EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

AT THE COURT AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE,

The 24th day of June, 1912

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS on the 9th day of September, 1886, a Convention with respect to the protection to be given by way of copyright to the authors of literary and artistic works (hereinafter called the Berne Convention) set out in the Second Schedule to this Order was concluded between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the foreign countries following, that is to say —Belgium, France, Germany, Hayti, Italy, Spain, Switzerland and Tunis, and on the 5th day of September, 1887, the ratifications of the said Berne Convention were duly exchanged between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the aforesaid countries

And whereas subsequently the foreign countries following, namely, Luxemburg, Monaco, Montenegro, Norway and Sweden, acceded to the said Berne Convention

And whereas an additional Act to the said Berne Convention (hereinafter called the Additional Act) set out in the Third Schedule to this Order was agreed upon between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the foreign countries following, namely, Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, Luxemburg, Monaco, Montenegro, Spain, Switzerland and Tunis, for the purpose of varying the provisions of the said Berne Convention, and the ratifications of the said Additional Act were, on the 9th day of September, 1897, exchanged between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the aforesaid countries

And whereas subsequently the Republic of Hayti acceded to the said Additional Act, and the foreign countries following, namely, Denmark and the Faroe Islands, the German Protectorates, Japan and Liberia, acceded to the said Berne Convention and the said Additional Act, and the Principality of Montenegro duly denounced the said Berne Convention and the said Additional Act

And whereas by the Orders in Council mentioned in the Fifth Schedule to this Order and made under the authority of the International Copyright Acts, 1844 to 1886, effect is now given throughout His Majesty's dominions to the said Berne Convention and the said Additional Act

And whereas a Convention (hereinafter called the Berlin Convention) set out in the First Schedule to this Order was on the 13th day of November, 1908, agreed upon between His late Majesty King Edward VII, and the Foreign countries following, namely Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, Liberia, Luxemburg, Monaco, Norway, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and Tunis, for the purpose of replacing the said Berne Convention and the said Additional Act

And whereas it is provided by the said Berlin Convention that the contracting States may make reservations by declaring at the exchange of ratifications that they desire to remain bound, as regards any specific point, by the provisions of the said Berne Convention and the said Additional Act, and it is further provided by the said Berlin Convention that the said Berne Convention and the said Additional Act shall remain in force in regard to relations with contracting States which do not ratify the said Berlin Convention

And whereas the said Berlin Convention was ratified by His Majesty on the 14th day of June, 1912, subject to the reservation mentioned in Part I of the Fourth Schedule to this Order

And whereas the said Berlin Convention has also been ratified by the foreign countries following, namely, Belgium, France, Germany, Hayti, Japan, Liberia, Luxemburg, Monaco, Norway, Spain, Switzerland and Tunis, subject to the reservations mentioned in Part II. of the Fourth Schedule to this Order

And whereas the Republic of Portugal has acceded to the said Berlin Convention

And whereas by the Copyright Act, 1911, the aforesaid International Copyright Acts, 1844 to 1886, are repealed, as from the commencement of the said Copyright Act, 1911, in the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which the said Act extends

And whereas by the said Copyright Act, 1911, authority is conferred upon His Majesty to extend by Order in Council the protection of the said Act to certain classes of foreign works within any part of His Majesty's dominions, other than self-governing dominions, to which the said Act extends

NOW, THEREFORE, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority conferred upon Him by the Copyright Act, 1911, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows —

(1) This Order shall extend to the foreign countries following, namely, Belgium, Denmark and the Faroe Islands, France, Germany and the German Protectorates, Hayti, Italy, Japan, Liberia, Luxemburg, Monaco, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and Tunis. And the above countries are in this Order referred to as the foreign countries of the Copyright Union

(2) The Copyright Act, 1911, including the provisions as to existing works, shall subject to the provisions of the said Act and of this Order apply—

- (a) to works first published in a foreign country of the Copyright Union, in like manner as if they had been first published within the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which the said Act extends
- (b) to literary, dramatic, musical and artistic works, the authors whereof were at time of the making of the works subjects or citizens of a foreign country of the Copyright Union, in like manner as if the authors had been British subjects
- (c) in respect of residence in a foreign country of the Copyright Union, in like manner as if such residence had been residence in the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which the said Act extends

Provided that—

- (i) Sections 1 (2) (d) and 19 of the Copyright Act, 1911, and such other part or parts thereof as confer upon the owner of the copyright in a literary, dramatic or musical work the exclusive right of making any record perforated roll cinematograph film or other contrivance by means of which the work may be mechanically performed and such other part or parts thereof as confer copyright in any record or perforated roll shall not apply in the case of any work of which the country of origin is Denmark, Italy or Sweden
- (ii) The term of copyright within the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Order applies shall not exceed that conferred by the law of the country of origin of the work
- (iii) The enjoyment of the rights conferred by the Copyright Act, 1911, shall be subject to the accomplishment of the following conditions and formalities, that is to say —
 - (a) In the case of any newspaper article (not being a serial story or tale) of which the country of origin is one of the foreign countries following, namely, Belgium, France, Germany, and the German Protectorates, Hayti, Liberia, Luxemburg, Monaco, Portugal, Spain, Switzerland and Tunis, the right to prevent the reproduction of such article (either in the original language or in a translation) in another newspaper with an indication of the source shall be conditional upon reproduction being forbidden by express declaration in some conspicuous part of the newspaper in which the article is published
 - (b) In the case of any newspaper or magazine article (not being a serial story or tale) of which the country of origin is Denmark, Italy, Norway or Sweden, the right to prevent the reproduction of such article (either in the original language or in a translation) with an indication of the source shall be conditional upon reproduction being forbidden by express declaration in some conspicuous part of the newspaper or magazine in which the article is published
 - (c) In the case of any literary or dramatic work of which the country of origin is Denmark, Italy, Japan, or Sweden the right after the expiration of ten years from the end of the year in which the work or in the case of a book published in numbers each number of the work was first published, to prevent the production, reproduction, performance in public or publication of any translation of the work shall be conditional upon the publication before the expiration of the above-mentioned period and within the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Order applies or within any foreign country of the Copyright Union of an authorized translation in the language for which protection is claimed of the work or of each number of the work

