COLONY AND PROTECTORATE OF KENYA.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE No. 20.

The following Bill is published for general information and criticism:—

E. J. WADDINGTON,
Clerk to the Legislative Council.

A Bill

Intituled

An Ordinance to Consolidate and Amend the Law Relating to Arms and Ammunition.

PRELIMINARY.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Arms and Ammunition Ordinance, 1924," and shall come into force on such date as the Governor-in-Council shall declare by Proclamation in the Gazette. Short title and commencement.
2. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires— Definitions.
 - "Ammunition" includes explosives, cartridges, balls, caps, and any other material for loading fire-arms;
 - "Arms" include the arms of war hereinafter mentioned and fire-arms of any description, whether whole or in detached pieces;
 - "Authorised Officer" means any Administrative Officer or any other officer authorised for a particular purpose by the Governor;
 - "The Convention" means the Convention for the control of the trade in arms and ammunition, and the Protocol, signed at St. Germain-en-Laye on the tenth day of September, 1919;
 - "Native" means any person who by birth or adoption belongs to any of the races or tribes of Africa or of the countries bordering on the Indian Ocean, the Red Sea, the Persian Gulf, or the Gulf of Oman, and includes a Somali and a Swahili.
 - "Native Vessel" means a vessel either owned by a native, or fitted out or commanded by a native, or with a crew of whom more than half are natives;
 - "Private Warehouse" means a warehouse for arms or ammunition, not being a public warehouse, proclaimed as such by the Governor;
 - "Public Warehouse" means a warehouse under the exclusive custody and permanent control of the Government and of its servants (of whom one at least is a civil or military officer), and proclaimed as such by the Governor;
 - "Prohibited Area" means:—
 - (a) the whole of the Continent of Africa with the exception of Algeria, Libya and the Union of South Africa;
 - (b) all Islands situated within a hundred nautical miles of the coast of the Continent of Africa, together with Prince's Island, St. Thomas' Island, and the Island of Annobon and Socotra;

(c) Transcaucasia, Persia, Gwadar, the Arabian Peninsula and such continental parts of Asia as were included in the Turkish Empire on the fourth day of August, 1914;

“Prohibited Zone” means a maritime zone, including the Red Sea, the Gulf of Aden, the Persian Gulf and the Sea of Oman, 5 bounded by a line drawn from Cape Guardafui, following the latitude of that Cape to its intersection with Longitude 57° East of Greenwich, and proceeding thence direct to the Eastern frontier of Persia in the Gulf of Oman.

RESTRICTIONS ON THE EXPORT AND IMPORT OF ARMS AND 10 AMMUNITION.

Restrictions
on the export of arms or ammunition.

3. (1) After the commencement of this Ordinance it shall be unlawful for any person to export from the Colony:—

(a) The following arms of war, whether complete or in parts, or ammunition for the same; namely, artillery of all 15 kinds, apparatus for the discharge of all kinds of explosive or gas-diffusing projectiles, flame-throwers, bombs, grenades, machine guns, and rifled small-fire breech-loading weapons of all kinds; and

(b) Fire-arms of any description, whether complete or in 20 parts or ammunition for the same, to any part of the prohibited area and prohibited zone.

Provided that:—

(i) The Governor may grant licences for the export of arms of war or ammunition for the same, the use of which 25 is not prohibited by international law, to meet the needs of the Government of any part of His Majesty's Dominions or any country under His Majesty's protection or any territory in respect of which a mandate is being exercised by the Government of any part of His Majesty's Dominions or the 30 Government of any of the High Contracting Parties to the Convention;

(ii) An authorised officer may, subject to any Rules in that behalf, grant licences for the export of fire-arms or ammunition for the same, the use of which is not intended 35 for warlike purposes, to any place in a prohibited area or zone;

Provided that before granting such licence, such officer shall satisfy himself that such fire-arms or ammunition are not intended for disposal in any way contrary to the provisions 40 of the Convention.

In granting such licence, such officer may attach thereto any term and condition consistent with this Ordinance and of the Convention which he may think advisable, and in particular may limit such licence to exportation to a named 45 consignee.

(2) In the case of arms or ammunition adapted both to war-like and also to other purposes, the Governor may determine from the size, destination, and other circumstances of each consignment or from the circumstances of the holder for what use they 50 are intended, and decide in each case whether or not they are to be regarded as arms or ammunition of war.

Restrictions
on the import
of arms or
ammunition.

4. (1) Except as may be allowed by a licence of the Governor or by any Rules in that behalf, it shall be unlawful for any person to import into the Colony any arms or ammunition of any 55 description.

