6 Nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to authorise any person to enter any closed district, except he shall have obtained a licence on that behalf from the proper authority

Penalty for unauthorised mining

7 Any person who prospects or mines without being authorised to do so by virtue of this Ordinance or of some enactment theretofore in force or without the licence or authority of the Governor, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall, on conviction, be liable to pay for each offence a penalty not exceeding 15 Rupees for every day on which he shall so prospect or mine

Fees to be charged

8 The fees set out in the Schedule B hereto shall be charged and taken in respect of the matters referred to in such Schedule

PART II

Departmental and Official.

Commissioner of Mines

9 There shall be a Commissioner of Mines to be appointed from time to time by the Governor and such Commissioner of Mines or the Officer for the time being acting for him shall have charge of the administration of this Ordinance and of the Department of Mines

Appointment of Wardens, etc

10 The Governor may appoint such Wardens, Inspectors, Registrars, and other Officers as may be necessary for the purposes of this Ordinance

Jurisdiction of Commissioner in Suits

11 (1) The Commissioner of Mines may hear and determine in a summary way all suits concerning any right, claimed in, under, or in relation to a prospecting claim or prospecting licence, or any advantage thereof or liability thereunder, or any contract in respect thereof

(2) The Jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Mines shall extend not only to cases where the litigants are the parties originally interested in the cause of suit, but to cases where the title of litigants is derived from or through any of such parties

Power of hearing

12 The Commissioner of Mines may decide any suit, and any matter arising therein, in such manner as may be just, and may make and give all orders and directions necessary for enforcing his decision, and may award reasonable costs

Mode of proceeding before Commissioner

13 The mode of proceeding in a suit before the Commissioner of Mines shall be as follows —

- (1) The person suing shall lodge a plaint note at the Office of the Commissioner of Mines
- (2) The plaint note shall be in the prescribed form and shall specify shortly the subject matter of the complaint, and the relief claimed
- (3) Upon receipt of the plaint note the Commissioner of Mines shall give notice in the prescribed form, by post or otherwise, to the party sued and the time and place at which the same will be heard and determined
- (4) At the time and place appointed the parties shall attend and state their cases before the Commissioner of Mines, and may call evidence on oath (which oath the Commissioner of Mines is hereby authorised to administer) in support thereof, and the Commissioner of Mines having heard such statement and evidence, shall give his decision, which shall be final, except as hereinafter provided
- (5) The Commissioner of Mines may adjourn the hearing of a suit to any other time or place, and may, either at the original hearing or at any adjournment, proceed in the absence of either party.

- (6) Save as in this Ordinance otherwise expressly provided no person who is not the holder of a prospecting licence in his own name shall have any right to institute proceedings before the Commissioner of Mines

14 The order or decision of the Commissioner of Mines need not be formally drawn up, but the record in the book, which he is hereby required to keep for the purpose, shall be conclusive evidence of the order or decision and any person may obtain a copy of the record on payment to the Commissioner of Mines of the prescribed fee

Commissioner's order need not be formally drawn up

15 The Commissioner of Mines, upon the hearing of a suit, may cause any gold or precious stones, mineral, coal or oil to be summarily seized and delivered to the person entitled thereto

Commissioner may order minerals, etc to be seized

16 The Commissioner of Mines or any Inspector or any person authorised by the Commissioner of Mines may, at all reasonable times, enter and inspect any mine held under a claim or mining lease, and examine and take extracts from all books, accounts, vouchers, and documents relating thereto, or to any gold or precious stones, minerals, coal, or oil obtained therefrom

Inspection by Commissioner

17 The law for the time being regulating proceedings before and the powers of a Subordinate Court of the First Class in the exercise of its civil jurisdiction shall, so far as practicable, and subject to any modifications, alterations, or additions which may be prescribed, apply to proceedings before the Commissioner of Mines and to the enforcement of his decisions in like manner as if such decisions were the decisions of a Judge of a Subordinate Court of the First Class

Law regulating proceedings before, and enforcement of orders of, the Commissioner

18 There shall be an appeal from any determination in any suit of the Commissioner of Mines, or from any order of dismissal, which appeal shall be to the High Court, and shall be conducted in manner provided for an appeal from a Judge of a Subordinate Court of the First Class

Appeal

- 19 (1) Nothing in the preceding Sections contained shall be deemed to prevent the holder of a prospecting licence from bringing in any of the ordinary Courts of the Protectorate any suit which might be heard and determined by the Commissioner of Mines. Provided, however, that whereas it is the intention of this Ordinance that all suits brought by the holder of a prospecting licence concerning any right, claimed in, under, or in relation to a prospecting licence or a prospecting claim or any advantage thereof or liability thereunder, or any contract in respect thereof shall, so far as may be proper and convenient, be heard and determined by the Commissioner of Mines, the High Court or any Court subordinate thereto before which any such suit as aforesaid may be brought, may, on the application of the defendant or if there be more defendants than one, on the application of any one or more of the defendants, and if satisfied that the suit could be properly and conveniently heard and determined by the Commissioner of Mines, direct that the suit be brought before the Commissioner of Mines

