By command of His Excellency the Acting Governor.

Nairobi,

The 4th April, 1923.

G. A. S. NORTHCOTE,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE No. 112.

S. 2195/2/2.

The following Regulations are published for information and criticism.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH ORDINANCE, 1921.

REGULATIONS.

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon him by the Public Health Ordinance, 1921, His Excellency the Governor on the advice of the Central Board of Health, has been pleased to make the following Regulations.

Short title.

1. These Regulations may be cited as "The Public Health (Milk and Dairies) Regulations, 1923."

Application of Regulations.

2. The Governor may, by notice in the Gazette, declare that on and after a date to be specified in such notice the whole of these Regulations or only such provisions thereof as are mentioned in such notice shall apply to the whole of or only such part of the district of any local authority, hereinafter referred to as the local authority, as shall be defined in such notice.

Interpretation of Terms.

3. In these Regulations the following terms have the following meanings:—

"Sanitary Inspector" means a Sanitary Inspector in the employment of Government and appointed by the Principal Medical Officer to act as such within the district of the local authority.

"Cowshed" shall mean and include any shed, stable or other premises in which a cow or cows are kept or accommodated.

"Common Carrier" shall mean any person, including any Government railway administration and any railway company engaged in the business of transporting for hire property from place to place by land or inland navigation for all persons indiscriminately.

"Purveyor of Milk" shall mean and include any person, other than the Government, in possession or occupation of or keeping any dairy, or who shall sell milk or expose, deposit, or convey milk for the purpose of sale, or who shall deliver milk or cause milk to be delivered for or in the process of sale, whether on private premises or in any street or other public place, and whether on his own account or as agent for or servant of any other person.

"Registered Dairy" or "Registered Premises" shall mean and include any premises or part thereof, in respect of which a certificate of registration of such premises, or part thereof as a dairy, has been issued by the local authority.

"Registered Dairyman" means any person to whom a certificate of registration of any premises as a dairy has been issued by the local authority.

Dairies to be Registered.

4. No person shall, within the district of the local authority, use any premises as a dairy unless such premises have been first registered by such local authority as a Registered Dairy and unless such person shall be in possession of a certificate to that effect in force and current for the time being which has been issued to him by such local authority; and any person using any premises as a dairy within the district of such local authority without having the same first registered as such and without being in possession of a certificate as aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence.

For the purpose of these Regulations the person by whom the business of a dairy is actually being carried on and supervised on any premises shall be deemed to be the person using such premises as a dairy.

Local Authority may register Dairies outside their district.

5. The local authority may, if they think fit, and subject to the provisions of these Regulations, issue a certificate of registration as a dairy in respect of any premises situate outside their district where the person by whom the business of a dairy is actually being or is to be carried on and supervised on such premises shall make written application to the local authority for a certificate of registration of such premises as a dairy.

Provided that every such written application for a certificate of registration as a dairy of any premises situate outside the district of the local authority shall be accompanied by the consent in writing of the applicant and of the owner of such premises to the inspection at all reasonable times by the Medical Officer of Health or a Sanitary Inspector or any duly authorised officer of the local authority of such premises, and to be subject to and observe and comply with such provisions of these Regulations and to such other Rules and Regulations of the local authority as the Medical Officer of Health may consider necessary.

Registration fees for Dairies.

6. (a) Every certificate of registration of any premises as a dairy issued under these Regulations shall expire on the 31st day of December of the year for which it shall have been granted, provided that the local authority issuing such certificate of registration shall have the option in any case to grant such certificate for a period of six months, which shall be valid till the 30th day of June, or, if issued after the 30th day of June, till the 31st day of December, next following its date only.

(b) In respect of every certificate of registration of any premises as a dairy issued under these Regulations a fee shall be payable to the local authority. The fee for a certificate of registration for a period of six months shall be 5 shillings, and for an annual certificate of registration 10 shillings.

(c) A certificate of registration of any premises as a dairy shall not be issued to any person other than the person by whom the business of a dairy is actually to be carried on and supervised upon such premises and a certificate so issued shall not be transferable from the person to whom it was issued to any other person without the previous permission in writing of such local authority, and no such certificate shall in any case be transferable from the premises in respect of which it was granted to any other premises.

Application for registration of a Dairy.

7. Every person desiring a certificate of registration of any premises as a dairy under these Regulations shall make application to the local authority of the district in which such premises are situate, either in writing or otherwise, and shall supply the following information on request:—

(a) the name, address, and occupation of the applicant.

(b) the situation of the premises in respect of which the certificate of registration is desired.

(c) a full description and particulars of the premises.

(d) any other information required by such local authority or Medical Officer of Health.

Certificate of registration of a Dairy.

8. The certificate of registration of any premises as a dairy issued under these Regulations shall be in such form as shall from time to time be determined by the local authority and shall specify:

- (a) the name of the person to whom the certificate of registration is issued;
- (b) the situation of the registered premises;
- (c) the number of cowsheds (if any);
- (d) the maximum number of cows allowed in each cowshed at any one time;
- (e) the date when such certificate of registration shall expire.

Certificate of registration of a Dairy not issued under certain circumstances.

