(AMENDMENT) ORDINANCE, 1922.

PROCLAMATION.

E. B. DENHAM.

L.S.

BY His Excellency Edward Brandis Denham, Esquire, Companion of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Acting Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya.

WHEREAS by Section 10 of the Maintenance Orders Enforcement Ordinance, 1921, as amended by the Maintenance Orders Enforcement (Amendment) Ordinance, 1922, it is enacted that where the Governor is satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made by the legislature of any British Possession or any Territory under His Majesty's protection for the enforcement within such possession or territory of maintenance orders made by the Courts in the Colony or Protectorate of Kenya, the Governor may, by Proclamation, extend this Ordinance to maintenance orders made by the Courts within such possession or territory and thereupon this Ordinance shall apply to such maintenance orders as if they had been made in England or in Ireland

And whereas, I am satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made by the legislature of Swaziland, for the enforcement within that Territory of maintenance orders made by the Courts of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya.

Now therefore, by the powers in me vested as aforesaid, I do hereby proclaim and declare that the provisions of the said Ordinance are extended to maintenance orders made by the Courts in Swaziland.

This Proclamation shall take effect as from the 18th day of March, 1925.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

THE NATIVE AUTHORITY (AMENDMENT)
ORDINANCE, 1924.

RULES.

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon him by the Native Authority (Amendment) Ordinance, 1924, His Excellency the Acting Governor in Council has been pleased to make the following Rules:—

1. These Rules may be cited as the Local Native Councils (Procedure) Rules, 1925.

2. Under these Rules the expressions "the President" and "the Chair" shall include any officer presiding at a meeting of a Local Native Council. "Council" means a Local Native Council.

3. The President of a Local Native Council shall, when practicable, cause notice of the date, hour and place of every session of the Council to be sent to each member so as to reach his ordinary place of residence at least one week before the date fixed for the meeting.

4. Any member of the Council who is unable to attend any meeting shall notify the President without delay of his inability to attend and of the reasons therefor. Such notification shall where possible be made in writing.

5. Any member who is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Council without adequate reason to the satisfaction of the President shall be deemed to have vacated his seat and a new member may be appointed in his place.

6. Not less than two-thirds of the duly appointed members of the Council shall form a quorum.

7. During the proceedings of the Council members shall occupy the seats allotted to them by the President.

8. The following shall be the order of business at Local Native Councils:—

1. Confirmation of Minutes.
2. Communications from the Chair.
3. Petitions.
4. Questions.
5. Motions.

9. A member of the Council may ask any other member who holds an official appointment any question relating to matters coming within the scope of the latter's duties.

10. The President may disallow any question or motion which is in his opinion undesirable in the public interest.

11. Every member other than the President shall stand in his place when speaking and shall address the Chair.

12. If more than one member rises to speak the President shall decide who shall speak first whereupon all others shall resume their seats.

13. The President shall at his discretion decide whether a member who has already spoken to a motion may speak again to the same motion, provided that the mover of a motion shall have the right of reply to the debate thereon.

14. When the question has been put from the Chair no member may speak again to the motion except to vote "aye" or "no." The question shall be decided on the majority of votes, the President having both a deliberative and a casting vote.

15. (i) No member shall interrupt any other member while speaking, or use any offensive expression or conduct himself in a disorderly or unseemly manner.

(ii) Any member who persistently offends against the provisions of this rule or who is guilty of disrespect or disobedience to the Chair may be suspended by the President from the service of the Council and may be required to withdraw from the meeting.

16. The Chief Native Commissioner and the Senior Commissioner of the Province in which a Local Native Council is established shall have the right to attend and speak at any meeting of the Council. Save as aforesaid, no person who is not a member of the Council shall take part in any debate except by the express invitation of the President.

17. The public may at the discretion of the President be admitted to meetings of the Council. Any member of the public who interrupts the proceedings of the Council or behaves in a disorderly or objectionable manner may be ejected from the meeting by order of the President.

By order of His Excellency the Acting Governor in Council.
