CONSTITUTION OF BOTSWANA

Authorization to Exercise Functions of Office of the President

TO: THE HONOURABLE SERETSE KHAMA IAN KHAMA M.P., VICE-PRESIDENT AND MINISTER FOR PRESIDENTIAL AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

WHEREAS it is provided by section 36 (1) of the Constitution that whenever the President is absent from Botswana or considers it desirable so to do by reason of illness or any other cause he may, by directions in writing, authorize the Vice-President to discharge such of the functions of the Office of President as he may specify, and the Vice-President may discharge those functions until the President's return to Botswana or the revocation of such authorization, as the case may be;

AND WHEREAS I intend to be absent from Botswana from the 13th September, 1998 and I consider it desirable to issue directions as aforesaid;

NOW THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers vested in me as aforesaid I authorise you, SERETSE KHAMA IAN KHAMA in your capacity as Vice-President and Minister for Presidential Affairs and Public Administration, to discharge with effect from the 13th September, 1998 all the functions of the Office of President, except —

- (a) the power to dissolve Parliament in accordance with the provisions of section 91 of the Constitution;
  - (b) the power to appoint to the Office of Minister or Assistant Minister in accordance with the provisions of section 42 of the Constitution;
- Provided, however, that you can appoint the present Ministers or Assistant Ministers to act in place of any Minister who is otherwise not available;
- (c) the power to remove a Minister or Assistant Minister from office in accordance with the provision of section 43 of the Constitution;

until my return to Botswana or this authority is revoked by me whichever happens first.

GIVEN under my hand and the Public Seal at Gaborone this 11th day of September, 1998.

MOTOR VEHICLE THEFT ACT
(Act No. 17 of 1995)

Unclaimed Motor Vehicles

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred on the Commissioner of Police by Section 17 (2) of the Motor Vehicle Theft Act, it is hereby notified that the under-listed motor vehicles have been standing idle in Police custody and remain unclaimed.

If any of the vehicles remain unclaimed for two months after date of the last publication of this notice, they shall be forfeited to the Government and dealt with as the Commissioner of Police may direct.

An Act to amend the Births and Deaths Registration Act

Date of Assent: 16th September, 1998.

Date of Commencement: 25th September, 1998.

ENACTED by the Parliament of Botswana.

1. This Act may be cited as the Births and Deaths Registration (Amendment) Act, 1998.

2. Section 2 of the Births and Deaths Registration Act (referred to in this Act as "the Act") is amended by inserting therein, in their correct alphabetical order, the following new definitions —

"authorised person" means, in relation to births or still-births, a Chief or administrative officer, and in relation to deaths, an administrator of the deceased's estate;

Short title

Amendment of section 2 of
Cap. 30:01

"next of kin" means a spouse, parent, or child of a person in respect of whom a certificate is issued under the provisions of this Act.

Amendment of section 3 of the Act

3. Section 3 is amended by substituting for subsection (2) thereof, the following new subsection —

"(2) The Minister may appoint —

- (a) such number of District Registrars as the Minister may deem necessary to exercise, subject to the directions of the Registrar, such of the functions of the Registrar, as the Registrar may direct from time to time; and
- (b) such number of Registration Officers as the Minister may deem necessary who shall discharge such of the functions of the Registrar under this Act, as the Registrar may, from time to time direct."

Amendment
of section 4
of the Act

4. Section 4 of the Act is amended —

- (a) in subsection (1) thereof by
  - (i) substituting the word "three" for the word "two" contained therein;
  - (ii) inserting the words "Still-Births Register" immediately after the words "Births Register,"; and
  - (iii) by inserting the word "still-births" immediately after the word "births,";
- (b) in subsection (2) thereof by inserting the word "still-birth" immediately after the word "birth";
- (c) in subsection (3) thereof by
  - (i) inserting the word "still-birth" immediately after the word "birth"; and
  - (ii) by inserting the word "still-births" immediately after the word "births" wherever it appears.