- (d) In the case of any published musical work of which the country of origin is Denmark, Italy, Japan or Sweden the right to prevent performance in public shall be conditional upon performance in public being forbidden by an express declaration on the title-page or commencement of the work
- (e) In the case of any work of which the country of origin is Denmark, Italy or Sweden the entire rights conferred by the Copyright Act, 1911, shall be conditional upon the accomplishment of the conditions and formalities prescribed by law in the country of origin
- (iv) Nothing in the provisions of the Copyright Act, 1911, as applied to existing works, shall be construed as reviving any right of preventing the production or importation of any translation in any case where the right has ceased by virtue of Section 5 of the International Copyright Act, 1886

(3) Subject to the provisions of Article (2) proviso (1) of this Order where any musical work to which this Order applies has been published before the commencement of the Copyright Act, 1911, but no contrivances by means of which the work may be mechanically performed have before the commencement of this Order been lawfully made, or placed on sale, within the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Order applies, copyright in the work shall include all rights conferred by the said Act with respect to the making of records, perforated rolls and other contrivances by means of which the work may be mechanically performed

(4) In this Order the expression "the country of origin" as applied to a work has the same meaning as in the third paragraph of Article 4 of the Berlin Convention

(5)—(a) This Order shall apply to all His Majesty's dominions, colonies, and possessions, excepting to those hereinafter named, that is to say, except to the—

Dominion of Canada,
The Commonwealth of Australia,
The Dominion of New Zealand,
The Union of South Africa,
Newfoundland

(b) This Order shall also apply to Cyprus, and to the following territories under His Majesty's protection, that is to say,—the Bechuanaland Protectorate, East Africa Protectorate, Gambia Protectorate, Gilbert and Ellice Islands Protectorate, Northern Nigeria Protectorate, Northern Territories of the Gold Coast, Nyasaland Protectorate, Northern Rhodesia, Southern Rhodesia, Sierra Leone Protectorate, Somaliland Protectorate, Southern Nigeria Protectorate, Solomon Islands Protectorate, Swaziland, Uganda Protectorate, and Weihaiwei

(6) The Orders mentioned in the Fifth Schedule to this Order are hereby revoked, as from the date of the commencement of this Order, so far as regards the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Order applies

Provided that neither such revocation nor anything else in this Order shall prejudicially affect any right acquired or accrued before the commencement of this Order by virtue of any Order hereby revoked, and any person entitled to such right shall continue entitled thereto, and to the remedies for the same, in like manner as if this Order had not been made

(7) This Order shall be construed as if it formed part of the Copyright Act, 1911

(8) This Order shall come into operation in the United Kingdom on the 1st day of July, 1912, and in any other part of His Majesty's dominions to which this Order applies, on the day on which the Copyright Act, 1911, comes into operation in such part, which day is in this Order referred to as the commencement of this Order

And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary orders accordingly

ALMERIC FITZROY,

First Schedule

Berlin Convention.

Convention for the purpose of revising the Convention of Berne of the 9th September, 1886, the Additional Article and the Final Protocol attached to the same Convention, and the Additional Act and the Interpretative Declaration of Paris of the 4th May, 1896, made on the 13th day of November, 1908, between His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Emperor of India, His Majesty the German Emperor, King of Prussia; His Majesty the King of the Belgians, His Majesty the King of Denmark, His Majesty the King of Spain, the President of the French Republic, His Majesty the King of Italy, His Majesty the Emperor of Japan, the President of the Republic of Liberia, His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Luxemburg, Duke of Nassau, His Serene Highness the Prince of Monaco, His Majesty the King of Norway, His Majesty the King of Sweden, the Federal Council of the Swiss Confederation, His Highness the Bey of Tunis

[The following is an English translation of the Convention, with the omission of the formal beginning and end]

Article 1

The Contracting States are constituted into a Union for the protection of the rights of authors over their literary and artistic works

Article 2

The expression "literary and artistic works" shall include any production in the literary, scientific or artistic domain, whatever may be the mode or form of its reproduction, such as books, pamphlets, and other writings, dramatic or dramatico-musical works, choreographic works and entertainments in dumb show, the acting form of which is fixed in writing or otherwise, musical compositions with or without words, works of drawing, painting, architecture, sculpture, engraving and lithography, illustrations, geographical charts, plans, sketches, and plastic works relative to geography, topography, architecture or science

Translations, adaptations, arrangements of music and other reproductions in an altered form of a literary or artistic work as well as collections of different works, shall be protected as original works without prejudice to the rights of the author of the original work

The contracting countries shall be bound to make provision for the protection of the above-mentioned works

Works of art applied to industrial purposes shall be protected so far as the domestic legislation of each country allows

Article 3

The present Convention shall apply to photographic works and to works produced by a process analogous to photography. The contracting countries shall be bound to make provision for their protection

