EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

AN ORDINANCE

No. 8 of 1907.

Title. To authorise the issuing of Licences to Ostrich farmers for the collecting of the eggs of wild Ostriches and for the capturing of young wild Ostriches.

Date. [11th October, 1907.]

WHEREAS it is desirable that encouragement should be given to the industry of Ostrich farming in the Protectorate and that persons engaged in Ostrich farming should be authorised to take the eggs of wild Ostriches and to capture young wild Ostriches.

Enactment. Be it enacted by the Governor of the East Africa Protectorate with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof :—

Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Ostrich Ordinance, 1907.

Interpretation. 2. In the Interpretation of this Ordinance unless repugnant to the context the following words and expressions shall have the meaning following :—

A "domesticated Ostrich" shall mean an Ostrich which has been bred in captivity or which has been captured when young and kept in captivity for a period of not less than three months.

A "young ostrich" shall mean an ostrich which shall not have reached the age of two months.

An "ostrich farmer" shall mean a person who has been registered as such under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Prohibition against taking or trading in the eggs of wild ostriches. 3. Save as hereinafter provided no person shall export from the Protectorate or shall within the Protectorate take, receive, purchase, sell, offer or expose for sale the egg of any wild ostrich.

Prohibition against hunting etc, wild ostriches. 4. Save as hereinafter provided no person shall hunt, kill, capture, sell, purchase, transfer, accept or receive any wild ostrich.

Prohibition against trading in ostrich feathers. 5. Save as hereinafter provided no person shall within the Protectorate sell, transfer, purchase, accept or receive, or export from the Protectorate the feathers of any ostrich.

The Registration of ostrich farmers. 6. Any person of European birth or descent may on application to the Provincial Commissioner of the Province in which he resides, and on payment of a fee of Rupees five be registered as an ostrich farmer.

Only ostrich farmers to trade in domesticated ostriches and their eggs. 7. No person other than an ostrich farmer shall sell, transfer, purchase or receive any domesticated ostrich or the egg of any domesticated ostrich.

Ostrich farmers may sell to feather merchant and may export the feathers of ostriches kept by him. 8. An ostrich farmer may sell to a feather merchant licensed under this Ordinance or may export from the Protectorate ostrich feathers obtained from domesticated ostriches kept by him.

9. The following licences may be granted by the Governor or by such person or persons as shall be authorised by the Governor, that is to say :—
- (1) An Ostrich Hunter's Licence.
 - (2) A Feather Merchant's Licence.

Ostrich Hunter's licences and Feather Merchant's licences may be granted.

The following fees shall be payable for licences, that is to say : for an Ostrich Hunter's Licence Rupees forty five : for a Feather Merchant's Licence Rupees fifteen.

Fees to be paid for licences.

Every licence shall except as hereinafter provided be in force for one year only from the date of issue.

10. An Ostrich Hunter's licence shall not be granted to any person other than an ostrich farmer and who shall be the occupier of not less than fifty acres of land and in possession of such pens and incubators as shall in the opinion of the Governor or of the officer authorised to issue such licences be necessary for the proper management of an ostrich farm, and not more than four ostrich hunter's licences shall be issued to any one ostrich farmer.

Ostrich Hunter's licence, to whom it may be granted.

11. (1) An Ostrich Hunter's Licence shall authorise either the ostrich farmer or any one person of European birth or descent engaged with him or employed by him in connection with his ostrich farm and named in such licence to take the eggs of wild ostriches and to capture and possess young wild ostriches for and on behalf of such ostrich farmer.

Right under an Ostrich Hunter's licence.

Provided that a single Ostrich Hunter's Licence shall not authorise both the ostrich farmer and the person so engaged and employed and named in the licence to capture young wild ostriches and to take the eggs of wild ostriches.

- (2) Should the person so engaged or employed and named in such licence cease to be engaged or employed by such ostrich farmer the Governor or the officer who shall have issued such licence may, on application being made by such ostrich farmer, cause the name of some other person of European birth or descent engaged with or employed by such ostrich farmer in connection with his ostrich farm to be substituted for the name of the person so ceasing to be engaged or employed.
- (3) An Ostrich Hunter's Licence shall not authorise the sale of young wild ostriches or the eggs of wild ostriches.

12. Natives in the employment of the holder of an Ostrich Hunter's Licence may when in the company of or under the direct supervision of such licence holder without licence assist such licence holder in hunting young ostriches, or in collecting ostrich eggs ; save as aforesaid the holder of a licence shall not accept or receive from any native any wild ostrich or the egg of a wild ostrich.

Native Servants may assist Hunters.

13. No licence granted under this Ordinance shall entitle the holder to hunt or enter upon any private property without the consent of the owner of such property or to hunt wild ostriches or to take any egg of any wild ostrich within a Game Reserve.

An Ostrich Hunter's licence does not authorise the holder to hunt, etc, on private land or in a game reserve.

14. (1) A Feather Merchant's Licence may be granted to such responsible persons or firms as may be approved by the Governor.
- (2) Such licence shall authorise the holder to purchase from ostrich farmers and to sell within the Protectorate and to export from the Protectorate the feathers of domesticated ostriches.
- (3) The feathers of any domesticated ostrich which shall be purchased or received from the holder of a Feather Merchant's Licence shall be deemed to be lawfully purchased and may be lawfully possessed in or exported from the Protectorate.
15. (1) It shall be the duty of the holder of a Feather Merchant's Licence to keep or cause to be kept a register in which shall be recorded the following particulars regarding all transactions under his licence, namely :—

Feather Merchant's licence, to whom it may be granted.

Feather Merchant to keep register.

1. The date on which any feathers are bought or received.
2. The person from whom the feathers are bought or received.
3. The weight of feathers bought or received.
4. The date when any feathers are sold or exported.