Jurisdiction of ordinary Courts not excluded

- (2) The Governor may, by notice in the "Gazette," confer upon any Warden the powers and jurisdiction vested in the Commissioner of Mines by Sections 11 to 18 (both inclusive) of this Ordinance, and may in like manner define the area within which such Warden shall exercise such powers and jurisdiction

Governor may confer upon a Warden jurisdiction in suits

PART III

20 Prospecting and Mining shall be permitted pursuant to this Ordinance by virtue of —

Modes of acquiring right of prospecting, mining, and occupation

- (a) A Prospecting licence
- (b) A gold lease
- (c) A precious stones lease
- (d) A mineral lease
- (e) A coal lease
- (f) An oil lease or

- (g) A miscellaneous lease and in addition to the rights of occupation conferred by the foregoing, occupation shall be permitted pursuant to this Ordinance by virtue of —
- (a) A business licence, or
- (b) An occupation licence

PART III—DIVISION II—PROSPECTING LICENCES

Prospecting licence 21 A Prospecting Licence, to be in force for one year from the date thereof, shall be issued by the Commissioner of Mines or other prescribed Officer to any European of or over the age of 16, upon payment of the sum of Five Rupees, and such licence shall be in the form contained in Schedule C to this Ordinance

A prospecting licence shall not be transferable

Renewal 22 A prospector's licence may be renewed at any time during its currency

Term of renewal 23 Every renewal shall be in force for one year from the expiration of the licence renewed

Privileges under Prospecting licence 24 (1) A prospecting licence shall, in the first instance, authorise the holder to prospect for any gold, precious stones, mineral, coal, or oil the property of the Crown, and to peg out such claims as are hereafter in this Ordinance specified

(2) No person shall, at the same time, own more than one claim by virtue of the same prospecting licence, but any European of or over the age of 16 may hold any number of prospecting licences, and for each prospecting licence so held by him he may own one claim. Provided that no person shall hold more than one alluvial or placer gold or precious stones claim. Provided further that nothing in this Sub-section contained shall be deemed to prohibit a discoverer of gold, precious stones, minerals, coal or oil from holding the prescribed number of reward claims by virtue of one prospecting licence

(3) The pegging out of any claim shall be invalid unless done by or in the presence of, the person who intends to register the claim in his own name

(4) The pegging out of any claim shall be invalid if done between the hours of 6 p.m. and 6 a.m.

(5) A Prospecting Licence shall not authorise a person who is not a British Subject to peg out an oil claim

Claims which may be pegged out 25 A prospecting licence shall authorise the holder to own a claim of the kind following —

- (a) A gold claim, reef or banket
- (b) A gold or precious stones claim, alluvial or placer
- (c) A precious stones claim, other than alluvial
- (d) A mineral claim
- (e) A coal claim
- (f) An oil claim

Provided, however, a person who is not a British Subject shall not be entitled to own an oil claim or to enjoy the right of mining for oil anything in this Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding

Dimensions of claims 26 Claims which may be owned under this Ordinance shall not exceed the following dimensions —

- (a) A gold claim, reef or banket, 300 feet in length along the supposed line of the reef or banket and 600 feet in width
- (b) A gold or precious stones claim, alluvial or placer, 100 feet by 100 feet
- (c) A precious stones claim, other than alluvial, twenty acres
- (d) A mineral claim, forty acres
- (e) A coal or oil claim, six hundred and forty acres

Shape of claim 27 The shape of a claim shall, as nearly as circumstances permit, be that of a rectangular parallelogram, the length of the longer side of which shall not exceed twice the length of the shorter side and one of the sides shall run as nearly as may be in a North and South direction, the bearings being magnetic

Mode of taking Possession of claim 28 (1) A Prospector pegging out a claim shall erect at the point of discovery a post not less than 3 inches through and 4 feet above the ground or a stone monument 3 feet high on which a notice shall be posted signed by the Prospector containing

- (a) The name of the Prospector
 - (b) The date of the pegging out of the claim
 - (c) The length and width of the claim in feet
 - (d) The distance in feet from the point of the discovery to each end of the claim
 - (e) The general course of the claim
- (2) The date of the erection of the post or monument at the point of discovery and the posting of the notice aforesaid shall be deemed to be the date of the pegging out of the claim. Provided that the Prospector shall, before registering the claim, place at each corner of the claim a substantial post 4 feet above the ground or a stone monument 3 feet above the ground on which shall be marked or advertised the initials of the Prospector and the date of the pegging out, and shall further cut two trenches not less than 6 feet long and 6 inches deep in the direction of the boundary lines of which the post is intended to form the corner. Such corner posts or monuments shall be maintained in position while the claim is held.

29 The owner of a claim of whatever nature, within 30 days after the claim is first pegged out, or within such additional time (if any) as the Commissioner of Mines may, on the ground of sickness, absence or other like disability of any such owner, or for other reasonable cause, allow, shall register the claim in the office of the Provincial Commissioner of the Province wherein the claim is situated, or with the prescribed Officer. Registration of claim

A monthly return of all such registers shall be furnished by the Provincial Commissioners and the prescribed Officers to the Commissioner of Mines.

