RULES OF COURT.

Issued by His Majesty's Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, under the provisions of "The Eastern African Protectorates (Court of Appeal) Order in Council, 1909"

Entry of Appeal.

1 For the purpose of every appeal to the Court of Appeal, the appellant shall file with the Registrar or other officer of the High Court of the Protectorate from which the appeal emanates (hereinafter called the High Court), a Memorandum in writing setting forth concisely and under distinct heads, the grounds of objection to the decree appealed against, together with a certified copy of such decree, without any argument or narrative, and such grounds shall be numbered consecutively

2 The appellant may appeal against the whole or any part of a decree, and the Memorandum of Appeal shall state whether the whole or part only of such decree is complained of and in the latter case shall specify such part. The Memorandum of Appeal shall also state the nature of the relief which is sought

For the purpose of these Rules a decree shall include a judgment, order or sentence

Appellant confined to the grounds of Appeal.

3 The appellant shall not, without the leave of the Court of Appeal, urge or be heard in support of any ground of objection not mentioned in the Memorandum, but the Court in deciding the appeal shall not be confined to the grounds set forth by the appellant

Provided that the Court shall not rest its decision on any ground not set forth by the appellant, unless the respondent has had sufficient opportunity of contesting the case on that ground

In these Rules the term respondent shall include any person who has been served with notice of appeal or who is entitled to be so served

Time of filing Memorandum of Appeal.

4 The Memorandum of Appeal shall be filed in civil cases within three months, and in criminal cases within thirty days from the date of the decree appealed against. Provided that in criminal cases, if the appellant is in gaol, he may present his Memorandum of Appeal to the officer in charge of the gaol, within such thirty days, who shall thereupon file such Memorandum in the High Court

Leave to file out of time necessary.

5 If a Memorandum of Appeal is presented out of time, the High Court shall require the appellant to file a petition for leave to file the Memorandum of Appeal out of time, supported by an affidavit giving reason for the delay, and the High Court, on forwarding the application to the Court of Appeal, may make such remarks as it thinks fit in regard to the statements contained in the affidavit and until such petition shall have been granted, and a notification thereof forwarded to the said High Court, all proceedings in the appeal shall be stayed

Fees payable, and security on appeal.

- 6 (1) On filing the Memorandum of Appeal, the appellant shall pay to the High Court such fees as may be payable locally. The appellant shall also within such time as the High Court directs, give reasonable security to the satisfaction of the said Court for the prosecution of the appeal and for payment of the fees of the Court of appeal, and of any costs that may be ordered by the Court of Appeal to be paid by the appellant, and shall pay such sum as the High Court thinks reasonable to defray the expense of the making up and transmission of the record to the Court of appeal
- (2) In the event of the fees or charges payable, or the security to be given, not being paid or given or being only partly paid or given, within the time directed by the High Court, all proceedings in the appeal shall be stayed (subject to the Rules with regard to pauper appeals) unless the High Court or the Appeal Court shall otherwise order for reasons to be stated in the order
- (3) Should the Court of Appeal not claim payment of fees within one month of the decision in appeal or should it make no order as to costs the security given shall lapse and the High Court may refund any deposit made by way of security

Declarations and arguments may be filed with Memorandum.

7 The appellant may, with his Memorandum of Appeal, file a declaration in writing that he does not wish to be present in person or by pleader on the hearing of the appeal, together with such arguments as he desires to submit to the Court of Appeal

Service of Notice.

- 8 (1) The High Court shall serve notice of the appeal together with a duplicate copy of the Memorandum of Appeal, and also of the declaration and arguments (if any) mentioned in Rule 7
- (2) When a person to be served with any notice under these Rules cannot be found within the jurisdiction of the High Court, the notice shall be advertised in the "Official Gazette" and no further service shall be necessary

Person to be served with Notice.

