NATIVE LIQUOR ORDINANCE, 1921.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by Section 3 of the Native Liquor Ordinance, 1921, it is provided that the Governor-in-Council may by Proclamation apply the aforesaid Ordinance to any area in the Colony and Protectorate where there is no local authority, at the request of the Administrative Officer in charge of such area.

And whereas the Senior Commissioner, Kikuyu, has requested that the aforesaid Ordinance shall be applied to the Districts of Meru and Embu (with the exception of the Meru and Embu Native Reserves) in the Province of Kikuyu.

Now, therefore I, Edward Northey, Major-General of His Majesty's Forces, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya, having taken the advice of my Executive Council, do order and proclaim that the aforesaid Ordinance shall apply to and have effect in the aforesaid Districts with the exception of the Native Reserves as aforesaid from the date hereof.

THE AERIAL NAVIGATION ORDINANCE, 1920. ORDER.

IN PURSUANCE of the powers vested in the Governor-in-Council by the Aerial Navigation Ordinance, 1920, it is hereby ordered:—

1. That no flights of Service Aircraft belonging to the Government of any Foreign Power are to be undertaken over the territories comprised in the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya or the territorial waters thereof except with the written authority of the Governor of the Colony first obtained and in accordance with such conditions as may be specified in such authority.

2. That no aircraft other than an aircraft belonging to His Majesty's Government or the Government of a British Possession or belonging to a British Company or subject shall carry explosives or ammunition over the aforesaid territories and waters.

3. For the safety of His Majesty's subjects and to guard against hostile acts on the part of the Native inhabitants the landing of all aircraft is prohibited in the areas known as the Northern Frontier District, the District of Turkana and the Provinces of Jubaland and Tanaland.

The boundaries of the said Districts and Province are set out in the Schedule annexed hereto.

4. If an aircraft flies in contravention of, or fails to comply with this order or any provision thereof, the owner or hirer of the aircraft (other than the Crown) and the pilot or commander thereof shall be deemed to have contravened or, as the case may be, failed to comply with this Order.

Provided that

(a) It shall be a defence to any proceedings for such contravention of, or failure to comply with, this Order if the contravention or failure is proved to have been due to stress of weather or other unavoidable cause.

(b) Further it shall be a defence to any proceedings under this Order against the owner or hirer of an aircraft if it is proved that the alleged contravention took place without his actual fault or privity.

5. Government Notice No. 346 dated the 3rd September, 1921, is hereby repealed.

By order of His Excellency the Governor.

Nairobi.

Dated the 2nd day of August, 1922.

G. A. S. NORTHCOTE,
for Colonial Secretary.

SCHEDULE.

AREA CLOSED TO AERONAUTICS.

Commencing at the summit of the Hill (3660) on Ol Kokwa Island in Lake Baringo, thence bounded by a straight line westerly to the Trigonometrical Beacon Ketingwan on the summit of the Hill Soyamu; then by a straight line north-westerly across the Elgeyo Escarpment to the summit of the Hill Kuserua; thence along the escarpment of the Cherangani Hills, by straight lines through the summits with altitudes 10370, 9894 (Kapsete locality) and 8531 (Kibonet); thence by a straight line westerly to the Trigonometrical Beacon Suk on the Hill Kwaisagat; thence by a straight line north-westerly to the summit of the Hill Gobut; thence by a straight line due north to its intersection with the Swam River on the Kenya-Uganda Boundary; thence by the Swam River down-stream till it becomes the Turkwell and by the latter river down-stream to Lake Rudolf; thence northerly through Lake Rudolf by the Kenya-Uganda Boundary to its intersection with the Anglo-Abyssinian Boundary; thence in a generally easterly direction by the Anglo-Abyssinian Boundary as surveyed by Captain Maud, C.M.G., R.E., in 1902/3 to its intersection with the Anglo-Italian boundary in the Juba River; thence by the Juba River, which forms the latter boundary down-stream to the sea, including the island of Towata, but excluding the Italian Island of Mombasa; thence south-westerly by the shore of the Indian Ocean to the principal (eastern) mouth of the River Tana, including the islands on the Coast; thence by the Tana River up-stream to its junction with the Ura or Neuda River; thence by that river up-stream to its principal source in the Jombeni Range; thence by a straight line westerly to the summit of the Hill Nyambeni at the south-western end of that range; thence by a straight line northerly to the principal source of the River Ngare Marra; thence by that river down-stream to its junction with the River Engare Uaso Nyiro; thence by that river up-stream to its intersection with the straight line joining the Trigonometrical Beacon Nyandedu on Ol Doinvo Nyiro with that on the northern summit of the Hill Ngelesha (Ngelesha North 7371); thence westerly by that line to the latter beacon; thence by straight lines north-westerly to the summit of the Hill Morillo and onward to the point of commencement.

Note:—In the preceding description where a river is mentioned, the centre of its course is to be understood as forming the boundary.