(2) Any arms or ammunition allowed to be imported shall be imported only at prescribed places.

(3) This section and the preceding section shall have effect as if they formed part of the Customs Ordinance, 1910. 60

(4) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the importation of arms or ammunition for the use of the Government of the Colony or the re-importation by the registered owner of any arm which has already been registered in the Colony and exported therefrom by the registered owner.

PUBLIC WAREHOUSES.

5. Any person who imports arms or ammunition shall immediately deposit them in a public warehouse at his own risk and expense, but before doing so shall obtain a permit of an authorised officer for such purpose and shall conform to any directions which may be given by such officer with regard to the transport of such arms or ammunition to such warehouse.

Deposit in public warehouses.

Provided that this section shall not apply to arms or ammunition imported for the use of the Government of the Colony or to re-importation as laid down in Section 4 (4).

6. (1) As soon as possible after the deposit thereof in a public warehouse and before the withdrawal thereof therefrom, every complete arm and, where an arm is not complete, every part of an arm, and every package of ammunition, shall be registered in the prescribed manner according to any existing marks and numbers, and, if so required, shall be stamped or marked in the prescribed manner.

Registration
of imported arms or
ammunition.

(2) The person depositing such arm or ammunition shall supply such information for the purposes of enabling such registration to be effected as may be required by the officer-in-charge of such warehouse or as may be prescribed.

7. All arms or ammunition imported solely for the purpose of sale in the Colony shall be registered as such when first deposited in a public warehouse, and also whenever transferred therefrom to any other public or to a private warehouse.

Arms imported for sale to be registered as such.

8. (1) No arms or ammunition deposited in a public warehouse shall be withdrawn except in accordance with a permit for such purpose signed by an authorised officer.

Withdrawal
from public warehouse.

(2) No such permit shall be granted except in accordance with prescribed conditions and until an authorised officer is satisfied that such arms or ammunition are:—

(a) For despatch to places proclaimed by the Governor where persons are allowed to possess arms or ammunition, under the control and responsibility of the local authorities thereof, for the purpose of defence against robbers or rebels; or

(b) For despatch to any other public or to a private warehouse; or

(c) For persons who can show that they require them for their legitimate personal use.

(3) Such officer may specify in such permit the place to and the time within which such arms or ammunition shall be despatched after the withdrawal thereof, and the place in which they shall be secured in the interval.

(4) Such officer may, in his discretion, limit the quantity of arms or ammunition to be withdrawn at any one time.

(5) Before permitting the withdrawal of arms or ammunition, such officer may require such security to be given, as he may think fit, for compliance with this Ordinance and of the conditions of a permit for withdrawal.

9. Every permit for the withdrawal of arms or ammunition shall specify the marks, number and description of such arms or ammunition.

Arms to be described in permit for withdrawal.

10. An authorised officer may require any person applying for a permit for the withdrawal of arms or ammunition to be used for the purpose of killing game or other animals to take out a licence under the Game Ordinance, 1921, and may refuse to issue such permit until such licence is taken out.

Withdrawal
for killing game.

ARMS ALREADY IN THE COLONY.

11. Every person having in his possession or control in the Colony any arms or ammunition, shall cause them to be registered within the prescribed period and in the prescribed manner, and, if so required, to be stamped or marked by the authorised officer in the prescribed manner.

Registration
of arms or
ammunition
other than those of war already in the Colony.

ARMS LICENCES.

12. (1) Except as may be allowed by Rules in that behalf, no person shall, after the end of three months from the commencement of this Ordinance, possess, except in a public or private warehouse, or use or carry any fire-arms or ammunition unless in possession of a licence (in this Ordinance referred to as an "Arms Licence") issued under this Ordinance for such purpose. 5

(2) An arms licence may be issued by an authorised officer. Such officer shall have power to refuse to issue any such licence without assigning any reason therefor, and shall thereupon report every such refusal to the Central Office. 10

(3) Every licence shall expire on the 31st day of December next following the day of issue.

(4) An arms licence shall describe the fire-arms and ammunition to which it relates by reference to the marks and numbers stamped and registered in pursuance of this Ordinance, and shall be issued by and to such person in such form and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed. 15

(5) The fee for an arms licence shall be five shillings.

(6) No fee shall be payable for an arms licence for fire-arms which are in the nature of trophies or curiosities, and kept as such. 20

(7) On being satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been or will be made by any one of the Governments of the Protectorate of Uganda, Zanzibar or Nyasaland or the Territory of Tanganyika for the recognition by those Governments of arms licences which have been issued in this Colony the Governor-in-Council may by order declare that an arms licence issued under the law in force for the time being under that Government shall have the same effect and validity as if it had been issued in pursuance of the provisions of this Ordinance. 25 30

Provided, however, that such licence shall be first endorsed by an authorised officer.