Article 4

Authors who are subjects or citizens of any of the countries of the Union shall enjoy in countries other than the country of origin of the work, for their works, whether unpublished or first published in a country of the Union, the rights which the respective laws do now or may hereafter grant to natives as well as the rights specially granted by the present Convention

The enjoyment and the exercise of these rights shall not be subject to the performance of any formality, such enjoyment and such exercise are independent of the existence of protection in the country of origin of the work. Consequently, apart from the express stipulations of the present Convention, the extent of protection, as well as the means of redress secured to the author to safeguard his rights, shall be governed exclusively by the laws of the country where protection is claimed

The country of origin of the work shall be considered to be in the case of unpublished works, the country to which the author belongs in the case of published works, the country of first publication, and in the case of works published simultaneously in several countries of the Union, the country the laws of which grant the shortest term of protection. In the case of works published simultaneously in a country outside the Union and in a country of the Union, the latter country shall be considered exclusively as the country of origin

By published works must be understood, for the purposes of the present Convention, works copies of which have been issued to the public. The representation of a dramatic or dramatico-musical work, the performance of a musical work, the exhibition of a work of art, and the construction of a work of architecture shall not constitute a publication

Authors being subjects or citizens of one of the countries of the Union who first publish their works in another country of the Union shall have in the latter country the same rights as native authors

Article 6.

Authors not being subjects or citizens of one of the countries of the Union, who first publish their works in one of those countries, shall enjoy in that country the same rights as native authors, and in the other countries of the Union the rights granted by the present Convention

Article 7

The term of protection granted by the present Convention shall include the life of the author and fifty years after his death

Nevertheless, in case such term of protection should not be uniformly adopted by all the countries of the Union, the term shall be regulated by the law of the country where protection is claimed, and must not exceed the term fixed in the country of origin of the work. Consequently the contracting countries shall only be bound to apply the provisions of the preceding paragraph in so far as such provisions are consistent with their domestic laws

For photographic works and works produced by a process analogous to photography, for posthumous works, for anonymous or pseudonymous works, the term of protection shall be regulated by the law of the country where protection is claimed, provided that the said term shall not exceed the term fixed in the country of origin of the work

Article 8

The authors of unpublished works, being subjects or citizens of one of the countries of the Union, and the authors of works first published in one of those countries shall enjoy, in the other countries of the Union, during the whole term of the right in the original work, the exclusive right of making or authorizing a translation of their works

Article 9

Serial stories, tales, and all other works, whether literary, scientific, or artistic, whatever their object, published in the newspapers or periodicals of one of the countries of the Union may not be reproduced in the other countries without the consent of the authors

With the exception of serial stories and tales, any newspaper article may be reproduced by another newspaper unless the reproduction thereof is expressly forbidden. Nevertheless, the source must be indicated, the legal consequences of the breach of this obligation shall be determined by the laws of the country where protection is claimed

The protection of the present Convention shall not apply to news of the day or to miscellaneous information which is simply of the nature of items of news

Article 10

As regards the liberty of extracting portions from literary or artistic works for use in publications destined for educational purposes, or having a scientific character, or for chrestomathies, the effect of the legislation of the countries of the Union and of special Arrangements existing or to be concluded between them is not affected by the present Convention

Article 11

The stipulations of the present Convention shall apply to the public representation of dramatic or dramatico-musical works, and to the public performance of musical works, whether such works be published or not

Authors of dramatic or dramatico-musical works shall be protected during the existence of their right over the original work against the unauthorized public representation of translations of their works

In order to enjoy the protection of the present Article, authors shall not be bound in publishing their works to forbid the public representation or performance thereof

Article 12

The following shall be specially included among the unlawful reproductions to which the present Convention applies: Unauthorized indirect appropriations of a literary or artistic work, such as adaptations, musical arrangements, transformations of a novel, tale, or piece of poetry into a dramatic piece and vice versa, &c, when they are only the reproduction of that work, in the same form or in another form without essential alterations, additions, or abridgements, and do not present the character of a new original work

Article 13

The authors of musical works shall have the exclusive right of authorizing (1) the adaptation of those works to instruments which can reproduce them mechanically, (2) the public performance of the said works by means of these instruments

Reservations and conditions relating to the application of this Article may be determined by the domestic legislation of each country in so far as it is concerned, but the effect of any such reservations and conditions will be strictly limited to the country which has put them in force

The provisions of paragraph 1 shall not be retroactive, and consequently shall not be applicable in any country of the Union to works which have been lawfully adapted in that country to mechanical instruments before the coming into force of the present Convention

Adaptations made in virtue of paragraphs 2 and 3 of the present Article, and imported without the authority of the interested parties into a country where they would not be lawful, shall be liable to seizure in that country

Article 14.

Authors of literary, scientific or artistic works shall have the exclusive right of authorizing the reproduction and public representation of their works by cinematography

Cinematograph productions shall be protected as literary or artistic works, if, by the arrangement of the acting form or the combinations of the incidents represented, the author has given the work a personal and original character

Without prejudice to the rights of the author of the original work the reproduction by cinematography of a literary, scientific or artistic work shall be protected as an original work

The above provisions apply to reproduction or production effected by any other process analogous to cinematography

Article 15

In order that the authors of works protected by the present Convention shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be considered as such, and be consequently admitted to institute proceedings against pirates before the Courts of the various countries of the Union, it will be sufficient that their name be indicated on the work in the accustomed manner

For anonymous or pseudonymous works the publisher, whose name is indicated on the work, shall be entitled to protect the rights belonging to the author. He shall be without other proof, deemed to be the legal representative of the anonymous or pseudonymous author

Pirated works may be seized by the competent authorities of any country of the Union where the original work enjoys legal protection

In such a country the seizure may also apply to reproductions imported from a country where the work is not protected, or has ceased to be protected.

