EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

AN ORDINANCE

An Ordinance enacted by His Majesty's Commissioner for the East Africa Protectorate.

Mombasa,
Dated this 2nd day of April 1906.

J. HAYES SADLER
His Majesty's Commissioner.

No. 8 of 1906.

Master and Servants.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Interpretation.
Servant.

1. In this Ordinance, when not inconsistent with the context;
The word "Servant" means any person employed for hire, wages, or other remuneration to perform any handicraft or any other bodily labour in agriculture or manufactures, or in any domestic service, or as a boatman, carrier, messenger or occupation of a like nature;

Contract of service.

The words "Contract of Service" mean any contract, whether in writing or oral, whether expressed or implied, to employ or to serve as a servant for any period of time, or to execute any work, whether such contract has been made before or after the commencement of this Ordinance.

Employer.

The word "Employer" means any person, whether male or female, or any firm, corporation or company who or which has entered into a contract of service to employ any servant, and the agent, foreman, manager, or factor of such person, firm, corporation or company, and, where a servant has entered into a contract of service with the Government or with any Officer on behalf of the Government, the Government Officer under whom such servant is working shall be deemed to be his employer provided that no Government Officer shall be personally liable under this Ordinance for anything done by him as an Officer of the Government in good faith.

Foreign Contract of Service.

The words "Foreign Contract of Service" mean a contract of service, other than a contract for the employment of a domestic servant, made within the Protectorate and to be performed in whole or in part outside the Protectorate, and any contract for service with a foreign State;

Parties.

The word "Parties" means the employer and employed under any contract of service.

Writing.

The word "Writing" includes printing.

FORMATION AND INTERPRETATION OF CONTRACTS.

Foreign Contract of Service to be in writing.

2. (1) A foreign contract of service shall be in writing and signed by the parties thereto otherwise such contract shall be void.

Contracts not in writing and unsigned.

(2) A contract of service, which, or a sufficient Memorandum whereof is not in writing and signed by the parties thereto, shall not be in force for a longer period than one month from the making thereof.

Attestation of written contract.

3. No written contract of service shall be enforced as against any party who is unable to read and understand writing unless it bears an attestation, under the hand and seal of a Magistrate to the effect that such contract was read over and explained to such party in the presence of such Magistrate and was entered into by him voluntarily, and with full understanding of its meaning.

4. Every foreign contract of service shall be attested by the Sub-Commissioner of a Province and it shall be in the form in the Second Schedule hereto or to the like effect; Other contracts of service may, if, either of the parties so desire be attested by a Magistrate and, if so attested, they shall be in the form in the Schedule or to the like effect. Attestation of Foreign Contracts.
5. (1) A Magistrate shall not attest any contract of service unless it specify as accurately as may be; Magistrate not to attest contracts of service unless in certain forms.
 (a) The nature and duration of the service.
 (b) The place or limits within which such service is to be performed.
 (c) The remuneration to be paid.
 (2) A Sub-Commissioner shall not attest any foreign contract of service unless the contract in addition to specifying the particulars mentioned in Sub-Section 1 of this Section, contains a stipulation by the employer to provide the servant with sufficient means of returning if he shall desire to do so, at the termination of the contract, to the place at which he was engaged. Stipulations in Foreign Contracts
6. The Commissioner may fix the fees to be paid on the attestation of contracts of service, foreign or otherwise, and may from time to time alter and vary such fees as he may think fit, and such fees shall be paid by the employer on or before the attestation of the contract. Power to fix fees for the Registration of contracts.
7. (1) When the employer in a foreign contract of service does not reside or carry on business within the jurisdiction, he shall give security by bond in the form in the Schedule hereto or to the like effect with one or more sureties to be approved of by the Sub-Commissioner attesting the contract, and resident within the jurisdiction, conditioned for the due performance of the contract, in such sums as the Sub-Commissioner may consider reasonable. Security in Foreign contract of service.

To adjust and set off claims.

