ORDER OF THE LORDS IN COUNCIL

TRADING WITH THE ENEMY (NEUTRAL COUNTRIES) ORDER (No 27), 1916

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 16th day of February, 1917

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council

WHEREAS His Majesty has been pleased, in exercise of the power in that behalf conferred on Him by Section one, sub-section one, of the Trading with the Enemy (Extension of powers) Act, 1915, by divers Proclamations, and in particular by a Proclamation dated the 23rd day of May, 1916, entitled "The Trading with the Enemy (Statutory List) Proclamation, 1916, No 3," to prohibit all persons or bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, resident, carrying on business, or being in the United Kingdom from trading with any of the persons or bodies of persons mentioned in the List contained in the last mentioned Proclamation

And whereas by Section one sub-section two, of the said Act, it is provided that any List of persons and bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, with whom such trading is prohibited by a Proclamation under the said Act may be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of a Secretary of State, such List as so varied or added to being in the last mentioned Proclamation referred to as the "Statutory List"

And whereas the List contained in the last mentioned Proclamation has been varied and added to by subsequent Orders of Council,

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to the following effect —

That the "Statutory List" of persons and bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, with whom trading is prohibited, should be further amended by the variation and addition of the names set forth in the Schedule hereto

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said recommendation into consideration, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be approved

Whereof the Right Honourable Arthur James Balfour, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Contoller of the Foreign Trade Department, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly

GOVERNMENT NOTICE No 158]

THE EAST AFRICA TOWNSHIPS ORDINANCE, 1903.

RULES

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon the Governor by the East Africa Townships Ordinance, 1903, His Excellency the Acting Governor has been pleased to make the following Rules —

1 These Rules may be cited as "The Townships (Sanitary) Rules, 1917" and shall apply to any Township which the Governor may by notice in the Gazette order

2 For the purposes of these Rules —

(1) any premises in such a state or condition as to be a nuisance or injurious to health,

- (2) any premises in such a state or condition and any building so constructed as to be likely to harbour rats,
- (3) any pool, ditch, gutter, water course, privy, latrine, urinal, cesspool, drain, ash-pit, refuse-pit, dustbin, well, water-tank, sink in such a state or condition or so situated as to be a nuisance or injurious to health,
- (4) any animal so kept as to be a nuisance or injurious to health,
- (5) any hole or excavation, well, pond or quarry in or near any road, street or pathway which is or is likely to become dangerous to the public,
- (6) any accumulation or deposit which is a nuisance or injurious to health,
- (7) any growth of weeds, grass or wild bush which may be a nuisance or injurious to health,
- (8) any house or part of a house so overcrowded as to be dangerous or injurious to the health of the inmates whether or not members of the same family, and
- (9) any cesspool or cesspit constructed after the date of these Rules beneath any part of a building which is used or intended to be used wholly or partly for human habitation or in which any manufacture, trade or business is or is intended to be carried on,
- (10) Any accumulation of stones, boritis, or other building material if such accumulation in the opinion of the Health Officer is likely to harbour rats or other vermin or any ruinous building which in the opinion of the Health Officer is likely to harbour rats or other vermin, shall be deemed to be nuisances liable to be dealt with summarily in manner provided by these Rules

3 The Health Officer or any person authorised by him either generally or in any particular case shall be admitted in to any premises for the purpose of examining as to the existence of any nuisance thereon at any times between the hours of nine in the morning and six in the afternoon, or in the case of a nuisance arising in respect of any business then at any hour when such business is in progress or is usually carried on. Where a nuisance has been ascertained to exist or a nuisance order has been made, the Health Officer or any person authorised by him shall be admitted into the premises between the hours aforesaid until the nuisance is abated or the works ordered to be done are completed as the case may be.

When a nuisance order has not been complied with or has been infringed, the Health Officer or any person or persons authorised by him shall be admitted at all reasonable times into the premises where the nuisance exists in order to abate the same. If admission to premises for any of the purposes of this rule is refused, any Magistrate on application by the Health Officer may by order in writing require the person having custody of the premises to admit the Health Officer or any person authorised by him into the premises during the hours aforesaid, and if no person having custody of the premises is found, the Magistrate shall authorise the Health Officer or any person authorised by him if necessary, to break and enter on such premises. Any such order shall continue in force until the nuisance has been abated or the work for which the entry was necessary has been done.

4 Any person who refuses to obey an order of a Magistrate for admission of the Health Officer or any person or persons authorised by him, or who obstructs such officer or other person in any act authorised under these rules shall be liable to a fine not exceeding seventy-five rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding one month.

