Under the East Africa Townships Ordinance, 1903.

Rules issued by His Excellency the Governor under the above Ordinance

Nairobi,

Dated this 25th day of January, 1913

H C BELFIELD,

Governor

1 These rules shall apply to the Township of Mombasa

2 All proceedings for fines or penalties for the breach or non-observance of any rule issued under the East Africa Townships Ordinance, 1903, or of any Order issued under any such rule, or for the recovery of any rate, charge, fee or other monies due or payable under or by virtue of any rule as aforesaid, may be instituted and taken by or in the name of the Superintendent of Conservancy, and in any such proceedings the Superintendent of Conservancy may appear in person or by a person authorised by him in that behalf

Nothing in this rule contained shall be interpreted to prohibit any other Officer or person from instituting or taking any such proceedings as aforesaid

RULES.

The East Africa Townships Ordinance, 1903

Rules issued by His Excellency the Governor of the East Africa Protectorate under the East Africa Townships Ordinance, 1903

Nairobi,

Dated this 5th day of February, 1913.

H C BELFIELD,

1 In these rules —

The term "Lodging House" means a house or part of a house which is let in lodgings either by storeys, by flats, by rooms or by portions of rooms, or which is occupied by members of more than one family

A house which is let in lodgings as aforesaid or which is occupied by members of more than one family shall be exempt from the provisions of these rules, if no tenant, sub-tenant or lodger shall pay either to the landlord or to any other tenant, sub-tenant or lodger for the accommodation let to him less than thirty rupees per month exclusive of board or seventy five rupees a month inclusive of board

The term "Landlord" means the person by whom or on whose behalf a house or part of a house is let in lodgings or for the occupation of the members of more than one family, or who is entitled to receive the profits arising from such letting

The term "Lodger" means a person to whom any storey, flat, room or rooms or portion of or share in any room or rooms have been let as a lodging, or for his use and occupation

The term "Site of a House" means the ground covered by and included within the foundation of a building

The term "Medical Officer of Health" shall include any person acting for or under the instructions of the Medical Officer of Health

3 After the 15th day of May, 1913, no house or part of a house shall be used as a lodging house unless such house or the part thereof is registered under these rules as a lodging house. The landlord of an unregistered lodging house shall be guilty of an offence against these rules, and on conviction shall be liable to penalties prescribed in rule 26 of these rules

4 Every lodging house shall be re-registered before the 31st day of January in each year and application for such re-registration shall be made before the 15th day of January. Any lodging house which is not re-registered before the 31st day of January in any year shall be deemed to be an unregistered lodging house

5 Application for the registration or re-registration of any house or part of a house shall be made by the landlord to the Superintendent of Conservancy but no house or part of a house shall be registered or re-registered as a lodging house unless the Medical Officer of Health shall certify that the house or part thereof for which registration is sought is fit for the purpose

6 The applicant for the registration or re-registration of a lodging house shall furnish to the Superintendent of Conservancy a true statement signed by himself of such particulars as may be demanded of him by the said Superintendent

7 The landlord of a lodging house shall, within a period of seven days after having been required to do so by a notice in writing, signed by the Medical Officer of Health, attend at the Health Office within office hours, and furnish and sign a true statement of the following particulars with respect to such house —

(a) The total number of rooms in house

(b) The total number of rooms or portions of rooms let in lodgings or occupied by members of more than one family

(c) The manner of use of each room

(d) The number, age, and sex of the occupants of each room or part of room used for sleeping

(e) The full name of the lessee of each room or part of room, and

(f) The amount of rent or charge payable by each lessee

8 A landlord or lodger shall not knowingly allow or suffer a greater number of persons than will admit of the provision of three hundred and fifty cubic feet of free air space and thirty square feet of floor space for each person to occupy, at any one time, a room or part of a room as a sleeping apartment

9 The Medical Officer of Health may at all times between 6 a.m. and 9 p.m., enter any lodging house and any part thereof for the purposes of inspecting the same, and it shall be the duty of every landlord, lodger and person employed in a lodging house to allow the Medical Officer of Health free access to all parts of a lodging house and to afford him all necessary facilities for the inspection thereof