(a) He may adjust and set off one against the other all such claims on the part either of the employer or of the servant arising out of, or incidental to the relation between them as the Magistrate may find to be subsisting, whether such claims are liquidated or unliquidated, and are for wages, damages or otherwise and he may direct the payment of such sum as he finds due by one party to the other party;

To direct fulfilment of the contract

(b) He may direct fulfilment of the contract; and in cases where he might award damages for any breach of contract, he may, in place either of the whole of the damages which would otherwise have been awarded, or some part of the damages, direct the party committing such breach to find security to the satisfaction of the Magistrate for the due performance of so much of the contract as remains unperformed, and if the party neglect or refuse to find security, he may commit him to prison until he finds it, but the term of imprisonment shall not exceed three months.

- (c) He may rescind the contract upon such terms as to the apportionment of wages or other sums due thereunder, and as to the payment of wages or damages or other sums due as he thinks fit. To rescind the contract and apportion wages etc.
- (d) When no amount of compensation or damages can be assessed, or when pecuniary compensation will not in the opinion of the Magistrate meet the circumstances of the case he may in addition to the rescinding of the contract and discharging the parties therefrom fine either party a sum not exceeding Rs. 200. To impose fines.
- (e) Where it appears to the Magistrate that an employer or servant has been guilty of any offence under this Ordinance, he may, in lieu of or in addition to doing any of the acts or things, and to making any of the orders or directions authorised by paragraphs (a) (b) and (c) of this Sub-Section pass any sentence or judgment authorised by this Ordinance upon the person so offending, and may make any order or do any act or thing by this Ordinance authorised or which may lawfully be done for giving effect to such judgment or order. To pass any sentence or judgment authorised by this Ordinance.
- (2) A person shall give security (hereinafter called the bond) under this section by a written or oral acknowledgment in or under the direction of the Court of the undertaking or condition by which and the sums for which he is bound, and such bond shall be forfeited and enforced in the manner provided for the forfeiture and enforcement of bonds under the Indian Criminal Procedure Code. Form of security.
- (3) The provisions of the Indian Criminal Procedure Code and of any enactment extending or amending the same respecting appeals and references and the levying of moneys ordered to be paid shall apply to all proceedings and all orders for the payment of money under this Ordinance, but when a servant is imprisoned for non payment of any money, whether as damages, wages, or otherwise such money shall be considered as liquidated and discharged at the expiration of such imprisonment. Imprisonment in default.

20. Whenever any male person shall appear liable to have any of the orders specified in the last preceding section made upon him, or to be punished in any other manner provided by this Ordinance, if he shall appear to the Court to be under the age of sixteen years and to require punishment in the way of discipline rather than in any other manner, the Court may order him to be detained for one day in any suitable place of detention, and to be corporally punished with a light cane of such pattern as may be approved by the Court, such punishment not exceeding sixteen stripes on the bare buttocks, instead of any other punishment. Punishment of juveniles.

- (1) If he shall by wilful breach of duty, or through drunkenness do any act tending to the immediate loss, damage or serious risk of any property placed by his employer in his charge or placed by any other person in his charge for delivery to or on account of his employer.
- (2) If he shall, by wilful breach of duty, or by neglect of duty or through drunkenness refuse or omit to do any lawful act proper and requisite to be done by him for preserving in safety any property placed by his employer in his charge, or placed by any other person in his charge for delivery to or on account of his employer.
- (3) If being employed as a herdsman, he shall fail to report to his employer the death or loss of any animals placed in his charge, which he shall allege to have died or been lost, on the earliest opportunity of so doing after he shall have discovered, or in the course of duty was bound to have discovered such death or loss, or if he shall fail to preserve for his employer's use or inspection any part or parts of such animals as he shall allege to have died, which part or parts he shall by his employer have been directed to preserve, unless such herdsman shall prove to the satisfaction of the Court the death of such animals, or if it shall be made by his employer to appear that any such animal or animals alleged by him to have strayed away or otherwise become irrevocably lost, could not, under the circumstances of the case, have become irrevocably lost without his act or default.
- (4) If, being employed in any capacity other than that of a herdsman, he shall allege the loss of any property placed in his charge by or for his employer, and it shall be made to appear by his employer that the property in question could not have been lost without his act or default.
- (5) If he shall, without lawful cause, depart from his employer's service with intent not to return thereto.

