EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

The following Bill was read a second time at the meeting of the Legislative Council held on September 5th, 1907.

A Bill

For Regulating the Sale of Wines, Spirits and Malt Liquors.

WHEREAS it is desirable to make further and better provisions for regulating the sale of wines, spirituous and malt liquors.

Be it enacted by the Governor of the East Africa Protectorate with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows:—

Repeal of laws.

1. The laws mentioned in the first Schedule to this Ordinance shall be and the same are hereby repealed to the extent mentioned in the said Schedule except as to the offences committed against or proceedings commenced or pending under any of such repealed laws, and except as to subsisting licences which shall during the interval between the coming into operation of this Ordinance and the expiration of such licences respectively be deemed and judged of in respect of the sales and dealings which they shall be held to authorise and the liabilities which the holders thereof shall incur as if the said repealed laws still remained in force.

Exemption.

2. Nothing in this Ordinance shall apply:—

- (1) To any Medical Practitioner, Apothecary, Chemist or Druggist who may administer or sell for purely medical purposes any bonâ fide medicine containing "intoxicating liquor" as hereinafter defined.
- (2) To any person selling any spirituous or distilled perfume, or perfumery.
- (3) To any person selling medicated or methylated spirits to persons other than natives.
- (4) To any auctioneer selling by auction liquor in quantities not less than such as are authorised to be sold under a wholesale licence belonging to a licence dealer upon the licensed premises of such dealer.
- (5) To the sale to persons other than natives by a deceased person's legal personal representative of any liquor forming part of the estate of such deceased person.
- (6) To any person acting under the authority of any Judge or Magistrate or to any officer of Customs in the exercise or discharge of his duties.

Definition of terms.

3. In this Ordinance if not inconsistent with the context:—

"Intoxicating liquor" or "liquor" means any spirit, wine, ale, beer, porter, cider, perry, hop-beer, and any liquor containing more than two percent of alcohol and any other liquor which the Governor may from time to time declare by Proclamation in the "Gazette" to be included in the definition but does not include temba or other liquors habitually drawn or manufactured by

"Spirituous liquor" means liquor manufactured by any process of distillation.

"Methylated spirits" means spirit mixed with some substance in such manner and quantity as to the satisfaction of the Chief of Customs to render the mixture unfit for use as a beverage.

"Licence" means any licence for the sale or manufacture of liquor granted under this Ordinance or any law hereafter to be in force relating to the sale of such liquor.

"New licence" means a licence applied for in respect of premises not licensed for the sale of intoxicating liquor at the date of application therefor.

"Native" means a person of African extraction not being an immigrant from a place where the sale of liquor to such person is permitted.

4. No person shall sell any intoxicating liquor or manufacture any malt liquor in the Protectorate without a licence. The sale or manufacture of liquor without a licence prohibited.

5. It shall not be lawful for any person within the Protectorate to distil wine or spirituous liquors from any article. Prohibition of distilling.

Any person contravening the provisions of this Section shall be liable on conviction to the penalties provided in Section 43 of this Ordinance and all the liquor and all the machinery used for such distilling or manufacture found on his premises may be forfeited.

6. The provisions of the last preceding Section shall not apply to the owner or occupier of land distilling wine or spirituous liquor from the grapes or fruits grown on such land for his own use. Exemption from prohibition of distilling.

Licences.

7. The licences authorised to be granted under this Ordinance shall be issued by the District Commissioners in the several Districts of this Protectorate who shall, in regard to the issue of such licences and any privilege allowed or granted to the holders thereof to be noted or endorsed upon any licence, conform to the provisions of this Ordinance and any rules to be made by the Governor relating to the performance of their duties under this Ordinance. Issue of licences.

8. For or in respect of licences granted or renewed or transfers or removals or privileges allowed to the holders of licences under and in terms of this Ordinance there shall be payable and paid to the District Officer such sums of money as are prescribed in the second Schedule hereto. Fees to be paid in respect of licences.

9. Licences under this Ordinance may be granted of the several descriptions following, that is to say :— Description of licences.

  - (7) Any person who in the Protectorate or elsewhere has had a sentence of imprisonment without the option of a fine imposed upon him for the commission of some crime or offence not of a political character and has not received a full pardon therefor.
- Any person so disqualified knowingly acting or sitting as a member of a Licensing Court shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Rupees fifteen hundred.