Notice of loss,
etc., of an arm
to be given.

13. The holder of a licence to bear an arm shall forthwith notify the authorised officer should the arm be lost, stolen, or destroyed. Should the authorised officer be satisfied that the same has been lost, stolen, or destroyed, he shall grant to the holder of the licence a certificate to such effect. If the holder of a licence fails to produce an arm which he is authorised to bear and has not complied with the provisions of this section or has failed to obtain a certificate as aforesaid, he shall be deemed to have dealt with the arm in breach of the provisions of this Ordinance unless he shall prove the contrary. 35 40

Arms lent for a temporary purpose.

14. The holder of a licence to bear an arm may lawfully possess and bear an arm and ammunition therefor lent to him for a temporary purpose by the person who holds a licence to bear such arm. 45

TRADING IN ARMS AND PRIVATE WAREHOUSES.

Restriction
on sale and transfer of arms or
ammunition.

15. No person shall sell or transfer or buy or accept any arm or ammunition, either by way of gift or for any consideration, except in accordance with a permit signed by an authorised officer. 50

Private warehouse not to be kept without licence.

16. No person shall keep a private warehouse for arms or ammunition without a licence from an authorised officer

Provisions
as to private warehouses.

17. A person licensed to keep a private warehouse shall:—

(1) Reserve for the purpose enclosed premises having only one entry thereto provided with two locks, of which one can be opened only by officers of the Government. 55

(2) Be responsible for all arms or ammunition deposited therein or withdrawn therefrom and account for the same on the demand of any authorised officer, and shall for this purpose keep a register of deposits and withdrawals in the prescribed form. 60

Every entry in such register shall:—

- (a) Be made at the time of or immediately after such deposit or withdrawal;
 - (b) Be dated;
 - 5 (c) Be numbered consecutively;
 - (d) Contain particulars of the arms or ammunition in respect of which they are made by reference to the marks and numbers stamped and registered in pursuance of the provisions of this Ordinance;
 - 10 (e) Contain a reference to the permit authorising such deposit or withdrawal;
 - (f) Be signed by the licensee and contain such other particulars as may be prescribed.
18. (1) No arms or ammunition shall be deposited in or with-15 drawn from a private warehouse except on written application in the prescribed form and in accordance with a permit for such purpose signed by an authorised officer.
- (2) If at any time there is found in a private warehouse more arms or ammunition than the quantity for which a permit 20 for such purpose has been granted, the licensee shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.
- (3) If at any time there is found in a private warehouse less arms or ammunition than the quantity which has been deposited 25 therein, or than the quantity which according to the register of deposits appears to have been deposited therein, and the deficiency is not accounted for by withdrawals under permits for such purpose, the licensee shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.
19. (1) Permits to withdraw arms or ammunition from a 30 private warehouse shall only be granted by an authorised officer where such withdrawal is for the purpose of:—
- (a) A sale or transfer, in which case the permit for such sale or transfer and the arms licence of the purchaser or transferee must be produced by the applicant to such officer;
- 35 (b) Export, in which case any licence or permit required for such purpose must be produced to such officer;
- (c) Removal from one private warehouse to any other private or to a public warehouse;
- (d) Exhibition in such premises as may be specified in the 40 permit.
- (2) Every such permit shall describe the arms or ammunition to which it relates by reference to the marks and numbers stamped and registered in pursuance of the provisions of this Ordinance.
- 45 (3) Where such permit is given for the purpose of exhibition, the owner shall be responsible for the safe custody of such arms or ammunition, and if any such arms or ammunition are removed from the premises in which they are permitted to be deposited without the permit of an authorised officer, the owner shall be 50 guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.

Deposit and withdrawal from private warehouse.

Permits for withdrawals from private warehouse.

IMPORTATION BY TRAVELLERS.

20. Notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance contained relating to the import of arms or ammunition, travellers may 55 introduce fire-arms or ammunition for the same (the use of which is not intended for warlike purposes) by land or inland waters, provided that:—
- (1) They immediately report to the nearest officer of the Colony on the frontier thereof, or if there be no such officer at the actual frontier, then at the nearest station on or close to the route followed by them;
- 60 (2) They inform such officer of the exact quantity of arms and/or ammunition carried by them and produce the same for his inspection;
- (3) They forthwith comply with all lawful orders they may 65 receive from such officer and with any Rules made under this Ordinance;
- (4) In the event of such officer approving of the importation they take out an arms licence as required by this Ordinance.

