-chairman of the Board shall be deemed to be issued by the Board.

(4) The chairman, or in his absence the vice-chairman, of the Board shall record or cause to be recorded a summary of any oral evidence given at an inquiry held by the Board.

(5) Subject to this section and any regulations made under section 21, the Board shall have power to regulate its own procedure at an inquiry held under this section.

(6) For the purposes of section 123 of the Penal Code, an inquiry held by the Board shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding.

Failure to obey summons and refusal to give evidence

14. Any person upon whom a summons or order issued under section 13 has been served, who refuses or fails without sufficient cause to attend at the time and place mentioned therein, or refuses without sufficient cause to answer fully and satisfactorily to the best of his knowledge and belief all questions put to him by or with the concurrence of the Board, or refuses or omits without sufficient cause to produce any documents in his possession or under his control which are specified in the order, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding P5000.00:

Provided that every person giving evidence before the Board shall, in respect of any evidence given by him or any document produced by him, be entitled to all the privileges to which he would be entitled as a witness before the High Court.

Personal liability of engineers
employed by Government

15. No act or thing done by any person employed as an engineer by the Government shall, if the act or thing was done in good faith for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act, subject that person to any liability, action, claim or demand.

16. (1) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Board to refuse to register his name, to suspend the registration of his name, or to refuse to restore his name to the register, may appeal to the High court against the decision of the Board.

Appeals

(2) Any person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Board refusing to remove the name of a registered engineer from the register may appeal to the High court against that decision.

(3) The Board may appear as respondent and be heard on any appeal against its decision and, for the purpose of enabling directions to be given as to the costs of any such appeal, the Board shall be deemed to be a party thereto, whether or not it appears at the hearing of the appeal.

17. Every person whose name has been entered in the register as a registered engineer shall, so long as his name remains in the register as a registered engineer, be entitled to adopt and use the style and title "Registered Engineer", or such contraction thereof as the Board may approve, and to offer his services to the public for gain or reward or by way of trade in the engineering discipline in which he is registered.

Effect of registration

18. (1) Any person who, not being a registered engineer —

- (a) falsely pretends to be such;
- (b) uses the style or title "Registered Engineer" in describing his occupation or his business, or any other name, style, title or description implying, whether in itself or in the circumstances in which it is used, that such person is a registered engineer; or
- (c) holds himself out, whether directly or by implication, to be a registered engineer,

Restrictions on use of titles and claim to qualifications by non-registered person etc.

shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding P25,000.00 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

(2) Any person who being registered under this Act in one or more disciplines, pretends to be, or acts as if he was, registered in another discipline, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding P25,000.00 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

19. Any person who —

- (a) fraudulently makes, or causes or permits to be made, any false or incorrect entry in the register or any copy thereof;
- (b) fraudulently procures or attempts to procure for himself or for any other person to be registered; or
- (c) knowingly and wilfully makes any statement which is false in any material particular, or which is misleading, with a view to gaining any advantage, concession or privilege under this Act, whether for himself or for any other person, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding P25,000.00 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

Dishonest practices

20. (1) No person other than an engineer employed by the Government or such other employer as the Minister may by notice in the Gazette exempt shall practice as an engineer in any year unless he is in possession of a practicing certificate for that year issued by the Board in such form as may be prescribed entitling him to practice in the capacity or capacities specified in the form.

Practising certificate for engineers

(2) An application by an engineer for a practising certificate shall be made to the Board in such form as may be determined by the Board stating the name and place of business of the applicant and the date of registration as an engineer, which application shall be signed by the applicant or his duly authorized agent.

(3) There shall be paid to the Board in respect of each practicing certificate to be issued, such annual practicing fee as may be prescribed.

(4) Every practicing certificate issued shall have effect from the date on which it is issued and shall expire at the end of 31st December next after it is issued:

Provided that where the name of any engineer is removed from or struck off the roll, the practising certificate of that engineer shall expire forthwith.