9 Such notice shall be served upon all parties directly affected by the appeal, and it shall not be necessary to serve parties not so affected, but the Court of Appeal may direct notice to be served upon any person and in the meantime may postpone or adjourn the hearing of the appeal upon such terms as may be just, and may give such judgment and make such order as might have been given or made if the person served with such notice had been parties directly affected by the appeal and originally served with notice

10 The respondent may, within seven days after receiving such notice, file a declaration, in writing, that he does not wish to be present in person or by pleader on the hearing of the appeal, together with such arguments as he desires to submit to the Court of Appeal

11 The High Court shall have full power to allow amendment of the Memorandum of Appeal, declarations, and arguments, upon such terms as to service of notice of such amendment, costs and otherwise, as it may think fit

High Court to make up record.

12 The High Court shall, with all convenient speed after the expiration of seven days from the date of service of notice on the respondent or notification in the "Official Gazette" as the case may be, and without the application of either party, make up the record of appeal which shall consist of the Memorandum of Appeal, declaration and arguments (if any), and copies of material proceedings, including a copy of the evidence and decree and forward the same to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal. Provided that the High Court may forward any portion of the documentary evidence in original, if for special reasons it sees fit

Any person, whether appellant or respondent, may apply to the High Court and specify any of the papers or exhibits in the case, copies of which he requires to be made, and thereupon copies of such papers or exhibits shall be made for him at his expense and given to him

13 After receipt of the record as aforesaid, all applications regarding the appeal must be made to the Court of Appeal

Notice of Hearing.

14 On receipt of the record the Registrar of the Court of Appeal will serve notice of the date of hearing upon the appellant and respondent. Such notice will ordinarily be served through the High Court

15 The Court of Appeal may hear and determine an appeal without giving notice of the date of hearing to any person who has declared that he does not wish to attend the hearing

Pauper Appellant

16 If any appellant alleges that he is unable to pay the fees on appeal, the High Court, upon application being made for that purpose, shall inquire into the question of the poverty of the appellant, and, if it is satisfied that the allegation of poverty is true, it shall forward to the Court of Appeal the record appeal, together with a declaration to the effect and a statement of the proportion of the fees, if any, the appellant is able to pay and no fees other than the above shall be payable either in the Court of Appeal or in the High Court. If the High Court is not satisfied as to the poverty of the appellant, it shall forward the application to the Court of Appeal with a report as to the appellant's means, but shall take no other step in the appeal without orders from the Court of Appeal

Formation of the Court of Appeal.

17 The Court of Appeal shall be summoned in accordance with directions to be given by the Senior Member of the Court

18 All appeals except as otherwise provided by these Rules shall be heard and decided by three members of the Court of Appeal and the determination of any question before such Court shall be according to the opinion of the majority of the members of the Court hearing the appeal

19 In any appeal, whether civil or criminal, pending before the Court of Appeal, any direction incidental thereto, not involving the decision of the appeal, may be given by two members of the Court of Appeal, and two members of the Court of Appeal may at any time make any interim order to prevent prejudice to the claims of any parties pending an appeal as they may think fit

20 The following civil appeals may be disposed of by a Court consisting of two members of the Court of Appeal —

(a) Appeals in cases in which the subject-matter of the appeal is less than 1,500 Rupees in value

(b) Any appeal with the written consent of both parties, such consent to be filed with the Registrar of the Court of Appeal

21 No member of the Court of Appeal shall sit for the hearing and determination of an appeal from a decree made by himself alone or jointly with others

22 The number of acting Judges who may sit at any one time in the Court of Appeal shall not exceed one

23 Of the members forming a Court of Appeal the Senior member shall be president of the Court, and shall have power to appoint any person or persons with special expert knowledge to act as assessor or assessors to the Court in any case where it appears in the Court that such special knowledge is required for the proper determination of the case

Where Court equally divided in opinion.

24 If on the hearing of an appeal the court is equally divided in opinion, the appeal shall be dismissed

If on the hearing of an interlocutory application, the Court is equally divided in opinion the opinion of the senior member of such Court shall prevail

25 Unless a Court hearing a criminal appeal direct to the contrary in cases where, in the opinion of such Court, the question is a question of law on which it would be convenient that separate Judgments should be pronounced by the members of such Court, the judgment of such Court shall be pronounced by the President of the Court or such other member of the Court hearing the appeal as the President of the Court direct and no judgment with respect to the determination of any question shall be separately pronounced by any other member of such Court

Powers of the Court of Appeal.