30 No claim shall be registered unless the prospecting licence under which the claim is held is produced to the Provincial Commissioner or prescribed Officer. Prospecting licence to be produced on registration

31 Any person desiring to register a claim shall make an application for registration in the manner and form prescribed. Mode of registration

The Provincial Commissioner or prescribed Officer shall, on payment of the prescribed fee, enter in a book to be called "The Mining Register" full particulars of each application clearly specifying the class of claim and shall fill in and sign a certificate of registration in the prescribed form, and hand such certificate of registration to the person so producing or forwarding such application.

32 If any person neglects to register his claim in the manner and time aforesaid he shall forfeit all rights in respect thereof. Neglect to register

33 Any person who shall, by false representations or fraudulent concealment of facts, obtain registration of any claim under this Ordinance, shall forfeit his rights in the claim in respect of which such registration has been obtained, and be liable to a penalty not exceeding seven hundred and fifty Rupees. False representations

34 The ownership of a claim shall subject to the provisions of Section 35 confer the following rights in respect thereof — Rights of owners of claim

- (a) As to a gold claim, the preferential right to a gold lease, and in the meantime the sole right of mining on the claim for gold and the ownership of all gold or minerals found
- (b) As to a precious stones claim, the preferential right to a precious stones lease, and in the meantime the sole right to mine on the claim for precious stones, and the ownership of all precious stones, gold or minerals found
- (c) As to a mineral claim, the preferential right to a mineral lease and in the meantime the sole right to mine on the claim for any minerals, and the ownership of all such minerals when found
- (d) As to a coal or oil claim, the preferential right to a coal or oil lease, and in the meantime the right to mine for coal or oil and the ownership of such coal or oil when found

35 Whenever an alluvial or placer deposit of gold or precious stones is found on any claim other than an alluvial or placer claim, the holder of a prospecting licence may peg out on such claim an alluvial or placer claim, and whenever precious stones shall be found on any claim other than a precious stones claim, alluvial placer or otherwise, the holder of a prospecting licence may peg out a precious stones claim, and whenever oil is found on any claim other than an oil claim the holder of a Prospecting Licence, being a British Subject, may peg out on such claim an oil claim. Claim not to be pegged out twice under the same or different class of claim
Savings as to gold and precious stones

Save as in this Section otherwise provided no area which is pegged out under one class of claim shall be pegged out, except by the owner of such claim.

or with his sanction, under the same or any other class of claim unless forfeiture of such first mentioned claim has been declared or such claim has been abandoned

Priority of claims

36 Whenever the same area shall be included in different classes of claims, the different classes shall have priority in the following order ---

- (a) Alluvial or placer gold or precious stones claim
- (b) A precious stones claim, other than alluvial, a gold claim, reef or blanket
- (c) Mineral coal or oil claims but the owners of all claims shall comply with prescribed requisites for securing to each the benefit of his claim, and for preventing unnecessary interference with any right previously existing

Additional rights of a prospector

37 A prospecting licence shall confer upon the holder the following rights when engaged actively in prospecting or mining, namely ---

- (1) On unoccupied Crown land to take fuel and water for his domestic use provided, however, that he shall not have the right to cut any standing timber in any Proclaimed Forest Area, or any reserved tree unless he shall have obtained permission in writing from the Conservator of Forests or other prescribed officer.
- (2) On any land on which he is entitled to prospect to take for his domestic use water from any lake river or stream, and, with the consent of the owner or occupier of private land or on tendering to the owner or occupier a reasonable sum in payment thereof, any fuel other than standing live timber

Right of residence and grazing on claim

38 The owner of a claim shall have the right to reside on his claim and of grazing on his claim for six horses or mules, or for sixteen oxen or donkeys free of charge on unoccupied Crown land, and if on any private lands on payment to the owner or occupier of the land where such licence is exercised of fifty cents per diem. Provided, however, that on private land the owner of the claim shall only exercise the rights conferred on him by this Section on such portion of the claim as shall be indicated by the owner or occupier

If any question shall arise between the owner or occupier of the land and the owner of the claim as to the suitability of land indicated by the owner or occupier it shall be determined by the Commissioner of Mines or other prescribed officer

Owner of claim must on abandonment, fill up shaft etc

39 Any person who shall abandon his claim shall forthwith fill up or fence or secure to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Mines or other prescribed officer all shafts, pits, holes and excavations, in such manner as to prevent persons or stock inadvertently entering the same

Penalty

Any person who shall have failed to comply with the provisions of this section shall be liable to pay to the Commissioner of Mines if the claim shall have been situate on unoccupied Crown land, or to the landowner if the claim shall have been situate on the land of any landowner, such sum as the Commissioner of Mines or other prescribed officer shall certify will be the cost of filling up, fencing or securing all shafts, pits, holes and excavations on the abandoned claim