(5) If any engineer fails to obtain a practising certificate for any year, the Board shall notify such engineer of the provisions of this section by means of a registered letter posted to him at his last known address, and if, within 90 days of the posting of such letter the engineer has not obtained such certificate, the Board shall remove the name of such engineer from the roll.

(6) Every engineer who has been issued with a practising certificate shall display that certificate in a conspicuous place at his place of business.

(7) Any person who has not been issued with a practising certificate or whose practising certificate has not been renewed shall, if he practices without such certificate, be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding P15 000.00.

Regulations

21. The Minister may, after consultation with Board, make regulations, generally for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, any such regulations may provide for —

- (a) the conduct of the business of the Board and the procedure to be followed by the Board in any inquiry under this Act;
- (b) the duties of the Registrar;
- (c) the issue of certificates of registration;
- (d) the fees to be paid for anything which is to be, or may be, done under this Act;
- (e) the forms to be used under this Act;
- (f) the exemption of any persons or class of persons from all or any of the provisions of this Act, provided they comply with such conditions as may be prescribed; and
- (g) prescribing anything which under this Act is to be, or may be prescribed.

SCHEDULE

1. (1) The Board shall consist of seven members who shall be persons eligible for registration under this Act and resident in Botswana.

Membership
of Board

(2) The members of the Board shall be –

- (a) three persons appointed by the Minister, of whom not more than two shall be in the service of the Government; and
- (b) the President for the time being of the Botswana Institution of Engineers; and
- (c) three persons appointed by the Botswana Institute of Engineers, of whom at least two shall be from the private sector.

2. (1) Every year one of the members of the Board in the service of the Government and one of the members not being in the service of the Government shall retire and the member to retire in each case shall be the one who has been in office longest; and where two or more members have been in office for the same length of time, in the absence of mutual agreement the member to retire shall be chosen by ballot.

Tenure of office of Board member

(2) A member may resign by giving to the Minister notice in writing of his intention to do so.

(3) Retiring members shall be eligible for reappointment, subject to the recommendation of the Board, and provided that he shall not have served for more than 7 consecutive years.

(4) Casual vacancies shall be filled as they arise, and for the purpose of subparagraph (1) a member appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall be treated as if he were the member he was appointed to replace.

3. (1) Members of the Board shall, at their first meeting, elect from among their number a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Board.

Election of chairman and vice-chairman
of Board

(2) The chairman and the vice-chairman shall each hold office for a period of one year from the date of his election, and may offer themselves for re-election.

(3) In the absence of the chairman, or in the event of his in-capacity from illness or any other cause, the functions of the chairman shall be performed by the vice-chairman, and if the latter is also absent the members of the Board shall elect from among their number, someone to perform the functions of Chairman.

4. (1) The chairman of the Board shall convene ordinary meetings of the Board at least every quarter, and shall appoint a suitable time, place and date for the holding of each such meeting.

Meetings of the Board

(2) At least seven days notice shall be given of any meeting of the Board except in the case of emergency.

(3) The chairman of the Board may convene a special meeting of the Board at any time, and shall cause a special meeting of the Board to be held within twenty-one days after receiving a written request to do so signed by not fewer than three members of the Board.

5. (1) A simple majority of members of the Board shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board.

Quorum and voting
at meetings

(2) All acts, matters and things authorized to be done by the Board shall be decided by resolution of the majority of members at meetings of the Board at which a quorum is present.

(3) Every member of the Board shall have one vote, and in the event of an equality of votes the person presiding shall have a second or casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote.

(4) Notwithstanding subparagraph (2), where the chairman so directs, a decision may be made by the Board without a meeting by circulation of the relevant papers to all the members, and by the expression in writing of their views, but any member may require that such a decision shall be deferred for consideration at a meeting of the Board.

Vacancies in
Board

6. The validity of any proceedings of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy among the membership, or by any defect in the appointment of a member.

Procedures at meeting

7. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Schedule and to any regulations made under section 21 of the Act, the Board may regulate its own procedure.