Repeal of section 5 of
the Act

5. Section 5 of the Act is hereby repealed.

Repeal of section 6 of
the Act

6. Section 6 of the Act is hereby repealed.

Repeal of section 7
of the Act

7. Section 7 of the Act is hereby repealed.

Amendment
of section 8
of the Act

8. The Act is amended by substituting for section 8 therefor, the following new section —

"Application
of Part III

8. The provisions of this Part shall apply throughout Botswana."

Amendment
of section 9
of the Act

9. The Act is amended by substituting for section 9 thereof, the following new section —

"Duty to notify birth
of child

9. (1) A prescribed notice of every child born alive or of any still-born child shall be made, within 60 days of such birth or still-birth, to either a District Registrar or a Registration Officer by the —

- (a) father or mother of the child or by the occupier of the dwelling in which the child is born, in the case of a birth or still-birth that occurs outside a health institution; or
  - (b) medical practitioner or midwife in charge in the case of a birth or still-birth that occurs in a health institution.
- (2) In the case of a child born out of wedlock, no person shall be required to give information under this Act as the child's father."

10. Section 10 of the Act is amended by inserting the words "or a Registration Officer" immediately after the words "District Registrar".

Amendment of section 10 of the Act

11. Section 11 of the Act is amended by —

- (a) inserting the word "still-birth" immediately after the word "birth", wherever such word appears;
- (b) inserting the words "or a Registration Officer" immediately after the words "District Registrar" wherever it appears.

12. Section 12 of the Act is amended —

Amendment of section 12 of the Act

- (a) in subsection (1) thereof
  - (i) by inserting the words "or Registration Officers" immediately after the words "District Registrars,"; and
  - (ii) by inserting the word "still-birth" immediately after the word "birth";
- (b) in subsection (2) thereof by inserting the words "or Registration Officer" immediately after the words, "District Registrar"; and
- (c) in subsection (3) thereof by
  - (i) inserting the words "or Registration Officer" immediately after the words "District Registrar"; and
  - (ii) by deleting the words "by registered post", contained therein.

13. Section 13 of the Act is amended by substituting for subsection (1) thereof, the following new subsection —

Amendment of section 13 of the Act

"13. (1) The Registrar shall furnish the next of kin or authorised person, upon application, with birth, still-birth or death certificates, and shall cause a search to be made in the Births Register, Still-Birth Register or Death Register, as the case may be, for that purpose."

14. The Act is amended by substituting for section 14 thereof, the following new section —

Amendment of section 14 of the Act

"Late registration of births, still-births and deaths

14. (1) Except in accordance with this section no —

- (a) birth or still-birth shall be registered after the expiry of 60 days from the date of such birth or still-birth;
- (b) death shall be registered after the expiry of 30 days from the date of such death.

(2) An application for the registration of a birth, still-birth or death after the expiry of the periods stated in subsection (1) shall be referred to as an application for late registration and shall be —

- (a) made in the prescribed form to the District Registrar or Registration Officer in the district or area in which the birth, still-birth or death took place; and
- (b) accompanied by the prescribed fee:

Provided that no fee shall be payable in the case of an application for late registration if, at the time of birth, still-birth or death, the law made no provision for its registration.

(3) The District Registrar or the Registration Officer shall comply with section 12 in respect of each application for late registration.

(4) The Registrar may refuse to register a birth, still-birth or death under this section until such time as material facts relating to such birth, still-birth or death have been proved to the Registrar's satisfaction.

(5) Any person aggrieved by a refusal of the Registrar in terms of subsection (4) may appeal in the prescribed manner to the Minister, whose decision shall be final."

Amendment
of section 17
of the Act

15. Section 17 of the Act is amended by inserting the word "still-births" immediately after the word "births".

Amendment
of section 18
of the Act

16. Section 18 of the Act is amended by inserting the word "still-births" immediately after the word "births".

Amendment
of section 19
of the Act

17. Section 19 of the Act is amended —

- (a) in subsections (1), (2) and (3) thereof by inserting the word "still-birth" immediately after the word "birth" wherever it appears; and
- (b) in subsection (3) thereof by inserting the word "still-births" immediately after the word "births".

Amendment
of section 22
of the Act

18. Section 22 of the Act is amended by —

- (a) inserting the words "Registration Officer" immediately after the words "District Registrar"; and
- (b) substituting the words "a child born out of wedlock" for the words "an illegitimate child" contained therein.