Owner of claim may be required to make a deposit or to enter into a bond

40 The Commissioner of Mines shall, on the written application of any landowner on whose land a claim shall have been pegged out, require the owner of the claim to deposit with the Commissioner of Mines the sum of 400 Rupees or to enter into a bond with two sureties to be approved by the Commissioner of Mines, or other prescribed officer, in the sum of 400 Rupees for himself and 200 Rupees for each of the two sureties for the due and proper repair in the event of the claim being abandoned by him of any surface damage done by him on the land of any owner and for the due payment of the sum accruing to the landowner from the owner of the claim on account of the daily payments such claim owner is required to make under Section 38

If the owner of the claim shall fail or neglect to make such deposit or enter into such bond as aforesaid within the time specified by the Commissioner of Mines and the landowner shall not, in writing addressed to the Commissioner of Mines release the owner of the claim from his obligation to make the deposit or enter into such bond, the claim shall be liable to be forfeited

When deposit may be refunded

41 The Commissioner of Mines shall hold subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, any deposit made under the provisions of the preceding Section until one month after (a) the claim in respect of which the deposit shall have been made shall have been forfeited, or (b) notice shall have been received from the depositor of his intention to abandon the claim, or (c) the depositor shall have transferred the whole of his interest in such claim or (d) a mining lease shall have been granted over the area the subject of the claim, and shall then return to the depositor the sum deposited, less any deduction which may have been made in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, provided that a suit shall not then have been commenced before the Commissioner of Mines by the landowner for the recovery from the depositor of any moneys due to the landowner under this Ordinance

42 Whenever the Commissioner of Mines is satisfied in a suit instituted before him by a landowner, which suit a landowner is hereby authorised to bring although not the holder of a prospecting licence, that any sum is due from the depositor to such landowner in respect of any of the payments matters or things in respect of which the deposit has been paid, he may deduct and pay to the landowner out of the moneys deposited such sum as he shall find to be due to the landowner, and in addition the costs, if any, of the suit

Sums due to landowner may be deducted from the deposit

43 A claim shall be deemed to be abandoned in any of the following cases — Claim when deemed to be abandoned

(1) If, except under such circumstances as may be prescribed, no prospecting or mining shall have been done on the claim by the owner of the claim or by some person in the employ of, or prospecting or mining with the consent of, the owner, for a period of 28 days and notwithstanding that forfeiture of the claim shall not have been declared

(2) If the owner of the claim shall notify the Commissioner of Mines in writing of his intention to abandon the claim, or

(3) If at any time no prospecting licence is held by the owner or if there are more owners than one, by no one of the owners

44 (1) Every claim shall be liable to forfeiture upon non-compliance by the owner with the prescribed conditions as to working the same Forfeiture

(2) If at any time the Commissioner of Mines is satisfied that payable results have been obtained on any claim he may require the owner of the claim to take a lease of his claim and in default of compliance with such requisition within such time as the Commissioner of Mines may specify the claim shall be liable to forfeiture

45 A holder of a prospecting licence who shall, in a suit instituted by him before the Commissioner of Mines, or a Warden if authorised by the Governor in this behalf, prove that a claim is liable to forfeiture, shall be entitled to an order declaring and enforcing such forfeiture, and shall, for fourteen days after the making of such order, have a preferential right to enter upon and peg out such claim

Rights of persons proving liability to forfeiture

46 (1) After, but not before, the registration of a claim the owner may, subject to the regulations, and in the prescribed manner, by instrument in writing, divide the interest in the claim into such shares as he shall think proper, and may allot shares and transfer the claim or create or transfer any interest therein

Transfer of claims and interest therein

(2) The transfer of an oil claim and the grant or transfer of any share or interest therein shall be invalid unless the consent in writing of the Governor to such transfer or grant shall first have been obtained, and the transferee or grantee is a British Subject, or a firm or Syndicate, all the members of which shall at all times be and remain British Subjects, or a British Company registered in Great Britain or in a British Colony or in the Protectorate and having its principal place of business within His Majesty's Dominions or in the Protectorate and the Chairman of the said Company and all the remaining Directors shall at all times be British Subjects and the Company shall not at any time be or become a Corporation directly or indirectly controlled by foreigners or foreign Corporations

47 Two or more adjoining claims may be amalgamated in manner prescribed, and every amalgamation shall be registered as prescribed

Amalgamation of claims

PART III—DIVISION III—GOLD LEASES AND PRECIOUS STONES LEASES

- (a) That the Lessee shall give an undertaking that he will, if required to do so, erect in the Protectorate a refinery capable of dealing with the out-put of oil from the area leased to him, and will so treat the oil as to produce residues suitable for the requirements of His Majesty's Government, provided that the Lessee may, if he prefer to do so, arrange with the proprietors of some approved refinery already erected in the Protectorate to refine the oil in accordance with the requirements of His Majesty's Government, provided also that the Governor shall have the power to waive this condition in any lease, either for a fixed period to cover the initial stages of development or until a reasonable time after His Majesty's Government shall have announced its readiness to purchase from the Lessee stated quantities of oil residues at their current commercial value
- (b) That the Lessee shall give reasonable security for the proper development of the area leased
- (c) That His Majesty's Government shall have the right of pre-emption at current commercial prices of all crude oil won from the area leased, and of all products of the refining or treatment of such oil
- (d) That in the event of war, the Governor on behalf of His Majesty's Government shall have power to take control of the works and plant in the area leased
- (e) That the Governor shall have the power to regulate the site of any refinery or place of storage of oil in the Protectorate