Neither fine nor imprisonment to have the effect of cancelling a contract.

Term of imprisonment added to term of service.

Whenever a servant is convicted of absenting himself or departing from service period of absence to be added to term of service.

Loss etc of employer's property.

23. No fine or period or imprisonment undergone under this Ordinance, by a servant shall have the effect of cancelling the contract of service.

24. When any period of imprisonment shall be undergone by any servant for any offence under this law, a like period shall be added to the term of service stipulated for in the contract of service as it subsisted when such imprisonment was commenced, so that such servant shall be obliged to serve a further period equal to the period of his imprisonment in addition to the term of service originally stipulated.

25. When the offence of which any servant shall be convicted under this Ordinance, shall be the offence of absenting himself from, or of departing from the service of his employer, then the period of his absence shall be added to the term of service originally stipulated in like manner as in the last preceding section directed in regard to the period of imprisonment therein mentioned and it shall be the duty of the Magistrate convicting such servant to ascertain at the trial the period of absence, and to certify the same by some writing under his hand to be delivered to the employer, and the period mentioned in such writing shall by all Courts and in all places be deemed to be added to the original term of service.

26. As often as any property of the employer shall be lost or damaged by means of any act or omission of his servant, which act or omission is by this Ordinance declared to be an offence it shall be lawful for the Magistrate should he think fit, and the employer shall thereto agree, to ascertain whether such servant is able to make compensation for such loss or damage, and if so, to fix the amount of such compensation, and make such order as to payment thereof, either at once or by instalments out of wages to be yet earned or otherwise, as shall seem reasonable and just, provided that no instalment ordered to be paid out of wages shall exceed one half of the servant's monthly wage if the instalments are ordered to be paid monthly or one half of the servants weekly wage if the instalments are ordered to be paid weekly, and in the meantime and until default made in such payment, or in the payment of some such instalment to defer passing sentence upon the party offending: but such Magistrate shall preserve on record the evidence in the case, and upon application of the employer and proof given upon oath of some such default as aforesaid, shall issue his warrant for the apprehension of such servant, and shall pronounce upon him such sentence as regard being had to the circumstances of the original offence and to the degree in which such servant has made or failed to make the compensation ordered, shall appear equitable.

27. Any servant who receives from his employer any wages in advance and who without good reason quits the service of such employer before such advance is fully worked off shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment not exceeding three months. Penalty on servant leaving service before working off an advance of wages.

28. No servant shall be convicted under any of the foregoing sections of this Ordinance unless the employer shall lodge his complaint without undue delay after he becomes cognizant of the offence or alleged offence. Time limit within which complaint must be made by employer.

29. Any employer of any servant may be fined any sum not exceeding Rupees one thousand and in default of payment of the same may be imprisoned for any period not exceeding one month in case he shall be guilty of any of the following acts or omissions that is to say:— Penalty on employer.

1. If he shall withhold the wages of such servant, without reasonable and probable cause for believing that the wages so withheld are not really due. Withholding wages.
2. If before or after the expiration of the contract of service, upon demand made and without lawful cause, he refuses to deliver or permit to be taken away any property belonging to such servant lawfully remaining or being upon such employer's land without reasonable and probable cause for believing that the property in question was lawfully detained. Detaining servant's stock.
3. If he fails upon demand to supply or deliver to such servant the food, bedding or other articles stipulated for in any written contract of service; or if he supplies or delivers food, bedding or other articles not conformable to the said contract. Failing to supply food etc stipulated for in any written contract.

30. Every person charged with an offence under this Ordinance shall be a competent but not a compellable witness. Defendant a competent witness.

