GOVERNMENT NOTICE No. 150]

CIRCULAR. (Vide "Official Gazette," 1913, page 275).

DOWNING STREET,

13th June, 1914.

Sir,

With further reference to my Circular despatch of the 10th of February, 1913, I have the honour to inform you that the Army Council, having again had under consideration the conditions under which officers of the Special Reserve may hold permanent civil appointments under Colonial Administrations, have decided that officers of that branch of the Army, while so employed, should be permitted to be seconded for a period not exceeding five years from the date of first appointment under the Colonial Government, including the period of probation (if any): after the termination of the five years, should they continue to be so employed, they would be required to resign their commissions.

2. Officers so situated will, as already agreed, be under no liability of recall to Army service on mobilization, nor will they be entitled to draw pay from Army funds, whether for training or any other purpose.

3. The new rule is not to be retrospective in the case of officers whose resignation has already been gazetted, but applications received for reinstatement to the Special Reserve of Officers will be considered on the merits of each case.

4. The ruling as regards Officers of the Territorial Force and the Territorial Force Reserve, as communicated to you in the Circular despatch of 10th February, 1913, is not affected by this decision.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient, humble servant,

L. HARCOURT.