10 The landlord shall provide proper closet, privy or latrine accommodation for the use of the lodgers. Every cesspit constructed in connection with such closet, privy or latrine accommodation shall be external to the site of a house, shall be ventilated, and shall be cleaned out by the landlord every three months. Every cesspit shall be so placed as to allow of its contents being removed without being carried through any room of any house. The landlord of a lodging house shall keep all closets, privies and latrines, belonging thereto in a cleanly condition unless where such conveniences are exclusively used by one lodger, in which case the said lodger will be responsible for their cleanliness

11 The landlord of a lodging house shall keep all ashpits and receptacles for refuse in connection therewith covered and in a cleanly condition and shall cause the contents of the same to be removed at frequent intervals or as often as prescribed by the Superintendent of Conservancy or by the Medical Officer of Health

12 Every lodger in a lodging house shall cause the floor of every storey, flat, room or part of a room which has been let to him to be thoroughly swept once at least in every day, and to be thoroughly washed once at least in every week

13 Every lodger in a lodging house shall cause every window, fixture or fitting of wood, stone, or metal and every painted surface in every storey, flat, room or part of a room which has been let to him, to be thoroughly cleansed from time to time, as often as may be requisite

14 Every lodger in a lodging house shall cause all solid or liquid filth or refuse to be removed once at least in every day from every storey, flat, room or part of a room which has been let to him, and shall once at least in every day, cause every vessel, utensil, or other receptacle for such filth or refuse to be thoroughly cleansed

15 In every case where a lodger in a lodging house is entitled to the exclusive use of any washroom, bathroom, kitchen, staircase, landing or passage in such lodging house, such lodger shall cause every part of such washroom, bathroom, kitchen, staircase, landing or passage to be thoroughly cleansed from time to time as often as may be requisite. In case where two or more lodgers have the common use of any washroom, bathroom, kitchen, staircase, landing or passage, the landlord shall do the necessary cleansing

16 Suitable receptacles must be provided for the storage of food and drink intended for consumption by a lodger. Such shall be provided by the landlord when the said landlord supplies food, whether cooked or uncooked, to the lodger, otherwise they shall be provided by the lodger. All receptacles for the storage of food and drink intended for a lodger's consumption as well as all vessels used for the cooking or containing of the same shall be maintained in a constant state of cleanliness by the landlord if they are his property or by the lodger if they are the property of the lodger

17 A lodger in a lodging house shall not cause or suffer any animal other than a cat to be kept in any storey, flat, room, or part of a room which has been let to such lodger, or elsewhere upon the premises

18 Where a lodger has exclusive right to the use of any cistern for the storage of water it shall be his duty to keep the same covered, and cleansed from time to time, and the contained water free from all visible forms of life. Where the right to the use of any cistern for the storage of water is common to two or more lodgers it shall be the landlord's duty to keep the same covered, cleansed from time to time, and the contained water free from all visible forms of life

19 The landlord of a lodging house shall keep all means of ventilation therein maintained at all times in good order

20 The landlord of a lodging house shall cause in the month of January of each year and at any other time, if so required by the Medical Officer of Health, all the interior walls and ceilings of the lodging house to be limewashed, except painted surfaces, which must be washed with hot water and soap, or if the Medical Officer of Health shall so require, repainted

21 The landlord of a lodging house shall cause all open spaces belonging to such lodging house to be properly drained and maintained in a constant state of good repair and cleanliness

22 The landlord of a lodging house immediately after he shall have been informed, or shall have ascertained that any person in such house is ill of an infectious disease or of any illness which prevents such person from following his usual daily avocation, shall give written notice thereof to the Medical Officer of Health

23 In cases where a lodger has grounds for believing that an occupant of any storey, flat, room or part of a room of a lodging house is ill of an infectious disease or of any illness which prevents such occupant from following his usual daily avocation, such lodger shall forthwith notify both the landlord of the lodging house and the Medical Officer of Health