(2) Where any question of procedure arises at any meeting of the Board, it shall be decided by the person presiding at that meeting, and such decision shall be final.

Seal of the Board and authentication

8. (1) The seal of the Board shall not be affixed to any instrument except in the presence of the chairman, or the vice-chairman, and of one other member of the Board.

(2) Any document of the Board not required by law to be under seal shall be sufficiently authenticated by the chairman or the vice-chairman of the Board, or by the Registrar.

Duties of Registrar

9. (1) The Registrar shall have custody of the common seal of the Board.

(2) The Registrar shall attend all meetings of the Board and, subject to the provisions of section 13(4) of the Act, shall keep minutes of such meetings.

(3) The minutes of the meetings of the Board shall be signed by the person presiding at such meeting and shall be confirmed by the Board at its next meeting.

Accounts of the Board

10. (1) The Board shall keep or cause to be kept proper books and other records of its accounts, which shall be audited annually in such manner as the Minister may direct.

(2) No disbursements from the funds of the Board shall be made without the general or special authorization of the Board.

(3) All monies received on account of the Board shall be paid into an account kept in the name of the Board at such bank as the Minister shall direct, and all cheques drawn on such account shall be signed by the chairman and the vice-chairman of the Board.

(4) Any accumulated funds of the Board may be placed on deposit at a bank, or invested in such manner as the Board may determine.

11. Any reasonable travel or subsistence expenses incurred by a member of the Board in attending meetings of the Board or in undertaking any journey on the business of the Board, duly authorized by resolution of the Board, shall be reimbursed to such member out of the funds of the Board.

Travel and subsistence expenses
of Board
members

12. (1) Every application for registration shall, so far as is practicable, be brought before the Board at its first meeting after the receipt of the application, and the Board may consider such application or refer it to a subcommittee, whose report thereon shall be considered at the next meeting of the Board thereafter.

Application for
registration

(2) The Board may require an applicant for registration to furnish such further information, or evidence of eligibility for registration, as it may think fit, and may require the applicant to attend personally before the Board or a subcommittee thereof at his own expense, and the Board may refuse to consider the application of any person who fails to comply with a requirement made under this paragraph.

(3) The decision of the Board upon an application for registration shall be communicated to the applicant by the Registrar by letter sent to the address stated in the application.

13. (1) Upon the completion of the entry of the name of a person in the register, a certificate of registration shall be prepared under the seal of the Board and such certificate (which shall nevertheless remain the property of the Board) shall be delivered to the person concerned.

Certificates of registration

(2) Where the name of any person is removed from the register, or the Board has directed that the registration shall not have effect for a specified period, the certificate of registration shall forthwith be delivered up to the Registrar by the person to whom it was issued or, if such person has died, by his personal representative.

(3) Where a certificate of registration is delivered up under paragraph (2) the Registrar shall —

- (a) in the case of suspension of registration, hold the certificate until the expiration of the period of suspension, and thereafter return it to the person concerned;
- (b) in the case of removal of a name from the register otherwise than on the death of the person concerned, cancel the certificate; or
- (c) in the case of a deceased person, endorse the certificate with a note of the death, and thereafter return it to the person by whom it was delivered up.

(4) Where the Registrar is satisfied that a registration certificate has been lost, mutilated or destroyed he may, upon payment of the prescribed fee, furnish a duplicate of the certificate to the person to whom the original certificate was issued.

(5) Any person who fails to deliver up a certificate as required by paragraph 14 (2) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to pay a fine not exceeding P5000.00.

Appointment
of committees
etc.

14. (1) The Board may appoint committees and subcommittees to consider such matters or to perform such duties as it may direct.

(2) Every committee and subcommittee appointed under this paragraph shall consist of members of the Board together with such other persons as the Board, or the committee or subcommittee concerned, with the approval of the Board, may co-opt.