The fact that a person is a member of a club holding a club Liquor Licence shall not in itself disqualify him from being a member of a Licensing Court.

Appointment of members.

13. Every official or non-official appointed by the Governor a member of a Licensing Court shall be appointed annually, or on the occurrence of any vacancy, and shall hold office until the thirty first day of December in the year in which he is appointed, unless his office shall be vacated by death, resignation or ceasing to reside in the Province. The first members of a Licensing Court appointed under this Ordinance shall hold office until the thirty first day of December 1908.

When Meetings to be held.

14. A meeting of the Licensing Court open to the public shall be held in each Province and at such place or places as the Governor may appoint on the second Monday in the months of June and December for the purpose of taking into consideration all applications for the granting, renewal, transfer, or removal of any licence for or in respect of which proper notice shall have been given.

Application for the renewal of licences to be entertained at the first hearing.

15. At the first meeting of a Licensing Court held under this Ordinance it shall be competent for any person to apply for the renewal of any licence previously held by him.

Quorum.

16. In Licensing Courts constituted as provided in Section 11 (a) or (b) three members shall form a quorum for the despatch of business. If a quorum be not present on the day appointed as advertised or at any adjournment thereof the said meeting shall be adjourned from day to day until a quorum can be present to hold such meeting.

The Provincial
Commissioner or District
Commissioner to preside at meetings.

17. In the Courts mentioned in the preceding section the Provincial Commissioner or in his absence the District Commissioner shall preside at every meeting of the Licensing Court; in case neither of those Officers are present the members present shall elect one of their number to preside. The decision of the majority of members present shall be the decision of the Court, and the

18. It shall be lawful for such Licensing Court to adjourn any meeting from time to time as the Court may think fit during the period of one month next after their first meeting, but no longer. Adjournment.

19. The person presiding at any meeting of the Licensing Court shall, within seven days after such meeting or any adjournment thereof is concluded, cause to be forwarded to the District Commissioner a list signed by him specifying the names and places of residence of all persons to whom certificates have been granted by the Court for obtaining or renewing licences and the nature of the licences authorised, granted or renewed in their respective Districts; and shall forward to the Inspector General of Police a copy of such returns and a return showing:— Returns of licences to be forwarded to District Commissioner and to Inspector General of Police.

- (1) A return of the number of the licences existing immediately before the sitting of the Court.
- (2) A return of the number of licences authorised to be renewed.
- (3) A return of the number of licences transferred to other premises.
- (4) A return of the number of new licences authorised to be granted.
- (5) A return of the number of licences refused.

20. The Licensing Court may, anything to the contrary notwithstanding in this Ordinance, when it shall be satisfied of its being for the convenience of the public, grant to the holder of any restaurant licence an extension of the hours for the sale of liquor under such licence until not later than twelve o'clock at night. Granting of midnight privileges

Such privileges shall be called Midnight Privileges and there shall be paid in respect of each such privilege an amount equal to one half of the amount chargeable in respect of such licences.

21. Any person interested in any premises about to be constructed or in course of construction for the purpose of being used as a house for the sale of intoxicating liquors to be consumed on the premises may apply to the Licensing Court for the provisional grant of a licence in respect of such premises, and the Licensing Court if satisfied with the plans submitted to them of such premises and that if such premises had been actually constructed in accordance with such plans they would on application have granted such a licence in respect thereof may make such Provisional Grant. A Provisional Grant shall not be of any validity until it has been declared to be final by the Provincial Commissioner. Such declaration shall be made if the Provincial Commissioner is satisfied that the house has been completed in accordance with such plans as aforesaid and is also satisfied that no objection can be made to the character of the holder of such Provisional Licence.

22. (1) If through any accident or omission anything required by this Ordinance to be done is omitted to be done or is not done within the time fixed, the Governor may order all such steps to be taken as may be necessary to rectify any error or omission and may validate anything which may have been irregularly done in matter or form so that the intent and purpose of the Ordinance may have effect. The Governor may also authorise the holding of a special meeting of any Licensing Court in the event of any emergency requiring that a special meeting should be held. Power of Governor to rectify omissions and order special meetings of Licensing Courts.

(2) Any licence granted at any special meeting of the Licensing Court shall continue in force only until the close of its next usual meeting.

