EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

AN ORDINANCE

No. 5 of 1908.

Title. To make further provision for preventing the spread of Diseases among Animals.

Date. [ June 25th, 1908. ]

Enactment. BE it enacted by the Governor of the East Africa Protectorate with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof :—

Short title. 1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Diseases of Animals ( Fencing ) Ordinance 1907.

Interpretation of terms. 2. In this Ordinance unless inconsistent with the context :—

“Disease” shall have the same meaning as in the Diseases of Animals Ordinance 1906 and in any Ordinance amending the same.

“Stock” shall have the same meaning as in the Diseases of Animals Ordinance 1906 and in any Ordinance amending the same except that it shall not include poultry.

“Fence” shall mean a suitable stock proof fence with gates at places where it crosses public or private roads and suitable appliances where it crosses other obstacles erected and maintained in accordance with the requirements of the Rules made under Section 12 of this Ordinance or which the Commissioner of Lands with the advice of the Land Board shall in any particular case declare to be a legal fence.

“Dividing Fence” and “Fence Dividing Farms” shall mean a fence as above defined separating the lands of adjoining owners. Provided however that whenever a fence intended to prevent the stock of the owner of a farm from entering on the farm of an adjoining owner shall have been erected with the approval expressed in writing of both such owners wholly or partly on the land of either such owner such fence shall be deemed to be a dividing fence.

“Infected area” shall mean an area declared an infected area under Section 4 of The Diseases of Animals Ordinance 1906.

“Suspected area” shall mean any land abutting upon an infected area or any land suspected on reasonable grounds of having been exposed to infection and declared by the Governor to be a suspected area by a notification in the “Official Gazette”.

“Commissioner of Lands” shall include in addition to the person holding that office any person generally or specially authorized by such person to carry out the provisions of this Ordinance.

“Farm” shall mean any area of land held under a separate grant or lease and used wholly or partially for agricultural or grazing purposes, and any area of Crown Land occupied under a homestead agreement.

“Owner” shall as regards land include a lessee of Crown Land and an occupier of Crown Land under a homestead agreement.

“Imprisonment” shall mean either imprisonment with or without hard labour.

3. The Commissioner of Lands may with the consent of the Governor cause to be erected a fence or fences within or around a portion or the whole of the boundaries of any farm or farms within an infected or suspected area, or of any town lands within such area, or of any native reserve whether within such area or not.

Land on which Commissioner of Lands may cause fence to be erected.

4. The cost of erecting any fence under the provisions of Section 3 of this Ordinance shall be defrayed by the Government, and the fence so erected shall be the property of the Government and may subject to the provisions of this Ordinance be at any time removed by the Government.

Cost of such fence to be defrayed by and such fence to be the property of Government.

5. The Commissioner of Lands may with the consent of the Governor cause to be erected a fence or fences within or around a portion or the whole of the boundaries of any farm, whether within an infected or suspected area or not, the owner of which shall have made an application to him for the erection of such fence and shall have given security to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Lands for the re-payment to the Government of the cost of the erection of such fence or fences.

Erection of fence on application by owner of a farm

6. (1) The cost of erecting any fence under the provisions of section 5 shall be in the first instance defrayed by the Government, provided that such cost shall be repaid together with interest at the rate of 3% per annum by equal yearly instalments commencing two years after the fencing is completed, such instalments being so calculated and fixed that the said cost and interest shall be wholly repaid within a period of ten years from the date from which the first instalment becomes due as shown in the Schedule to this Ordinance.

Manner in which cost of such fence is to be defrayed.

(2) Such repayment of cost and interest shall be made by the owner of any farm fenced under the last preceding Section, or, if the fence divides the farms of adjoining owners both of whom shall have had their farm fenced at the same time under the last preceding Section, then each such owner shall pay one half of the cost of the part of the fence dividing such farms together with the interest as aforesaid.

7. The particular class of any fence erected under this Ordinance shall be determined by the Commissioner of Lands.

Class of fence to be determined by Commissioner of Lands.

8. The Commissioner of Lands shall in every case before exercising the powers conferred upon him by Section 3, 5, 7, 9, 10, and 12 of this Ordinance consult the Land Board.