24 No room of a lodging house which has been occupied by a person suffering from an infectious disease, shall be occupied by any person, until the said room has been disinfected to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health

25 If any person shall find a dead rat in any lodging house, he shall forthwith report such finding to the landlord, and if any landlord shall find, or shall be informed of the finding of, a dead rat in his lodging house, he shall forthwith report such finding to the Medical Officer of Health

26 Any person who shall be guilty of a breach or non-observance of any of these rules shall, on conviction, be liable to fine not exceeding two hundred rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to two months or to both such fine and imprisonment, and if after notice in writing shall have been given to any person by the Medical Officer of Health of the existence of a breach or non-observance of any of these rules, such person shall continue in such breach or non-observance he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifteen rupees in respect of each day on which the breach or non-observance shall continue after notice is given as aforesaid, such fine to be in addition to the penalties before prescribed

27 If in any proceedings under these rules it shall be alleged that any house is a lodging house, or that the person proceeded against is a landlord, or lodger, the house shall be presumed to be a lodging house and the person proceeded against a landlord or lodger, as the case may be, unless the person proceeded against shall prove the contrary

28 There shall be paid by the landlord on every registration and re-registration of a lodging house a fee of fifteen rupees

RULES.Under Section 10 of the Courts Ordinance, 1907

Rules issued by His Excellency the Governor under Section 10 of the Courts Ordinance, 1907

Nairobi,

Dated this 6th day of February, 1913

H C BELFIELD,

1 These Rules may be cited as "The Native Tribunal Rules 1913.

2 The Native Tribunal Rules 1911 and the Rules dated June 6th, 1911 and December 17th, 1912 amending the same are hereby revoked. Provided that all proceedings begun under the said revoked Rules and pending at the coming into operation of these Rules shall be continued as if such proceedings had begun under these Rules.

3 (1) The powers defined by these Rules shall be exercised only by such Councils of Elders as are recognised by the Governor.

(2) The recognition by the Governor of any Council of Elders for the purpose of these Rules, and the revocation of any such recognition shall be notified in the Gazette.

(3) All Councils of Elders lawfully exercising jurisdiction under the Rules revoked by these Rules immediately before the coming into operation of these Rules may exercise the powers defined by these Rules until other provision be made.

4 The jurisdiction of a Council of Elders under these Rules shall be exercised only over the members of the Native community over which such Council has jurisdiction under Native law and custom, and in relation to matters or things done or arising within a Native Reserve.

5 (1) A Council of Elders shall have jurisdiction as aforesaid (a) in civil matters arising between members of the Community over which the Council exercises jurisdiction to adjust claims not exceeding 1,000 rupees in value, (b) in petty criminal matters, when both the complainant and the accused are members of the Community over which the Council exercises jurisdiction, relating to offences against Native law and custom, to award punishments according to Native law and custom. Provided that no such punishment shall involve mutilation, torture or grievous hurt or shall be repugnant to humanity or morality, and provided that no compensation awarded or fine imposed shall exceed the value of 250 rupees.

(2) Whenever under any Ordinance, whether past or future, jurisdiction is conferred upon a Council of Elders, such jurisdiction shall, subject to the provisions of such Ordinance, be exercised in the manner prescribed by these Rules and be subject to the provisions of these Rules.

6 A Council of Elders shall not exercise jurisdiction in any of the following matters or offences —

(a) Any matter already dealt with in any Court of the Protectorate.

(b) Any of the following offences, or in any matter or claim arising out of such offences —

(i) Offences against the State,

(ii) Murder,

(iii) Culpable homicide not amounting to murder,

(iv) Dacoity with murder,

(v) Kidnapping or abducting in order to subject a person to slavery,

(vi) Buying or disposing of any person as a slave,

(vii) Habitually dealing in slaves, or

(viii) An attempt or abetment of any of the above offences.

7 (1) A Council of Elders shall have power to order imprisonment of either description for any offence for which it might have awarded compensation or other punishment. Provided that such imprisonment shall not exceed six months, and that it is undergone in a prison established by the Government.