23. (i) When any Licensing Court shall deem it necessary to take evidence respecting any question to be determined by such Court such evidence shall be given on oath (which oath the person presiding is hereby authorised to administer), and shall be filed on record in the office of the Provincial Commissioner. Evidence to be given on oath.

(ii) If any person shall upon any examination on oath before any Licensing Court wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, such person shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of perjury. False evidence perjury.

Application for and relating to Licences.

24. (i) Any person desiring to obtain a licence for the sale of liquor under this Ordinance (save and except where otherwise provided for) or the removal of any such licence from the licensed premises to any other premises in the same district; or the transfer of a licence by the holder thereof to any other person When application for licences to be made.

sioner of the Province, at least six weeks before the annual meeting, setting forth his full name and address; the full names of his partners (if any); the nature or description of the licence required to be obtained, or transferred as the case may be; the number or name (if any) of the house and the street or road where the business is intended to be or is carried on, or, in the case of the transfer of a licence, the name of the person to whom the same is desired to be transferred; provided always that in case any application as aforesaid shall through inadvertence not be made in due time but shall be made within ten days thereafter, the Provincial Commissioner may if he sees fit accept the same for consideration thereof by the Licensing Court at the next meeting or any adjournment thereof, upon condition of payment of the sum of Rupees seventy five and upon such terms as to notice as the Provincial Commissioner may prescribe.

- (ii) In the case of an application for the renewal of a licence no notice need be given, but no such application shall be considered by the Licensing Court unless such application is made on the first day of the meeting of such Court.

The Provincial
Commissioner to publish notice of application.

25. (1) The Provincial Commissioner receiving any such application as in the last preceding section mentioned shall cause a notice to be posted in some conspicuous place at or in his office containing the name of the applicant, the situation of the premises in respect of which the application is made, the day on which and the place where the Licensing Court will sit for hearing such application.
- (2) The Provincial Commissioner shall as soon as possible on receiving such application cause the name of such applicant as aforesaid to be sent to the Inspector General of Police whose duty it shall be before the hearing of the application to report as fully as possible to the Licensing Court on all matters which would affect the decision of the Licensing Court in respect of such application as aforesaid.
- (3) The notice mentioned in Sub-Section (1) of this Section shall be posted and published thirty days at least before the sitting of the said Court and a copy thereof shall be sent by post or otherwise to every member constituting such Court, and to the Editor of the "Official Gazette" for publication; provided that no licence authorised to be granted by any such Court shall be capable of being questioned by reason that any such notice was not duly posted, published or sent as aforesaid.
- (4) Every such application and every application for the renewal of a licence shall bear a stamp of Rupees five to be affixed by the applicant and cancelled by the Provincial Commissioner.

Death or insolvency of applicant.

26. In case the applicant for any licence shall die or shall become insolvent after applying for the grant or renewal or removal of a licence, on or before the day for considering such application, the Licensing Court may if it thinks fit grant a certificate for such licence to the widow of any deceased applicant or to the executor, administrator, receiver or trustee as the case may be of the estate of such applicant.

Objections to Applications for Licences.

Who may object to issue of licences.

27. Any European member of the Police force acting on the general or special instructions of the Inspector General of Police or any person residing in a district wherein a licence is applied for may either individually or jointly with others object to the granting of such licence.

28. (1) All objections to the granting or renewal of a licence shall be sent in writing to the Provincial Commissioner, and, where the objection is to the renewal of a licence, notice thereof stating the reasons for such objections shall be given to the applicant personally or by means of a registered letter by the person or persons objecting at least ten days before the hearing by the Licensing Court. Provided however Licensing Courts may hear an objector to a granting of a licence notwithstanding that he shall not have sent his objections to the Provincial Commissioner, but in such case the Court shall, if the applicant shall so

- (2) Every applicant for a new licence shall appear in person before the Licensing Court and may be called upon by it to answer on oath such questions as it may think necessary, but it shall be lawful for the applicant, and any applicant for removal, transfer or renewal of a licence to be represented at the hearing by a pleader.
- (3) Every objector to the granting or renewal of a licence may appear personally before the Licensing Court or be represented by a pleader.
- (4) The Council of any Municipality may authorise by writing under the hand of the Chairman thereof any person to appear before the Licensing Court for the purpose of objecting on behalf of the inhabitants to the granting or renewal of a licence in such Municipality.