The seizure shall take place in accordance with the domestic legislation of each country

Article 17

The provisions of the present Convention cannot in any way derogate from the right belonging to the Government of each country of the Union to permit, to control, or to prohibit, by measures of domestic legislation or police, the circulation, representation, or exhibition of any works or productions in regard to which the competent authority may find it necessary to exercise that right

Article 18.

The present Convention shall apply to all works which at the moment of its coming into force have not yet fallen into the public domain in the country of origin through the expiration of the term of protection

It, however, through the expiration of the term of protection which was previously granted, a work has fallen into the public domain of the country where protection is claimed, that work shall not be protected anew in that country

The application of this principle shall take effect according to the stipulations contained in special Conventions existing, or to be concluded, to that effect between countries of the Union. In the absence of such stipulations, the respective countries shall regulate, each in so far as it is concerned, the manner in which the said principle is to be applied

The above provisions shall apply equally in case of new accessions to the Union, and also in the event of the term of protection being extended by the application of Article 7

Article 19

The provisions of the present Convention shall not prevent a claim being made for the application of any wider provisions which may be made by the legislation of a country of the Union in favour of foreigners in general

Article 20

The Governments of the countries of the Union reserve to themselves the right to enter into special arrangements between each other, provided always that such arrangements confer upon authors more extended rights than those granted by the Union, or embody other stipulations not contrary to the present Convention. The provisions of existing arrangements which answer to the above-mentioned conditions shall remain applicable

Article 21

The International Office established under the name of the "Office of the International Union for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works" shall be maintained

That Office is placed under the high authority of the Government of the Swiss Confederation, which regulates its organization and supervises its working

The official language of the Office shall be French

Article 22

The International Office collects every kind of information relative to the protection of the rights of authors over their literary and artistic works. It arranges and publishes such information. It undertakes the study of questions of general interest concerning the Union, and by the aid of documents placed at its disposal by the different Administrations, edits a periodical publication in the French language on the questions which concern the objects of the Union. The Governments of the countries of the Union reserve to themselves the power to authorize by common accord the publication by the Office of an edition in one or more other languages, if experience should show this to be requisite.

The International Office will always hold itself at the disposal of members of the Union with the view to furnish them with any special information which they may require relative to the protection of literary and artistic works.

The Director of the International Office shall make an annual Report on his Administration, which shall be communicated to all the members of the Union.

Article 23

The expenses of the Office of the International Union shall be shared by the contracting States. Until a fresh arrangement be made they cannot exceed the sum of 60,000 francs a year. This sum may be increased, if necessary, by the simple decision of one of the Conferences provided for in Article 24.

The share of the total expense to be paid by each country shall be determined by the division of the contracting and acceding countries into six classes, each of which shall contribute in the proportion of a certain number of units, viz —

1st class	25	units.
2nd „		.	20	„
3rd „			15	„
4th „		.	10	„
5th „		.	5	„
6th „		...	3	„

These coefficients are multiplied by the number of countries of each class and the total product thus obtained gives the number of units by which the total expense is to be divided. The quotient gives the amount of the unit of expense.

Each country shall declare, at the time of its accession, in which of the said classes it desires to be placed.

The Swiss Administration prepares the Budget of the Office, superintends its expenditure, makes the necessary advances, and draws up the annual account which shall be communicated to all the other Administrations.

Article 24

The present Convention may be submitted to revisions in order to introduce therein amendments calculated to perfect the system of the Union.

Questions of this kind, as well as those which are of interest to the Union in other respects, shall be considered in Conferences to be held successively in the countries of the Union by delegates of the said countries. The Administration of the country where a Conference is to meet prepares, with the assistance of the International Office, the programme of the Conference. The Director of the Office shall attend at the sittings of the Conferences, and shall take part in the discussions without the right to vote.

No alteration in the present Convention shall be binding on the Union except by the unanimous consent of the countries composing it.

Article 25

States outside the Union which make provision for the legal protection of the rights forming the object of the present Convention may accede thereto on request to that effect.

Such accession shall be notified in writing to the Government of the Swiss Confederation, who will communicate it to all the other countries of the Union.

Such accession shall imply full adhesion to all the clauses and admission to all the advantages provided by the present Convention. It may, nevertheless, contain an indication of the provisions of the Convention of the 9th September, 1886, or of the Additional Act of the 4th May, 1896, which they may judge necessary to substitute, provisionally at least, for the corresponding provisions of the present Convention.

Article 26

Contracting countries shall have the right to accede to the present Convention at any time for their Colonies or foreign possessions.

They may do this either by a general Declaration comprising in the accession all their Colonies or possessions, or by specially naming those comprised therein, or by simply indicating those which are excluded,

Such Declaration shall be notified in writing to the Government of the Swiss Confederation, who will communicate it to all the other countries of the Union

Article 27.