Amendment
of section 24
of the Act

19. The Act is amended by substituting for section 24 thereof, the following new section —

"Certificate
by medical practitioner
as to cause
of death

24. Whenever any medical practitioner has attended during the last illness of any person, it shall be the duty of such medical practitioner to send to the District Registrar or Registration Officer, without fee or reward, a certificate of the cause of death or a notice of inability to sign such a certificate."

20. Section 25 of the Act is amended in subsections (1), (2) and (3) by inserting the words "or Registration Officer" immediately after the words "District Registrar" wherever they appear. Amendment of section 25 of the Act

21. Section 27 of the Act is amended in subsection (2) by substituting the words "Registration Officer" for the words "police officer" contained therein. Amendment of section 27 of the Act

22. Section 28 of the Act is amended by substituting for paragraphs (b) and (c) thereof respectively, the following new paragraphs — Amendment of section 28 of the Act

(b) as to the management of the Registrar's, District Registrar's and of the Registration Officer's office;

(c) prescribing duties and powers of the Registrar, District Registrars and Registration Officers;".

23. The Schedule to the Act is hereby revoked.

SCHEDULE

An Act to provide for the registration of engineers and for purposes connected therewith.

Date of Assent: 16th September, 1998.

Date of Commencement: By Notice.

ENACTED by the Parliament of Botswana.

PART I — Preliminary

Short title and commencement

1. This Act may be cited as the Engineers Registration Act, 1998, and shall come into operation on such date as the Minister may, by notice published in the Gazette, appoint.

Interpretation

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires -

“Board” means the Engineers Registration Board established by section 3;

“Minister” means the Minister responsible for administering this Act;

“Register” means the register of engineers kept in accordance with section 5(2), and includes all or any particular parts thereof as the context so permits or implies;

“Registered Engineer” means a person whose name is for the time being entered in the register as a registered engineer;

“Registrar” means the Registrar of the Board appointed in accordance with section 5(1).

PART II — The Engineers Registration Board

Establishment of the Engineers’
Registration
Board

3. (1) There is hereby established a Board, to be known as the Engineers’ Registration Board, which shall have responsibility for regulating the activities and conduct of registered engineers in accordance with the functions and powers conferred upon it by this Act.

(2) The Board shall —

(a) be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal;

(b) in its corporate name be capable of suing and being sued;

(c) for and in connexion with the purposes of this Act, be capable of acquiring, holding and disposing of movable and immovable property in its corporate name; and

(d) generally have such powers as are necessary for the proper exercise for its functions under this Act.

(3) The provisions of the Schedule shall have effect as to the constitution and proceedings of the Board and otherwise in relation to the Board.

Members
not to be liable

4. No member of the Board shall be personally liable for any act or omission of the Board done or omitted in good faith in the course of carrying out the responsibilities and functions of, or exercising the powers conferred upon, the Board.

PART III — The Registrar and the Registry

5. (1) The Minister shall appoint a Registrar of the Board, who may be a public officer, and who shall hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of his appointment.

Appointment
of Registrar and keeping of engineers'
register

(2) The Registrar shall keep and maintain a register in which the name of every person entitled to have his name entered therein shall be entered as soon as is practicable after his being accepted by the Board for registration, showing against his name —

- (a) the date of entry;
- (b) his address;
- (c) his qualifications;
- (d) the engineering discipline in which he is registered, that is to say, whether as civil engineer, mechanical engineer, electrical engineer, or as the case may require ; and

(e) such other particulars as the Board may from time to time direct.

(3) All changes in the particulars registered under subsection (2) shall be entered in the register by the Registrar.

6. Any person may inspect the register and any documents relating to any entry therein, and may obtain from the Registrar a copy of or an extract from the register or any such document, on payment of the prescribed fee.

Inspection
of register

7. (1) In any legal proceedings, a paper purporting to be a copy of or an extract from the register or any document kept by the Registrar, and purporting to be certified by the Registrar to be a true copy or extract thereof, shall be admissible as prima facie evidence of the contents of the register or such document.