29. The Licensing Court shall have the right to refuse to grant a licence without giving any reason and may grant a licence subject to such conditions as it may deem fit not repugnant to the provisions of this Ordinance which shall be embodied in the licence. Court may refuse to grant licences without giving reasons.

30. (1) The Licensing Court may of its own motion take notice of any matter or thing which in the opinion of the members thereof would be an objection to the granting or to the renewal, transfer or removal of a licence although no objection has been made thereto by any person. And when there is no objection.
- (2) In any case when the application is for the renewal, transfer or removal of a licence the Court shall inform the applicant of the objection and shall adjourn the further consideration of the application, should the applicant so request, for any period not less than seven days in order that the person affected by such objection may have the opportunity of replying thereto.
- (3) The Court shall after such adjournment give notice in writing signed by the President thereof of the cause of objection to the person affected thereby and of the day on which the adjourned application will be considered.

Cases in which Licences cannot be granted or renewals may be refused.

31. It shall not be competent for the Licensing Court to grant a new licence when any of the following objections is proved to its satisfaction:— Reasons for refusal of licences.

- (1) That the applicant is of bad fame or character or of drunken habits or has previously forfeited a licence or has been convicted at any time previous to his application of selling liquor without a licence.
- (2) That the premises in respect of which the application is made are out of repair or are not kept in a clean or wholesome state.

32. A Licensing Court may refuse to grant the renewal of an existing licence when it is proved to its satisfaction.

- (1) That the premises in respect of which the application is made are out of repair or are not kept in a clean or wholesome state, provided that notice of such disrepair or unclean or unwholesome state shall have been given by the Court on the last renewing of the licence.
- (2) If there shall have been four convictions within five years or two within the preceding twelve months of any offence under this Ordinance against the holder of the licence in respect of the premises for the renewal of licence for which application is made.
- (3) That any conditions imposed by the Licensing Court under Section 29 of this Ordinance have not been complied with.

33. It shall not be competent for the Licensing Court to grant a new licence or the renewal of any existing one or the transfer of a licence to any person:— Persons to whom a licence shall not be granted.

- (1) Who here or elsewhere has had a sentence of imprisonment imposed upon him for the commission of some crime or offence not of a political character without the option of a fine and has not received a full pardon therefor.

- (2) In the case of a retail licence not residing in this Protectorate.
- (3) Who is under the age of 21 years.
- (4) Who is a native.

The premises in respect of which a licence is issued or transferred to any person disqualified under this section shall be closed for the sale of liquor by order of the Provincial Commissioner of the Province in which they are situated until such time as the licences shall be transferred.

Transfer and Removal of Licence.

Transfer of licence.

34. Any person being the holder of a licence (other than a temporary or club licence) who shall during the currency thereof sell or dispose of his business or the house or premises in respect of which such licence was granted may make application to the Provincial Commissioner for a temporary transfer of such licence to the purchaser of such business or to the purchaser or lessee of such premises as the case may be, and the Provincial Commissioner may if he thinks fit and upon payment by the applicant of the sum of fifteen rupees grant temporary transfer of such licence accordingly.

Removal of licensed premises.

35. The holder of any licence (except a temporary licence) who may desire to remove his licence from the licensed premises to any other premises in the same Province may make application to the Provincial Commissioner of the Province in which the premises to which it is proposed to remove are situated to authorise such removal; and the Provincial Commissioner if satisfied that to wait for the next meeting of the Licensing Court would subject such holder to serious loss or inconvenience and, if he thinks fit after hearing any objections to such removal, may upon payment of fifteen Rupees authorise such removal after not less than 30 days' notice of such application shall have been affixed in a conspicuous place on the outside of the premises to which it is proposed to remove the licence, and at the Provincial Commissioner's Office.

Fresh application to be made.

36. Any person to whom a licence may be temporarily transferred and any person who may be authorised to remove his licence to other premises and any person to whom a provisional licence shall have been granted shall at the next licensing meeting apply for a licence as if he were not a licensed person.

Where transfer or removal not ratified.

