EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

Rules.

Rules issued by His Majesty's Commissioner for the East Africa Protectorate under the provisions of "The East Africa Township Ordinance 1903."

Nairobi,

Dated this 2nd day of October, 1906.

J. HAYES SADLER

His Majesty's Commissioner.

I. After the hours of 6-30 p.m. and until 6 a.m. Railway time every cart or vehicle standing in or proceeding along a public road, public place or thoroughfare shall be provided with a lighted lamp or lamps so placed as to throw the light in the direction in which the cart or vehicle is proceeding and giving a light equal to not less than one candle power per lamp, provided that every cart used for freight, merchandise or carrying wood shall carry a tail lamp in addition to a lamp in front and so placed as to throw the light backwards; a bicycle or tricycle is a vehicle for the purpose of this rule.

II. No person suffering from a contagious or infectious disease, shall drive or be in charge of any cart or other vehicle or be in any public place.

III. Every driver or person in charge of any cart shall drive or keep such cart on the extreme left of the road in the direction in which he is going and in a line with and to the rear of any cart or carts proceeding in the same direction.

IV. When loading or unloading a cart or lorry or other vehicle in a street the person in charge of such cart or lorry or other vehicle shall rest it parallel with the foot path and immediately on the edge of the carriage way or if there is no foot path then parallel with and on the extreme edge of the street.

V. For the purpose of this rule the word "Vehicle" shall include any motor car, motor cycle, trolley, carriage, cart, lorry, buggy, ricksha, wheelbarrow, hand barrow, hand cart, or cycle but shall not include a perambulator.

No person shall lead, ride or drive any horse, or mule, donkey or ox or allow any such animal to remain on any pathway, public place or thoroughfare that shall have been reserved by His Majesty's Commissioner for the use of foot passengers only and no person shall drive or propel any vehicle or allow any such vehicle to remain on any pathway, public place or thoroughfare so reserved.

Any person who shall be guilty of an offence against this rule shall for each offence be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 75 or in default to imprisonment of either kind not exceeding 14 days.

VI. The driver or person in charge of any lorry or other vehicle shall not drive or propel such vehicle over any stone drain except over a proper bridge or culvert.

VII. The driver or person in charge of any vehicle in respect of which any of the terms of the above rules Nos. I to VI inclusive are not complied with or in respect of which any offence is committed against any of the said rules shall on conviction be liable for each offence to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100 or in default imprisonment of either kind not exceeding one month, in addition to any damages at the suit of any party aggrieved that may be awarded by a Court of competent jurisdiction against the owner of such vehicle or the driver or person in charge of the same.

VIII. The owner or occupier of any town plot or premises who shall require to drive or propel any vehicle over any stone drain for the purpose of obtaining access for such vehicle to the said plot or premises shall construct across the said drain opposite to the entrance of the said plot or premises a good and sufficient bridge of planks or other material suitable in the opinion of the Township Committee for the said purpose in such a manner as to protect the said drain from damage and so as to avoid obstructing the proper flow of water in the same. Any person who shall be guilty of contravening or not complying with any of the terms of this rule shall upon summary conviction in any Court of competent jurisdiction be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100 or in default imprisonment of either kind not exceeding one month.

IX. The driver or person in charge of any animal or animals or of any lorry or other vehicle shall not permit such animal, animals, lorry, or other vehicle to collide with or damage any drain, culvert, bridge, fence, gate, lamp-post or any other property of the Government or Township Committee and in every case where any such damages shall have been done or any such collision shall have occurred the driver or person in charge of the animal, animals or vehicle shall be deemed to have committed a breach of this rule and the owner of the animal, animals or vehicle by which any such damage as aforesaid shall have been done shall pay to the Township the amount of the damage; and the driver or person in charge shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 40 for each offence or in default imprisonment of either kind not exceeding one month.

- X. 1. No person shall perform ablutions or wash any clothes, cooking utensils or any other article at any public hydrant or stand pipe.
 2. No person shall wash any article of clothing in or on the banks of any river, pool, quarry, watercourse or irrigation trench except at a place or places authorised by the Committee for the purpose.
 3. No person shall bathe in any river, pool, quarry, watercourse or irrigation trench within the Township area except at a place or places authorised for the purpose by the Committee on a certificate of approval being previously received from the Medical Officer of Health.
 4. Any person guilty of an offence against the provisions of any sub-section of this rule shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 30 for each offence or in default imprisonment of either kind not exceeding two weeks.

XI. Rules I, II, III, IV, V, VI, IX, X are cognizable by the Police, and VII and VIII are summons cases.

XII. Rules 157 and 175 of Township Rules 1904 shall from the publication of these rules cease to be applied to the Township of Nairobi.

XIII. These rules shall apply to the Township of Nairobi.

J. HAYES SADLER
 His Majesty's Commissioner.