9. No certificate of registration of any premises as a dairy shall be issued by the local authority to any person unless the Medical Officer of Health shall have previously certified in writing that the premises in respect of which a certificate of registration is applied for are in his opinion suitable for the purpose of such registration in respect of drainage, lighting, ventilation, locality, construction, accommodation and general sanitation, and unless the requirements of these Regulations and all such other Regulations, Orders or Rules as may be applicable to dairies are complied with in respect of the premises to be used as a dairy.

Dairy and Cowshed requirements.

10. No certificate of registration of any premises as a dairy under these Regulations shall be issued by the local authority unless the following be provided, and after the issue of such certificate of registration there shall at all times during the period thereof be provided and maintained by the registered dairyman:—

- (I) With respect to any cowshed:

Lighting and ventilation of Cowsheds.

(a) proper and effective ventilation of such cowshed to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health by means of a sufficient number of ventilating apertures of adequate size and suitable construction in the proportion of not less than three square feet of ventilating aperture per animal;

(b) proper and effective lighting of such cowshed in the proportion of three square feet per animal by means of unobstructed windows, capable of being fully opened, and so placed as to secure proper lighting of every part of such cowshed to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health;

Air and floor space in Cowsheds.

(c) in such cowshed for each animal, an air space of not less than 500 cubic feet and a floor space of not less than 50 square feet, and such internal arrangements as shall ensure that all animals accommodated therein may be kept in clean and healthy conditions to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health;

Floors of Cowsheds.

(d) when so required by the Medical Officer of Health, an impervious floor of cement concrete, or other equally suitable material, or of stone set in mortar with joints grouted and flushed level with cement, such floor to be properly graded to a manure channel, not less than 12 inches wide and from 4 to 6 inches deep, with rounded corners, and with a fall in the floor of the channel towards the outlet of two inches in every ten feet, such floor and manure channel to be constructed to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health.

Drainage of Cowshed.

(e) when so required by the Medical Officer of Health, for the reception and carrying off of the liquid manure of such cowshed a properly trapped gully fixed outside such cowshed and connected to a public sewer, where such is available, and where such is not available the liquid manure shall be carried off by a suitable drain or pipe and adequately and efficiently disposed of without creating a nuisance and to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health, the junction of the manure channel and the said drain or pipe being suitably protected;

Milking room or enclosure for Cowsheds.

(f) when so required by the Medical Officer of Health, a room or suitable enclosure in which to milk cattle, such room or enclosure to be adequately protected against dust, to be well lighted and ventilated, to be provided with an impervious floor suitably graded towards a satisfactory outlet, and to be adequately and efficiently drained, all to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health.

Manure receptacle for Cowsheds.

(g) when so required by the Medical Officer of Health, a suitable receptacle in which to deposit manure and other refuse which shall be at least 50 feet distant from any milking shed, milk store, or place in which milk vessels or utensils are stored or from any dwelling, such receptacle, when so required by the Medical Officer of Health, to be effectively protected against flies.

- (II) With respect to all dairies:

A wholesome and adequate water supply for Dairies.

(a) a wholesome and conveniently accessible water supply to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health, in sufficient quantity for all purposes connected with such dairy, including the cleansing of all utensils and appliances;

(b) when so required by the Medical Officer of Health, an impervious floor to the whole or any part of such dairy premises constructed to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health.

General requirements for Dairies.

(c) proper and sufficient lighting and ventilation and proper accommodation and arrangements for safeguarding the milk and milk products from contamination by flies, vermin, dust or other impurities, all to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health;

Storage for milk vessels.

(d) suitable and sufficient accommodation to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health outside any dwelling or cowshed, stable, or other place where animals are accommodated, for the washing and storing when not in use of all milk receptacles and dairy utensils;

*Sterilizing of
milk vessels.*

(e) suitable apparatus and arrangements to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health for the sterilizing by steam or boiling water of all bottles, cans, and other receptacles for milk, and dairy utensils;

for milk.*

(f) when so required by the Medical Officer of Health, a room, known as a milk room, to be used solely for the purpose of straining, bottling, canning, or keeping therein milk and clean milk vessels only; such room to be adequately protected against dust and effectively protected against flies, and to be provided with an impervious floor properly graded to a suitable outlet all to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health.

Drainage of Dairies.

(g) proper, sufficient and effective drainage of such premises to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health;

Refuse Bin to be provided.

(h) a proper and sufficient refuse bin fitted with a good and efficient lid of such a pattern and constructed of such materials as shall meet with the approval of the Medical Officer of Health;

Housing, washing and Sanitary accommodation for Dairies.

(i) suitable and sufficient housing, washing, and sanitary accommodation for any person or persons living in or employed on such dairy premises as shall meet with the approval of the Medical Officer of Health.

Milk not to be deposited in any place where it would be liable to become infected or contaminated.

11. No registered dairyman, shall, upon his registered premises, deposit, store or keep or permit to be deposited, stored or kept, any milk intended for sale:—

(a) in any room or place where such milk would be liable to become infected or contaminated by impure air, or by any offensive, noxious or injurious gas, emanation, exhalation, effluvium or substance;

(b) in any room used as a kitchen or as a living, sleeping or work room;

(c) in any room or building or part of a building communicating directly, by door, window or otherwise, with any sanitary convenience or urinal or with any room used as a sleeping room or in which there may be any person suffering from any infectious or contagious disease or which may have been used by any person suffering from any such disease and which may not have been properly disinfected thereafter to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health;

(d) in any room or building or part of a building in which there may be any direct inlet to any sewer, drain or cesspool;

(e) in any milk vessel not properly covered so as effectually to prevent the contamination of the milk contained therein; or

(f) in any milk vessel which has not been thoroughly cleansed and sterilized since the last occasion of use and which is not in a thoroughly clean condition at the time of use.