(2) In every case in which any person is imprisoned on the orders of a Council of Elders the warrant of commitment to prison shall be signed by the District Commissioner and shall set forth the nature of the offence for which imprisonment is inflicted and the fact that such imprisonment has been inflicted by a Council of Elders and approved by the District Commissioner and if the imprisonment is ordered for the non-payment of a fine, the amount of the fine unpaid.

8 A Council of Elders may transfer to the District Commissioner any case which, in the opinion of such Council is one which should be dealt with by a Magistrate

9 A Provincial Commissioner or District Commissioner may stop the hearing or further hearing of any criminal or civil case commenced or brought before any Council of Elders in his Province or District, and may enquire into, hear and determine the case or direct that the case shall be inquired into, heard and determined by any Court of competent jurisdiction

10 Where an offender, being ordered by a Council of Elders to pay a fine, refuses or fails to do so, such offender may be punished by imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months. Upon undergoing such imprisonment he shall be discharged from the fine

11 Whenever by Native law or custom an appeal shall lie from the order or decision of a Council of Elders authorised to exercise jurisdiction under these Rules to a superior Council of Elders authorised as aforesaid, such last mentioned Council is hereby authorised to continue to exercise such appellate jurisdiction as is allowed by Native law or custom, but the order or decision of such Council shall be subject to the like appeal to a District Commissioner or revision by a Provincial Commissioner or District Commissioner as any original order or decision of the Council

12 If any person is dissatisfied with the sentence, judgment or order passed by a Council of Elders, he may appeal at any time within thirty days from the same to the District Commissioner

13 A Provincial Commissioner or a District Commissioner may revise any case either civil or criminal which has been decided by a Council of Elders whenever he may see just cause for so doing, and may

- (a) set aside the order or judgment and himself retry the case
- (b) set aside the order or judgment and order the case to be retried in his presence, or
- (c) without retrying or ordering the retrial of the case, alter any order or sentence of imprisonment or fine or any order of compensation, but not so as to increase any punishment

14 When a Provincial Commissioner or District Commissioner shall revise a case decided by a Council of Elders and shall himself retry the case, and when a District Commissioner shall hear any case on appeal from a Council of Elders, the Provincial or District Commissioner shall deal with such case and take evidence therein as if it were an original case taken by him under the Courts Ordinance, 1907

15 In cases revised by a District Commissioner, but not retried by him, it shall be lawful for a Provincial Commissioner to suspend, reverse, or alter any order made by such District Commissioner in such case. A District Commissioner shall have the like powers in regard to any case revised but not retried by an Assistant District Commissioner, but shall report to the Provincial Commissioner whenever he shall exercise such power

16 A Provincial Commissioner or District Commissioner revising any case under these rules shall record in a book or file to be kept for the purpose, the following matters —

- (1) Description of plaint or charge
- (2) Statement of plaintiff or complainant and defendant or accused
- (3) Statement of the presiding Elder of the Council as to the decision given by the Council
- (4) Statement of the Elders of the Council as to the reason for their decision
- (5) The order of the revising officer

- 17 (1) A fee shall be leviable by a Council of Elders in accordance with Native law or custom in respect of anything done under these Rules
- (2) No fees shall be leviable by a Provincial Commissioner or District Commissioner in respect of anything done under these Rules. Provided that if any party to a civil case tried by a Council of Elders shall appeal against the judgment or order of the Council there shall be leviable in respect of such appeal the fee which would be leviable if the case were an original case under the Courts Ordinance, 1907
- (3) Any fee levied by a Council of Elders in respect of anything done under these Rules shall be dealt with or utilised by the Council in accordance with Native law and custom

- 18 (1) All fines imposed by a Council of Elders under these Rules shall be the property of the Government and, save as hereinafter provided, all such fines recovered shall form part of the revenues of the Protectorate. It shall be the duty of a Council of Elders to forthwith pay or cause to be paid to the District Commissioner for and on behalf of the Government any fine recovered by the Council under these Rules

