AN ORDINANCE

No. 2 of 1913

An Ordinance to amend the Vaccination Ordinance
1912

[May 26th, 1913]

BE it enacted by the Governor of the East Africa Protectorate with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof —

Short Title 1 This Ordinance may be cited “The Vaccination Amendment Ordinance, 1913,” and shall be read as one with the Vaccination Ordinance, 1912, hereinafter referred to as the Principal Ordinance

Interpretation of the term “child” 2 In and for the purposes of the Principal Ordinance the term “child” means a person who is under, or who appears to be under, 15 years of age.

AN ORDINANCE

No 3 of 1913

An Ordinance to make further and better provision for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals

[May 26th, 1913]

BE it enacted by the Governor of the East Africa Protectorate with the Short Title advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof —

1 This Ordinance may be cited as “The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Offences of cruelty Ordinance, 1913”

2. (1) If any person—

- (a) shall cruelly beat, kick, ill-treat, over-ride, over-drive, over-load, torture, infuriate, or terrify any animal, or shall cause or procure, or, being the owner, permit any animal to be so used, or shall, by wantonly or unreasonably doing or omitting to do any act, or causing or procuring the commission or omission of any act, cause any unnecessary suffering, or being the owner, permit any unnecessary suffering to be so caused to any animal, or
 - (b) shall convey or carry, or cause or procure, or, being the owner, permit to be conveyed or carried, any animal in such manner or position as to cause that animal any unnecessary suffering, or
 - (c) shall cause, procure, or assist at the fighting or baiting of any animal, or shall keep, use, manage, or act or assist in the management of, any premises or place for the purpose, or partly for the purpose, of fighting or baiting any animal, or shall permit any premises or place to be so kept, managed, or used, or shall receive or cause or procure any person to receive, money for the admission of any person to such premises or place, or
 - (d) shall wilfully, without any reasonable cause or excuse, administer, or cause or procure, or being the owner permit, such administration of, any poisonous or injurious drug or substance to any animal, or shall wilfully, without any reasonable cause or excuse, cause any such substance to be taken by any animal, or
 - (e) shall subject, or cause or procure, or being the owner permit, to be subjected, any animal to any operation which is performed without due care and humanity,
- such person shall be guilty of an offence of cruelty within the meaning of this Ordinance, and shall be liable upon conviction to a fine not exceeding three hundred rupees, or alternatively, or in addition thereto, to imprisonment of either description for any term not exceeding six months
- (2) For the purposes of this section, an owner shall be deemed to have permitted cruelty within the meaning of this Ordinance if he shall have failed to exercise reasonable care and supervision in respect of the protection of the animal therefrom

Provided that, where an owner is convicted of permitting cruelty within the meaning of this Ordinance by reason only of his having failed to exercise such care and supervision, he shall not be liable to imprisonment without the option of a fine

- (3) Nothing in this Section shall render illegal any act done by a duly qualified Medical Practitioner or by a qualified Veterinary Surgeon, which may be lawfully done under the Cruelty to Animals Act 1876 (39 and 40 Victoria Ch 77) by a person licensed under that Act, or shall apply —
- (a) to the commission or omission of any act in the course of the destruction, or the preparation for destruction, of any animal as food for mankind, unless such destruction or such preparation was accompanied by the infliction of unnecessary suffering, or
- (b) to the coursing or hunting of any captive animal, unless such animal is liberated in an injured, mutilated, or exhausted condition, but a captive animal shall not, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be coursed or hunted before it is liberated for the purpose of being coursed or hunted, or after it has been recaptured, or if it is under control

3 Where the owner of an animal is convicted of an offence of cruelty within the meaning of this Ordinance, it shall be lawful for the Court, if the Court is satisfied that it would be cruel to keep the animal alive, to direct that the animal be destroyed, and to assign the animal to any suitable person for that purpose, and the person to whom such animal is so assigned shall as soon as possible, destroy such animal or cause or procure such animal to be destroyed, in his presence without unnecessary suffering. Any reasonable expenses incurred in destroying the animal may be ordered by the Court to be paid by the owner, and thereupon shall be recoverable summarily as a civil debt.