*Maximum number of Cows permitted
in any Cowshed to be painted on the doors thereof.*

12. In the case of any cowshed connected with a registered dairy the registered dairyman shall paint and maintain or cause to be painted and maintained on the door or on the outside wall and close to the door of every cowshed in legible figures not less than 3 inches square the maximum number of cows permitted by his certificate of registration to be stabled or accommodated in such cowshed at any one time, and no registered dairyman shall stable or accommodate or permit to be stabled or accommodated in any such cowshed on his registered premises any bovine in excess of the maximum number of cows as specified in his certificate of registration permitted to be stabled or accommodated in such cowshed.

*Dairies not to communicate with bedrooms or be used as fish or kerosine
oil stores, etc.*

13. No dairy shall communicate directly with any bedroom, sanitary convenience or urinal, and no dairyman shall use or permit to be used such dairy for keeping, storing, purveying, or selling kerosine oil, fish, or any other substance which, in the opinion of the Medical Officer of Health, would be injurious to the milk or milk products.

Thorough cleanliness to be maintained in Dairies.

14. Every registered dairyman shall, upon his registered premises, to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health:—

(a) at all times maintain the whole of his registered premises in a thorough state of cleanliness and ventilation;

(b) cause the floor of every cowshed, and the floor of every room or enclosure in which milk or milk products are deposited, stored or sold, or in which milk vessels or utensils are stored, to be thoroughly cleansed before 10 o'clock in the morning of each day and every day;

(c) cause every place and the surroundings thereof where milking takes place to be kept in a thorough state of cleanliness, and cause adequate precautions to be taken to prevent contamination of milk by flies, dust or otherwise;

Removal of Manure, etc.

(d) cause the manure from any cowshed to be removed at least twice in every twenty-four hours from such cowshed and cause the manure so removed from such cowshed to be entirely removed from his registered premises at least once in every forty-eight hours and suitably disposed of;

(e) cause adequate measures to be taken to prevent liquid manure from overflowing on to or saturating the ground under or around any cowshed;

Limewashing of Dairies.

(f) cause the ceiling or inner surface of the roof (except a roof constructed of a material such as to render limewashing unsuitable), exposed roof-timber, posts and stalls, and the inner surface of every wall of such dairy, including any cowshed (except so much as may be painted or tarred or covered with a material such as to render limewashing unsuitable and as may be otherwise properly cleansed) to be thoroughly cleansed down and then limewashed at least four times in each year, viz:—in the months of January, April, July and October, and at such other times as may be required by the Medical Officer of Health; and cause all ceilings, walls, and ledges of such premises to be swept down and kept free from dust, dirt, and cobwebs at all times;

*Cleansing and
milk vessels.*

(g) cause all vessels and utensils used in such dairy, including any cowshed, to be kept in good repair and thoroughly clean, and for the latter purpose to be sterilized with steam or boiling water after each occasion of use, and stored in such manner as to remain clean until used;

(h) take all proper and necessary precautions for preventing the infection or contamination by dust, dirt, flies, vermin, effluvia, or otherwise of any milk or milk product produced, stored, kept or deposited in such dairy, including any cowshed.

Sleeping in Dairies or Cowsheds.

15. Every registered dairyman shall comply with the following requirements upon his registered premises:—

(a) he shall not use or permit to be used any cowshed, or any room or rooms used or adapted to be used for the keeping or storing of milk, milk products, or milk vessels or utensils as a sleeping apartment for any human being or for the accommodation of any poultry, pigeons, or other birds, or for any purpose injurious to the proper preservation of the cleanliness of the building or of the milk, milk products, or milk vessels or utensils therein or in any manner likely to cause contamination of milk or milk products;

Keeping milk in Cowsheds, etc.

(b) he shall not keep or store or permit to be kept or stored any milk or milk products in any cowshed or stable;

(c) he shall, immediately after the process of milking, forthwith remove or cause to be removed, all milk to a proper milk room or such other room or place as shall have been provided and adapted for the storage of milk;

(d) he shall not fill or permit to be filled in any cowshed, stable or sleeping apartment any bottle, vessel or container intended for use in distributing or purveying milk;

Only Bovines to be kept in Cowsheds.

(e) he shall not use or permit to be used any cowshed for the keeping therein of animals other than bovines, and each bovine so far as air space is concerned, shall count as a cow for the purposes of these Regulations;

(f) he shall cause all housing, washing and sanitary accommodation provided for or used by any person or persons living or employed on such dairy premises to be maintained at all times in a clean and sanitary condition;

No grooming or sweeping during milking.

(g) he shall not carry out or permit to be carried out in any cowshed any grooming or sweeping or any feeding with dusty forage whilst milking is in progress or immediately prior thereto;

No Swine to be kept within 100 feet of a Dairy.