The present Convention shall replace, in regard to the relations between the Contracting States, the Convention of Berne of the 9th September, 1886, including the Additional Article and the Final Protocol of the same date, as well as the Additional Act and the Interpretative Declaration of the 4th May, 1896. These instruments shall remain in force in regard to relations with States which do not ratify the present Convention

The Signatory States of the present Convention may declare at the exchange of ratifications that they desire to remain bound, as regards any specific point, by the provisions of the Conventions which they have previously signed

The present Convention shall be ratified, and the ratifications exchanged, at Berlin not later than the 1st July, 1910

Each Contracting Party shall, as regards the exchange of ratifications, deliver a single instrument, which shall be deposited with those of the other countries in the archives of the Government of the Swiss Confederation. Each Party shall receive in return a copy of the process-verbal of the exchange of ratifications signed by the Plenipotentiaries who took part

Article 29

The present Convention shall be put in force three months after the exchange of ratifications, and shall remain in force for an indefinite period until the termination of a year from the day on which it may have been denounced

Such denunciation shall be made to the Government of the Swiss Confederation. It shall only take effect in regard to the country making it, the Convention remaining in full force and effect for the other countries of the Union

Article 30

The States which shall introduce in their legislation the duration of protection for fifty years contemplated by article 7, first paragraph, of the present Convention, shall give notice thereof in writing to the Government of the Swiss Confederation, who will communicate it at once to all the other States of the Union

The same procedure shall be followed in the case of the States renouncing the reservations made by them in virtue of Articles 25, 26, and 27

Second Schedule

Berne Convention

Convention for protecting effectively and in as uniform a manner as possible, the rights of authors over their literary and artistic works. Made on the fifth day of September, 1887, between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, His Majesty the German Emperor, King of Prussia, His Majesty the King of the Belgians, Her Majesty the Queen Regent of Spain, in the name of His Catholic Majesty the King of Spain, the President of the French Republic, the President of the Republic of Hayti, His Majesty the King of Italy, the Federal Council of the Swiss Confederation, His Highness the Bey of Tunis

[The following is an English translation of the Convention, with the omission of the formal beginning and end]

Article I

The Contracting States are constituted into a Union for the protection of the rights of authors over their literary and artistic works.

Article II

Authors who are subjects or citizens of any of the countries of the Union, or their lawful representatives, shall enjoy in the other countries for their works, whether published in one of those countries or unpublished, the rights which the respective laws do now or may hereafter grant to natives

The enjoyment of these rights shall be subject to the accomplishment of the conditions and formalities prescribed by law in the country of origin of the work, and must not exceed in the other countries the term of protection granted in the said country of origin

The country of origin of the work shall be considered to be that in which the work is first published, or if such publication takes place simultaneously in several countries of the Union, that one of them the laws of which grant the shortest term of protection

For unpublished works the country to which the author belongs shall be considered to be the country of origin of the work

Article III

The stipulations of the present Convention shall apply equally to the publishers of literary and artistic works published in one of the countries of the Union, but of which the authors belong to a country which is not a party to the Union

Article IV

The expression "literary and artistic works" shall include books, pamphlets, and all other writings, dramatic or dramatico-musical works, musical compositions with or without words, works of drawing, painting, sculpture, and engraving, lithographs, illustrations, geographical charts, plans, sketches, and plastic works relative to geography, topography, architecture, or science in general, in fact, every production whatsoever in the literary, scientific, or artistic domain which can be published by any mode of impression or reproduction

Article V

Authors who are subjects or citizens of any of the countries of the Union, or their lawful representatives shall enjoy in the other countries the exclusive right of making or authorizing the translation of their works until the expiration of ten years from the publication of the original work in one of the countries of the Union

For works published in incomplete parts ("livraisons") the period of ten years shall commence from the date of publication of the last part of the original work

For works composed of several volumes published at intervals as well as for bulletins or collections ("cahiers") published by literary or scientific societies, or by private persons, each volume, bulletin, or collection shall be with regard to the period of ten years, considered as a separate work

In the cases provided for by the present Article, and for the calculation of the terms of protection, the 31st December of the year in which the work was published shall be regarded as the date of publication

Article VI

Lawful translations shall be protected as original works. They shall consequently enjoy the protection stipulated in Articles II and III as regards their unauthorized reproduction in the countries of the Union

It is understood that, in the case of a work for which the translating right has fallen into the public domain, the translator cannot oppose the translation of the same work by other writers

Article VII.

Articles from newspapers or periodicals published in any of the countries of the Union may be reproduced in original or in translation in the other countries of the Union, unless the authors or publishers have expressly forbidden it. For periodicals it shall be sufficient if the prohibition is indicated in general terms at the beginning of each number of the periodical

This prohibition cannot in any case apply to articles of political discussion, or to the reproduction of news of the day or miscellaneous information

Article VIII.

As regards the liberty of extracting portions from literary or artistic works for use in publications destined for educational or scientific purposes, or for chrestomathies, the effect of the legislation of the countries of the Union, and of special arrangements existing or to be concluded between them is not affected by the present Convention

Article IX

The stipulations of Article II shall apply to the public representation of dramatic or dramatico-musical works, whether such works be published or not

Authors of dramatic or dramatico-musical works, or their lawful representatives, shall be, during the existence of their exclusive right of translation, equally protected against the unauthorized public representation of translations of their works

The stipulations of Article II shall apply equally to the public performance of unpublished musical works, or of published works in which the author has expressly declared on the title page or commencement of the work that he forbids the public performance thereof

Article X

The following shall be specially included amongst the illicit reproductions to which the present Convention applies unauthorized indirect appropriations of a literary or artistic work, of various kinds, such as adaptations, musical arrangements &c, when they are only the reproduction of a particular work, in the same form, or in another form, without essential alterations, additions, or abridgments so as not to present the character of a new original work

It is agreed that, in the application of the present Article, the tribunals of the various countries of the Union will, if there is occasion, conform themselves to the provisions of their respective laws