31. No person charged with an offence under this Ordinance, who is not immediately before the hearing of such charge in actual custody, shall be compelled to enter the dock or place usually assigned for prisoners under trial in the Court, or shall be otherwise treated as under arrest during the hearing of such charge: provided that if, in the opinion of the Magistrate before whom the charge is heard, it shall be necessary in order to secure the attendance of such employer or servant, that he should be placed in custody, it shall be lawful for such Magistrate to cause such person to be arrested and detained in custody. Defendant not to be compelled to enter the dock except in certain events.

32. When the Magistrate imposes any fine, or enforces payment of any sum secured by a recognizance or bond the Magistrate may direct that such fine or sums when recovered, or any part thereof he thinks fit, shall be applied to compensate any employer or servant for any wrong or damage sustained by him by reason of the act or thing in respect of which the fine was imposed or by reason of the non-performance of the contract of service. The amount of a fine imposed or a part thereof may be paid to the complaining party.

33. In any complaint under this Ordinance the process of the court of the Magistrate for compelling the attendance of the party accused, and of all necessary witnesses, shall be instituted at the public charge and without any fees of Court: provided, always, that if at the trial the charge shall appear to the Magistrate to be frivolous or vexatious, the party complaining shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rupees one hundred, and to defray the costs of the process and of the witnesses in the case: and in default of payment of such costs, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any period not exceeding one month: provided, also, that such fine may be imposed upon the occasion of such trial, and without any fresh action or proceeding for the recovery thereof. Costs of witnesses etc.

34. No wages shall become payable to a servant for or during any term of his imprisonment under this Ordinance. No wages to become payable during the imprisonment of servant.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Parties may be proceeded against for any offence punishable under or in other law in force.

35. Nothing in this Ordinance shall prevent any employer or servant from being proceeded against according to law for any offence punishable under the Indian Penal Code or under any other law in force in the British East Africa Protectorate.

Saving as to contracts by porters.

36. The provisions of this Ordinance shall not apply to any contract of service made by any porter registered under the Native Porter and Labour Regulations 1902 whereby such porter agrees to serve with or accompany a caravan within the meaning of the last mentioned Regulations, and nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to effect the provisions of those Regulations except in so far as the same are expressly repealed by this Ordinance.

Saving as to contract of service made abroad.

37. Nothing in this Ordinance shall prevent any employer or servant from enforcing their respective rights and remedies for any breach or non-performance of any lawful contract of service made out of the British East Africa Protectorate, but the respective rights of such parties under such contract as well against each other as against third parties invading such rights may be enforced in the same manner as other contracts arising thereout may be enforced and as if this Ordinance had not been made; provided that whenever any such contract has been executed in conformity with this Ordinance it shall be enforced in the same manner as a contract entered into under this Ordinance. But no written contract the tenor and execution of which are not in conformity with this Ordinance, shall be enforced as against any party thereto who is unable to read and understand writing. Any such contract shall be deemed executed in conformity with this Ordinance which is signed by the names or marks of the contracting parties, and bears, as concern any illiterate parties, an attestation to the like effect as is prescribed by section 3 hereof.

If the contract was made in the United Kingdom or elsewhere in His Majesty's dominions the attestation may be by any Justice of the Peace or other Officer authorised by law to take affidavits; if made in any foreign parts the attestation may be by any Judge or Magistrate, being authenticated by the Official Seal of the Court to which he is attached, or by any British Minister, Consul, Vice Consul or Consular Agent.

Saving as to contracts under Acts relating to shipping.

38. This Ordinance shall not apply to any contract made under or governed by any Imperial law relating to shipping, nor affect the rights and remedies of the parties thereunder.

Power to make rules.

39. The Commissioner may from time to time make, and when made, alter and revoke rules dealing with:—

- (1) The recruiting or employment for the service of a Foreign State;
- (2) The engagement and embarkation of person to be employed under a Foreign contract of service; and generally for the better carrying into effect the provisions of this Ordinance;

The Commissioner may fix such penalties for the breach or non-observance of any Rule as he may think proper, not exceeding imprisonment of either kind for two months or a fine of Rupees two hundred or both, and where no penalty is imposed by the Rules the breach or non-observance of any rule shall be punishable to the extent aforesaid.

Repeals.