(h) he shall not keep or permit to be kept any swine within 100 feet of any dairy or any cowshed or dwelling upon such registered premises and when any swine are kept on the said premises beyond that distance he shall cause the styes and such other accommodation as may be provided for such swine to be maintained in a thoroughly clean and sanitary condition, and the drainage therefrom shall be disposed of in such manner as shall be approved by the Medical Officer of Health;

Abstract of Rules to be exhibited.

(i) he shall, if so required by the local authority affix or cause to be affixed and maintained in such registered premises in a conspicuous and easily accessible place a copy of these Regulations or any prescribed abstract thereof which may be supplied to him for that purpose by the local authority;

Grooming of Cows, etc.

(j) he shall ensure that all cows kept by him shall be groomed daily and be kept free from accumulation of manure, mud, or other filth;

(k) he shall ensure that the long hairs upon the flanks, udders, and tails of all cows kept by him are clipped and kept short;

(l) he shall ensure that the udders and teats of all cows kept by him are washed clean and dried with a clean cloth immediately prior to milking, and that the first stream from each teat is rejected;

Provision for washing hands.

(m) he shall provide and keep or cause to be provided and kept at all times on such registered premises a receptacle for clean water, and also soap and a nailbrush for the purpose of cleansing the hands of every person employed or engaged in milking cows or in handling, conveying, or selling milk;

*Cleanliness of hands and clothing
whilst milking.*

(n) he shall ensure that every person who milks a cow on such premises shall wash his hands with soap and clean water, using a nailbrush, immediately before commencing to milk such cow, and shall wear a clean overall, of a type to be approved by the Medical Officer of Health, whilst so employed or shall be clad solely in a pair of clean shorts or trousers;

*Cleanliness of
hands and clothing
whilst handling
milk.*

(o) he shall ensure that every person employed or engaged on such premises in handling, conveying or selling milk is clean as to his person, hands and clothing whilst so employed or engaged;

Occurrence of certain diseases in cattle to be notified.

16. Every dairyman shall forthwith notify or cause to be notified to the local authority in respect of any cows or other animals in or on his dairy premises, the occurrence recently or at the time being in any such cow or other animal of any infectious or contagious disease or any disease of, inflammation of, swelling of or discharge from the udder, or any general wasting disease.

*A Local Authority
may cancel the
certificates of registered Dairy-men
under certain

17. (a) If at any time during the currency of a certificate of registration of any premises as a dairy issued under these Regulations the sanitary conditions of the premises in respect of which it has been issued shall be found to be such as are likely to render the milk liable to contamination or infection in such a way as to be dangerous to the health of the consumers, or in the opinion of the Medical Officer of Health the registered dairyman is not carrying out the provisions of any of these Regulations, the local authority by whom the certificate of registration of such premises was issued may forthwith cancel such certificate of registration and refuse to issue a new certificate until the premises in respect of which it was issued have been cleansed or placed in good sanitary condition, or until the provisions of such Regulations shall have been complied with.

(b) Such local authority may in like manner cancel the certificate of registration if the milk is purveyed or delivered or distributed or conveyed from such premises in or into the district of such local authority under conditions which render the milk liable to contamination or infection and may refuse to issue a new certificate until such conditions have been rectified.

(c) Such local authority also may cancel the certificate of registration if the registered dairyman refuses to allow any duly authorised officer to make an inspection of the premises at any time during the currency of such certificate of registration, in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations.

Milk purveyors to be licensed.

18. No person shall, within the district of the local authority, carry on or be engaged in the trade or business of a "Purveyor of Milk" without being first licensed as such and in possession of a certificate to that effect in force and current for the time being from such local authority, and any person who shall carry on or be engaged in the trade or business of a purveyor of milk within the district of the local authority without complying with the provisions of this Regulation shall be guilty of an offence.

Provided that, notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations, a person may convey milk through the district of such local authority without being licensed as aforesaid where such person shall prove to the satisfaction of such local authority that the milk so conveyed is not for sale and not intended for sale within the district of such local authority, or that he is conveying milk within their district solely in the capacity of a common carrier.

*Every licensed Purveyor of Milk
to carry upon his person his
licence.*

19. Every licensed purveyor of milk shall carry upon his person his certificate of licence as a purveyor of milk whilst in any manner engaged in his business as a purveyor of milk, and every licensed purveyor of milk shall, on request being made to him by the Medical Officer of Health or a Sanitary Inspector or any duly authorised agent of such official or any duly authorised officer of the local authority, or any European Police Officer or Constable, exhibit to any such officer or constable or agent of such officer or constable as aforesaid, for the purpose of inspecting his certificate of licence as a purveyor of milk.

Every licensed purveyor of milk who shall fail to carry upon his person his certificate of licence as aforesaid, or who shall omit or refuse to exhibit his certificate of licence when requested as aforesaid, shall be guilty of an offence.

Licence Fee for Purveyors of Milk.

20. (a) Every certificate of licence issued to any person as a purveyor of milk under these Regulations shall expire on the 31st day of December of the year for which it shall have been granted.

(b) a fee of 1 shilling shall be payable to the local authority in respect of every certificate of licence as a purveyor of milk, issued under these Regulations.

(c) no certificate of licence as a purveyor of milk shall in any case be transferable from the licensee to any other person, and such certificate shall only be valid in the district of the local authority issuing such certificate of licence.