Article XI

In order that the authors of works protected by the present Convention shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be considered as such, and be consequently admitted to institute proceedings against pirates before the courts of the various countries of the Union, it will be sufficient that their name be indicated on the work in the accustomed manner

For anonymous or pseudonymous works, the publisher whose name is indicated on the work shall be entitled to protect the rights belonging to the author. He shall be without other proof, deemed to be the lawful representative of the anonymous or pseudonymous author

It is, nevertheless, agreed that the tribunals may, if necessary, require the production of a certificate from the competent authority to the effect that the formalities prescribed by law in the country of origin have been accomplished, as contemplated in Article II

Article XII

Pirated works may be seized on importation into those countries of the Union where the original work enjoys legal protection

The seizure shall take place in accordance with the domestic legislation of each country

Article XIII

It is understood that the provisions of the present Convention cannot in any way derogate from the right belonging to the Government of each country of the Union to permit, to control, or to prohibit, by measures of domestic legislation or police, the circulation, representation, or exhibition of any works or productions in regard to which the competent authority may find it necessary to exercise that right

Article XIV

Under the reserves and conditions to be determined by common agreement the present Convention shall apply to all works which at the moment of its coming into force have not yet fallen into the public domain in the country of origin

Article XV

It is understood that the Governments of the countries of the Union reserve to themselves respectively the right to enter into separate and particular arrangements between each other, provided always that such arrangements confer upon authors or their lawful representatives more extended rights than those granted by the Union, or embody other stipulations not contrary to the present Convention

Article XVI

An International Office shall be established, under the name of "Office of the International Union for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works"

This office, of which the expenses will be borne by the Administrations of all the countries of the Union, shall be placed under the high authority of the Superior Administration of the Swiss Confederation, and shall work under its direction. The functions of this office shall be determined by common accord between the countries of the Union

Article XVII

The present Convention may be submitted to revisions in order to introduce therein amendments calculated to perfect the system of the Union

Questions of this kind, as well as those which are of interest to the Union in other respects, shall be considered in Conferences to be held successively in the countries of the Union by delegates of the said countries

It is understood that no alteration in the present Convention shall be binding on the Union except by the unanimous consent of the countries composing it

Article XVIII

Countries which have not become parties to the present Convention, and which make provision by their domestic law for the protection of the rights forming the object of the present Convention, shall be admitted to accede thereto on request to that effect

Such accession shall be notified in writing to the Government of the Swiss Confederation, who will communicate it to all the other countries of the Union

Such accession shall imply full adhesion to all the clauses and admission to all the advantages provided by the present Convention

Article XIX

Countries acceding to the present Convention shall also have the right to accede thereto at any time for their Colonies or foreign possessions

They may do this either by a general Declaration comprising in the accession all their Colonies or possessions, or by specially naming those comprised therein, or by simply indicating those which are excluded

Article XX

The present Convention shall be put in force three months after the exchange of ratifications, and shall remain in force for an indefinite period until the termination of a year from the day on which it may have been denounced

Such denunciation shall be made to the Government authorized to receive accessions. It shall only take effect in regard to the country making it, the Convention remaining in full force and effect for the other countries of the Union

Article XXI

The present Convention shall be ratified, and the ratifications exchanged at Berne within the space of one year at the latest

ADDITIONAL ARTICLE

The Convention concluded this day shall in no wise affect the maintenance of existing Conventions between the Contracting States, provided always that such Conventions confer on authors, or their lawful representatives, rights more extended than those secured by the Union, or contain other stipulations which are not contrary to this Convention

FINAL PROTOCOL

1 As regards Article IV it is agreed that those countries of the Union where the character of artistic works is not refused to photographs, engage to admit them to the benefits of the Convention concluded to-day, from the date of its coming into force. They shall, however, not be bound to protect the authors of such works further than is permitted by their own legislation except in the case of international engagements already existing, or which may hereafter be entered into by them

It is understood that an authorized photograph of a protected work of art shall enjoy legal protection in all the countries of the Union, as contemplated by the said Convention, for the same period as the principal right of reproduction of the work itself subsists, and within the limits of private agreements between those who have legal rights

2 As regards Article IX it is agreed that those countries of the Union whose legislation implicitly includes choreographic works amongst dramatico-musical works expressly admit the former works to the benefits of the Convention concluded this day

It is, however, understood that questions which may arise on the application of this clause shall rest within the competence of the respective tribunals to decide

3 It is understood that the manufacture and sale of instruments for the mechanical reproduction of musical airs in which copyright subsists, shall not be considered as constituting an infringement of musical copyright

4 The common agreement contemplated in Article XIV of the Convention is established as follows —

The application of the Convention to works which have not fallen into the public domain at the time when it comes into force, shall take effect according to the stipulations on this head contained in special Conventions existing, or to be concluded, to that effect. In the absence of such stipulations between any countries of the Union, the respective countries shall regulate, each in so far as it is concerned, by its domestic legislation, the manner in which the principle contained in Article XIV is to be applied.

5 The organisation of the International Office established in virtue of Article XVI of the Convention, shall be fixed by a regulation which shall be drawn up by the Government of the Swiss Confederation.

The official language of the International Office shall be French.

The International Office will collect every kind of information relative to the protection of the rights of authors over their literary and artistic works. It will arrange and publish such information. It will undertake the study of questions of general interest concerning the Union, and, by the aid of documents placed at its disposal by the different Administrations, will edit a periodical publication in the French language on the questions which concern the objects of the Union. The Governments of the countries of the Union reserve to themselves the power to authorize, by common accord, the publication by the Office of an edition in one or more other languages if experience should show this to be requisite.