37. A Licensing Court shall not be bound to ratify a temporary transfer or removal sanctioned by the Provincial Commissioner, and, should it refuse to do so at its next meeting upon consideration of the application then made in respect thereof, such licence shall as to the person to whom the same was originally granted or in respect of the premises originally licensed be considered to be in the same position as if no such transfer or removal has taken place, and an application for the renewal of the licence by the transferee shall at the request of the transferor be deemed and taken to be an application by him for such renewal.

Death of holder of licence.

38. In case of the death of the holder of any licence the widow (if any) or the executor or the administrator of the deceased person or any person approved by the Provincial Commissioner and in case of insolvency the trustee or receiver of the estate of such insolvent may carry on the business until the next licensing meeting either personally or by agent approved of by any writing under the hand of the Provincial Commissioner without any formal transfer of the licence.

Power and duties of representative of deceased.

39. Any person to whom a licence may be temporarily transferred or who may be carrying on or conducting the business of licensed premises as the widow or executor or administrator of the estate of any deceased person or as the person approved by the Provincial Commissioner or as the trustee of any estate of any insolvent or as an approved agent of any such widow, executor, administrator or trustee or other person shall possess all the rights and be subject and liable to all the duties, obligations and penalties of the original holder of the licence.

Offences.

40. No person who is not licensed shall have any words or letters on his premises importing that he is licensed, and no licensed person shall have any words or letters importing that he is licensed in any other way than that in which he is duly licensed. Any person guilty of a contravention of this section shall be liable to a penalty of seven hundred and fifty rupees and in default of

41. (1) No person shall sell, barter, give or otherwise supply to any native any intoxicating liquor, provided always that liquor may be supplied to a native for medicinal purposes or sacramental use, and in such case the burden of proof shall be upon the person who supplied it to show that the liquor was required for such purpose.

Every person contravening the provisions of this section shall on conviction be liable :—

- (a) For a first offence to a fine not exceeding Rupees one thousand and five hundred and in default of payment to imprisonment not exceeding six months, or to imprisonment with hard labour for a term not exceeding six months.
- (b) For a second offence to a fine not less than Rupees seven hundred and fifty and not exceeding Rupees three thousand and in default of payment to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding twelve months or to imprisonment with hard labour for a term not less than six months or exceeding twelve months, or to both fine and imprisonment.
- (c) For a third or any subsequent offence to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not less than two years and not exceeding three years and in addition to such imprisonment at the discretion of the Court to a fine not exceeding twelve thousand Rupees and in default of payment to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a further period not exceeding two years.

In any summons or charge for an offence against the provisions of this section it shall not be necessary to set out the names of the natives to whom intoxicating liquor is alleged to have been sold, bartered, given or otherwise supplied; but it shall be sufficient to allege that such sale, barter, gift or supply was effected to natives; provided always that nothing in this paragraph contained shall render it unnecessary to set out accurately in such charge all other material particulars of the charge.

- (2) Any person being the holder of a licence who shall be convicted of contravening the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section may in addition to any other penalty forfeit his licence, and in such case no licence shall at any time thereafter be granted to such person unless and until he shall have received a free pardon for such conviction.

42. No holder of any liquor licence shall employ a person under the age of sixteen, a person convicted of any offence under this Ordinance or a native to sell intoxicating liquor. Any person knowingly contravening the provisions of this section shall be liable to a fine not exceeding seven hundred and fifty Rupees and in default of payment to imprisonment not exceeding three months.

43. No native shall obtain by purchase or barter or be in possession of any intoxicating liquor.

Any native contravening the provisions of this section shall on conviction be liable to be imprisoned with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding three months.

44. If in any proceedings under sections 41, 42 or 43 there shall be any question as to whether any person is or is not a native it shall be sufficient for the prosecution to satisfy the Court that such person is a person of African extraction, and the onus shall then be upon the accused to show that such person is an immigrant from a place where the sale of liquor to such person is allowed.