*Application for Licence as a
Purveyor of Milk.*

21. (1) Every person desiring a certificate of licence as a purveyor of milk under these Regulations shall make personal application to the Medical Officer of Health of the district in which he intends to carry on the trade or business of a purveyor of milk, and shall supply the following information on request:—

(a) the name, address and occupation of the applicant;

(b) the name and address of the person (if any) by whom he is employed or to be employed as a purveyor of milk;

(c) the source of the applicant's intended milk supply;

(d) the name and address of the person, if any, from whom the applicant intends to purchase his milk supply;

(e) any other information required by the Medical Officer of Health.

(2) Every such applicant shall, if so required by the Medical Officer of Health, submit himself to a medical examination.

*Certificate of
Licence as a
Purveyor of Milk.*

22. The certificate of licence of any person as a purveyor of milk issued under these Regulations shall be in such form as shall from time to time be determined by the local authority, and shall specify:—

(a) the name of the person, including his registration number under the Native Registration Ordinance, 1915 (if any), to whom the certificate of licence is issued;

(b) the name and address of the person (if any), by whom he is employed or to be employed as a purveyor of milk;

(c) any endorsement as to change in condition of employment as a purveyor of milk;

(d) the date when such certificate of licence shall expire.

Licensed Purveyors of Milk must report changes in condition of employment.

23. (1) Every licensed purveyor of milk shall, in the event of the occurrence of any of the following circumstances in the carrying on of his trade or business as a purveyor of milk, at once report the same to the local authority issuing his certificate of licence:—

(a) any change of employer;

(b) any change from the condition of a purveyor of milk as an employee to that of a purveyor of milk on his own account;

(c) any change from the condition of a purveyor of milk on his own account to that of a purveyor of milk as an employee.

(2) On the report of any licensed purveyor of milk, to such local authority, of the occurrence of any of the circumstances as are hereinbefore provided, such local authority shall cause the certificate of such licensee to be endorsed accordingly and any licensed purveyor of milk who shall fail to report to such local authority the occurrence of any of the aforesaid circumstances or who shall continue to carry on the trade or business of a purveyor of milk without having his certificate of licence endorsed in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations shall be guilty of an offence.

*Certificate of licence as a purveyor of milk not issued
under certain
circumstances.*

24. No certificate of licence of any person as a purveyor of milk shall be issued by the local authority to any person where the Medical Officer of Health shall have certified in writing that the applicant for such a certificate is not a fit and suitable person, on medical grounds, to be engaged in the trade or business of a purveyor of milk or, where such applicant shall have refused to submit himself for medical examination when so required by the Medical Officer of Health:

Name and address to be inscribed on vehicles or carriers of milk.

25. Every licensed purveyor of milk who himself or by his servant sells or distributes or delivers for sale or in the process of sale milk from any vehicle or any carrier shall have conspicuously inscribed on such vehicle or carrier his name and address, and he shall further cause such vehicle or carrier to be kept in a thoroughly clean condition, and shall not use it or permit it to be used for any purpose which may lead to the contamination or infection of the milk carried or conveyed therein.

*A Local Authority
may cancel the
certificates of
purveyors of milk
under certain
circumstances.*

26. If at any time during the currency of a certificate of licence to any person as a purveyor of milk issued under these Regulations the person to whom the certificate of licence has been issued:—

— makes default in complying with the provisions of any of these regulations relating to purveyors of milk;

(b) when required by any duly authorised officer to supply information which, by virtue of his office and the powers conferred upon him under these regulations such officer is entitled to require, withholds or refuses such information or knowingly gives false or misleading information;

(c) shall be certified by a Medical Officer of Health to be not a fit and proper person, on medical grounds, to be engaged in the trade or business of a purveyor of milk; or

(d) refuses to submit himself to a medical examination when so required by the Medical Officer of Health;

the Local Authority issuing such certificate of licence may cancel the same and refuse to issue a new certificate.

*Surplus milk from one milch cow
sold to immediate neighbours.*

27. Nothing contained in Regulations 4 and 18 hereof shall be deemed to apply to any person selling or supplying to his immediate neighbours the surplus milk of any milch cows kept for the production of milk for his own use and consumption where such person shall keep not more than two such cows.

*Milk exposed to infection or departing from the normal or milk
from diseased animals not to be sold.*

28. No dairyman, and no purveyor of milk shall sell or prepare, expose, deposit, convey, deliver, or mix with any other milk, or permit to be prepared, exposed, deposited, conveyed or delivered, or mixed with any other milk for sale, milk:—

(a) which has been or is likely to have been contaminated or exposed to any infection or is in a condition likely or liable to prove unwholesome or injurious or dangerous to the health of man;

(b) when presenting any marked deviation from the normal composition or ordinary characters or appearances as regards colour, odour, taste or general conditions;

(c) when produced by any animal manifestly the subject of constitutional, acute or infectious or contagious disease, or suffering from any disease of, inflammation of, swelling of or discharge from the udder, or any general wasting disease, or by any animal not completely recovered from the febrile state and other conditions incident to parturition; or

(d) when produced by any animal at the time being or recently in any cowshed or on any premises in which any animal is suffering or has recently suffered from any infectious or contagious disease, or from any animal which has otherwise recently been exposed to the infection of any such disease, whether such animal is so suffering or not, until such time as the Medical Officer of Health shall certify in writing that such milk is not likely to be unwholesome, injurious, or dangerous for human consumption.