40. The enactments described in the First Schedule are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the third column thereof.

Short title.

41. This Ordinance may be cited as the Master and Servants Ordinance 1906, and shall come into force on the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and six.

AN ORDINANCE

Enacted by the Acting Commissioner for the Uganda Protectorate.

Entebbe,
6th April, 1906.

GEORGE WILSON
Acting Commissioner.

No. 7 of 1906.

Muhammadan Marriages and Divorces.

IT is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

Uganda Marriage
Ordinance 1902 and
Native Marriage
Ordinance 1903 not to apply in certain cases.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Uganda Muhammadan Marriage and Divorce Ordinance, 1906."
2. The Uganda Marriage Ordinance 1902 and the Native Marriage Ordinance 1903 shall cease to apply to the celebration of marriages between persons both of whom profess the Muhammadan religion, and neither of whom is a party to an existing marriage, under or declared valid by the said Ordinances, with any person other than a Muhammadan; and every such marriage celebrated between Muhammadans before the commencement of this Ordinance, shall be, and shall be deemed to have been from the time of the celebration thereof a legal and valid marriage.

3. All marriages between persons professing the Muhammadan religion and all divorces from such marriages celebrated or given according to the rites and observances of the Muhammadan religion customary and usual among the tribe or sect in which the marriage or divorce takes place, shall be valid and registered as herein provided. Muhammadan marriages to be registered.

4. The Commissioner may by order appoint any person, hereinafter called a Registrar, to register Muhammadan marriages and divorces which have been effected within certain specified limits; and the Registrar may appoint persons to be Deputy Registrars within the said limits, and hereinafter the term Registrar shall include a Deputy Registrar. Commissioner may appoint Registrars of Muhammadan marriages and divorces.

5. Every Registrar shall keep up the following register books, which shall be supplied to him by the Commissioner. Registrars to keep books.

Book 1 Register of Marriages in the form (A) in the schedule hereto.

Book 2 Register of Divorces in the form (B) in the schedule hereto.

6. Application for registration shall be made within one month from the date of the marriage or divorce, before a Registrar in the manner and by the persons following that is to say:— Marriages and Divorces to be registered.

(1) In the case of a marriage

By the husband or in the event of his death before the expiration of one month from the date of the marriage, by the widow: provided that if either party whose duty it is to apply be a minor, the application shall be made by his lawful guardian, and if the widow be a purdah-nisheen such application shall be made by her personally or on her behalf by her duly authorized vakil.

(2) a. In the case of a divorce other than of the kind known as Khula.

By the man who effected the divorce.

b. In the case of a divorce of the kind known as Khula

By the parties to the divorce jointly; provided that if the woman be a purdah-nisheen such application may be made on her behalf by her duly authorized vakil.

Nothing in this section shall prevent a woman (or, if she be a purdah-nisheen, her authorized vakil) or her guardian applying for the registration of a marriage or divorce if the man fail to apply, or a minor from so applying if his guardian fail to apply.

7. On application being made to a Registrar for registration under this Ordinance and upon the receipt by him of such fee as the Commissioner may by notice direct he shall satisfy himself as to whether or not such marriage or divorce has been effected by or between the parties and also as to the identity of the parties and further in the case of a person appearing as a guardian or a vakil as to the right of such person to appear. Registrar to make enquiry.

8. If the Registrar be satisfied on the above points, and not otherwise he shall make an entry of the marriage or divorce in the appropriate register. If satisfied Registrar shall register.

9. The entries in the appropriate registers shall be signed by the persons following By whom registers must be signed.

(a) In the case of a marriage.

By the husband and wife or the guardians or vakil as the case may be, and by two witnesses to the marriage.

(b) i. In the case of a divorce other than that known as Khula.

By the man who has effected the divorce, the witness who identifies him and if the man be of the Shiah Sect, by two witnesses to the divorce being effected.

ii. In the case of a Khula divorce.

By the man and woman (or by her vakil if she be a purdah-nisheen), parties to the divorce, by the persons identifying the man and woman, and, if the man be of the Shiah Sect, by two witnesses to the divorce being effected.