Provided that, unless the owner assent, no order shall be made under this section except upon the evidence of a Veterinary Surgeon.

4 If the owner of any animal shall be guilty of cruelty within the meaning of this Ordinance to the animal, the Court, upon his conviction thereof, may, if it thinks fit, in addition to any other punishment, deprive such person of the ownership of the animal, and may make such order as to the disposal of the animal as it thinks fit under the circumstances.

Provided that no order shall be made under this Section, unless it is shown by evidence as to a previous conviction, or as to the character of the owner, or otherwise, that the animal, if left with the owner, is likely to be exposed to further cruelty.

5 If any person shall, by cruelty within the meaning of this Ordinance to any animal, do or cause to be done, any damage or injury to the animal or any person or property, he shall upon conviction for the cruelty under this Ordinance, be liable upon the application of the person aggrieved to be ordered to pay as compensation to the person who shall sustain damage or injury as aforesaid, such sum not exceeding 150 rupees, as the Court before whom he is convicted may consider reasonable, the sum so ordered to be paid shall be recoverable as if it were a fine.

Provided that this Section shall not—

- (a) prevent the taking of any other legal proceedings in respect of any such damage or injury, so that a person be not twice proceeded against in respect of the same claim, nor
- (b) affect the liability of any person to be proceeded against and punished under this Ordinance for an offence of cruelty within the meaning of this Ordinance.

- 6 (1) If a European Police Officer finds on any road or in any public place, any animal so diseased or so severely injured or in such physical condition that, in his opinion, having regard to the means available for removing the animal, there is no possibility of removing it without cruelty, it shall be lawful for the police officer, without the consent of the owner, to slaughter the animal, or cause or procure it to be slaughtered, with such instruments or appliances, and with such precautions, and in such manner, as to inflict as little suffering as practicable, and to remove the carcase or cause or procure it to be removed from the road or public place.
- (2) Any expense which may be reasonably incurred by any Police Officer in carrying out the provisions of this Section may be recovered from the owner summarily as a civil debt, and, subject thereto, any such expense shall be defrayed out of the police vote.

GENERAL NOTICE No 333]

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the undermentioned goods will be sold by public auction at the Mombasa Custom House on the 7th July, 1913, if not claimed before that date, and the proceeds will be applied first to the payment of freight and charges and next of duties

The surplus, if any, will be paid to the proprietor of the goods on his application in writing for the same within 12 months from the date of sale, but if on the expiration of that time no such application shall have been made the surplus will be forfeited and will be applied as if it had been originally paid as the duty due and payable

UGANDA RAILWAYSteam Coal

Tenders are requested for the supply of good quality Natal or Transvaal steam Coal for use on the Uganda Railway

Consignments may be in quantities of —

Shipments of 3000 to 4000 tons of which there shall not be more than one shipment in any one month

Shipments of 1000 tons, of which there shall not be more than one shipment in any one fortnight

Shipments of 500 tons of which there shall not be more than one shipment in any one week

Delivery must be effected from lighters beached at a place to be appointed near the Kilindini Pier works

If possible delivery may also be made from lighters laying alongside Kilindini Pier

2 The Coal must be stacked at the places appointed, or loaded into trucks as the General Manager may consider to be most expedient

3 In the case of delivery alongside Kilindini Pier the Coal would have to be loaded on wagons

4 The total quantity that would be required will not exceed 10,000 tons under this tender.

5 Tenders should give alternative rates for the different methods of shipment and delivery, and must be the inclusive rate per ton for such delivery

6 Payment will be made either by actual weight as per wagons passed over the weighbridge, or by a method of measurement to be subsequently agreed upon

7 Tenders (which should be sealed) will be received up to noon, 28th July, 1913, and must give full information as to the quality and source of the Coal, and the proposed timing of shipments under each system of delivery, and the time when the first delivery would be made.

8 The Manager does not bind himself to accept each or any tender, neither does he bind himself to contract for the full quantity of the 10,000 tons that are asked for in this Notice

Nairobi,
Dated May 28th, 1913

H B TAYLOR,
General Manager