The International Office will always hold itself at the disposal of members of the Union with the view to furnish them with any special information they may require relative to the protection of literary and artistic works.

The Administration of the country where a Conference is to meet will prepare the programme of the Conference with the assistance of the International Office.

The Director of the International Office shall attend the sittings of the Conferences, and shall take part in the discussions without the right to vote. He shall make an annual report on his administration, which shall be communicated to all the members of the Union.

The expenses of the office of the International Union shall be shared by the contracting States. Until a fresh arrangement be made, they cannot exceed the sum of sixty thousand francs a year. This sum may be increased, if necessary, by the simple decision of one of the Conferences provided for in Article XVII.

The share of the total expense to be paid by each country shall be determined by the division of the contracting and acceding countries into six classes, each of which shall contribute in the proportion of a certain number of units, viz —

First class	25 units
Second class	20 „
Third class	15 „
Fourth class	10 „
Fifth class	5 „
Sixth class	3 „

These co-efficients will be multiplied by the number of countries of each class and the total product thus obtained will give the number of units by which the total expense is to be divided. The quotient will give the amount of the unit of expense.

Each country shall declare, at the time of its accession, in which of the said classes it desires to be placed.

The Swiss Administration will prepare the Budget of the office, superintend its expenditure, make the necessary advances, and draw up the annual account, which shall be communicated to all the other Administrations.

6 The next Conference shall be held at Paris between four and six years from the date of the coming into force of the Convention.

The French Government will fix the date within these limits after having consulted the International Office.

7 It is agreed that, as regards the exchange of ratifications contemplated in Article XXI, each contracting Party shall deliver a single instrument, which shall be deposited with those of the other countries, in the archives of the Government of the Swiss Confederation. Each Party shall receive in return a copy of the proces-verbal of the exchange of ratifications, signed by the Plenipotentiaries who took part.

The present Final Protocol, which shall be ratified with the Convention concluded this day, shall be considered as forming an integral part of the said Convention, and shall have the same force, effect, and duration.

Third Schedule.

Additional Act of Paris

[The following is an English translation of the Additional Act with the omission of the formal beginning and end]

Article I

The International Convention of the 9th September, 1886, is modified as follows —

1 Article II—The first paragraph of Article II shall run as follows —

“Authors who are subjects or citizens of any of the countries of the Union, or their lawful representatives, shall enjoy in the other countries for their works, whether unpublished, or first published in one of those countries, the rights which the respective laws do now or may hereafter grant to natives”

A fifth paragraph is added in these terms —

“Posthumous works shall be included among those to be protected”

2 Article III—Article III shall run as follows —

“Authors not being subjects or citizens of one of the countries of the Union, who first publish or cause to be first published, their literary or artistic works in one of those countries, shall enjoy, in respect of such works the protection granted by the Berne Convention, and by the present Additional Act”

3 Article V—The first paragraph of Article V shall run as follows —

“Authors who are subjects or citizens of any of the countries of the Union, or their lawful representatives, shall enjoy in the other countries the exclusive right of making or authorizing the translation of their works during the entire term of their right over the original work. Nevertheless, the exclusive right of translation shall cease to exist if the author shall not have availed himself of it, during a term of ten years from the date of the first publication of the original work, by publishing or causing to be published in one of the countries of the Union, a translation in the language for which protection is to be claimed”

4 Article VII—Article VII shall run as follows —

“Serial stories, including tales, published in the newspapers or periodicals of one of the countries of the Union, may not be reproduced, in original or translation, in the other countries, without the sanction of the authors or of their lawful representatives

“This stipulation shall apply equally to other articles in newspapers or periodicals, when the authors or editors shall have expressly declared in the newspaper or periodical itself in which they shall have been published that reproduction is forbidden. In the case of periodicals it shall be sufficient if such prohibition is indicated in general terms at the beginning of each number

“In the absence of prohibition, such articles may be reproduced on condition that the source is indicated

“The prohibition cannot in any case apply to articles of political discussion, to news of the day, or to miscellaneous information”

5 Article XII—Article XII shall run as follows —

“Pirated works may be seized by the competent authorities of any country of the Union where the original work enjoys legal protection

“The seizure shall take place in accordance with the domestic legislation of each country”

6 Article XX—The second paragraph of Article XX shall run as follows —

“Such denunciation shall be made to the Government of the Swiss Confederation. It shall only take effect in regard to the country making it, the Convention remaining in full force and affect for the other countries of the Union”

Article II.

The Final Protocol annexed to the Convention of the 9th September, 1886, is modified as follows —

1 No 1—This clause shall run as follows —

‘As regards Article IV, it is agreed as follows —

“(A) In countries of the Union where protection is accorded not only to architectural plans, but also to the architectural works themselves, these works shall be admitted to the benefits of the Berne Convention and of the present Additional Act

- “(B) Photographic works and works produced by an analogous process shall be admitted to the benefits of these engagements in so far as the domestic laws of each State may permit, and to the extent of the protection accorded by such laws to similar national works
- “ It is understood that an authorized photograph of a protected work of art shall enjoy legal protection in all the countries of the Union, as contemplated by the Berne Convention and by the present Additional Act, for the same period as the principal right of reproduction of the work itself subsists, and within the limits of private agreements between those who have legal rights ”
- 2 No 4 —This clause shall run as follows —
- “ The common agreement contemplated in Article XIV of the Convention is established as follows —
- “ The application of the Berne Convention and of the present Additional Act to works which have not fallen into the public domain within the country of origin at the time when these engagements come into force, shall take effect according to the stipulations on this head contained in special Conventions existing, or to be concluded, to this effect
- “ In the absence of such stipulations between any of the countries of the Union, the respective countries shall regulate, each in so far as it is concerned, by its domestic legislation, the manner in which the principle contained in Article XIV is to be applied
- “ The stipulations of Article XIV of the Berne Convention and of the present clause of the Final Protocol shall apply equally to the exclusive right of translation in so far as such right is established by the present Additional Act
- “ The above-mentioned temporary stipulations shall apply in case of new accessions to the Union ”