Travellers may introduce arms or ammunition on certain conditions.

ARMS FOR CONTIGUOUS TERRITORIES.

Transit licence for contiguous territories.

21. Notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance contained, transit licences for the importation of arms or ammunition, whether complete or in parts, or of material or of articles intended for armament, to contiguous territories may be granted, suspended, or refused by the Governor in accordance with the provisions of Article 10 of the Convention. 5

MANUFACTURE AND REPAIR OF ARMS.

Manufacture
of arms or
ammunition.

22. No arms or ammunition shall be manufactured or assembled except at such places as may be proclaimed by the Governor for such purpose in accordance with the provisions of the Convention. 10

arms.

23. Except at Government arsenals no person shall open or carry on an establishment for the repair of fire-arms without a licence issued by the authorised officer. 15

Provided that nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit a person repairing his own arm with or without assistance.

MARITIME SUPERVISION.

Restriction
on carriage
by native vessels.

24. (1) No person shall ship or discharge any arms or ammunition in or from a native vessel of less than five hundred tons burden. 20

Provided that this provision shall not apply to:—

(a) Lighters or barges lawfully engaged in loading or unloading ships;

(b) Vessels which, without going more than five miles from the shore, are engaged exclusively in the coasting trade between different ports of the Colony where public or private warehouses are situated. 25

(2) No cargoes of arms or ammunition shall be shipped in such last mentioned vessels without a licence from an authorised officer issued in accordance with prescribed conditions, and all arms or ammunition so shipped shall be subject to the provisions of the Convention. 30

(3) Every licence granted under Sub-section (2) hereof shall contain all details necessary to establish the nature and quantity of the items of such shipment, the vessel on which such shipment is to be loaded, the name of the ultimate consignee, and the ports of loading and discharge. It shall also be specified therein that the licence has been issued in conformity with the regulations of the Convention. 35 40

(4) The restrictions in this section shall not apply to:—

(a) Arms or ammunition conveyed on behalf of the Government of the Colony, provided that such arms or ammunition are accompanied by a duly qualified official;

(b) Fire-arms or ammunition in the possession of the holder of an arms licence, provided that such fire-arms or ammunition are for the personal use of the holder of such licence and are accurately described therein. 45

SEARCH WARRANTS.

Search
warrants.

25. It shall be lawful for any Magistrate, if satisfied by information on oath that any arms or ammunition are or are reasonably suspected of being unlawfully kept, conveyed, landed, or sold at any place, whether on land or otherwise, in contravention of this Ordinance, to grant a warrant to enter at any time, and if need be, by force, on Sundays as well as other days, the place named in such warrant and every part thereof, and to examine the same and to search for any such arms or ammunition, and to demand from the owner or occupier of such place the production of his licence or authority for keeping, conveying, landing, or selling the same. 50 55 60

arms.

26. When the person executing such warrant as aforesaid has reasonable cause to believe that any arms or ammunition found by him at any place are being kept, conveyed, landed, or sold in contravention of this Ordinance he may seize and detain the same until a Magistrate has decided whether they shall be forfeited or not. 65

27. A person acting under such warrant shall not be liable to any suit for seizing or detaining any arms or ammunition subject or appearing to be subject to this Ordinance. Person seizing arms indemnified.

SUPPLEMENTAL.

5 28. (1) A Central Office shall be established at Nairobi under the control of such officer as the Governor may appoint in that behalf for recording all permits and licences issued under this Ordinance. Central office to be established at Nairobi.

10 (2) It shall be the duty of every authorised officer, before the tenth day of every month, to transmit to the Central Office a record of all permits and licences issued by him during the preceding month.

29. The Governor-in-Council may make Rules:—

Power to make rules.

15 (a) Prescribing the officers by whom, the form in which, and the terms and conditions on and subject to which any licence or permit under this Ordinance shall be issued, including the payment of fees in respect thereof, and permitting the revocation of any licence or permit;

20 (b) Regulating the stamping, numbering, and registering of arms or ammunition;

(c) Prescribing for the establishment and regulation of public and private warehouses;

(d) Restricting and regulating the transport of arms or ammunition;

25 (e) Prescribing the form and manner in which any registers or records required by this Ordinance or any Rules thereunder shall be kept and the inspection thereof;

30 (f) Prescribing the fees, rent, and charges for the use of public warehouses or for anything to be done under this Ordinance, or any Rules thereunder, and the manner in which they may be recovered;

(g) Generally for the carrying out of the provisions of this Ordinance.