Proof of documents

(2) The Registrar shall not, in any legal proceedings to which he is not a party, be compellable —

- (a) to produce the register or any document kept or published by him, if its contents can be proved under subsection (1); or
- (b) to appear as a witness to prove any entry in the register, any matter recorded in the register, or any such document, unless the court for special cause so orders.

PART IV — Registration

8. (1) Subject to this Act, a person shall be entitled, on making an application to the Board in the prescribed form obtainable from the Registrar upon request, and on payment to the Board of the prescribed fee, to be registered under this Act and to have his name entered in the register as a registered engineer if he is —

Qualifications
for registration

- (a) a member of an institution of engineers, the membership of which is recognised by the Board as furnishing a sufficient guarantee of the required academic knowledge of, and practical experience in, engineering; or

Temporary
registration

- (b) a person who is the holder of a degree, diploma or licence of a university or school of engineering which is recognised by the Board as furnishing sufficient evidence of an adequate academic training in engineering; and
- (c) in the opinion of the Board a fit and proper person to be registered as an engineer.

9. (1) Where a person satisfies the Board —

- (a) that he is not ordinarily resident in Botswana;
- (b) that he is or intends to be present in Botswana in the capacity of an engineer for the express purpose of carrying out specific work for which he has been engaged; and
- (c) that he is, or immediately before entering Botswana was, in practice as an engineer in such a capacity as to satisfy the Board of his fitness to serve the public as a registered engineer, the Board may, as it thinks fit, direct that such person shall be registered either for a period not exceeding one year or for the duration of any specific work.

(2) An application for registration under this section shall be on the prescribed form, obtainable from the Registrar upon request, and accompanied by the prescribed fee, and the Board shall require an applicant to produce documentary evidence of his work or employment immediately prior to his entering Botswana, and may require him to appear before it for the purpose of considering his application.

(3) The registration of a person under this section shall subsist only for a period not exceeding one year, or for the duration of the work, as specified by the Board, and the decision of the Board as to whether or not the work has terminated shall be conclusive.

(4) A person registered under this section shall, in relation to the period or the work specified, and to things done or omitted in respect thereof, be treated as registered under this Act but in relation to other matters shall be treated as not so registered.

Power to remove from
and correct
register

10. (1) The Board may at any time direct that the name of a person be removed from the register where such person has —

- (a) failed to respond within a period of six months from the date of a request sent by the Registrar by prepaid registered letter to the address appearing in the register against his name, asking him to notify the Registrar of his current address; or
- (b) requested that his name be removed from the register, in which case such person may be required to satisfy the Board by affidavit lodged with the Registrar that no criminal proceedings, or proceedings under section 12, are being or are likely to be taken against him; or
- (c) been found by the Board to be guilty of such misconduct as is described in section 12.

(2) The Registrar shall remove from the register the name of every person who dies, and shall remove from the register any entry which has been incorrectly or fraudulently made:

Provided that where an allegation of fraud or mistake has been made the Registrar shall give the person involved the opportunity to answer that allegation in writing before he so acts.

(3) Except in the circumstances specified in subsection (1)(a) and in subsection (2), the removal of a person's name from the register shall be notified by the Registrar to the person concerned, by prepaid registered letter addressed to the address appearing in the register against his name immediately before the removal, and the Registrar shall give that person the opportunity of being heard before he effects such removal.

(4) Subject to the provisions of section 9, a person whose name has been removed from the register shall, from the date of such removal, cease to be registered for the purposes of this Act.

11. (1) Where the name of any person has been removed from the register under section 10, the name of that person shall not again be entered in the register except by direction of the Board.

Restoration to the register

(2) Where the name of any person has been removed from the register, or the registration of any person has been suspended in terms of section 12 (1) (b), the Board may, either of its own motion, or on the application of the person concerned made in the prescribed manner, and in either case after holding such inquiry as the Board thinks fit, direct that —

- (a) the name of that person be restored to the register; or
- (b) the suspension of the registration of that person be terminated.

