AN ORDINANCE.

No. 1 of 1923.

Assented to in His Majesty's name this 3rd day of January, 1923.

R. T. CORYNDON,
Governor.

An Ordinance to Enable the Victoria Nyanza Sugar Company, Limited, to Construct and Maintain a Tramway, to be Worked by Steam or other Power, connecting the Company's Farms with Kibos Railway Station and for other Purposes.

WHEREAS the Victoria Nyanza Sugar Company, Limited, being a Company incorporated in the Commonwealth of Australia under the Companies Act, 1915, is desirous of constructing and maintaining a tramway to be worked by steam or other power connecting the Company's land, Land Office No. 4399 (in this Ordinance referred to as "the Farm") with Kibos Railway Station, and running along a public road. And whereas the Company is also desirous of constructing and maintaining subsidiary trolley lines running through private lands to connect with the tramway for the purpose of transporting sugar cane from neighbouring farms to the Company's factory. And whereas it is expedient that the Company should be authorised to construct and maintain the tramway and subsidiary trolley lines, and should be granted the powers, authorities and concessions by this Ordinance conferred upon the Company. And whereas a plan showing the approximate alignment of the tramway line and subsidiary trolley lines was deposited with the Public Works Department on the 23rd day of October, 1922, and is hereafter referred to as "the deposited plan." And whereas the objects of this Ordinance cannot be attained without legislative enactment. Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof:—

Preamble.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Victoria Nyanza Sugar Company's Tramways Ordinance, 1923".

Interpretation.

2. In this Ordinance save where there is something in the context inconsistent therewith, the following terms shall have and include the meanings set against them respectively:—

"The Company" shall mean the Victoria Nyanza Sugar Company, Limited, its successors and assigns the owner or owners for the time being of the Farm.

"The Tramway" and "Subsidiary Trolley Lines" shall mean the tramway and the subsidiary trolley lines authorised by this Ordinance to be constructed and maintained.

"Road Authority" means the Director of Public Works, or other authority for the time being having control of the public roads affected by the exercise of the powers authorised by this Ordinance.

"Public Road" shall mean a public road as defined in the Public Travel and Access Roads Ordinance, 1920.

Authority to construct tramway and subsidiary
trolley lines.

3. (1) It shall be lawful for the Company to make, construct and maintain a tramway commencing on the farm of the Company situate in the Kisumu District of the Nyanza Province, and running thence in a direction along the line of public travel dedicated as such by Order of the Governor, dated the 1st day of August, 1922, and published in the Official Gazette of the 2nd day of August, 1922, pursuant to the provisions of Section 8 (1) of the Public Travel and Access Roads Ordinance, 1920, and terminating at Kibos Railway Station, and also from time to time to make, construct, maintain, remove and replace subsidiary trolley lines running through private lands along the approximate alignments shewn by green lines on the deposited plan to connect with the tramway following the line of public travel shewn by a red line on the said plan for the purpose of transporting sugar cane from neighbouring farms to the Company's factory.

Provided that the tramway and the subsidiary trolley lines shall not exceed in any part thereof a greater space in breadth than fifteen feet, including the supports, abutments and foundations of such tramway and subsidiary trolley lines and shall follow such alignments as the Road Authority shall approve.

(2) It shall be lawful for the Company to work such tramway and subsidiary trolley lines by steam or other power.

Rails to be on same level as road.

4. (1) Wherever the tramway or any subsidiary trolley line runs along any public road it shall, unless the Road Authority shall otherwise approve in writing, be so constructed that the surface of the rails thereof shall, as near as possible, be on the same level as the adjacent portion of the road.

(2) Wherever the tramway or any subsidiary trolley line crosses any public road at present in existence or hereafter to be established, it shall, unless the Road Authority otherwise approve in writing, be provided with guard rails and filling or other approved device, laid and maintained, so as to permit smooth passage of road traffic to the satisfaction of the Road Authority.

Completion of works and reinstatement of road.

5. Whenever the Company shall open or break up any public road or part thereof for the purposes authorised by this Ordinance the Company shall, with all convenient speed, and in all cases within four weeks at the most (unless the Road Authority otherwise consents in writing) complete the work on account of which the Company opened or broke up the same, and fill in the ground and make good the surface, and, to the satisfaction of the Road Authority, restore the said road or part thereof to as good condition as that in which it was before it was opened or broken up, and clear all surplus material and rubbish occasioned thereby; and shall in the meantime cause the place where the road is opened or broken up to be watched and properly lighted at night; and shall bear and pay all reasonable expenses of the repair of the road or part thereof for six months after the same is restored, as far as those expenses are increased by the opening and breaking up.

Repair of part of public road
where tramway and subsidiary
are laid.

6. The Company shall at its own expense, and at all times maintain and keep in good condition and repair, with such materials and in such manner as the Road Authority shall direct in writing, and to the satisfaction of the Road Authority, so much of any public road whereon the tramway or any subsidiary trolley line belonging to the Company is laid as lies between the rails of such tramway or subsidiary trolley line, and in every case so much of the road as extends eighteen inches beyond the rails of and on each side of the tramway or any subsidiary trolley line. If at any time the Company abandons its undertaking and takes up the tramway or any subsidiary trolley line, or any part thereof, the Company shall with all convenient speed, and in all cases within six weeks at the most (unless the Road Authority otherwise consents in writing) fill in the ground and make good the surface, and to the satisfaction of the Road Authority, restore that portion of the public road upon which such tramway or any subsidiary trolley line was laid to as good a condition and with the same class of surface and construction as the adjacent portions of the said public road, and clear away all surplus materials or rubbish occasioned by such work, and leave the area in a tidy and serviceable state to the satisfaction of the Road Authority, and the Company shall in the meantime cause the place where the road is opened or broken up to be watched and properly lighted at night.