59 (1) No lease for the purpose of mining for mineral oil or authorising the Lessee to mine for mineral oil shall be granted and no assignment of any such Licence or lease shall be made, unless the Lessee or Assignee shall be a British Subject or a firm or Syndicate, all the members of which shall at all times be and remain British Subjects, or a British Company registered in Great Britain or in a British Colony or in the Protectorate and having its principal place of business within His Majesty's Dominions or the Protectorate, and the Chairman of the said Company and all the remaining Directors shall at all times be British Subjects and the Company shall not at any time be or become a Corporation directly or indirectly controlled by foreigners or foreign Corporations Oil Leases only to be granted or assigned to British Subject

- (2) If the Lessee shall assign the same in whole or in part without the previous consent in writing of the Governor, or if the Lessee or Assignee shall cease to be a British Subject, or if, where a firm or Syndicate is the Lessee or Assignee, any member of the firm or Syndicate shall cease to be a British Subject, the Governor may thereupon cancel the lease, and in the event of any alteration being made in the articles of association or constitution of a Company holding any such lease previous notice thereof shall be given in writing to the Governor who, if in his opinion the said alteration shall be contrary to the cardinal principle that the said Company shall be and remain a British Company and under British control, may refuse his consent to such alteration. If and whenever any such alteration shall be made without the written consent of the Governor or if the Company shall at any time cease to be a British Company or shall become a Corporation under foreign control, the Governor may thereupon cancel the lease.

PART III—DIVISION VI—MISCELLANEOUS LEASES

Salt and Gypsum
lease, etc

60 The Governor may grant to the holder of a prospecting licence leases of Crown lands for such term and at such rent and upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, for all or any of the following purposes —

- (1) For the manufacture or obtaining of soda salts or gypsum
- (2) For the working of mineral springs
- (3) For sites for smelting works or any other mining works approved by the Governor

Conditions of lease

61 Every lease granted under the preceding section shall contain —

- (1) A Covenant by the lessee to use the leased land boni fide for the purpose for which it shall have been leased, and for no other purpose
- (2) Such other covenants and conditions as may be prescribed
- (3) A proviso for forfeiture upon breach by the lessee of any covenant or condition therein

PART III—DIVISION VII

Surface rights conferred by lease for Mining purposes.

A lease of private land to confer only such surface rights as are absolutely required for mining purposes

62 A lease under this Ordinance of private land for mining purposes shall confer upon the lessee surface rights only so far as may be absolutely required for or in connection with mining purposes. Whenever a disagreement shall arise between the owner of private land and a lessee of such land for mining purposes as to whether any surface right claimed by the lessee is absolutely required for or in connection with mining purposes the same shall be determined by arbitration.

Owner of private land entitled to compensation for disturbance, etc

63 An owner of private land who shall be disturbed in his possession, or damaged or injured in any way by reason or in consequence of any right or power conferred by any lease of such land for mining purposes shall be entitled to claim from the lessee compensation in respect of such disturbance, damage or injury, the amount of which compensation shall, in all cases of disagreement, be determined by arbitration.

Surface rights on Crown land

64 A lease of land, other than private land, for mining purposes shall confer such surface rights only as may be prescribed.

PART IV

Inspection of Mines.

Powers of Inspector.

65 An inspector at all reasonable times by day or night, but so as not unreasonably to impede or obstruct the working of the mine may —

- (i) Enter, inspect and examine any mine
- (ii) Examine into and make enquiry respecting the condition and ventilation thereof, and all matters relating to the safety and health of the persons employed
- (iii) Inspect and examine the state of the external parts of the machinery used upon or in the mine, and the state of all plant, works, and ways
- (iv) The inspector shall, in case he finds any mine or any part thereof or any matter, thing, or practice in or connected therewith, to be defective, give notice in writing to the owner, agent, or manager of the mine stating particulars in which he considers such mine or any part thereof, or any matter, thing or practice, to be defective, and requiring the same to be remedied

- (v) Inspect the storage of explosives upon any mine and direct in what manner the same shall be stored
- (vi) Exercise all powers necessary for carrying this part of the Ordinance into effect

66 If the owner, agent, or manager of the mine objects to remedy the matter complained of in any notice under the last preceding section, he may, within twenty one days after the receipt thereof, send his objection in writing stating the grounds thereof, to the Commissioner of Mines, and thereupon the matter shall be submitted to and determined by the Commissioner of Mines, or by such officer as he may appoint on that behalf