- (2) Whenever a District Commissioner shall be satisfied that any fine or part of a fine paid to him as aforesaid is, by Native Law or custom, payable to any Native or Natives subject to the jurisdiction of the Council, which has imposed the same, as compensation for any injury done or damage suffered by reason of the offence in respect of which the fine has been imposed, he may pay, out of the fine, to the Native or Natives entitled, the compensation payable under Native law and custom. Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorise any District Commissioner to pay a fine or any part of a fine imposed by a Council of Elders to any Chief, Sub-Chief, Headman or Council of Elders, as compensation for anything done to or suffered by a Chief, Sub-Chief, Headman or Council of Elders, except with the consent of the Provincial Commissioner first obtained.
- 19 In these Rules save where inconsistent with the context —
 ‘ Native law and custom ’ shall mean the law and custom of the community over which the Council of Elders is authorised to exercise jurisdiction
 ‘ A District Commissioner ’ includes an Assistant District Commissioner

RULESThe Land Titles Ordinance, 1908.

Rules issued by His Excellency the Governor under the Land Titles Ordinance, 1908

Nairobi,

H C BELFIELD,

Dated this 5th day of February, 1913

Governor

AS TO NOTICE OF THE SALE OR TRANSFER OF LAND AFTER JUDGMENT AND BEFORE THE ISSUE
 OF A CERTIFICATE AND THE PROCEEDINGS AFTER SUCH NOTICE

1 Whenever, in the interval between the date of a judgment given by the Recorder of Titles in favour of an applicant for a certificate of ownership and the issue of the certificate, the ownership of the land or of any portion of the land is transferred to any other person, the transferee may give notice of such transfer to the Recorder of Titles, together with such particulars as may be required to identify the land. The transferee on giving such notice shall pay to the Recorder of Titles a fee of two rupees.

2 Whenever notice shall have been given under and in accordance with the provisions of the preceding rule, the Recorder of Titles shall enquire into the matters of which notice has been given and if satisfied as to the transfer, shall record a note of such transfer in the file of the case relating to such land, and shall issue certificates and do all acts or things necessary to give effect to such transfer as if the transferee had made a claim for a certificate of ownership under Section 15 of the Ordinance. Provided, however, that if by reason of such transfer it shall be necessary to demark or delineate any boundary or to cause any boundary mark to be placed, or to make any survey or prepare any map or plan which would not have been necessary had such transfer not been effected, the transferee shall pay to the Recorder of Titles the cost of the works or things aforesaid in addition to any other payment which the transferee may be required by the Ordinance or any rule thereunder to make, and until such cost shall have been paid, the transferee shall not be entitled to receive and shall not, without the consent of the Governor, be granted a certificate of ownership.

RULESThe Crown Land Ordinance, 1902

Rules made by His Excellency the Governor under the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1902.

Nairobi,

H C BELFIELD,

Governor

1 Licences in the form in the Schedule hereto may be issued in respect of Crown Lands available for leasing for agricultural purposes, and such licences may be executed by the Land Officer on behalf of the Governor.

2 No person shall be entitled to a lease of agricultural land until he shall have occupied such land under a licence granted under these rules and shall have complied with the terms and conditions imposed by such licence or by virtue of these rules. Provided however, that nothing in this rule shall affect any agreement, lease or licence heretofore granted or agreed to be granted.

3 Every licence issued under these Rules shall reserve an annual rent at the rate of 10 cents per acre

4 Every licence issued under these rules shall, in the case of licences sold by auction, be dated as of the first day of the month next following the month in which the licence shall have been sold, and, in the case of a licence which is not sold by auction, shall be dated the day on which the licence is executed by the Governor or Land Officer

5 Every lease granted in pursuance of Clause 4 of a licence issued under these rules shall be granted for a term of 99 years to commence from the date of the licence. Such term shall, for the purposes of the rent to be reserved by the lease, be divided in three periods, the first period to expire on December 31st, 1947, the second period to expire on December 31st, 1980 and the third period to expire on the expiration of the lease