Supervision of public
standpipe

Use of water
from public standpipe

Use of water
by persons other than occupiers

4. The Council Secretary may, in writing, from time to time authorise any officer or employee of the District Council to inspect and supervise the use of public standpipes.

5. Subject to the provisions of bye-law 6, water from a public standpipe shall be available for use by occupiers of the designated area in which it is situated, or to persons so authorized in writing by the Council.

6. (1) Except with the written permission of the Council, or in an emergency, water shall not be drawn from a public standpipe for use outside the designated area in which it is located.

(2) An occupier in a designated area shall not supply water from a public standpipe in such area to any person not entitled thereto, for use outside the designated area, except —

(a) for immediate personal consumption within the limits as may be specified by the Council;

(b) in an emergency;

or

(c) as may be permitted in writing by the Council.

(3) A person who is not an occupier of the designated area, may, without further authorization, draw water not exceeding 800 litres in any one day, for immediate personal consumption within the designated area, and such water shall only be drawn from an over head standpipe.

(4) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this bye-law shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding P 100 or in default of payment thereof to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month.

7. (1) Public standpipe water shall not be used for any purpose other than for domestic purposes, or in an emergency, or as may be specified, in writing, by the Council.

(2) The Council may, from time to time, —

(a) limit the quantity of water which may be drawn from a particular standpipe;

(b) by notice in the Gazette and in a newspaper circulating in the country, prohibit the use of water for any specific purpose, in any specified area within the District Council; or

(c) by written notice to occupiers, prohibit the use of public standpipe water for such purpose or purposes as may be specified in the notice.

(3) Any person who uses public standpipe water for any purpose contrary to the provisions of any notice issued by the District Council under sub-bye-law (2), shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding P200, and in default of payment thereof to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two months, and such fine or imprisonment shall be without prejudice to the right of the District Council to recover the charges for water improperly used.

8. Without prejudice to the right of recovery of any money due to it, the Council may turn off, or curtail, the supply of public standpipe water to any designated area where —

(a) the occupiers, or any of them, have failed to pay any service levy, or failed to comply with any provision of these Bye-laws with which it is their duty to comply;

(b) the repair of, maintenance to or extension of the water system is required; or

(c) a general water supply shortage occurs in the area.

Use of public
standpipes

Withholding of supply
of public
standpipe
water

9. (1) An authorized officer may, from time to time, inspect public standpipes for the purpose of detecting unauthorized connexions or attachments, or the waste or misuse of water, and shall generally supervise the proper use of such standpipes.

Inspection of standpipes

(2) Where an authorized officer finds an unauthorized connexion or attachment to a public standpipe he —

- (a) shall immediately remove it or cause it to be removed; and
- (b) may either return the unauthorized connexion or attachment to the owner together with a stern written warning, or proceed to have the owner prosecuted under sub-bye-law (3).

(3) Any person found to have made an unauthorised connection or attachment may be, and shall be for a second or subsequent transgression, prosecuted and upon conviction shall be liable to have the unauthorised connection confiscated and to a fine not exceeding P200 or in default of payment thereof to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two months.

(4) Any person who hinders, obstructs or uses abusive or insulting language towards an authorised officer in the performance of his duties under these Bye-laws shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding P200 and in default of payment thereof to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two months.

10. Any person who wilfully or negligently wastes or misuses water from a public standpipe shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of P 150.

Misuse of water

11. (1) Any person who tampers with or wilfully or negligently causes damage to a public standpipe, or to any appliance or equipment connected therewith, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding P 300 or in default of payment thereof to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months.

Damage to public
standpipe

(2) The imposition of a fine or imprisonment in terms of sub-bye-law (1) shall be without prejudice to the right of the District Council to recover from the offender the cost of any repair or replacement arising from the damage to the public standpipe concerned.

12. Any person who pollutes or causes the pollution of any public standpipe water, or causes or allows any liquid, gas or other matter to enter any fitting connected therewith, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding P 200 or in default of payment thereof to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two months.

Prohibition of pollution
