EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

AN ORDINANCE

No 12 of 1918.

An Ordinance to Enable Restrictions to be Imposed on Aliens and to Make such Provisions as are Necessary or Expedient to Carry such Restrictions into Effect.

[May 11th, 1918]

Date of Assent
and Commencement

BE it enacted by the Acting Governor of the East Africa Protectorate with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof —

1 This Ordinance may be cited as “The Aliens Restriction Ordinance, 1918 ”

Short title

2 (1) The Governor-in-Council may at any time when a state of war exists between His Majesty and any foreign power or when it appears that an occasion of imminent danger or great emergency has arisen by order impose from time to time restrictions on aliens and provision may be made by any such order—

Power with respect to aliens

(a) for prohibiting aliens from landing in or otherwise entering the Protectorate either generally or at certain places and for imposing restrictions or conditions on aliens landing or arriving at any port in the Protectorate, and

(b) for prohibiting aliens from embarking in or otherwise leaving the Protectorate, either generally or at certain places, and for imposing restrictions and conditions on aliens embarking or about to embark in the Protectorate, and

(c) for the deportation of aliens from the Protectorate, and

(d) for requiring aliens to reside and remain within certain places or districts, and

(e) for prohibiting aliens from residing or remaining in any areas specified in the order, and

(f) for requiring aliens residing in the Protectorate to comply with such provisions as to registration, change of abode, travelling or otherwise as may be made by the order, and

(g) for the appointment of officers to carry the order into effect, and for conferring on such officers such powers as may be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the order, and

(h) for imposing penalties on persons who aid or abet any contravention of the order, and for imposing such obligations and restrictions on masters of ships or any other persons specified in the order as appear necessary or expedient for giving full effect to the order, and

(i) for conferring upon such persons as may be specified in the order such powers with respect to arrest, detention, search of premises or persons, and otherwise, as may be specified in the order, and for any other ancillary matters for which it appears expedient to provide with a view to giving full effect to the order, and

(j) for any other matters which appear necessary or expedient with a view to the safety of the Protectorate

(ii) If any person acts in contravention of, or fails to comply with, any provisions of any such order, he shall be liable on conviction by a Magistrate holding a Subordinate Court of the First Class to a fine not exceeding Rs 1,500/- or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding six months, and the Court before which he is convicted may, either in addition to, or in lieu of, any such punishment, require that person to enter into recognizances with or without sureties to comply with the provisions of the order or such provisions thereof as the Court may direct.

If any person fails to comply with an order of the Court requiring him to enter into recognizances the Court may order him to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding six months. Such imprisonment may be of either description.

(iii) Any provision of any order made under this section with respect to aliens may relate either to aliens in general or to any class or description of aliens.

(iv) If any question arises on any proceedings under any such order, or with reference to anything done or proposed to be done under any such order, whether any person is an alien or not, or is an alien of a particular class or not, the onus of proving that that person is not an alien, or, as the case may be, is not an alien of that class, shall lie upon that person.

(v) The Governor-in-Council may order, revoke, alter, or add to any order made under this section as occasion requires.

(vi) Any powers given under this section, or any order made under this section, shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of any other powers with respect to the expulsion of aliens or the prohibition of aliens from entering the Protectorate or any other powers conferred on the Governor.

Interpretation

3 For the purposes of this Ordinance the expression "alien" means any person who is not a British subject or who is not a native of the Protectorate or of any other British Protectorate.

AN ORDINANCE

No 13 OF 1918

An Ordinance to amend the Law Relating to Customs.

Date of Assent and Commencement

[May 11th, 1918]

BE it enacted by the Acting Governor of the East Africa Protectorate with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof —

Short title

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Customs Amendment Ordinance, 1918," and shall be construed together with the Customs Ordinance, 1910, hereafter referred to as the Principal Ordinance and all Ordinances amending such Ordinance.

Export duties on goods originating in Uganda

2 Goods transmitted from the Uganda Protectorate and exported from any port in the East Africa Protectorate shall be deemed to be goods exported from the East Africa Protectorate and shall be liable to the like duties, restrictions and conditions as provided by the Customs Tariff Ordinance, 1909, the Customs Ordinance, 1910, and any other law relating to Customs.

