GOVERNMENT NOTICE No. 103.

S. 5886.

THE TOWNSHIPS ORDINANCES, 1903 - 1918.

RULES.

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon him by the Townships Ordinances, 1903-1918 and all other powers him thereunto enabling, His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to make the following rules:—

1. These rules may be cited as "The Eldoret Township (Building Estates) Rules, 1921 and shall apply to the township of Eldoret.

2. No person shall align, lay out or construct a new road or street within the Township of Eldoret unless the plan of such road or street has been approved by the Resident Commissioner or such other authority as the Governor may from time to time appoint and a certificate has been issued to that effect. For the purpose of such approval plans shall be submitted to the Resident Commissioner or such other authority.

3. (1) No area of land within the Township of Eldoret shall be divided and let or divided and sold for building sites until:—

(I) There shall have been deposited with the Resident Commissioner:—

(a) a plan in duplicate shewing the situation and boundaries of such land the manner in which it is intended to divide the land, the width and position of roads to be made over and through such land, the intended position of surface drains, the area (if any) to be reserved for residential purposes only the area (if any) to be reserved for business premises only and the area (if any) to be reserved for recreation grounds or as open spaces.

(b) a statement in writing by the owner of the land as to:—

(i) the provisions which have been made or will be made for the construction of any road or roads or of any drain shewn on the plan.

(ii) the source from which the occupants of the lots can procure a suitable and sufficient water supply.

(c) such other documents, statements, information, map, plan or thing as the Resident Commissioner may demand and

(II) The approval of the Resident Commissioner has been notified to the owner in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) The Resident Commissioner shall as soon as conveniently may be after the receipt of such plan and statement consider the same and may request the owner of the land or his representative to attend before him and lay before him or explain any facts relating to the matter and when such plan is approved the Resident Commissioner shall forward one copy thereof to the owner of the land to which it relates with a certificate that the plan has been approved and upon receipt thereof such owner may proceed to divide and let or divide and sell (as the case may be) the land referred to in accordance with such plan; provided always that if the Resident Commissioner does not approve of such plan he shall forthwith communicate his decision in writing to the owner of such land who may within 28 days after the receipt of such communication appeal to the Governor-in-Council, whose decision shall be final.

4. (1) Whenever the Resident Commissioner shall consider that in the interest of the public health any road or drain shewn on a plan deposited with him under the last preceding section should be constructed, or that a proper and sufficient water supply should be provided for the area to be divided and let or sold in lots, he may before approving the plan require the owner of the land to give an undertaking in writing that he will construct such road or drain or provide such water supply to the satisfaction of the Resident Commissioner within such time as the said Resident Commissioner shall determine.

(2) The owner of any land who may be required to give any undertaking under the preceding sub-section shall give or procure to be given to the Government security by bond with one or more sureties approved by the Resident Commissioner in such sum not exceeding the estimated cost of the works required to be constructed or provided as the Resident Commissioner may determine for the faithful and punctual fulfilment of such undertaking, and the Resident Commissioner shall not approve the plan of the proposed division until such security shall have been given.

Provided, however, that any owner who is required to give such undertaking may appeal to the Governor-in-Council, whose decision shall be final.

(3) Whenever any person shall give a bond under the last preceding sub-section, and it shall appear that a condition of such bond has been broken, the Attorney General may sue for and recover for the use of the Government the amount recoverable in respect of such breach of the condition of the said bond.

(4) Any sum recovered in respect of the breach of a condition of a bond under this section shall be devoted to such purposes in connection with the land in relation to which the bond shall have been given as the Governor-in-Council shall determine.

5. (1) All penalties under these Rules shall be recovered as a civil debt recoverable summarily on the complaint of the Resident Commissioner or of some other officer or person authorised by him to lay such complaint and shall be paid to the revenues of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya.

Provided, however, that the Court may in any such proceedings and in cases where upon consideration of the circumstances it shall deem it expedient so to do mitigate the payment of the penalty or penalties claimed.

(2) Every director and manager of a company be liable to the penalties for a contravention of these Rules by such company.

6. The Resident Commissioner shall not issue any certificate provided for by these rules unless and until the District Executive Engineer of the Public Works Department and the Medical Officer of Health shall have signified their approval in writing of the project to which the certificate refers.

7. No certificate issued under these rules shall exempt any person desiring to divide and let or divide and sell any land within the Township of Eldoret from the necessity of obtaining any certificate of permission which may be required under the Crown Lands or other Ordinance.

By Command of His Excellency the Governor.