5 Whenever the Health Officer is satisfied that a nuisance exists or has existed and is likely to recur on any land or premises in the Township, the Health Officer shall serve a notice on the person by whose act, default or sufferance the nuisance exists or is liable to recur or, if such person cannot be found, on the occupier or owner of the land or premises on which the nuisance arises or has arisen requiring him to abate the nuisance or to do what is necessary to prevent its recurrence within the time specified in the notice, and such notice may specify any works to be executed for the purpose of abating the nuisance or preventing its recurrence, provided that —

- (1) When the nuisance arises from any want or defect of a structural character or when the premises are unoccupied, the notice shall be served on the owner
- (2) When the person causing the nuisance cannot be found and it is clear that the nuisance does not exist by the act or default or sufferance of the owner or occupier of the premises, the Health Officer may abate the same and do what is necessary to prevent the recurrence thereof

6 When a notice has been served on any person under the last preceding rule and either

- (a) The nuisance arose from the wilful act or default of the said person, or
- (b) Such person makes default in complying with any of the requisitions of the notice within the time specified,

he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 150 rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding two months for each offence

7 (1) If either

- (a) The person on whom a notice has been served under Rule 5 of these Rules makes default in complying with the requisitions thereof within the time specified, or

- (b) The nuisance, although abated since the service of the notice, is in the opinion of the Health Officer likely to recur on the same premises, the Health Officer shall make a complaint to a Magistrate and the Magistrate hearing the complaint may make on such person a summary order, in these Rules referred to as a nuisance order
- (2) A nuisance order may be an abatement order, a prohibition order, or a closing order or a combination of such orders
- (3) An abatement order may require a person to comply with any of the requisitions of the notice or otherwise to abate the nuisance within a time specified in the order
- (4) A prohibition order may prohibit the recurrence of a nuisance
- (5) An abatement order or prohibition order shall, if the person on whom the order is made so requires or the Magistrate considers it desirable specify the work to be executed by such person for the purpose of abating or preventing the recurrence of a nuisance
- (6) A closing order may prohibit a house or building from being used for human habitation
- (7) A closing order shall only be made when it is proved to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that, by reason of a nuisance, a house or building is unfit for human habitation, and if such proof is given the Magistrate shall make a closing order
- (8) The Magistrate, when satisfied that the house or building has been rendered fit for human habitation, may declare that he is so satisfied and cancel the closing order
- (9) If a person fails to comply with the provisions of a nuisance order with respect to the abatement of a nuisance, he shall, unless he satisfies the Magistrate that he has used all due diligence to carry out such order, be liable to a fine not exceeding ten rupees a day during his default, and if a person knowingly and wilfully acts contrary to a prohibition or closing order he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten rupees a day during such contrary action, moreover the Health Officer or some person authorised by him may enter the premises to which a nuisance order relates, and abate or remove the nuisance or do whatever may be necessary in execution of such order, and recover as a civil debt recoverable summarily the expenses incurred from the person on whom the order is made

8 All reasonable costs and expenses incurred in serving a notice, making a complaint, or obtaining a nuisance order, or in carrying the order into effect, shall be deemed to be money paid for the use and at the request of and shall be a civil debt recoverable summarily from the person on whom the order is made, or, if no order is made but the nuisance is proved to have existed when the complaint was made or the notice given, then of the person by whose act or default the nuisance was caused, and in the case of nuisances caused by the act or default of the owner of the premises, such costs and expenses may be recovered from any person who is for the time being owner of such premises

9 Any matter or thing removed by the Health Officer in abating or doing what is necessary to prevent the recurrence of a nuisance, may be sold or otherwise disposed of as the Health Officer may determine, the monies arising from any such sale may be retained by the Health Officer and applied in payment of the expenses incurred by him in reference to such nuisance and the surplus (if any) shall be paid, on demand to the owner of such matter or thing

10 When the occupier of any premises prevents the owner thereof from obeying or carrying into effect the requirements of any notice or order under these Rules a Magistrate on complaint, shall by order require such occupier to permit the execution of any works which appear to the Magistrate to be necessary for the purpose of obeying or carrying into effect the requirements of the notice or order, and if, within twenty four hours after service on him of the order such occupier fails to comply therewith, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifteen rupees for every day during the continuance of such non-compliance

11 Every notice or order required or authorised by these Rules to be served on any person may be served —

- (a) By delivering the same to such person
- (b) By delivering the same at the usual or last known place of abode of such person, or to some adult member or servant of his family
- (c) A notice or order required or authorised to be served on the owner or occupier of any premises shall be deemed to be properly addressed by the description of the "owner" or "occupier" of such premises without further description
- (d) Such notice may be served by delivering the same or a true copy thereof to some adult person on the premises or if there is no such person on the premises to whom the same can with reasonable diligence be delivered, by fixing the notice on some conspicuous part of the premises

12 The occupier of any premises shall, if required by the Health Officer, or any person acting with the authority of the Health Officer, give his name and the name and address of the owner of the premises if known

Any person offending against this rule shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 30 rupees and in default of payment to imprisonment of either description for 14 days

13 In these Rules —

The term "Health Officer" means the Medical Officer of Health for the Township and includes any Medical Officer appointed to assist such Medical Officer of Health and in Townships where there is no Medical Officer of Health means the Senior Medical Officer or Medical Officer in charge of such Township or a Sanitary Inspector or such other person not below the rank of Hospital Compounder acting on such Senior Medical Officer or Medical Officer's written instructions

The terms "Owner" and "Occupier" shall have the same meanings as are assigned to these terms by the Township Fees and Conservancy Ordinance, 1908

The term "Premises" includes messuages, buildings, lands, easements and hereditaments of any tenure, whether open or enclosed, whether built on or not, and whether public or private