45. The holder of any licence who shall be guilty of any of the following acts or offences shall upon conviction be liable in respect of each act or offence to a penalty not exceeding one hundred and fifty Rupees and in default of payment to imprisonment without hard labour for a period not exceeding one month

- (1) Permit drunkenness or any riotous or quarrelsome conduct to take place upon his premises.
- (2) Sell liquor to any person already in a state of intoxication or by

- (3) Knowingly sell liquor to any police officer below the rank of sergeant during any time appointed for him to be on duty, unless on the written authority of a superior officer, or knowingly harbour or suffer to remain on his premises any such officer during such time as aforesaid unless for the purpose of keeping or restoring order or in execution of his duty.
- (4) Permit his premises to be a brothel or the habitual resort or place of meeting of reputed prostitutes.
- (5) Keep his licensed premises open for the sale of liquor or sell or expose any liquor for sale during any time when he is not authorised by the licence to sell; or allow any liquors purchased before the hour of closing to be consumed on such premises after such closing.

And in case of a second or subsequent conviction every such holder shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding three hundred Rupees and in default of payment to imprisonment without hard labour for a period not exceeding two months.

Trading without a licence.

46. Any person who shall contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance sell or deal in or dispose of any intoxicating liquors without a licence, or sell or offer or expose for sale any such liquors at any place where he is not authorised by his licence to sell shall on conviction be liable to the penalties provided in section 41 sub-sections (1) and (2) of this Ordinance, and all liquor found on the premises may be forfeited.

Club licences abuse of.

47. Any holder of a club liquor licence who shall sell or allow to be sold liquor to any person not being a member of such club shall be liable for each offence to a penalty not exceeding Rupees one thousand and five hundred and in default of payment to imprisonment without hard labour for a period not exceeding six months.

Offences by retail licence holders
rendering licence holder liable to forfeiture and penalties.

48. The holder of any retail liquor licence shall be liable to forfeit such licence in addition to any other penalty by this Ordinance provided:—

- (1) If he shall permit any other person to manage, superintend or conduct the business of the licensed premises during his absence for a longer period than one month without the consent in writing of the Provincial Commissioner.

Any person who shall at any time be lawfully managing, superintending or conducting the business of the holder of any licence shall be subject and liable to the same duties, obligations and penalties as such holder; provided that nothing herein contained shall be taken to relieve the holder from any duties, obligations or penalties to which he may by law be subject or liable.

- (2) If he shall, whether present in such premises or not, permit any unlicensed person to be in effect the owner or part owner of or interested in the business of the licensed premises unless with the consent of the Provincial Commissioner.
- (3) If he shall be convicted of any offence under this Ordinance and a previous conviction within the preceeding twelve months of the same or any other offence under this Ordinance shall be proved or three previous convictions within the proceeding five years.
- (4) If he shall be twice convicted within the year of selling offering or keeping for sale any adulterated liquor.

Evidence of sale of liquor.

49. In any proceeding relating to any offence under this Ordinance it shall not be necessary to show that any money actually passed or that any liquor was actually consumed, if the Court hearing the case be satisfied that a transaction in the nature of a sale actually took place, and any consumption of liquor on licensed premises by some person other than the occupier or member of his family or servant in such premises shall be evidence that such liquor was sold to the person consuming or about to consume the same by or on behalf of the holder of such licence.

If any vendor of non-intoxicating beverages not being duly licensed shall supply intoxicating liquor to mix or be taken with such beverage he shall be deemed to have sold such intoxicating liquor.

50. In any proceeding against any person for selling or allowing to be licensed. The fact of any person not holding a licence having any sign board or notice importing that he is licensed upon or near his premises or having a house or premises fitted up with a bar or other place containing bottles, casks or notice importing that he is licensed upon or near his premises or having a house or premises fitted with a bar or other place containing bottles, casks, or vessels so displayed as to induce a reasonable belief that liquor is sold or served therein or having liquor concealed or more liquor than is reasonably required for the persons residing on such premises shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the unlawful sale of liquor by such person.

51. If any person other than the licence holder, a member of his family, his agent or servant or a person lodging in the licensed premises be found in any bar on such premises during the hours in which the sale or disposal of liquor to the public is prohibited it shall be taken to be prima facie evidence of a sale of liquor during such hours. The licence holder on whose premises any such person is found during such hours shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Rupees one hundred and fifty, but nothing in this section contained shall apply in the case of persons passing through any bar in any licensed premises for the sole purpose of obtaining access to any other part of such premises.