Article III

The countries of the Union which are not parties to the present Additional Act, shall at any time be allowed to accede thereto on their request to that effect This stipulation shall apply equally to countries which may hereafter accede to the Convention of the 9th September, 1886 It will suffice for this purpose that such accession should be notified in writing to the Swiss Federal Council, who shall in turn communicate it to the other Governments

Article IV

The present Additional Act shall have the same force and duration as the Convention of the 9th September, 1886

It shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Paris, in the manner adopted in the case of that Convention, as soon as possible, and within the space of one year at the latest

It shall come into force as regards those countries which shall have ratified it three months after such exchange of ratifications

CIRCULAR

Downing Street,

3rd August, 1912

Sir

I have the honour to inform you that the Army Council, in connexion with a recent case in which an Officer seconded for Colonial employment terminated his engagement with the Colonial Government prematurely, have suggested that some uncertainty may exist in the minds of officers in Colonial employment and of the Governments that employ them as to the date from which such officers may again become entitled to receive pay under Army Regulations.

2 The Army Council have therefore requested that Colonial Governments, and all officers of the regular Army who may be holding or who may hereafter hold Colonial appointments, may be reminded that the issue to such officers of pay under Army Regulations cannot be resumed after the termination of their appointments from any date earlier than that of their disembarkation in this country on return, or (in cases in which passage to this country is not involved) that of their rejoining for duty a unit serving abroad, and that, if an appointment is vacated under circumstances in which the return passage is not payable by the Colonial employer, the officer himself will be liable.

3 The Army Council further explain that too frequently in the cases of officers who resign their Colonial appointments—for example, as Aides-de-Camp to Colonial Governors—notification of their resignation does not reach the War Office until after they have actually arrived home. Such delay gives rise to a good deal of inconvenience, and at times to additional expense, since opportunities of absorption are often lost owing to the War Department being unaware that the officer's services are available. The Council therefore request that, in the event of a regular officer in Colonial employment desiring to terminate his appointment before the date up to which he has been seconded, a notification may be sent to the War Office as early as possible, in order that steps may be taken for his disposal, and that unnecessary inconvenience and loss, both to the officer himself and to the Imperial Government, may be avoided.

4 It is not intended that these instructions should affect the existing rules governing the incidence of the charge for pay as between Army and Colonial funds.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

your most obedient, humble servant,

L HARCOURT

The Officer Administering
the Government of
East Africa Protectorate

H E GOODSHIP,
Acting Chief Accountant

UGANDA RAILWAY.

Storage of Export Cargo.

The notice dated March 26th, 1912, is cancelled and the public are hereby advised that under rule 6 (a) amended (vide Gazette of 1st August 1911) of the rules issued by His Excellency in Council under sections 47 and 51 of the East Africa Railways Ordinance, 1910, from the 1st July to 30th September, 1912, both days inclusive the free period allowed in the Railway sheds at Kihindini Pier Station for the articles noted below consigned by rail from stations Voi and beyond for export shall be 15 days

Beeswax	Oil, country produce
Cotton-pressed in bales	Potatoes
Coffee	Rubber
Fibres	Tobacco
Ground nuts	Wool
Gram & Seeds

On and from 1st October, 1912, the period of free storage allowed on all export cargo will be half that allowed for imported goods i.e 4 days

Nairobi,
12th July, 1912

C SANDIFORD,
*Acting Manager,
Uganda Railway.*

UGANDA RAILWAY.NOTICE

The attention of the Public is drawn to the fact that Kilindini Pier and Kilindini are two distinct Stations. All export traffic is dealt with at the Pier Station, and Senders of goods should state on the Consignment Note whether goods are for Kilindini Pier (code initials K L I) or Kilindini Station (code initials K D N) as otherwise delay and confusion is likely to arise.

Traffic Manager's Office,
Nairobi, 25th July, 1912

G A STANLEY,
Traffic Manager

UGANDA RAILWAY.Rate for Peas when Despatched by rail to Kilindini Pier or Mombasa for export.

The reduced rates for Export Maize, Beans, and Wheat will now apply to Peas when despatched by rail to Kilindini Pier or Mombasa for export.

These rates are quoted on pages 160 and 161, of the current issue of the Tariff Book.

The form of certificate, referred to on page 161, must be handed in at the Forwarding Station at the time such traffic is tendered for despatch otherwise the ordinary rates will be charged.

Traffic Manager's Office,
Nairobi, 10th August, 1912

G A STANLEY,
Traffic Manager

UGANDA RAILWAYTender for Rations

Tenders are invited for the supply of the following Rations required for the Uganda Railway for a period of one year commencing from January 1st, 1913 —

Flour Atta, Dhall Gram, Rice Halwa,

The quantities required and the conditions under which they must be supplied can be obtained on application to the Chief Storekeeper, Nairobi.

Sealed Tenders, marked "Tender for Rations," should reach the undersigned not later than the 31st of October next.

A. WILLIAM REID,
*Chief Storekeeper,
Uganda Railway*