(3) A direction given by the Board under subsection (2) may include provision for the date upon which restoration to the register or the termination of a suspension of registration shall take effect, and for the payment by the person concerned of such fee, not exceeding the fee payable on an application for registration, as the Board may determine.

12. If a registered engineer is convicted of an offence under this Act or of an offence of which dishonesty is an element, or is, after due inquiry held by the Board, found to have been guilty of an act or omission amounting to improper or disgraceful conduct in a professional respect, the Board may —

suspend
registration
etc.

- (a) caution or censure such registered engineer;
- (b) direct that, during such period as the Board may specify, his registration shall not have effect; or
- (c) direct that his name be removed from the register.

13. (1) Upon any inquiry held by the Board under this Act, the person whose conduct is being inquired into shall be entitled to a hearing or to be represented by a legal representative.

Procedure at inquiry

(2) For the purposes of proceedings at any inquiry held by it, the Board shall have power to —

- (a) to administer oaths;

(b) to summon persons to attend and give evidence; and

(c) to order the production of documents and evidence.

(3) All summonses and orders issued under the hand of the chairman or vice-chairman of the Board shall be deemed to be issued by the Board.

(4) The chairman, or in his absence the vice-chairman, of the Board shall record or cause to be recorded a summary of any oral evidence given at an inquiry held by the Board.

(5) Subject to this section and any regulations made under section 21, the Board shall have power to regulate its own procedure at an inquiry held under this section.

(6) For the purposes of section 123 of the Penal Code, an inquiry held by the Board shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding.

Failure to obey summons and refusal to give evidence

14. Any person upon whom a summons or order issued under section 13 has been served, who refuses or fails without sufficient cause to attend at the time and place mentioned therein, or refuses without sufficient cause to answer fully and satisfactorily to the best of his knowledge and belief all questions put to him by or with the concurrence of the Board, or refuses or omits without sufficient cause to produce any documents in his possession or under his control which are specified in the order, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding P5000.00:

Provided that every person giving evidence before the Board shall, in respect of any evidence given by him or any document produced by him, be entitled to all the privileges to which he would be entitled as a witness before the High Court.

Appeals

15. (1) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Board to refuse to register his name, to suspend the registration of his name, or to refuse to restore his name to the register, may appeal to the High Court against the decision of the Board.

(2) Any person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Board refusing to remove the name of a registered engineer from the register may appeal to the High Court against that decision.

(3) The Board may appear as respondent and be heard on any appeal against its decision and, for the purpose of enabling directions to be given as to the costs of any such appeal, the Board shall be deemed to be a party thereto, whether or not it appears at the hearing of the appeal.

Effect of
registration

16. Every person whose name has been entered in the register as a registered engineer shall, so long as his name remains in the register as a registered engineer, be entitled to adopt and use the style and title "Registered Engineer", or such contraction thereof as the Board may approve, and to offer his services to the public for gain or reward or by way of trade in the engineering discipline in which he is registered.

Restrictions on use of titles and claim to qualifications
by non-registered person etc.

17. (1) Any person who, not being a registered engineer —

(a) falsely pretends to be such;

(b) uses the style or title "Registered Engineer" in describing his occupation or his business, or any other name, style, title or description implying, whether in itself or in the circumstances in which it is used, that such person is a registered engineer; or

(c) holds himself out, whether directly or by implication, to be a registered engineer, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding P25,000.00 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

(2) Any person who being registered under this Act in one or more disciplines, pretends to be, or acts as if he was, registered in another discipline, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding P25,000.00 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

18. Any person who —

- (a) fraudulently makes, or causes or permits to be made, any false or incorrect entry in the register or any copy thereof;
- (b) fraudulently procures or attempts to procure for himself or for any other person to be registered; or
- (c) knowingly and wilfully makes any statement which is false in any material particular, or which is misleading, with a view to gaining any advantage, concession or privilege under this Act, whether for himself or for any other person, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding P25,000.00 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

Dishonest
practices

19. (1) No person other than an engineer employed by the Government or such other employer as the Minister may by notice in the Gazette exempt shall practice as an engineer in any year unless he is in possession of a practising certificate for that year issued by the Board in such form as may be prescribed entitling him to practice in the capacity or capacities specified in the form.

