HIS MAJESTY'S HIGH COURT OF EAST AFRICA.

Rules of Court No. 2 of 1907.

(Taxation of Bills of Costs.)

RULES made by the High Court with the approval of His Excellency the Governor under Article 22 of the East Africa Order-in-Council 1902 and Article II of the East Africa Order-in-Council 1906.

- (1.) These Rules may be cited as Rules of Court (Taxation of Costs) Short Title. No. 2 of 1907.
- (2.) Bills of Costs incurred in legal proceedings in East Africa other than Bills of costs cases in Courts subordinate to the High Court shall be taxable according to the rates in the schedule to these Rules. taxable by schedule.
- (3.) All bills of costs shall be taxed on the ordinary scale unless a judge of the High Court certifies on special grounds arising out of the nature and importance or the difficulty or urgency of the case that they are to be taxed on the Higher Scale. Higher scale to be specially certified.
- (4.) Should more than one-sixth of the total amount of a bill of costs be disallowed the party presenting the bill for taxation shall pay the costs of such taxation. Costs of taxation if one-sixth disallowed.
- (5.) The Taxing Officer for the taxation of bills under these Rules shall be the Registrar of the High Court or in his absence such other officer as the Principal Judge may appoint. Taxing Officer.
- (6.) Should any party object to a decision of the Taxing Officer he may refer his objection for the decision of a Judge of the High Court. Objection to decision of Taxing Officer.

Such reference shall be made in the form of an ordinary chamber application supported by affidavit with notice to the other side.

- (7.) With the consent of both parties the Taxing Officer may refer any matter in dispute arising out of the taxation of a bill for the opinion of the High Court. The fee payable for such a reference will be Rs. 10 under fee No. 56 Rules of Court (Fees) No. 3 of 1906. Reference by consent to High Court.

- (8.) In all causes and matters pending at or commenced after the date on which these Rules come into operation Pleaders shall be entitled to charge the fees set forth in the column headed "Lower Scale" in the Schedule hereto. Lower Scale.

- (9.) The fees set forth in the column headed "Higher Scale" in the said Schedule, may be allowed, either generally in any cause or matter, or as to the costs of any particular application made, or business done, in any cause or matter, if, on special grounds arising out of the nature and importance, or the difficulty or urgency of the case, the Court or a Judge shall so order. Higher Scale.

- (10.) If in any case it shall appear to the Court or a Judge that costs have been improperly or without reasonable cause incurred, or that by reason of any undue delay in proceeding under any judgment or order, or of any misconduct or default of the Pleader, any costs properly incurred have nevertheless proved fruitless to the person incurring the same, the Court or a Judge may call on the Pleader by whom such costs have been so incurred to show cause why such costs should not be disallowed as between the Pleader and his client, and also (if the circumstances of the case shall require) why the Pleader should not repay to his client any costs which his client may have been ordered to pay to any other person, and thereupon may make such order as the justice of the case may require.

The Court or Judge, may, if they or he think fit, refer the matter to the Taxing Officer for inquiry and report.

Notice of taxation. (12.) In all cases in which Pleadings have lodged their bills with the necessary papers and vouchers the Taxing Officer may, if he think fit, forthwith issue a notice fixing a time at which the taxation shall be proceeded with.

Notice of taxation where defendant did not appear. (13.) Notice of taxation of costs shall not be necessary in any case in which the Defendant has not appeared in person or by Pleadings.

Default of appearance on date of taxation, or delay of taxation, or causing unnecessary expense to other party to taxation. (14.) Any Pleadings who shall after due notice fail to appear on the date fixed for the taxation or on any date to which such taxation is adjourned, or who shall in any way delay or impede the taxation, or put any other party to any unnecessary or improper expense relative to such taxation shall, unless the Taxing Officer otherwise direct, forfeit the fees to which he would otherwise be entitled for drawing his bill of costs and for attending the taxation, and shall in addition be liable to pay for any unnecessary or improper expense to which he has put any party.

Form of Bill of Costs. (15.) In every bill of costs the professional charges shall be entered in a separate column from the disbursements, and each column shall be cast before the bill is left for taxation, and a column shall be left blank on the left hand side of the bill for the amounts disallowed to be inserted.

Costs of interlocutory applications. (16.) Upon interlocutory applications where the Court or a Judge shall think fit to award costs to any party, the Court or Judge may by an order direct payment of a sum in gross in lieu of taxed costs and direct by or to whom such sum in gross shall be paid.

Attendances to settle and read over. (17.) The allowances for 'instructions' and 'drawing an affidavit in answer to interrogatories' and other special affidavits, shall include all attendances on the deponent to settle and read over.

Costs in proceedings by joint plaintiffs or defendants. (18.) Where the same Pleadings is employed for two or more Plaintiffs or Defendants and separate pleadings are delivered or other proceedings had by or for two or more such Plaintiffs or Defendants separately, the Taxing Officer shall consider in the taxation of such Pleadings's bill of costs, either between party and party, or between Pleadings and client, whether such separate pleadings or other proceedings where necessary or proper, and if he is of opinion that any part of the costs occasioned thereby have been unnecessarily or improperly incurred, the same shall be disallowed.

Costs of witnesses. (19.) Such just and reasonable charges as appear to have been properly incurred in procuring evidence, and the attendance of witnesses, are to be allowed.

Costs on adjournment before Judge in Chambers owing to default of party or pleader. (20.) Where by reason of the non-attendance of any party before a Judge in Chambers (unless it be considered expedient to proceed ex parte) or where by reason of the neglect of any party in not being prepared with any proper evidence, account or other proceeding the attendance is adjourned without any useful progress being made, the Judge may order such amount of cost (if any) as he shall think reasonable to be paid to the party attending by the party so absent or neglectful, or by his Pleadings personally.

Unnecessary appearances. (21.) Where any party appears upon any application or proceeding in Court or in Chambers, in which he is not interested, or upon which, according to the practice of the Court, he ought not to attend, he shall not be allowed any costs of such appearance unless the Court or Judge shall otherwise order.

Costs on resetting down case struck out by default of plaintiff. (22.) Where a cause or matter which stands for trial is called on to be tried, but cannot be decided by reason of a want of parties or other default on the part of the Plaintiff, and is therefore struck out, and the same cause is again set down by leave of the Judge, the Defendant shall be allowed the taxed costs occasioned by the first setting down although he does not obtain the costs in the cause or matter.

Extension of time for taxation. (23.) The Taxing Officer shall have power to limit or extend the time for any proceeding before him.

Bills of costs. (24.) Every bill of costs which shall be lodged for taxation shall be