All the entries in the registers shall be signed by the Registrar.

10. On completion of the Registration of any marriage or divorce the Registrar shall deliver free of charge to each of the parties to the marriage or divorce an attestation copy of the entry. Free copies of entries to parties.

11. Every Registrar refusing to register a marriage or divorce shall make an order of refusal and record his reasons for such order in a book to be kept for that purpose. Record of refusals to register.

12. An appeal shall lie against an order made by a Registrar under the last preceding section to the Registrar of marriages of the district in which the registration was refused (appointed under the Uganda Marriage Ordinance Appeals from refusals.

1902) or to the Registrar General of marriages so appointed (hereinafter called the Registrar General) and the order made upon such appeal shall be final and shall be communicated to the Registrar who has refused to register and who shall record it in the book mentioned in the last preceding section and in the event of his order being reversed or altered he shall comply with the terms of the order.

Quarterly Returns.

13. Every Registrar shall at the expiration of every three months send certified copies of all entries made by him during the preceding quarter in the registers and books, which he is required by this Ordinance to keep, to the Registrar General who shall file the same in his office.

Safe custody and returns
of books &c.,

14. Every Registrar shall keep safely such registers and books until the same shall be filled and shall then, or earlier, if he leaves the district or his appointment be revoked, forward them to the Registrar General or to such other person as the latter may direct.

Registers &c., to be open for inspection and copies to be obtainable.

15. The registers, and the copies thereof which are filed with the Registrar General, shall be open to inspection by any person applying to inspect the same and copies of any entry or of any certified copy of any entry shall be given to any person applying for such copy on the payment of a fee of one rupee.

Commissioner
may make rules.

16. The Commissioner may from time to time make such rules as he thinks fit for carrying out the purposes of this Ordinance.

Saving clause.

17. Nothing in this Ordinance shall be construed to

- (a) render invalid, merely by reason of its not having been registered, any Muhammadan marriage or divorce which would otherwise be valid;
- (b) render valid, by reason of its having been registered, any such marriage or divorce which would otherwise be invalid.
- (c) authorize the attendance of any Registrar at the celebration of a marriage except at the request of all the parties concerned.
- (d) affect the religion or religious rites of any persons in Uganda.
- (e) prevent any person who is unable to write, from putting his mark, instead of the signature required by this Ordinance.

Penalty clause.

18. Any person who is required by this Ordinance to apply for registration of a marriage or divorce, who shall fail to make such application shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month and to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Jurisdiction in divorce cases.

19. Nothing in the Divorce Ordinance 1904 shall authorize the grant of any relief under that Ordinance where the marriage of the parties has been declared valid under this Ordinance: Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent any competent Court from granting relief under Muhammadan law; and His Majesty's High Court of Uganda, the Courts of Session, and any Court to which jurisdiction shall, by notice, be specially given by the Commissioner shall have jurisdiction herein.

Commencement.

20. This Ordinance shall commence and come into operation

- (1.) As to registration on the 1st day of June 1906.
- (2.) As to all other matters on the publication hereof in the Gazette.

Entebbe,
6th April, 1906.

GEORGE WILSON
Acting Commissioner.

J. E. STOCKER

Assistant Collector.

Rabai, 10th April, 1906.

Victoria School, Seychelles.

GOVERNMENT UNDENOMINATIONAL SCHOOL, FOR BOYS.

Instruction is provided in the above institution, on modern lines, up to, and including preparation for the Senior Certificate of the Cambridge Local Examinations, by a competent staff of English and French speaking masters; an unique opportunity being afforded of a bilingual training. There is a well-equipped laboratory for the practical teaching of Chemistry and Physics.

The Headmaster, with the assistance of two masters, receives boys as boarders on very moderate terms.

All the necessary information, regarding programme of studies, fees, etc., may be obtained on application to the undersigned.

Victoria, Seychelles,

GEO. MACKAY, M.A.

10th February, 1906.

Headmaster.

MOMBASA HARBOUR.

High Water at Mombasa, 15th to 30th April 1906.