7. If the Company fail to comply with the provisions of the last two preceding sections, the Road Authority, if it thinks fit, may at any time, after seven days' notice to the Company, open and break up the roads affected, and do the works necessary for the repair and maintenance or restoration of such roads, to the extent in the two preceding sections above-mentioned, and the expenses incurred by the Road Authority in so doing shall be repaid by the Company on demand by the Road Authority or be recoverable summarily as a civil debt.

Power of road authority to do work and recover expenses.

8. All persons whose lands may be used by the Company its officers, agents or workmen under the provisions of this Ordinance and who shall sustain any loss or damage whatever in the execution of this Ordinance shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for the loss or damage sustained by them and such compensation shall be ascertained, assessed or awarded as hereinafter mentioned. Provided that such compensation shall be claimed within the period of six months of the loss or damage complained of.

Compensation for use of land and damage done.

9. In all cases in which compensation is claimed it shall be competent to the Company to agree with the claimant for the payment of such sum as the Company may think reasonable and proper and upon such agreement being made the sum so agreed upon shall be paid accordingly and in case the Company and claimant shall not agree as aforesaid the amount to be paid shall be determined by arbitration pursuant to the provisions of the Arbitration Ordinance, 1913.

Mode of affixing compensation.

10. Provided always and be it enacted that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be deemed to affect or apply to any right, title or interest of His Majesty, his heirs or successors or of any body or bodies politic or corporate or of any person or persons except such bodies politic or corporate and other persons as are mentioned in this Ordinance and those claiming by from or under them.

Saving the rights of His Majesty and other persons not mentioned in this Ordinance.

AN ORDINANCE.

No. 2 of 1923.

Assented to in His Majesty's name this 5th day of January, 1923.

An Ordinance to provide for the Deportation of Offenders and Dangerous Persons.

BE it enacted by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Deportation Ordinance, 1923".

Short title.

2. Where it is represented on oath or affidavit to a Judge of the Supreme Court sitting in chambers that any person is conducting himself so as to be dangerous to peace and good order, or is endeavouring to excite enmity between any section of the people of the Colony or Protectorate and His Majesty, or is intriguing against constituted power and authority in the Colony or Protectorate, the said Judge may order the arrest of such person pending further proceedings under this Ordinance.

Arrest of suspected persons.

Recommendation for deportation in case of dangerous conduct.

3. Where it is shown by evidence on oath to the satisfaction of a Judge of the Supreme Court sitting in chambers that any person is conducting himself in the manner set forth in the preceding section the said Judge may recommend to the Governor that such person be deported.

Provided that no person shall be recommended for deportation until he shall have been given an opportunity of making a statement in his own defence.

Detention in custody pending Governor's decision.

4. Where a recommendation for deportation has been made the person in respect of whom such recommendation has been made shall be detained in custody pending the decision of the Governor.

After consideration in Council Governor may make an Order of Deportation.

5. If after considering any such recommendation as aforesaid in Council the Governor shall decide that in the interest of peace, order and good government, an order of deportation should be made, he may by writing under his hand and seal order the person to be deported to such part of the Colony or Protectorate as he may direct, or to such part of His Majesty's Dominions or of any country under His Majesty's protection, as he may, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, direct.

Deportation of persons undergoing sentence.

6. If a person ordered to be deported has been sentenced to any term of imprisonment such sentence of imprisonment shall be served before the order of deportation is carried into effect.

Duration of deportation order.

7. An order of deportation may be expressed to be in force for a time to be limited therein, or for an unlimited time, and may if deportation is to a place within the Colony or Protectorate require the deported person to report himself to the nearest administrative officer or officer of police at intervals of not less than thirty days.

Order to be sufficient authority for detention.

8. An order of deportation shall be sufficient authority to all persons to whom it is directed or delivered for execution to receive and detain the person therein named and to carry him to the place named.

Penalties for breach of order.

9. (1) If a person ordered to be deported to a place within the Colony or Protectorate leaves or attempts to leave the place to which he has been deported, while the order of deportation is still in force, without the written consent of the Governor which consent may be given subject to any terms as to security for good behaviour or otherwise as to the Governor may seem good, or wilfully neglects or refuses to report himself as ordered, such person shall be liable to imprisonment of either description for six months and to be again deported under the original order, or under a new order.

(2) If a person ordered to be deported to a place without the Colony and Protectorate returns or attempts to return to the Colony and Protectorate while the order of deportation is still in force, without the written consent of the Governor which consent may be given subject to any terms as to security for good behaviour or otherwise as to the Governor may seem good, such person shall be liable to imprisonment of either description for six months and to be again deported under the original order, or under a new order.

Report to Secretary of State.

10. The Governor shall forthwith report to the Secretary of State every order made by him under this Ordinance and the grounds thereof and the proceedings thereunder.

Rules.

11. The Governor-in-Council may make rules for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Ordinance.

Repeal.

12. The Removal of Natives Ordinance, 1909, is hereby repealed. Provided that any order made thereunder shall have effect as if it had been made under this Ordinance.

C. E. SPENCER,
for Colonial Secretary.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE No. 37.

S. 3416.

OBITUARY.

AN intimation has been received from the Secretary of State for the Colonies of the death of SIR HENRY CONWAY BELFIELD, K.C.M.G., formerly Governor of the East Africa Protectorate and High Commissioner of Zanzibar, on the 8th January.

Sir Henry Belfield's term of office from 1912 to 1917 fell in a most important period in the history of East Africa, including the greater and more serious part of the military operations during the war, and the Secretary of State is confident that those who were associated with him in his work and know best his devotion to duty, often regardless of the demands which it involved on his health, will receive with regret the news of his death and will give their sympathy to Lady Belfield and her family in their loss.