*Use of infected
animals restricted.*

29. Nothing contained in the provisions of the preceding Regulation shall be taken as preventing the use of any such milk for the purpose of feeding animals; provided that such milk shall in every such case have first been thoroughly boiled, and provided further that such milk shall not have been produced by an animal suffering from anthrax.

Persons suffering from infectious disease or who have been exposed to infection not to enter dairies or to handle milk or milk vessels.

30. Every dairyman and every purveyor of milk shall by inquiry keep himself informed of any sickness occurring amongst his employees or in any premises in which he or his employees reside, and it shall not be lawful for any dairyman or purveyor of milk:—

(a) knowingly to allow any person suffering from any contagious or infectious disease, or who is living in any premises in which there is a case of infectious or contagious disease, or who has recently been in contact with a person so suffering, to milk cows or other animals or in any way to take part in the production or distribution or storage of milk or milk products, or to enter his dairy premises; or

(b) if he himself is so suffering, or has recently been in contact with an infected person or living in any infected premises as aforesaid, to milk cows or other animals or in any way to take part in the production or distribution or storage of milk or milk products, or to enter any dairy premises, until in each case all danger therefrom of the communication of infection to the milk or milk products or their contamination has, in the opinion of the Medical Officer of Health, ceased.

Outbreak of disease to be notified.

31. Every dairyman and every purveyor of milk shall inform the Medical Officer of Health without delay of the occurrence of any infectious or contagious disease amongst any persons residing or engaged or employed upon his dairy premises or amongst any of his employees and shall comply with all requirements of the Medical Officer of Health for disinfecting the premises and preventing the spread of such disease.

Outbreak of sickness attributable to milk.

32. Whenever the Medical Officer of Health of any district shall be of opinion that the outbreak or spread of sickness or disease within his district may be attributable to milk sold or produced or purveyed or distributed by any dairyman or purveyor of milk such dairyman or purveyor of milk shall, on being required by the Medical Officer of Health, exhibit for inspection all invoices, accounts, books and other documents relating to the supply of such milk, and shall furnish forthwith to such Medical Officer of Health:—

(a) a full and complete list of the names and addresses of the customers or persons supplied with milk by such dairyman or purveyor of milk, and

(b) a full and complete list of the names and addresses of the persons from whom and of the situation of the places from which, during a period to be specified by the Medical Officer of Health, the milk or any part of the milk sold or distributed by such dairyman or purveyor of milk was obtained.

Any dairyman or purveyor of milk who shall fail to comply with the provisions hereof shall be guilty of an offence.

Power to forbid sale or use of milk in certain instances.

33. If it appears to the Medical Officer of Health or to the local authority on the certificate of such Medical Officer of Health, that the consumption of any milk or milk products from any source within or outside the district of such local authority or such Medical Officer of Health is likely to cause the outbreak or spread of infectious or contagious disease, such local authority or such Medical Officer of Health may forthwith prohibit the introduction or distribution or storage or sale or use within their district of such milk or milk products for a period to be specified by such local authority or such Medical Officer of Health; and any person introducing or distributing or storing or selling or using within the district of such local authority or such Medical Officer of Health any milk or milk products in contravention of any such prohibition shall be guilty of an offence.

Milk receptacles to be provided with approved covers, lids or stoppers.

34. Every registered dairyman and every licensed purveyor of milk shall provide and fit or cause to be provided and fitted proper and efficient covers, lids or stoppers of a material and of a pattern to be approved by the Medical Officer of Health to all bottles, cans, churns or other receptacles used or intended to be used for receiving, storing, conveying, delivering or distributing milk for sale or intended for sale.

Milk receptacles to be clean and of approved pattern.

35. No registered dairyman and no licensed purveyor of milk shall:—

(a) use or permit to be used for receiving the milk from any animal any receptacle which is not of a material or pattern approved by the Medical Officer of Health.

(b) sell, or offer or expose or deposit for sale, or have in his possession for the purpose of sale or delivery or distribution for or in the process of sale any milk in a bottle or can or churn or other receptacle which is not of a material and pattern approved by the Medical Officer of Health, or which by reason of its condition cannot be rendered clean and sanitary by washing by steam or boiling water, or which has not been thoroughly cleansed and sterilised with steam or boiling water before each occasion of use or refilling, or which is unclean; or

(c) use or permit to be used in connection with any approved receptacle for milk any stopper, lid or cover which is not of a material or pattern approved by the Medical Officer of Health or which is unclean or liable, due to its condition, to cause contamination of the milk contained in such receptacle or which has not been thoroughly cleansed or sterilised with steam or boiling water before each occasion of use.

Cleansing of person and clothing whilst handling or conveying milk.

36. Every dairyman and every purveyor of milk shall ensure that when he himself or when on his behalf any other person handles, conveys, distributes, delivers or sells milk, he shall be clean as to his hands, person, and clothing whilst so employed or engaged, and any dairyman or purveyor of milk who fails to ensure that the provisions of this regulation are complied with shall be guilty of an offence.

Milk in the possession of dairyman and purveyor of milk to be deemed intended for sale until contrary is proved.

87. Any milk found in the possession of any dairyman or purveyor of milk or in any dairy premises or in any vehicle or carrier or milk vessel in the possession or use of any dairyman or purveyor of milk shall be deemed to be intended for sale for human consumption until the contrary shall have been proved to be the case by such dairyman or purveyor of milk.