Proceedings on objection to comply with notice

67 If the owner, agent, or manager of the mine fail to comply with the requisition of the notice, where no objection is sent within the time aforesaid, or with the decision of the Commissioner of Mines or other officer as aforesaid within twenty one days after the expiration of the time for objection or the decision (as the case may be), he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 7,500 Rupees

Proceedings on failure to comply with notice

68 The Court, if satisfied that the owner, agent or manager has taken active measures for complying with the notice or decision of the Commissioner of Mines or other officer, but has not been able with reasonable diligence to complete the work, may adjourn any proceedings for punishing such offence, and if the works are completed within a reasonable time no penalty shall be inflicted

Adjournment

69 No person shall be precluded or exempted by any agreement from doing such acts as may be necessary to comply with the provisions of the last preceding three sections, or be liable under any contract to any penalty or forfeiture for doing such acts

Agreement not to preclude or exempt

70 The Commissioner of Mines may direct an Inspector to make a special inquiry and report with respect to an accident in or about a mine causing loss of life or personal injury, and shall cause such report to be made public at such time and in such manner as he thinks expedient

Special inquiry may be directed

- 71 (1) Where in or about a mine, whether above or below ground, loss of life or serious personal injury occurs by reason of any accident whatever, the owner, agent or manager of the mine shall, within twenty four hours next after the accident, send notice in writing of the accident, and of the loss of life or personal injury occasioned thereby, to the Commissioner of Mines or other prescribed officer, and shall specify in such notice the nature of the accident, and the number of persons killed and injured respectively

Notice of accident to be given

- (2) Where any personal injury of which notice is required to be sent under this section results in the death of the person injured, notice in writing of the death shall be sent to the Commissioner of Mines within twenty four hours after such death comes to the knowledge of the owner, agent or manager

Notice when death results

- (3) Every owner, agent, or manager who neglects to comply with this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 750 Rupees

Penalty

72 Every owner, agent, or manager of a mine who refuses or neglects to furnish an Inspector with the means necessary for making any entry, inspection, examination or enquiry under this Ordinance, in relation to such mine, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding seven hundred and fifty Rupees, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding six months

Penalty for refusing means of inspection

PART V

Regulations.

73 In addition to any power by this Ordinance conferred on the Governor to make regulations as to any special matter (which power shall, in every case, be implied for the purposes of any section in this Ordinance in which regulations are referred to, or in which the word "prescribed" is used) the Governor may, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, make regulations, either of general or limited application. Such regulations may be for any of the purposes following —

Governor may make Regulations

- (1) For prescribing the terms and conditions on which licences to occupy Crown Land for the purposes of residence or business may be granted to the owner of a claim or to a

- lessee under this Ordinance, and the modes, times, and places of issue thereof
- (ii) For prescribing the mode of transferring or assigning any claim or lease, or business licence or occupation licence and for prohibiting any such transfer or assignment, and regulating the form thereof and the fees to be paid therefor
 - (iii) For enforcing, under a penalty in case of default of not more than 1,500 Rupees, the proper ventilation and safe construction and timbering or supporting of all mining shafts, tunnels, drives or other mining workings used in mining, for prescribing the mode of inspection of all such mines, shafts, tunnels, drives, or workings, and the powers and duties to be exercised by inspectors, and for determining and enforcing the distance at which all such shafts and other mining workings are to be kept from public and private roads, ways and passages, and from private land, dwellings, and other buildings
 - (iv) For regulating the cutting, constructing, use, and maintenance of races, dams, reservoirs upon Crown land, or upon claims or lands held under leases for mining purposes under this Ordinance or any other Ordinance
 - (v) For prescribing the manner in which, and with what incident rights and obligations, and subject to what liabilities as to forfeiture and otherwise, any claim or class of claims, business or residence areas, race, dam or reservoir, or any water taken or diverted by virtue of any licence, shall be taken possession of, held, occupied, used, worked or transferred
 - (vi) For determining the order of priority among the holders of claims entitled to the use of any water, how such priority is to be regulated, and under what conditions and circumstances
 - (vii) For prescribing the mode of registration of land occupied under this ordinance for residence or business, or of any claim, race, dam, reservoir or easement enjoyed, or any share or interest therein, or encumbrance thereon, and the mode of registration of the transfer or assignment of any such land, claim, race, dam, reservoir or easement, or of any share or interest therein, or encumbrance thereon, or of the discharge of any such encumbrance, and the mode of registration of the devolution of any such share or interest, or of the sale of any such share or interest under the decree, judgment or order of any Court, or of the Commissioner of Mines or a Warden, and the mode of registration of amalgamated claims, and of claims for suspension of work, and for fixing the fees to be charged on any such registration
 - (viii) For enforcing and regulating the drainage of claims and of lands held under leases for mining purposes heretofore or hereafter granted
 - (ix) For regulating the mode in which the rights and privileges of the owners of claims, and of races, dams, reservoirs, and easements, and of lands occupied under this Ordinance for residence or business, may be exercised or enjoyed, and limiting, qualifying, or restricting the exercise and enjoyment of such rights and privileges, and generally for the protection of such owners in the exercise and enjoyment of the rights, privileges, and interests conferred by this Ordinance
 - (x) For providing for reward claims to be pegged out in the prescribed manner by the discoverer of gold, precious stones, minerals, coal, or oil on his reporting such discovery in the prescribed manner
 - (xi) For preventing the accumulation, and for the removal to some convenient place, of sludge, tailings and other refuse matter oozing or flowing from or connected with any land held or occupied under this Ordinance, and of waste water and for the making of channels for any of the purposes aforesaid, and for otherwise regulating as between claims, such oozing, flowing and running to waste
 - (xii) For the protection from injury, destruction, and unlawful removal of races, drains, dams and reservoirs used or enjoyed under this Ordinance, and of the water therein, and of pegs,