Practising
certificate
for engineers

(2) An application by an engineer for a practising certificate shall be made to the Board in such form as may be determined by the Board stating the name and place of business of the applicant and the date of registration as an engineer, which application shall be signed by the applicant or his duly authorized agent.

(3) There shall be paid to the Board in respect of each practicing certificate to be issued, such annual practicing fee as may be prescribed.

(4) Every practicing certificate issued shall have effect from the date on which it is issued and shall expire at the end of 31st December next after it is issued:

Provided that where the name of any engineer is removed from or struck off the roll, the practising certificate of that engineer shall expire forthwith.

(5) If any engineer fails to obtain a practising certificate for any year, the Board shall notify such engineer of the provisions of this section by means of a registered letter posted to him at his last known address, and if, within 90 days of the posting of such letter the engineer has not obtained such certificate, the Board shall remove the name of such engineer from the roll.

(6) Every engineer who has been issued with a practising certificate shall display that certificate in a conspicuous place at his place of business.

(7) Any person who has not been issued with a practising certificate or whose practising certificate has not been renewed shall, if he practices without such certificate, be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding P15 000.00.

Regulations

20. The Minister may, after consultation with Board, make regulations, generally for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, any such regulations may provide for —

- (a) the conduct of the business of the Board and the procedure to be followed by the Board in any inquiry under this Act;
- (b) the duties of the Registrar;
- (c) the issue of certificates of registration;
- (d) the fees to be paid for anything which is to be, or may be, done under this Act;
- (e) the forms to be used under this Act;
- (f) the exemption of any persons or class of persons from all or any of the provisions of this Act, provided they comply with such conditions as may be prescribed; and
- (g) prescribing anything which under this Act is to be, or may be prescribed.

SCHEDULE

Membership of Board

1. (1) The Board shall consist of seven members who shall be persons eligible for registration under this Act and resident in Botswana.

(2) The members of the Board shall be —

- (a) three persons appointed by the Minister, of whom not more than two shall be in the service of the Government; and
- (b) the President for the time being of the Botswana Institution of Engineers; and
- (c) three persons appointed by the Botswana Institute of Engineers, of whom at least two shall be from the private sector.

Tenure of office of Board member

2. (1) Every year one of the members of the Board in the service of the Government and one of the members not being in the service of the Government shall retire and the member to retire in each case shall be the one who has been in office longest; and where two or more members have been in office for the same length of time, in the absence of mutual agreement the member to retire shall be chosen by ballot.

(2) A member may resign by giving to the Minister notice in writing of his intention to do so.

(3) Retiring members shall be eligible for reappointment, subject to the recommendation of the Board, and provided that he shall not have served for more than 7 consecutive years .

(4) Casual vacancies shall be filled as they arise, and for the purpose of subparagraph (1) a member appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall be treated as if he were the member he was appointed to replace.

3. (1) Members of the Board shall, at their first meeting, elect from among their number a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Board.

Election of chairman and vice-chairman
of Board

(2) The chairman and the vice-chairman shall each hold office for a period of one year from the date of his election, and may offer themselves for re-election.

(3) In the absence of the chairman, or in the event of his in-capacity from illness or any other cause, the functions of the chairman shall be performed by the vice-chairman, and if the latter is also absent the members of the Board shall elect from among their number, someone to perform the functions of Chairman.

4. (1) The chairman of the Board shall convene ordinary meetings of the Board at least every quarter, and shall appoint a suitable time, place and date for the holding of each such meeting.

Meetings
of the Board

(2) At least seven days notice shall be given of any meeting of the Board except in the case of emergency.

(3) The chairman of the Board may convene a special meeting of the Board at any time, and shall cause a special meeting of the Board to be held within twenty-one days after receiving a written request to do so signed by not fewer than three members of the Board.

5. (1) A simple majority of members of the Board shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board.

(2) All acts, matters and things authorized to be done by the Board shall be decided by resolution of the majority of members at meetings of the Board at which a quorum is present.

Quorum
and voting
at meetings

(3) Every member of the Board shall have one vote, and in the event of an equality of votes the person presiding shall have a second or casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote.

