A Bill

Intituled

An Ordinance to make provision for giving effect to Article 438 of the Treaty of Peace with Germany as to the property of Christian Religious Missions formerly maintained by Germans in the Colony.

WHEREAS by Article four hundred and thirty-eight of the Treaty of Peace between the Allied and Associated Powers and Germany, signed at Versailles on the 28th day of June, 1919, the Allied and Associated Powers agreed that, where Christian religious missions were being maintained by German societies or persons in territory belonging to them, or of which the government is entrusted to them in accordance with the said Treaty, the property which such missions or missionary societies possessed, including that of trading societies whose profits were devoted to the support of missions, should continue to be devoted to missionary purposes. And that in order to ensure the due execution of that undertaking the Allied and Associated Governments would hand over such property to boards of trustees appointed by or approved by the Governments and composed of persons holding the faith of the mission whose property is involved: 5

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof:— 10

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "The German Missions Ordinance, 1923."

Interpretation.

2. In this Ordinance unless the context otherwise requires:—

"Colony" means the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya; 15

"German national" means a person who is a subject or citizen of Germany or of any component state thereof or who, having at any time been such subject or citizen, has not changed his allegiance as a result of recognition of new states or territorial re-arrangements, or been nationalised in any British Possession or, before the treaty of peace with Germany came into force, in any foreign state in accordance with the laws thereof and when actually resident therein and does not retain according to the law of his state of origin the nationality of that state, and includes an association, partnership, company, or corporation established or incorporated under the law of Germany or any component state thereof, or of any former German Colonial Possession; 20 25

"Mission" includes a missionary society, and a trading society whose profits are devoted to the support of any mission. 30

Vesting of German Mission property in trustees appointed by a Secretary of State.

3. All property in the Colony, whether movable or immovable and not disposed of by a custodian of enemy property prior to the commencement of this Ordinance (in this Ordinance referred to as "German Mission Property") which, immediately before it became vested in a custodian of enemy property, or on the 10th day of January, 1920, belonged to or was held in trust for a Christian Religious Mission which was before or during the war being maintained by a German national, shall by virtue of this Ordinance be vested in such trustees upon such trust as a Secretary of State may appoint and determine, but subject to the conditions, provisions and agreements contained in any document of title under which such property is held, and it shall be lawful for a Secretary of State to make such appointments and determinations. 35 40

Registration of trust deeds.

4. Any instrument declaring the trusts on which German Mission property is to be held and purporting to be signed by a Secretary of State may be registered under any Ordinance relating to the Registration of Documents notwithstanding that it does not contain a description sufficient for the proper identification of any land dealt with by the instrument, and that the signatures to the instrument are not attested or authenticated in manner required by any Ordinance or other law. 45 50

Exemption from Stamp Duty.

5. Every declaration of trust made for the purposes of this Ordinance and every transfer or lease to or in favour of any mission made in exercise of any powers contained in any such declaration of trust shall be exempt from Stamp Duty. 55

Transfer not a breach of prohibition of assignment.

6. A declaration of trust made for the purposes of this Ordinance, and a transfer or letting made in exercise of any power contained in any such declaration of trust shall not be deemed to be a breach of any provision prohibiting or restricting assignment, sub-letting or parting with possession, which may be contained in any grant, lease, agreement, or licence under which any German Mission property is held, or give to a German national, whose interest is extinguished, any claim against the trustees to or in favour of whom the transfer or declaration of trust is made. 60