- posts, fences, and notices, and of plant or appliances used for or in connection with mining, and for the protection from obstruction of such races and dams, and of channels, drains, creeks, and rivers, used for mining purposes
- (xiii) For regulating the mode of construction and the material used in the construction, and the strength of embankments of dams and reservoirs used or to be constructed for or in connection with mining purposes
- (xiv) For the construction and keeping in repair of suitable bridges or other crossings over races, channels, or drains used for mining purposes cut across roads or thoroughfares or over such races, channels, or drains over which roads or thoroughfares shall be carried, and for making proper approaches to such bridges or crossings, and for determining the width of such bridges, crossings and approaches
- (xv) For making and keeping in repair and for regulating the width and formation of private ways and passages, used for mining purposes over claims or races, or any lands used in connection with mining under this Ordinance, or business carried on under business licences, and for regulating and imposing conditions on the right to change the direction of any such way or passage, and for the protection of the same from injury or obstruction by the leaving of felled or fallen timber or other obstruction, or any waste or injurious matter thereon
- (xvi) For the prevention of nuisances in and about residences or places of business held under this Ordinance, and for cleansing and keeping clean the same
- (xvii) For securing the baling of water from mines so as to prevent injury from such water to any mining workings
- (xviii) For preventing the defiling of or wasting of water used for domestic purposes, or in any stream, and for determining whether any and what stream, waterhole, spring, or other depository of water shall be reserved for domestic use, and the mode of such reservation
- (xix) For ensuring the fencing and protection of mines and works for the safety of man and beast
- (xx) For compelling contributions by parties benefited of a fair share of the cost of pumping in cases where pumping in one mine benefits other mines
- (xxi) Providing for the survey of claims and of lands applied for under this Ordinance for purposes of mining, business or residence, and prescribing the fees to be paid for such survey by the owner of the claim or applicant
- (xxii) Prescribing the compensation to be paid to natives by the owner of a claim situate in a native reserve or by the applicant for a lease or the lessee or licensee, under this Ordinance, of land situate in a native reserve, the person by whom and the manner in which such compensation shall be assessed, and the persons to whom the same shall be paid and the manner in which it shall be distributed or used in the interests of the natives
- (xxiii) Prescribing the surface rights which shall be conferred upon a lessee under or by virtue of a lease of lands other than private land for mining purposes
- (xxiv) Prescribing the conditions and restrictions to be imposed for the protection of the rights of a lessee of Crown land for mining purposes on the purchaser, lessee, or licensee of surface rights over such land
- (xxv) Prohibiting or regulating the cutting of timber on land the subject of a mining lease, and prescribing the compensation to be paid to the Government or to the person having surface or forest rights by a Lessee thereby authorised to cut timber
- (xxvi) Prescribing the royalty to be paid under a lease for mining purposes, provided that such royalty shall not exceed, except in the case of royalty on precious stones, 10 per cent on the net profits

- (xxvii) Prescribing the terms and conditions on which sole prospecting rights may be granted over any area, and providing for the protection of the privileges of the person to whom such prospecting rights shall have been granted
- (xxviii) Conferring upon the Commissioner of Mines the power to execute for and on behalf of the Governor all or any leases which may be granted under this Ordinance and to exercise all or any power or to do any act or thing which may be exercised or done by the Governor by virtue of this Ordinance other than the power to make regulations or appointments
- (xxix) For fixing fees, prescribing forms, regulating registration and otherwise fully and effectually carrying out and giving force and effect to the various objects, purposes, powers, and authorities of this Ordinance, and guarding against evasions and violations thereof
- (xxx) For prescribing the duties and powers of wardens, inspectors, mining registrars, and other officers to be appointed under this Ordinance
- (xxxi) For imposing penalties for breaches of the regulations not exceeding 1,500 Rupees for any one offence

General words in this Section shall not be limited or controlled by particular words

Regulations to be published

74 Every regulation made by the Governor under the authority of this Ordinance shall, when published in the "Gazette," have the force of law

PART VI

Miscellaneous.