(4) Notwithstanding subparagraph (2), where the chairman so directs, a decision may be made by the Board without a meeting by circulation of the relevant papers to all the members, and by the expression in writing of their views, but any member may require that such a decision shall be deferred for consideration at a meeting of the Board.

6. The validity of any proceedings of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy among the membership, or by any defect in the appointment of a member.

Vacancies in
Board

7. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Schedule and to any regulations made under section 21 of the Act, the Board may regulate its own procedure.

Procedures at meeting

(2) Where any question of procedure arises at any meeting of the Board, it shall be decided by the person presiding at that meeting, and such decision shall be final.

Seal of the Board and authentication

8. (1) The seal of the Board shall not be affixed to any instrument except in the presence of the chairman, or the vice-chairman, and of one other member of the Board.

(2) Any document of the Board not required by law to be under seal shall be sufficiently authenticated by the chairman or the vice-chairman of the Board, or by the Registrar.

Duties of Registrar

9. (1) The Registrar shall have custody of the common seal of the Board.

(2) The Registrar shall attend all meetings of the Board and, subject to the provisions of section 13(4) of the Act, shall keep minutes of such meetings.

(3) The minutes of the meetings of the Board shall be signed by the person presiding at such meeting and shall be confirmed by the Board at its next meeting.

Accounts of the Board

10. (1) The Board shall keep or cause to be kept proper books and other records of its accounts, which shall be audited annually in such manner as the Minister may direct.

(2) No disbursements from the funds of the Board shall be made without the general or special authorization of the Board.

(3) All monies received on account of the Board shall be paid into an account kept in the name of the Board at such bank as the Minister shall direct, and all cheques drawn on such account shall be signed by the chairman and the vice-chairman of the Board.

(4) Any accumulated funds of the Board may be placed on deposit at a bank, or invested in such manner as the Board may determine.

Travel and subsistence
expenses
of Board
members

11. Any reasonable travel or subsistence expenses incurred by a member of the Board in attending meetings of the Board or in undertaking any journey on the business of the Board, duly authorized by resolution of the Board, shall be reimbursed to such member out of the funds of the Board.

Application for
registration

12. (1) Every application for registration shall, so far as is practicable, be brought before the Board at its first meeting after the receipt of the application, and the Board may consider such application or refer it to a subcommittee, whose report thereon shall be considered at the next meeting of the Board thereafter.

(2) The Board may require an applicant for registration to furnish such further information, or evidence of eligibility for registration, as it may think fit, and may require the applicant to attend personally before the Board or a subcommittee thereof at his own expense, and the Board may refuse to consider the application of any person who fails to comply with a requirement made under this paragraph.

(3) The decision of the Board upon an application for registration shall be communicated to the applicant by the Registrar by letter sent to the address stated in the application.

13. (1) Upon the completion of the entry of the name of a person in the register, a certificate of registration shall be prepared under the seal of the Board and such certificate (which shall nevertheless remain the property of the Board) shall be delivered to the person concerned.

Certificates of registration

(2) Where the name of any person is removed from the register, or the Board has directed that the registration shall not have effect for a specified period, the certificate of registration shall forthwith be delivered up to the Registrar by the person to whom it was issued or, if such person has died, by his personal representative.

(3) Where a certificate of registration is delivered up under paragraph (2) the Registrar shall —

- (a) in the case of suspension of registration, hold the certificate until the expiration of the period of suspension, and thereafter return it to the person concerned;
- (b) in the case of removal of a name from the register otherwise than on the death of the person concerned, cancel the certificate; or
- (c) in the case of a deceased person, endorse the certificate with a note of the death, and thereafter return it to the person by whom it was delivered up.

(4) Where the Registrar is satisfied that a registration certificate has been lost, mutilated or destroyed he may, upon payment of the prescribed fee, furnish a duplicate of the certificate to the person to whom the original certificate was issued.

(5) Any person who fails to deliver up a certificate as required by subparagraph (2) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to pay a fine not exceeding P5000.00.

14. (1) The Board may appoint committees and subcommittees to consider such matters or to perform such duties as it may direct.