6 The annual rent payable under a lease granted as aforesaid shall be payable in advance on the first day of January in each year and shall, for the first period, be the annual rent payable under the licence, for the second period be at the rate of 1 per cent on the value of the land in the year 1947, and for the third period at the rate of 2 per cent on the value of the land in the year 1980

In the ascertainment of the value of land for the purposes of this rule, there shall not be taken into consideration in augmentation of such value, the value of improvements made or done on the land

7 Every lease granted as aforesaid shall be granted on the terms and conditions prescribed by the law regulating the disposal of Crown lands in force at the date of the execution of the lease, and the lessee shall be subject to all the covenants, obligations, burdens and restrictions imposed by such law on a lessee of agricultural land

8 Licences under these rules shall, unless the Governor shall otherwise order, be sold by auction

9 When agricultural land shall have been surveyed and divided into farms the Land Officer may, with the sanction of the Governor, cause a notice to be published in the Gazette, specifying the place and date, which shall not be within three months of the date of the publication of such notice, at which occupation licences in respect of such farms will be offered for sale by auction

Every such notice shall state

- (1) The situation of each farm
- (2) The sum to be expended on improvements in respect of each farm
- (3) The upset price at which the licence in respect of each farm will be sold
- (4) The survey fee payable in respect of each farm
- (5) The place or places at which a map or plan showing the situation of the farm may be inspected

- 10 (1) No person shall bid at any such auction except he shall have obtained from the Land Officer, and, if requested by the auctioneer, shall produce to the auctioneer, a certificate authorising him to bid at such auction, which certificate the Land Officer may, at his discretion, withhold in the case of any person, or may grant only in respect of any farm or farms mentioned in the certificate
- (2) No person shall, without the sanction in writing of the Governor first obtained, bid at any such auction as the agent for or on behalf of any other person
- (3) No person shall, without the sanction in writing of the Land Officer, purchase at any one sale more than one licence
- (4) Any bid made by any person in contravention of the provisions of this rule shall be ignored or refused, and if any person shall in contravention of this rule purchase more than one licence or if any licence shall be knocked down to a person who is not entitled to bid, the sale shall be null and void, and the purchaser shall forfeit any moneys which may have been paid by him in respect of such sale

11 The highest bid for each licence together with the name of the purchaser shall be announced by the auctioneer, before proceeding to offer the next licence, and the purchaser shall thereupon pay to the auctioneer one-quarter of the purchase price. In default of such payment the licence may be offered for sale immediately, and any subsequent bid by the person who has made default may be ignored or refused

12 The purchaser shall, on the first day of the month next following the month in which the sale has been held, or if such day is a Sunday or Public Holiday on the first day thereafter which is not either a Sunday or Public Holiday, pay to the Land Officer at the Land Office, Nairobi, the balance of the purchase money, the rent payable to the 31st December next following, the survey fee, and the fees payable for the preparation and registration of the licence

If such payments are not made at the time aforesaid, the Land Officer may order that the deposit made by the purchaser shall be forfeited to the Government and that the purchaser shall have no further claim to the licence in respect of which the deposit shall have been made

13 In these Rules "agricultural purpose" includes grazing and stock raising, and "agricultural land" includes grazing land

14 The Rules under the Crown Lands Ordinance 1902 dated the 28th day of February, 1911, are hereby cancelled, provided, however, such cancellation shall not affect any licence granted under the said rules or any right, title, interest, obligation or duty granted, conferred or imposed by virtue of any such licence or of the said rules

Schedule

Occupation Licence.

Mr (hereinafter referred to as the licensee) is hereby authorised to occupy, subject to the conditions hereinafter contained and to the provisions of the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1902, and to the Rules for the time being in force under the said Ordinance, all that piece or parcel of land situate in the District in the Province of the East Africa Protectorate being Farm No comprising acres or thereabouts which said piece or parcel of land with the dimensions, abutments and boundaries thereof is delineated on the plan annexed hereto and thereon bordered by a red verge line, land more particularly on Revenue Survey plan No deposited in the Survey Department, Nairobi, for the term of three years from the date hereof paying therefor to the Land Officer for the time being during the said term the yearly rent of Rs and so in proportion for any less time than a year the first of such payments to be made on the day of 191 and the subsequent payments to be made on the 1st day of January in every year