Commissioner of Lands to consult Land Board.

9. Whenever any fence shall have been erected on any farm under Section 3 of this Ordinance the Commissioner of Lands may allow the owner of such farm to purchase the said fence by paying to the Government the cost of the erection of the fence together with the interest thereon at the rate of 3% per annum, such payment to be made by equal yearly instalments so calculated and fixed by the Commissioner of Lands that the said cost and interest shall be wholly paid off within a period of ten years from the date of the agreement to purchase, or he may allow the owner the use of such fence for such time as the Commissioner of Lands may think fit, on his entering into an agreement to pay to the Government 5% per annum on the cost to date of such fence.

Purchase of fence from Government by owner of farm.

Provided however that should any such owner after having entered into any such last mentioned agreement be permitted to purchase the said fence there shall be deducted from the purchase price which such owner would be required to pay under this Section two-fifths, of such sum as he shall have paid to the Government for the use of such fence.

10. (i) The owner of a farm who shall hereafter fence his farm with a legal fence and the owner of a farm which shall have been fenced under Section 5 or who shall have purchased a fence under Section 9 may recover from the owner of the adjoining farm one half of the value of so much of a dividing fence as such last mentioned owner shall use or avail himself of in any of the following cases :

Recovery of portion of value of dividing fence from owner of adjoining farm.

(a) When the farm adjoining the farm first fenced shall be fenced under Section 5.

(b) When the owner of the farm adjoining the farm first fenced shall have agreed to purchase a fence on such first mentioned farm under the provisions of Section. 9.

- (c) When the owner of the farm adjoining the farm first fenced shall fence his farm.
- (ii) The money so recoverable shall be paid by the person liable to pay the same either in a lump sum or by such instalments spread over such period as the Commissioner of Lands shall determine, and such lump sum or such instalment when due may be sued for and recovered in the Court of a Magistrate of the first class.
- (iii) Section 5 and 6 shall be deemed to be extended so as to enable the Commissioner of Lands to advance the money so recoverable, and any sum so advanced shall be repaid by the same persons and in the same manner as the cost of the erection of a fence is repayable under Section 6.

Cost of repairs to dividing fence—
how to be defrayed.

11. When any dividing fence to the cost of the erection of which the owners of the land on either side shall have contributed or are liable to contribute shall be out of repair such owners shall be liable for the cost of repairing such fence in equal proportions. Provided however that if such disrepair shall have been occasioned by the wilful act or neglect of one such owner it shall be the duty of such owner to repair or reconstruct the fence so out of repair; if he shall fail to do so within a reasonable time after notice given, the other owner may cause the necessary repairs or reconstruction to be done and may recover the expenses reasonably incurred by him in so doing from the owner liable to do the repair or reconstruction.

Rules prescribing legal fence to be made &c., by Commissioner of Lands.

12. The Commissioner of Lands shall make and may from time to time alter or revoke rules prescribing what fences shall be deemed to be legal fences for the purpose of this Ordinance.

Maintenance of fence in repair.

13. (1) The owner of a farm which shall have been fenced under the provision of Section 5 and the owner of a farm who shall have agreed to purchase a fence erected on his farm under Section 3 shall at all times until the cost of the erection of such fence and the interest thereon has been wholly paid to the Government maintain the fence in good and substantial repair to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Lands.

(2) Should any such owner, after a notice has been served upon him by the Commissioner of Lands requiring him to do any repairs to such fence, omit to do such repair within such time as the Commissioner of Lands may consider reasonable, the Commissioner of Lands may cause the fence to be repaired at the expense of the Government, but in every such case the cost of such repair shall be added to the original cost of the erection of such fence and shall be repaid to the Government with interest thereon at the rate of 3% per annum by the owner of such farm, and the instalments payable by such owner under this Ordinance shall be increased accordingly.

Fence may not be removed or altered
by owner of land till all costs have been repaid to Government.

14. The owner of a farm which has been fenced under Section 5 of this Ordinance and the owner of a farm who shall have agreed to purchase a fence erected under Section 3 shall not remove any part of such fence or make any alterations in such fence without the consent of the Commissioner of Lands until the cost of the erection and repairs (if any) of such fence and the interest thereon shall have been wholly repaid to the Government.