Appointment
of committees
etc.

(2) Every committee and subcommittee appointed under this paragraph shall consist of members of the Board together with such other persons as the Board, or the committee or subcommittee concerned, with the approval of the Board, may co-opt.

PASSED by the National Assembly this 5th day of August, 1998.

Insertion of Twelfth
Schedule
to the Act

"TWELFTH SCHEDULE
(section 42)

Mining capital
allowance

1. In ascertaining the business chargeable income of any person for any tax year from a business of mining, there shall be deducted from his business assessable income an allowance to be known as a mining capital allowance, computed in accordance with 100 percent of the mining capital expenditure made in the year in which such expenditure was incurred with unlimited carry forward of losses.

Separate calculations for different mines

2. Where separate and distinct mining operations are carried on in mines which are not contiguous, the deduction to be allowed shall be calculated separately and shall not be transferable between such operations, except expenditure on a license or lease which has been relinquished by the mining company.

Balancing
allowance
and balancing charge

3. Where a mine to which this Part applies is disposed of or the mineral concession in respect thereof is terminated in any tax year, the provisions of paragraphs 2 and 3 of Part V of the Third Schedule shall apply; and the references therein to allowances shall be deemed to relate to the mining capital allowances granted in respect of the mining capital expenditure in relation to that mine.

Mining
profits

4. Mining profits shall be taxed according to the following formula —

$$\text{Annual tax rate} = 70 - \frac{1500}{X}$$

where X is the profitability ratio, given by taxable income as a percentage of gross income.

Provided that the tax rate shall not be less than the company rate (current 25 percent) made up of 15 percent basic company tax rate and 10 percent additional company tax rate.

5. Head office expenses allowed as a deduction in ascertaining gross revenue from mineral license shall be limited to 1.5 percent of gross income for the year of assessment and an excess of such expense above the limit shall be treated and taxed as a dividend.

Head office
expenses

6. Where a foreign controlled resident company has a foreign debt-to-equity ratio in excess of 3 to 1 at any time during the year of assessment, the amount of interest paid by the resident company during that year on that part of the debt that exceeds the ratio shall be disallowed as a deduction and an amount so disallowed shall be treated and taxed as a dividend.

Foreign
company

7. Where a foreign based company grants a loan to an affiliated company resident in Botswana, at an interest rate which the Commissioner considers to be in excess of the market rate which a borrower dealing at arm's length with a lender would pay for that type and currency of loan, that part of interest payment which exceed the market rate shall be disallowed as a deduction and the amount of interest so disallowed shall be treated and taxed as a dividend.

Foreign based company

8. Royalty payments made by the mining company under the provisions of the Mines and Minerals Act during any year of assessment shall be allowed as a deduction in the computation of the company's chargeable income in the year of assessment.

Royalty
payments

9. The rate of withholding taxes shall be—

Withholding taxes

- (a) 15 percent on each payment of dividend made to a resident;
- (b) 15 percent on each payment of dividend, interest, commercial royalty, management or consultancy fee made to a non resident; and
- (c) 10 percent on each payment of entertainment fee made to a non resident.

10. (1) The Commissioner may request the company to furnish such documents as he may require to show that all minerals sold or disposed by the company in any year of assessment have been valued at a fair market price for the purpose of determining the company's income tax liability for the year.

Request of documents

(2) Where the Commissioner is not satisfied that the minerals were sold at a fair market price, he may make a determination as to the appropriate valuation of the minerals for income tax purposes.

11. (1) The provisions of this Schedule shall not be subject to negotiations under section 53 or any other section of the Act and shall not be applicable to diamond mining.

Application

(2) Any mining company which is subject to the existing mining tax agreement may continue to operate under the terms of such agreement or make a once only election to come under the provisions of this Schedule by written notice to the Commissioner, not later than 30th June, 1999.

Diamond
mining

(3) Where a company makes an election to be taxed under this Schedule, the provisions of the mining tax agreement shall not be applicable.

12. Diamond mining shall be taxed under the terms of an agreement entered into under the provisions of section 53 of this Act."

PASSED by the National Assembly this 29th day of July, 1998.