2 The licensee agrees to pay the rent in manner aforesaid and to improve and develop the resources of the said land in a prudent and business like manner

3 The licensee shall commence to reside on the said land within 6 months of the date of this licence and shall thereafter reside on such land for a period of not less than 24 months during the currency of the licence

The licensee shall, after the expiration of 6 months from the date of the licence, if so required by the Land Officer, produce proof, to the satisfaction of the Land Officer, that he had commenced to reside on the said land within 6 months of the date of the licence, and shall, on the expiration of the licence, produce proof, to the satisfaction of the Land Officer, that he has resided on the said land for a period of not less than 24 months during the currency of the licence

Provided, however, that if the licensee shall satisfy the Land Officer that there is good reason for exempting the licensee from personal occupation of the land for the whole or any portion of the period of the licence and that he has engaged a person of European or American origin to manage his farm, plantation, or other undertaking on the land, the Land Officer may with the approval of the Governor, give his consent in writing that for the purposes of this licence, and for the period to be specified in such consent, residence by the Manager named in such consent shall be deemed and taken to be residence by the licensee within the meaning of this licence

4 If at the expiration of the said term of 3 years the licensee shall have improved and developed the said land to the satisfaction of the Governor or such Official as he shall appoint and shall have complied with each and every condition of this licence then the licensee shall be entitled to a lease of the said land For the purpose of this clause improvements to the extent of Rs *of the nature specified in the Schedule hereto will be deemed sufficient development to qualify for a lease

5 Every lease granted in pursuance of the last preceding clause shall be for a term of 99 years to commence from the date of this licence subject nevertheless to the provisions of the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1902, and the Rules thereunder, or any Ordinance amending or replacing the same in force at the date of the execution of the lease, and to the Rules for the time being in force under any such Ordinance

6 The licensee shall not assign transfer or otherwise part with his interest under this licence or any part thereof

7 Sections 2 to 28 (both inclusive) of the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1902, shall apply to the said land as if the same were leased under the said Ordinance, and the licensee shall cease to occupy any portion of the said land which may be required for any of the purposes mentioned in the said Sections, and any such land required as aforesaid shall be excluded from the land leased in pursuance of this licence

8 If the aforesaid rent or any part thereof is unpaid for 21 days after the same shall have become due whether legally demanded or not, or if the licensee shall commit any breach of any of the conditions herein contained or implied by virtue of the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1902, or any Rule thereunder, the Governor may eject the licensee from the land and his licence shall be forfeited

9 If the licensee shall make default in improving and developing the land within the said term of three years and to the extent and in manner herein provided, or shall fail to occupy the land as aforesaid, then on the expiration of this licence the Governor shall resume possession of the land and all improvements and development effected thereon without making to the licensee any compensation or allowance in respect thereof

UGANDA RAILWAYInstructions Relating to “Returned Empties” when Conveyed Free

The attention of Consignors of Farm Produce is specially directed to the following instructions which have been issued to the staff at Stations, viz —

“The following instructions must be given effect to at once in connection with empties returned to a Sender which under the Tariff Book are allowed “free” conveyance

1 Each empty box, crate, or can, as the case may be, must be fully addressed by the Sender, the address label to bear the words “Returned Empty” and the full name and address of the Consignee

2 A consignment note must be handed in by the Sender at the time of acceptance of such empties for conveyance

3 A goods invoice must be passed for each consignment, same to be endorsed “free” and reference to page of Tariff Book authorising “free” conveyance to be quoted. Such invoices must be made out and numbered in the same manner as a charges invoice

4 The condition of empties should be carefully noted and signature granted accordingly, the necessary remarks being made on the invoice passed

5 A signature must be taken in Delivery Book at the time of delivery as in the case of ordinary goods ”

Consignors of Farm Produce should see that their Customers who are responsible for the return of their empties are made fully conversant with these instructions, which are drafted to ensure the safe return of empties to the original consignor and thus obviate complaints regarding loss