Duly authorized persons may enter on land for purpose of repairing or protecting fence.

15. The Commissioner of Lands and any persons authorized by him and his or their servants may at any time enter upon any land for the purpose of repairing a fence erected under Section 3 of this Ordinance and may for the purpose of protecting such fence from fire clear the ground near such fence. Provided that this section shall not be deemed to impose any duty upon the Government in respect of the repair of fences mentioned in Section 13.

Municipal Council to be deemed owner of a farm in respect of town lands.

16. A Municipal Council shall be deemed to be the owner of a farm in respect of any town-lands fenced under this Ordinance.

Commissioner of Lands to keep a register of persons by whom such monies to be repaid.

17. The Commissioner of Lands shall cause to be kept in the Land Office a register in which shall be recorded the full name and address of the person liable to make any repayment under this Ordinance, the amount for which he is liable, and a clear description of the farm in respect of the fencing of which the repayment aforesaid is to be made. Such register shall be open to the inspection of all persons at any time during which the Land Office shall be open for public business.

18. An instalment which shall remain unpaid for 21 days after the same shall have become due may be sued for and recovered by the Commissioner of Lands from the person for the time being the owner of the farm in respect of which the payment is due. Commissioner of Lands may sue for and recover any instalment overdue.

19. Nothing in this Ordinance shall make it unlawful for the Commissioner of Lands to accept from any person liable to make any repayment to the Government under this Ordinance a payment at any time of a sum equal to the value at that time of the instalments unpaid by such person. Instalments may be paid off in lump sum at any time.

20. (1) The Commissioner of Lands shall cause to be served upon any person liable to make any payment under this Ordinance a notice setting forth the amount of the yearly instalment and the date on which the first instalment becomes due. Notice to be served on persons liable to make repayment.

(2) A notice sent by post to the last known address of the person to be served, or published in the "Official Gazette" shall be deemed to be good service for the purpose of this Ordinance.

21. The Commissioner of Lands with the sanction of the Governor may cause to be fenced any public road traversing any part of an infected or suspected area and the cost of any fence erected under the powers of this Section shall be defrayed entirely by the Government. Power to fence public roads.

Offences.

22. Any person who shall open and leave open or finding open shall on passing through neglect to shut and fasten any gate in any fence erected under this Ordinance, shall on conviction be liable for the first offence to a fine not exceeding one hundred and fifty Rupees and in default of payment to imprisonment for a period not exceeding fourteen days and upon any subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding three hundred Rupees and in default of payment to imprisonment not exceeding six weeks. Penalty for omitting to shut a gate.

23. Any person who shall injure any fence erected under this Ordinance, and on being requested so to do by the owner or occupier of the land on which it is situated, or by some person authorized thereto by such owner or occupier, shall refuse to give his true name and usual address or shall give and untrue name or address, shall upon conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding three hundred and seventy-five Rupees and in default of payment to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months. Persons damaging fence bound to give his name and address on demand by owner of land.

24. Any person who inadvertently injures any fence erected under this Ordinance shall forthwith repair the same, and in the event of his being unable to do so shall forthwith report the same to the owner of the land on which such fence is situated or in the case of a fence erected along a public road to the Commissioner of Lands, and deposit such sum as may be reasonably sufficient to cover the cost of repairing the same, and he shall be entitled to receive a receipt therefor. Fence inadvertently damaged to be repaired by the person causing the damage.

Any person failing to repair such fence or give such notice with such reasonable sum as aforesaid or refusing to give a receipt therefor, shall on conviction be liable to a fine of one hundred and fifty Rupees and in default of payment to imprisonment for a period not exceeding fourteen days, and shall in addition pay such sum or such sum in addition to any already paid as will cover the cost of such repairs by way of damages.

25. Any person who wilfully injures or removes any fence, gate or other appliance or contrivance forming part thereof erected under this Ordinance shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand Rupees and in default thereof to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months and shall in addition be ordered by the Court by which he is convicted to pay the amount of damage sustained by the owner of such fence, gate or other appliance, and such order shall be executed in the same way as a judgment of such Court in a Civil Case is executed. Penalty for wilful damage to fence.