5. The weight of feathers sold or exported.
6. The persons to whom any feathers are sold.
- (2) The holder of a Feather Merchant's Licence shall produce such register for inspection whenever required to do so by a District Commissioner or a European Police Officer, of or above the rank of Inspector.
- (3) Any person who shall fail to keep the register required by this section or to produce his register when required to do so by a District Commissioner or European Police Officer of or above the rank of Inspector shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding rupees one thousand.

Feather Merchant to make a return.

16. It shall be the duty of the holder of a Feather Merchant's Licence to make or cause to be made to the District Commissioner of the District within which his place of business is situate at the end of the sixth and twelfth months from the date on which his licence shall have been issued a return of the particulars required by Section 15 (1)

Penalty for failure to make return required or for making false return.

17. Any person who shall fail to make or cause to be made any return by this Ordinance required or shall knowingly or wilfully make or cause to be made any return by this Ordinance required to be made in which there shall be any misrepresentation or from which there shall be any omission in respect of any of the particulars by this Ordinance required to be contained therein whereby such return shall be misleading, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine of Rupees one thousand.

Licence required for exporting ostriches and their eggs.
Licence Fee.

18. No person shall export from the Protectorate a live ostrich or an unblown ostrich egg unless he shall have first obtained a licence on that behalf from the Governor.

There shall be paid for a licence to export a live ostrich Rupees one thousand five hundred, and for a licence to export an unblown egg Rupees seventy-five. Provided that the Governor may remit the whole or a part of the licence fee in any case when he is satisfied that an ostrich is being exported for scientific purposes.

Certificate to be produced by exporter of a blown ostrich egg.

19. No person shall export from the Protectorate a blown ostrich egg unless he shall produce a certificate signed by an Ostrich Farmer certifying that such egg has been obtained from the person signing the certificate, or unless he shall satisfy the Customs Officer that the egg was lawfully possessed by him before the publication of this Ordinance.

Suspension of export duty on ostrich feathers.

20. No export duty shall be payable upon the feathers of any domesticated ostrich exported from the Protectorate within three years from the date of the publication of this Ordinance.

Ordinance not to apply to ostrich, eggs or feathers introduced for export or feathers introduced for sale or the feathers of wild ostriches lawfully possessed at the date of Ordinance.

21. This Ordinance shall not apply to any ostrich or to the egg of any ostrich introduced into the Protectorate for export or to the feathers of any ostrich introduced into the Protectorate for sale or export and so declared at the time of introduction, or to the feathers of any wild ostrich lawfully possessed by any person at the date of the publication of this Ordinance, the onus of proving such possession being on the owner.

The Governor may prohibit any destructive method of capturing ostriches.

22. When it appears to the Governor that any method used for capturing ostriches is unduly destructive, he may by proclamation prohibit such method or prescribe the conditions under which such method may be used, and if any person uses any method so prohibited or uses any method otherwise than according to the conditions so prescribed he shall be liable to the same penalties as for a breach of this Ordinance.

Powers to search and seize, etc.

23. When any Magistrate, European Police Officer of or above the rank of Inspector, Game Ranger or Assistant Game Ranger thinks it expedient for the purpose of verifying the register of a licence holder or suspects that any person has been guilty of a breach of any of the provisions of this Ordinance or of the conditions of his licence, he may inspect and search or authorise any subordinate officer to inspect and search any baggage, packages, waggons, tents, buildings, caravan, ship or boat belonging to or under the control of such person or his agent, and if the Officer finds any ostrich, ostrich feather, or ostrich egg appearing to have been taken or to be possessed, or any live ostrich appearing to have been captured or to be possessed in contravention of this Ordinance, he shall seize and take the same before a Magistrate to be dealt with according to law. Provided that no Game Ranger or Assistant Game Ranger shall exercise this power except in cases of emergency in which case he shall report to a Magistrate as soon as possible.

24. Any person who commits any breach of this Ordinance or of the conditions of his licence shall, save where other provision is made in the Ordinance, on conviction be liable to a fine which may extend to Rupees one thousand and when the offence relates to more ostriches than one to a fine in respect of each ostrich which may extend to Rupees five hundred and in either case to imprisonment which may extend to two months, with or without fine.

Penalty for breach of provisions of this Ordinance.

In all cases of conviction, any feather or egg of any ostrich found in possession of the offender or his agent, and all live ostriches captured in contravention of this Ordinance shall be liable to forfeiture.

If the person convicted is the holder of a licence, his licence may be revoked.

25. (1) When a person is seen or found committing an offence, or is reasonably suspected of being engaged in committing an offence against this Ordinance, a European Police Officer, Game Ranger or Assistant Game Ranger may, without warrant, stop and detain him, and if his name and address are not known to the European Police Officer, Game Ranger or Assistant Game Ranger and such person fails to give them to the satisfaction of the European Police Officer, Game Ranger or Assistant Game Ranger the European Police Officer, Game Ranger or Assistant Game Ranger may without warrant apprehend him.

Powers to Police to arrest without warrant.

(2) A person apprehended under this Section shall be taken with all practicable speed before a Magistrate and shall not be detained without a warrant longer than is necessary for that purpose.

26. The Governor may by rule prescribe the form of any licence, register or return to be issued, kept or made under this Ordinance.

Governor may prescribe forms.

27. The provisions of the East Africa Game Ordinance 1906 relating to ostriches, ostrich eggs and ostrich feathers and in so far as they relate thereto are hereby repealed. Provided that any person who shall hunt, kill or capture an ostrich in a game reserve shall be guilty of an offence against the aforesaid Ordinance: and provided further that nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to prohibit the Governor from granting a special licence to any person to hunt or capture an ostrich for scientific or administrative reasons.

Repeals.