26 If for any reason it appears right to adjourn an appeal or application, the Court of Appeal shall have full power to do so upon such terms and for such times as seems fit

27 The Court of Appeal shall have the same powers to deal with cases of contempt of its authority as the High Court of Justice in England

28 In civil appeal the Court of Appeal shall have power —

a To dismiss an appeal

b To reverse or vary a decree on a preliminary point and on such reversal to remand the case to the Court against whose decree the appeal is made with direction to proceed to determine the case on the merits

c To resettle issues and finally to determine a case, notwithstanding that the judgment of the Court against whose decree the appeal is made has proceeded wholly on some other ground than that on which the Court of Appeal proceeds

d To call additional evidence or to direct the Court against whose decree the Appeal is made or any other subordinate Court to take additional evidence

e To make any amendment or any consequential or incidental order that may be just and proper

f To confirm, reverse or vary the decree against which the appeal is made

g To order that a decree shall be set aside and a new trial be had

h To make such order as to costs in the appeal Court and in the Court or Courts below as may be just

29 In a criminal appeal the Court of Appeal shall have power —

a To dismiss the appeal

b In any appeal from an order of acquittal, to reverse such order and direct that further enquiries be made, or direct that the accused be retried, or find him guilty and pass sentence on him according to law

c In any appeal from a conviction to

- I reverse the finding and sentence and acquit or discharge the accused or order the accused to be retried
- II alter the finding maintaining the sentence, or, with or without altering the finding, reduce the sentence
- III with or without such reduction and with or without altering the finding alter the nature of the sentence but not so as to enhance the same
- d In an appeal from any other order alter or reverse such order
- e Make any amendment or any consequential or incidental order that may be just and proper
- f Call for a report from the Judge who tried the case

30 Additional evidence taken on appeal shall be either by oral examination in Court, by affidavit, or by deposition taken before an examiner or commissioner

Interlocutory order not to prejudice appeal

31 No interlocutory order or rule from which there has been no appeal shall operate so as to bar or prejudice the Court of Appeal from giving such decision upon the appeal as may be just Stay of proceedings on Appeal.

32 In civil matters an appeal shall not operate as a stay of execution or of proceedings under the decree appealed from except so far as the High Court or the Court of Appeal may order, and no intermediate act or proceeding shall be invalidated except so far as the Court of Appeal may direct Interest where execution delayed by Appeal.

33 On an appeal from the High Court, interest for such time as execution has been delayed by the appeal shall be allowed, unless the High Court or the Court of Appeal orders otherwise, and the taxing officer may compute such interest without any order for that purpose

Pleaders and costs in criminal Appeals.

- 34 a The President of the Court may at any time assign to a pauper appellant in a criminal appeal a pleader in an appeal in which it appears desirable in the interests of justice that the appellant should have legal aid
- b The expenses of any pleader assigned to an appellant under this rule shall be defrayed out of the general revenue of the Protectorate from which the appeal emanates

35 On the hearing and determination of a criminal appeal or any proceedings preliminary or incidental thereto no costs shall be allowed on either side

36 Where costs are allowed in a civil appeal they shall be taxable according to the rules for the taxation of costs for the time being in force in East Africa

Fees, etc. on appeals.

37 The following fees shall be taken by the Court of Appeal on setting an appeal down for hearing in the Appeal Court list

UGANDA RAILWAY.

NOTICE

Alteration in Lake Steamer Sailings.

Public Notice is hereby given that the S S "Winifred" will leave Port Florence on the 2nd or 3rd instead of 4th February. This steamer is conveying troops direct to Kampala and will not call at Hoima or Jinja. There will be no accommodation for public passengers or cargo between Port Florence and Kampala Port.

From Kampala Port the vessel will continue the usual round trip via Entebbe and will probably pick up the time table timings from there.