Persons on premises of retail licence holder during prohibited hours,

52. Any person convicted of contravening any of the provisions of this Ordinance for or in respect of which no penalty is specially provided shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding three hundred rupees and in default of payment to imprisonment without hard labour for any period not exceeding three months; and when a penalty has been provided for any offence without any period of imprisonment in default of payment thereof then the person convicted of such offence shall be liable :—

Offences for which no penalty provided,

- to imprisonment without hard labour for a period not exceeding one month if the penalty do not exceed one hundred and fifty rupees.
- to imprisonment without hard labour for a period not exceeding three months if the penalty exceed one hundred and fifty rupees and do not exceed seven hundred and fifty rupees.
- to imprisonment without hard labour for a period not exceeding six months if the penalty exceed seven hundred and fifty rupees, unless such penalty be sooner paid.

53. (1) Every conviction against a licence holder shall be endorsed by the Magistrate on the licence of the convicted person and every application to the Licensing Court for a renewal of the licence shall if required by the Licensing Court be accompanied by the licence.

(2) Any licensed person convicted of an offence under this Ordinance shall, on demand being made by the Court convicting him, produce his licence. Any such person refusing so to produce his licence shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred and fifty Rupees.

54. When any tenant of any licensed premises is convicted of an offence against this Ordinance it shall be the duty of the Magistrate convicting to serve a notice of such conviction on the owner of the premises.

Where any order of a Court declaring any licensed premises to be disqualified from receiving a licence for any period has been made, the Court shall cause such order to be served on the owner of such premises, where the owner is not the occupier, with the addition of a statement that the Court will sit at a time and place therein specified, at which the owner may appear and appeal against such order on all or any of the following grounds, but on no other grounds :—

- (a) That notice as required by this Section was not served on the owner of a prior offence which on repetition renders the premises liable to be disqualified from receiving a licence for any period; or
- (b) That the tenant by whom the offence was committed held under a contract made prior to the commencement of this Ordinance, and that the owner could not legally have evicted the tenant in the interval between the commission of the offence in respect of which the disqualifying order was made and the receipt by him of the notice of the immediately preceding offence which on repetition renders the premises liable to be disqualified from

- (c) That the offence in respect of which the disqualifying order was made, occurred so soon after the receipt of such last mentioned notice that the owner notwithstanding he had legal power to evict the tenant, could not with reasonable diligence have exercised that power in the interval which occurred between the said notice and the second offence.

If the owner appear at the time and place specified, or to which the Court shall be adjourned for the purpose, and shall satisfy the Court that he is entitled to have the order cancelled on any of the grounds aforesaid, the Court shall thereupon direct such order to be cancelled, and the same shall be void.

55. Any licensed person may refuse to admit to and may turn out of the premises in respect of which his licence is granted any person who is drunken, violent, quarrelsome or disorderly, and any person whose presence on his premises would subject him to a fine or penalty under this Ordinance. And any such person who upon being requested in pursuance of this Section by such licensed person, or his agent or servant, or any Police Officer, refuses or fails so to do, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rupees seventy five, and all Police Officers are required on the demand of such licensed person, agent or servant, to expel or assist in expelling every such person from such premises and may use such force as may be required for the purpose.

Powers and Duties of Provincial Commissioners, District Commissioners and Police Officers.

Report of Chief
Officer of Police.

56. (1) It shall be the duty of the Chief Officer of the Police in every district to report to the Provincial Commissioner any licensed premises which are out of repair or have not reasonable accommodation or proper or sufficient sanitary or drainage requirements; and any case in which the holder of a licence shall be of drunken habits or shall keep a disorderly house.
- (2) Any European Officer of Police acting on the instructions of such Chief Officer may enter any licensed premises during the hours such premises are open and inspect and examine every room and part thereof for the purpose of the report in the last subsection mentioned.
- (3) Any Officer of Police may enter any licensed premises at any time when he has reasonable grounds for believing that liquor is being sold in such premises contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance.
- (4) Any person resisting or obstructing an Officer of Police in the execution of his duty as aforesaid shall be liable to a fine not exceeding seven hundred and fifty rupees and in default of payment to imprisonment without hard labour for a period not exceeding three months.

Inspection of premises.

57. It shall be lawful for any Magistrate or European Police Officer to enter in or upon any premises where intoxicating liquors are being sold and to demand inspection of the licence authorising such sale. Any holder of a licence refusing to produce such licence shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred and fifty rupees and in default of payment to imprisonment without hard labour for a period not exceeding one month or to such imprisonment without the option of a fine.

intoxicated persons.