Payable results to be reported

75 When gold, minerals, coal, or oil are found in payable quantities on any claim or mining lease, the matter shall be reported to the Commissioner of Mines in manner prescribed, and if default shall be made in compliance with this Section, the claim or lease shall be liable to forfeiture

Claim holders and lease holders to furnish half yearly returns

76 Every holder of a claim or lease, other than an alluvial claim, shall half-yearly, in the months of January and July, furnish to the Commissioner of Mines or other prescribed officer, a full and true return, showing the quantity of stone or ore treated, and the quantity of gold, precious stones, minerals, coal or oil taken from such claim or lease during the preceding half year, and if default shall be made in compliance with this Section, shall be liable, on conviction, to forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding 150 Rupees for every such default

Governor may remit covenants

77 The Governor may, at any time before breach thereof, suspend or wholly or partially remit all or any of the covenants and conditions contained in any lease for mining purposes, in any case where he is satisfied that by reason of special circumstances it would be impossible to comply with, or would inflict great hardship upon the lessee to enforce such covenants or conditions

Lease may be surrendered

78 A lessee may, subject to the regulations, surrender a lease for mining purposes

Rights of surrender subject to other rights

79 All rights of surrender conferred by this Ordinance are subject to the rights of persons claiming from or under the lessee

Rent, how recoverable

80 The rent reserved by any mining lease may be levied or recovered by or under the authority of the Commissioner of Mines, in like manner as rent is or shall be leviable or recoverable by law in cases where private persons only are concerned, and, in case such rent is leviable by distress, an order under the hand of the Commissioner of Mines shall be sufficient warrant and authority to distrain. This Section shall not affect any other remedy for recovery of the rent.

Penalties on non payment of rent

81 If the rent or any other sum payable under a mining lease is not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, a payment of five per centum shall be added to such rent or other sum, and if the said rent or sum be not paid within one month after such day, together with such penalty, a further penalty of ten per centum shall be added, and if the said rent or other sum and such penalties be not paid within one month after such first month, the same shall be recoverable by the Commissioner of Mines by action in his own name in any Court of competent jurisdiction

Forfeiture of lease

82 In every case where the rent of land held under a mining lease is unpaid for more than three months after the day on which the rent is payable under such lease, the Governor may cancel such lease, and the Governor shall thereupon insert a notice in the Gazette declaring the lease to be forfeited, and in every case where the Governor has reason to believe that there has been a breach of any of the covenants or conditions contained in such lease, except in the case of non-payment of the rent as aforesaid, and except in cases of non-compliance with the labour conditions of any leases, the Governor shall give written notice to the lessee specifying the covenants or conditions which he has reason to believe are not being complied with, and notifying him that such lease will be liable to forfeiture at the expiration of one month from the date of such notice, unless in the meantime such covenants and conditions are duly complied with, and if at the expiration of such notice such covenants or conditions are still not being complied with by the lessee, the Governor may cancel such lease, and shall thereupon insert a notice in the Gazette declaring the lease to be forfeited. In case of non-payment of rent or the non-compliance with the labour conditions, the Governor may exercise the power of cancellation without giving the written notice hereinbefore mentioned. Every such notice shall be conclusive evidence that the lease therein mentioned was legally cancelled and forfeited, and the land included therein may be dealt with as if such lease had never been granted.

83 Whenever a lease for mining purposes is liable to forfeiture, and in the opinion of the Governor a less penalty than forfeiture would meet the justice of the case, the Governor may extend the period during which the lessee may perform the conditions of his lease, for such time and subject to such terms and conditions as he may think fit, and the terms and conditions so imposed by the Governor shall bind the lessee and all transferees mortgagees, assignees, and other persons claiming through or under him, and the lease shall thereafter be construed as if such terms and conditions were inserted therein. Extension after breach

84 The owner of any plant, machinery, engines, or tools on any forfeited or surrendered lease shall have three months in which to remove such plant, machinery, engines, or tools, from the date of forfeiture or surrender, but shall not, under a penalty of not more than 1,500 Rupees or less than seventy five Rupees for each such offence, be permitted to remove or to interfere with any timber in any mines. Owner may remove plant

85 No person under the age of sixteen years shall hold, directly or indirectly, a mining lease or prospecting claim, except in a representative capacity. All covenants and conditions contained in or imposed by a mining lease or a licence granted to an infant of the age of sixteen or upwards shall be binding upon him as if he were of full age. Persons under sixteen not to hold mining lease, etc

86 (1) In the event of the discovery of any gold, precious stone, mineral, coal or oil by any person in the service of the Government, it shall be lawful for the discoverer to peg out in the prescribed manner a Government protection area not exceeding six hundred and forty acres. Discovery by Government servant

The discoverer shall forthwith report such pegging out to the Commissioner of Mines, and it shall be unlawful for any person to prospect in a Government protection area except with the consent of the Commissioner of Mines.

(2) A Government protection area pegged out as aforesaid may be disposed of, for the purposes of prospecting or mining, in such manner as the Governor may direct, and there shall be paid as a reward to the discoverer out of the revenues of the Protectorate such sum as the Governor shall determine.