Purchasing of samples of milk for analysis and examination.

88. (a) The Medical Officer of Health, Sanitary Inspector or any duly authorised agent of such official or any duly authorised officer of the local authority may demand on tender of payment from any dairyman or purveyor of milk, or any agent or servant of such person, a sample or samples of any milk or milk products or articles purporting to be such which are stored, deposited, exposed, conveyed, or distributed for sale, or are being or intended to be delivered for or in the process of sale by him or by his agent or servant and any such dairyman or purveyor of milk or any agent or servant of any such dairyman or purveyor of milk who omits or refuses to supply such sample or samples on demand as aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence;

(b) the Medical Officer of Health, Sanitary Inspector or any duly authorised agent of such official or any duly authorised officer of the local authority may demand on tender of payment, from any consignee or purchaser, or any agent or servant of such person, of any milk produced outside the district of such Medical Officer of Health, Sanitary Inspector, or local authority, and delivered, or in course of delivery within the district of such official or local authority, whether by rail or otherwise any sample or samples of such milk or articles purporting to be milk and any such consignee or purchaser or agent or servant of such person who shall omit or refuse to supply such sample or samples on demand as aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence. In case any such sample or samples of milk shall be found to be not genuine, pure and wholesome, or to be in such a state or condition as to be liable to be injurious or dangerous to the health of man or to contain any addition of water, preservative or other matter or ingredient, or to be not the fresh, clean and unaltered product obtained by the complete uninterrupted milking under proper sanitary conditions of one or more healthy cows properly fed and kept, excluding that obtained within two weeks before and one week after calving, the consignor of such milk shall be held to be guilty of an offence unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that any of the aforesaid conditions found to exist in such sample or samples of milk have been caused by the consignee or purchaser.

Comparative records of inspections and examinations.

39. (1) The local authority may, from time to time, compile comparative records of:—

(a) the results of inspections made by the Medical Officer of Health, or Sanitary Inspector, of all or any dairies registered by such local authority, the record of such inspections to be ascertained by such methods as the Medical Officer of Health may from time to time decide upon;

(b) the results of chemical and bacteriological examinations, made by the Director of Chemical Research and Government Bacteriologist respectively, of the milk sold within the district of such local authority, or exposed, deposited or conveyed for the purpose of sale within the district of such local authority or delivered for or in the process of sale within the district of such local authority by all or any purveyors of milk, or dairymen whether such milk is produced at a dairy situated within or without the district of the local authority and whether the said purveyors of milk or dairymen are carrying on or are engaged in the business of purveyors of milk or dairymen within or without the district of such local authority;

(2) Such local authority may from time to time publish such comparative records, together with the names of the respective dairymen and purveyors of milk, or such portions of such comparative records with names as such local authority may deem necessary for public information either by publication in any newspaper circulating within the district of such local authority or by affixing the same to any notice board or boards of such local authority, or by such other means as such local authority may from time to time decide.

Quality of milk or milk products.

40. (a) No person shall sell or cause to be sold, or expose, deposit or convey or cause to be exposed, deposited or conveyed for the purpose of sale, or deliver or cause to be delivered for or in the process of sale any milk which is not genuine, pure and wholesome, or which is in such a state or condition as to be liable to be injurious or dangerous to the health of man, or to which any water, or formaldehyde or formalin or preparations thereof, or any preservative or other matter or ingredient has been added or which is not the fresh, clean and unaltered product obtained by the complete uninterrupted milking under proper sanitary conditions of one or more healthy cows properly fed and kept, excluding that obtained within two weeks before and one week after calving,

(b) Any person who shall sell or cause to be sold or expose, deposit or convey, or cause to be exposed, deposited or conveyed for the purpose of sale, or deliver or cause to be delivered for or in the process of sale any milk which does not comply with the provisions of this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 2,000 shillings or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months or to both.

(c) The fact that any milk is found, on analysis by the Director of Chemical Research or on examination by the Government Bacteriologist, to be not in accordance with the provisions of this regulation shall raise the presumption until the contrary is proved that such milk is not genuine or is injurious to health and the sale or purveying or distribution or delivery or exposure or depositing for sale or supply thereof shall constitute an offence.

Bovines not to be kept within 35 feet of a dwelling.

41. No person shall stable, or otherwise accommodate any bovine animal within 35 feet of a dwelling, such distances being measured in a straight line from the nearest point of the stable or other place where such bovine is accommodated to the nearest point of the dwelling.

Provided that, notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, no person shall stable or otherwise accommodate any bovine animal within 100 feet of a dwelling (such distance being measured in a straight line from the nearest point of the stable or other place where such bovine is or is to be accommodated shall have been established as premises for the stabling or accommodating of a bovine animal at the time of the application of this regulation. For the purposes of this regulation where the owner or occupier of any stable or other place where a bovine animal was accommodated at the time of the application of this regulation shall fail to give written notice to the local authority within 60 days from the date of the application of this regulation that he is the owner or occupier of premises established at the time of the application of this regulation for the stabling or accommodating of a bovine animal such stable or other place as aforesaid shall not be deemed to have been established as premises for the stabling or accommodating of a bovine animal at the time of the application of this regulation.