35 30. (1) Any person who contravenes any provision of this Ordinance, or any rule, notice or order thereunder, or the conditions of any licence or permit, shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance. Penalties.

40 (2) Any person guilty of an offence against this Ordinance shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding twelve months or to a fine not exceeding two hundred pounds or to both.

45 (3) Any person so convicted who holds a licence or permit under this Ordinance shall be further liable to forfeiture of his licence or permit or to suspension thereof for such period as the Court thinks fit.

(4) All arms, ammunition or any vessel in respect of which an offence is committed may be forfeited.

50 31. Any person who abets or attempts to commit any offence against this Ordinance shall himself be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance. Attempts and abetments.

32. Offences against the provisions of this Ordinance shall be cognizable to the Police. Cognizable offences.

33. The East Africa Arms and the East Africa Arms (Amendment) Ordinance, 1906. are hereby repealed. Repeal.

55 Provided always that such repeal is without prejudice to anything lawfully done, any penalty incurred or any liability imposed thereunder, and any such penalty or liability may be recovered or decided, as the case may be, in proceedings taken in the same manner in all respect as if this Ordinance had not been made.

CROWN LANDS ORDINANCE, 1915.

NOTICE.

THE grants of the farms specified in the Schedule hereto, will, subject to the provisions of the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1915, be offered for sale at the Railway Institute, Nairobi, commencing at 10 a.m., on Monday, the 23rd March, 1925. Plans of the farms may be seen at the Public Map Office, Land Department, Nairobi, and at the office of the Resident Commissioner of the district in which any particular farm mentioned in the Schedule is situated, or may be had on application to the Land Department on payment of Shs. 5/- post free, in respect of each plan required.

The right to withdraw any farm from the auction is reserved to Government.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. Each farm will be auctioned separately.
2. These farms with the exception of Farms L.O. Nos. 3095, 1633, 3075, 1621, 3079 and 5431 are in the Highlands and purchase will therefore be confined to Europeans only (or their accredited agents), in conformity with the decision of His Majesty's Government. Farms L.O. Nos. 3095, 1633, 3075, 1621, 3079 and 5431 will be sold without racial restriction.
3. The highest bidder will be the purchaser, and if any dispute arise as to any bidding, the farm will be put up again at the last undisputed bidding.
4. The amount of the advance of each bidding will be regulated by the auctioneer and no bidding shall be retracted.
5. Each purchaser shall pay to the auctioneer, immediately on the fall of the hammer, a deposit of 10% of his purchase money, and should same be tendered by cheque such cheque must be suitably endorsed by purchaser's Banker. In default of such payment the farm may be immediately re-offered for sale and any subsequent bid by the person who has made default may be ignored or refused.
6. The balance of the purchase money may be paid in full to the Land Officer on or before the 30th March, 1925, or may be paid in nine equal annual instalments payable on the 1st day of January in each year, the first instalment being payable on the 1st January, 1926, and the purchaser shall inform the Land Officer on or before the 30th March, 1925, which method of payment he desires to adopt.
7. If the purchaser shall have elected to pay the balance of the purchase money by instalments no assignment of the land leased or any part thereof shall be valid until the whole of the purchase money shall have been paid.
8. The rent due to the 31st day of December, 1925, the survey fees and the fees payable for the preparation and registration of the grant and the stamp duty payable in respect of the grant and, if the purchaser shall have elected to pay the balance of the purchase money in full, the balance of the purchase money shall be paid to the Land Officer at the Land Office, Nairobi, on or before the 30th March, 1925, and upon such payments being duly made, the purchaser shall, subject to the provisions of the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1915, and if the conditions of sale have been complied with, be entitled to a grant of the farm, which grant will be presented to him duly executed as soon as conveniently may be.
9. If the payments mentioned in Condition No. 8 are not made on or before the 30th March, 1925, the Land Officer may order that the deposit paid by the purchaser be forfeited to the Government, and the purchaser shall have no further claim to a lease of the farm.
10. The grant will be under the provisions of the Registration of Titles Ordinance, 1919, and will be for 999 years, and will commence from the 1st day of April, 1925, and rent will be payable from that date.

N.B.—Re: Farm No. 4869 near Machakos. The survey of this farm may not be completed by the date of auction, an outspan which deprives the farm of access to water having been excised.

Re: Farm No. 2704, Athi River. The survey of this farm may not be completed by the date of auction, a Police Post having been excised therefrom in the South-west corner.

Re: Farm No. 5431, Kibos. The upset price for this farm includes the value of existing improvements.

Nairobi,
13th December, 1924.