No duty payable on goods imported from Uganda

3 Goods imported into the East Africa Protectorate from the Uganda Protectorate shall, if such goods originate in the Uganda Protectorate or if Customs duty has been paid thereon on their importation into the Uganda Protectorate, be free of duties of Customs for and on account of importation into the East Africa Protectorate.

Payments to the Uganda Government

4 There shall be payable to the Government of the Uganda Protectorate a sum amounting to 33 per centum of the net revenue derived by the Customs Department from all sources.

Amendment to section 3 of Customs Ordinance, 1910

5 Section 50 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the addition between the word "discharged" where it first occurs in such section and the word "provided" of the words "or the time when they are brought within the limits of the jurisdiction across the frontier."

6 (1) Section 65 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the deletion of the words "to a penalty of seven hundred and fifty rupees to be recovered in the usual manner" and by the substitution therefor of the words "on conviction to a fine not exceeding Rs 4,500/- or imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both and all goods in respect of which such false invoice is produced or such fraudulent attempt is made shall be forfeited "

Amendment to section 65 of Customs Ordinance, 1910

(2) Whenever an officer of the Customs in accordance with the provisions of section 65 of the Principal Ordinance requires the production of original invoices, bills of lading, bills of parcels or other such documents if any document so required to be produced is not written or printed in English the person required to produce such document shall produce with such document a correct translation thereof in English Any person who produces a false translation shall be liable to a penalty of Rs 750/- to be recovered in the manner provided by the Principal Ordinance for the recovery of penalties thereunder

7 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section 73 of the Principal Ordinance contained in regard to the sale of any goods by the Customs Department if it be considered that by reason of the perishable nature of the goods unless the goods be sold at once the proceeds would not be sufficient to cover the duties and charges the Chief of Customs may forthwith order the sale thereof and apply the proceeds as directed by section 73 of the Principal Ordinance

Amendment to section 73 of the Customs Ordinance, 1910

8 Section 143 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the addition after the word 'imported' in the first line thereof of the words "from a foreign port "

Amendment to section 143 of the Customs Ordinance, 1910

9 Section 207 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following section is hereby substituted therefor —

Amendment to section 207 of the Customs Ordinance, 1910

207 Any officer of Customs or other person acting in his aid or duly employed for the prevention of smuggling may search any person on board any ship in any port or place within the limits of the jurisdiction or any person who shall have landed from any ship or otherwise entered the Protectorate provided such officer shall have good reason to suppose that such person has any uncustomed or prohibited goods secreted about his person and if any person shall obstruct any such officer in going, remaining or returning from on board or in searching such ship or person every such person shall forfeit the sum of Rs 1,500/- and any person who after landing from any ship within the Protectorate or while he is still on such ship or who otherwise enters the Protectorate is questioned by an officer of Customs whether he has any dutiable goods upon his person or in his possession refuses to answer or denies it or makes any statement for Customs purposes as to any dutiable goods upon his person or in his possession and omits from such statement any dutiable goods shall if any such goods be discovered to be or to have been at the time of the refusal or denial or of the statement upon his person or in his possession be liable to forfeit the goods and shall further be liable to forfeit three times the value of the goods or to a penalty of Rs 1,500/- at the election of the Chief of Customs

10 The power given under the Principal Ordinance to detain any person for any offence under the Principal Ordinance or any other Ordinance relating to Customs shall include the power to secure the offender in a police station or other suitable place until he can be taken before the nearest Magistrate

Power to detain offenders in a suitable place

11 Any officer of the Customs may direct any person not to enter a Customs yard or any other premises in the control of the Chief of Customs and may also direct any person who has entered any such Customs yard or premises to leave the same Any person who contravenes any direction given under this section shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding Re 150/- or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding one month or to both It shall be lawful for any officer of the Customs to arrest any person who fails to obey any direction given under this section and to bring such person without undue delay before the nearest Magistrate