*Information to
be given when required as to place of production of milk.*

42. Any dairyman, or any purveyor of milk, or any producer or consignee of any milk or milk products, or any servant or agent of any such person or persons who when required by the Medical Officer of Health or Sanitary Inspector or any other person duly authorised by the local authority, to give information as to the place or places in which was produced any milk or milk products, stored, deposited, exposed, conveyed, distributed or intended to be distributed for the purpose of sale, offered for sale, or sold, or in course of delivery, for or in the process of sale, withholds or refuses such information or knowingly gives false or misleading information shall be guilty of an offence.

and inspection.*

43. The Medical Officer of Health, Sanitary Inspector, or any other person duly authorised by the local authority, may enter any dairy premises or any grazing ground where cows are grazed, at any hour reasonable for the proper performance of the duty, for the purpose of inspecting the premises and the cows, milk, milk products, receptacles for milk, and utensils kept therein, and the provisions made for keeping the same in good, clean, and sanitary condition, and of ascertaining whether the requirements of these regulations are being observed, and the Medical Officer of Health may examine any person resident on or employed or engaged in or about any such premises for the purpose of ascertaining whether such person is suffering from any infectious or contagious disease.

officer may enter premises and inspect milk cattle.*

44. A Veterinary Officer may enter at any time upon any premises in which any cow for the production of milk for sale is kept or housed or milked and examine any cow or other animal therein and may milk any such cow or demand that any such cow be milked in his presence and may carry away any sample or samples of milk so obtained for the purpose of examination, and should there be reason to believe or suspect that any such cow or animal is suffering from any contagious or infectious or other disease liable to render milk produced by such cow or animal unwholesome or injurious or dangerous for human consumption, may carry out such investigations, including the inoculation of any such cow or animal, as he may deem necessary to determine whether such cow or animal is suffering from such disease.

Any dairyman who by the wilful act or default of himself or his servant shall fail to render such Veterinary Officer all reasonable assistance in any such examination or investigation as aforesaid or in obtaining any sample or samples of milk as hereinbefore provided shall be guilty of an offence.

A Veterinary Officer may require milk cattle to be assembled for inspection.

45. A Veterinary Officer may, by written notice require the owner or keeper of any cows which are kept or used for the production of milk for sale, to assemble all such cows upon his premises, under proper control, for the purpose of veterinary inspection, at a time to be specified in the said notice which shall not in any case be less than twenty-four hours from the time of the service of such notice.

Any such owner or keeper who by the wilful act or default of himself or his servant fails to comply with such notice, and to render the said Veterinary Officer all reasonable assistance shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalties.

46. (a) Any person wilfully obstructing the Medical Officer of Health, Veterinary Officer, Sanitary Inspector or any duly authorised agent of such officer, or any duly authorised officer of the local authority in the performance of his duties under these regulations shall be guilty of an offence.

(b) On the conviction of any registered dairyman or licensed purveyor of milk for an offence under these regulations the Court may, on the application of such local authority or Medical Officer of Health, cancel his certificate of registration or of licence, as the case may be, and order that no new certificate shall be granted under these regulations to such person for a period not exceeding two years from the date of such cancellation, and thereupon such person shall become disqualified to hold a certificate during such period of cancellation.

(c) Any person found guilty of an offence under these regulations shall, where no penalty is expressly prescribed, be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred shillings or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding two months or to both.

*Rules to apply
mutatis mutandis to milk intended for human food
other than cow's
milk.*

47. The foregoing Regulations shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the sale or production, collection, storing, keeping, preparation, delivery, conveying, transmission or exposure for sale of milk intended for human consumption from any animal other than a cow, and to the keeping of any such animal for the production of such milk.

These Rules not to apply to Hotels, Boarding Houses, etc.

48. Nothing in these Regulations shall be deemed to apply to hotels, boarding houses or other like premises where milk is sold or prepared for sale only to persons dwelling on the premises, or to apply to persons so selling or preparing milk.

CROWN LANDS ORDINANCE, 1915.

AN area of approximately 200,000 acres of waterless land situate between Sultan Hamud and Makindu, will be available for alienation when water has been found.

Applications are invited for the rights of boring for water on the conditions stated hereunder.

CONDITIONS.

1. The area included within the scheme will be divided into numbered blocks of approximately 10,000 acres each.
2. No person or company may apply for boring rights over more than 10,000 acres.
3. Application must be addressed in writing to the Commissioner of Lands and must be enclosed in sealed envelopes endorsed "Water Boring Application." Applications will not be opened until May 10th, 1923, after which date they will be dealt with in order of receipt. If two applications for the same area come up for consideration at the same time, priority of consideration will be at the discretion of the Commissioner of Lands.
4. Only one licence will be issued to one person or company.
5. Licences will be issued for a period of two years.
6. At the expiration of the licence, provided that bores producing a minimum total of 250 gallons of fresh water per day to the satisfaction of the Director of Public Works over such period as he may prescribe, have been sunk by the licensee on the area covered by the licence, the Governor will issue to the licensee a lease under the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1915, free from purchase price, but subject to all other usual charges and conditions, for a block of land of reasonable shape to be selected by the licensee from the area the subject of the licence, at the rate of 1 acre for each gallon of fresh water produced per day over that area, subject to a maximum grant of 3000 acres.
7. Any further information may be obtained at the Land Department, Nairobi, where maps of the area may be seen.