58. Any person found by a Police Officer drunk and incapable or drunk and disorderly in or near a street, road or other public thoroughfare or in a public house, shop, warehouse, hotel or any other public place may be arrested without warrant and brought without any unnecessary delay before a Magistrate.

Every such person shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding forty five rupees and in default of payment to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding seven days; and for a second or subsequent conviction he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred and fifty rupees and in default to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding one month.

Inspection of
unlicensed premises
by Police.

59. It shall be lawful for any Police Officer having a special written authority from a Magistrate at all reasonable hours to enter any unlicensed premises or any waggon, cart or other vehicle in which it shall reasonably be suspected that any intoxicating liquor is sold or kept for sale and search such on conviction before it of the owner or person found in possession thereof. Provided always that when there is danger that the delay occasioned by obtaining such written authority will defeat the objects of this section any Police Officer may exercise the powers conferred hereby without any written authority, but he shall as soon as possible report what he has done to a Magistrate.

60. Any Police Officer may demand the name and address of any person found on premises in which he seizes or from which he removes any liquor under the provisions of this Ordinance; and if such person shall refuse to comply with such demand or shall give a name or address which the Police Officer demanding the same has reasonable grounds to believe to be false, he may arrest such person without warrant and take him as soon as possible before a Magistrate. Any such person who refuses to give his name or address when so demanded as aforesaid or gives a false name or address shall on conviction be liable to a penalty not exceeding seventy-five rupees.

Police may demand the name and addresses of persons on premises.

61. Any Police Officer may arrest without warrant any person whom he has reasonable grounds to believe has committed an offence under sections 41, 43 or 46 of this Ordinance; provided that he shall take such person before a Magistrate as soon as possible.

Police may arrest without warrant in certain cases.

Miscellaneous.

62. Every licence granted on a certificate from the Licensing Court may be issued for six or twelve months but shall expire on the thirty first day of December of the year in which it was issued; in every case however in which application for the renewal of a licence is made such licence shall continue in force until the conclusion of the meeting of the Licensing Court at which such application is made.

Licences to expire on the thirty first day of December.

63. Any Master or other person employing workmen, servants or labourers who pays or causes any payment to be made to any such workman, servant or labourer in the bar of any premises licensed for the sale of liquors shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred and fifty rupees; but nothing herein contained shall extend to any holder of any liquor licence who pays upon his own licensed premises the workmen, servants or labourers employed by him in connection with his licensed premises.

Prohibition of payment of wages on licensed premises.

64. The Governor may from time to time make, alter and revoke regulations not being contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance for regulating the proceedings and meetings of Licensing Courts and prescribing the forms of licences, notices and other documents to be used, and generally for the more efficient administration of this Ordinance.

Governor may make regulations for proceedings of Licensing Courts.

65. The costs incurred by members of any Licensing Court in connection with legal proceedings instituted against them in their official capacity shall, unless the Court before which the proceedings are taken order the costs to be borne by the opposite party or by the said members personally, be paid to them out of the Protectorate Treasury.

RATE CIRCULAR

No. 14 1907.

COACHING.

Reduced Rates for Africans (except Somalis) travelling in batches of 10 or over under special conditions.

On and from 12th October 1907, reduced fares for parties as above-mentioned, will be granted subject to the rules herein mentioned:—

1. Bonâ fide natives of East Africa and Uganda (except Somalis) when travelling in batches of 10 or over will be carried at half ordinary third class fare in third class carriages only.
2. The concession is only allowed to batches of men proceeding to or returning from work on farms, plantations or mines within the East Africa and Uganda Protectorates.
3. A certificate to the above effect on the proper form and certified by the Assistant Traffic Manager at Mombasa, Nairobi or Port Florence, the Traffic Inspector or the District Station Masters of Nairobi and Mombasa, must be produced to the Station Masters or Booking Clerk by each party to admit of the reduced fare tickets being issued.
4. District Officials, Recruiting Agents and Employers of labour should apply, in writing, to one of the above-named officials for a certificate, stating the number of men and their destination before sending the men to the railway station.
5. Printed certificate forms can be procured from the officials mentioned in para 3, and from all Station Masters.
6. The reduced fares do not apply to the Mombasa-Mazeras local trains.
