GOVERNMENT NOTICE No. 8.

S. 21038/II.

THE TRADING WITH THE ENEMY ORDINANCES, 1915 AND 1916.

ORDER.

WHEREAS by Section 9, sub-section 1 of the Trading with the Enemy Ordinance, 1915, it is provided that the Custodian shall, except so far as the Governor or the High Court or a Judge thereof may otherwise direct, and subject to the provisions of sub-section 2 of the said Section 9 hold any money paid to and any property vested in him under the said Ordinance until the termination of the present war and shall thereafter deal with the same in such manner as the Governor-in-Council may by order direct.

And whereas in pursuance of the powers prescribed by the Termination of the Present War (Definition) Ordinance, 1919, His Excellency the Acting Governor-in-Council was pleased by a declaration, dated the 22nd day of August, 1921, to declare and did thereby declare that the 31st day of August, 1921, should be treated as the date of the termination of the present war, that is to say the day at midnight on which the present war would end, provided that nothing in the said declaration should affect the relations between His Majesty and the Ottoman Empire until ratifications of a Treaty of Peace with that Empire should have been exchanged or deposited.

Now therefore His Excellency the Governor-in-Council is pleased to order and direct and it is hereby ordered and directed as follows:—

1. The expression "Enemy Property" in this order means all moneys paid or to be paid to and all property vested in or transferred or to be transferred to the Custodian under the Trading with the Enemy Ordinances, 1915 and 1916 or either of them and the proceeds of liquidation of such property and the investments (if any) representing the same or the residue of such moneys, property, proceeds of liquidation and investments remaining in the hands or under the control of the Custodian after the carrying out by him of any order, direction, decision or instruction made or given by His Excellency the Governor or the High Court or a Judge thereof and the exercise or purported exercise by him of his duties under the same Ordinances except:—

Such part thereof respectively as has been or shall be paid to, vested in or transferred to or is now held by the Custodian, by reason of the owner or former owner thereof being or being deemed to be a subject of or resident or carrying on business in the former Ottoman Empire; which excepted property is herein-after called "excepted Enemy Property."

The Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance, 1912, and all amendments thereto applies for the interpretation of this order in like manner as it applies for the interpretation of an Ordinance and as if this order were made an Ordinance.

2. Except so far as may have been otherwise directed by the Governor or the High Court or a Judge thereof enemy property shall be and become subject as from the date of the coming into force of this order to the provisions of the Orders-in-Council as applied to the Colony and Protectorate, made or to be made under The Treaty of Peace Act, 1919, The Treaty of Peace (Austria and Bulgaria) Act, 1920, or The Treaty of Peace (Hungary) Act, 1921, and to the charges created thereunder in the same way and to the same extent as it would be so subject if it had been held at the dates of the coming into force of the respective Treaties of Peace with Germany, Austria, Bulgaria and Hungary on behalf of the persons who were or would but for the same having been paid or transferred to or vested in the Custodian have been then entitled thereto.

Provided that nothing in those orders or herein shall operate to require any enemy property which has been or shall be released from the charges thereby respectively established to be credited or accounted for to an Ex-enemy Government.

3. All enemy property shall be subject to deduction of the costs, charges and expenses of the Custodian including any statutory fee.

4. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect the execution and carrying out of any order, direction, decision or instruction made or given by His Excellency the Governor or the High Court or a Judge thereof in respect of any enemy property so far as the same shall not have been fully executed or carried out or the continuance of any legal or other proceedings to which in consequence of any such order, direction, decision or instruction or in the exercise or purported exercise of his duties under the Trading with the Enemy Ordinances, 1915 and 1916, the Custodian is a party.

Provided that when by any order of the Governor or the High Court or a Judge thereof it has been provided that any enemy property shall not be dealt with without further order or without further notice to any particular person or persons such provision shall cease to be operative at the expiration of six months from the date of the coming into force of this order except in so far as in the meantime the person or persons in question shall by notice in writing to the Custodian have asserted some right or interest in the enemy property in such order referred to.

5. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect any claim on behalf of the Government of this Colony in respect of Income Tax, Estate Duty or other revenue, charge or impost against enemy property or the owners or former owners thereof and the Custodian or the Administrator of Austrian, Bulgarian or Hungarian property as the case may be shall have power to settle, agree and out of the appropriate enemy property and the proceeds thereof pay or provide for any such claim.

6. Excepted enemy property shall be held by the Custodian subject to the same direction as the same is now held until the Governor-in-Council shall otherwise direct.

7. This order may be cited as the Trading with the Enemy (Custodian Direction) Order, 1921, and shall come into force at midnight on the 31st day of December, 1921.
