GOVERNMENT NOTICE No. 47.

THE BRITISH NATIONALITY AND STATUS
OF ALIENS ACT, 1914.INSTRUCTIONS AS TO APPLICATIONS FOR CERTIFICATES OF NATURALIZATION BY ALIENS RESIDENT IN A COLONY NOT POSSESSING RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT.

The Act requires an applicant to satisfy the Governor—

- (a) that he has resided in His Majesty's Dominions for not less than five years in the following manner, that is to say: for one year immediately preceding the application in the Colony, and for a period of four years within the last eight years before the application either in the Colony or in some other part of His Majesty's Dominions;
- (b) that he is of good character and has an adequate knowledge of the English language; and
- (c) that he intends, if his application is granted, either to reside in His Majesty's Dominions or to serve under the Crown.

1. An application for a Certificate of Naturalization must be by way of a Memorial addressed to the Governor.

2. The applicant's Memorial must show the following particulars :—

Full name.*
Address.
Trade or Occupation.
Place† and date of birth (where known).
Nationality.‡
Married, single, or widower (widow).
Date of marriage.
Name of wife.
Names and Nationality of parents.

The Memorial must also show—

- (a) that the applicant has fulfilled the conditions with respect to residence in the British Dominions required by the Act (see above). Full details should be given both as to time and place of residence during a period of at least five years immediately preceding the application. If these five years have not been spent entirely within the British Dominions details both as to residence in the British Dominions and residence elsewhere over such longer period, not exceeding eight years, as may comprise five years' residence in the British Dominions should be shown.

The details should be set out clearly by dates and addresses as follows :—

	Years.	Months.
Fromto.....at.....
Fromto.....at.....
Fromto.....at.....

- (b) that the applicant intends if his application is granted either to reside in His Majesty's Dominions or to serve under the Crown.

3. For the purpose of the requirements of the Act as to residence, whether in the Colony or elsewhere in His Majesty's Dominions, residence will be taken as meaning continuous personal presence, subject to such brief and occasional periods of absence as may seem to the Governor not inconsistent with essential continuity of residence. Any period of absence, however brief, must be stated in the Memorial in the way indicated above.

4. If the applicant desires that the Certificate should extend not only to him personally, but also to any child or children of his, being minors, the Memorial should contain a statement to that effect, and should give the full name, the date and place of birth, and the present place of residence of any child whose name is sought to be included in the Certificate.

5. § The statements in the Memorial must be supported by a statutory declaration made by the applicant.

6. The statements in the Memorial with respect to residence must be verified by a like declaration made by some person who is able to testify thereto. This declaration must repeat specifically, as to both time and place, the statements which it purports to verify. The declarant must be—

- (a) a natural-born British subject;
- (b) not the agent or the solicitor of the applicant; and
- (c) able to testify to the facts of residence from personal knowledge and not from information only.

These particulars and also the declarant's place of residence and occupation must be set out in the declaration.

The manner in which knowledge of the facts of residence was acquired must be stated in detail. A statement that it was acquired through "business transactions" will not be sufficient unless it is made plain that the business transactions were of such a nature, or carried on in such circumstances, as to give the declarant the knowledge to which he testifies.

Should there be no one such person who is able from personal knowledge to testify to the facts of residence during the full statutory term of five years, declarations by two or more persons may be submitted, made either jointly or by each declarant separately, so as to cover the whole term. Each declarant must set out the particular facts of residence as to which he has personal knowledge; and in the case of a joint declaration each declarant must state separately with regard to himself the particulars under headings (a), (b), and (c) above.

Where any part of the residence relied upon is residence in any other part of His Majesty's Dominions, the Governor will be prepared to accept a declaration made in that part which is proved to him to be of a binding character. In case of residence in any other British Possession, however, if possible, either the declarant should be a responsible public official in the Possession, or the declaration should be accompanied by a written statement made by such an official as to the position and credibility of the declarant. In case of residence in the United Kingdom, a statutory declaration made under the Statutory Declarations Act, 1835, must be furnished.

7. The statements in the Memorial must, in addition, be verified generally, and the good character and loyalty of the applicant must be vouched for by statutory declarations made in like manner by four persons, each of whom must be—

- (a) a householder;
- (b) a natural-born British subject; and
- (c) not the agent or solicitor of the applicant.

These particulars and also the declarant's place of residence, his occupation, and the period during which he has personally known the applicant must be set out in the declaration.

The declaration may be made by the declarants jointly or by each separately. In the case of a joint declaration each declarant must state separately with regard to himself the particulars under headings (a), (b) and (c) above.

The person who makes a declaration for the purposes of Article 6 of these Instructions may also, if he is a householder, make a separate declaration for the purposes of this Article.

8. A declaration made for the purposes of these Instructions must not be made before a person who is the agent or solicitor of the applicant.

9. The Memorial to which any declaration made for the purposes of these Instructions relates must be made an exhibit to the declaration in such a way as to make it clear that the declaration does relate to that Memorial.

10. The statements in the Memorial and the declarations will be made the subject of independent inquiry directed by the Governor.

11. When a Certificate is granted, further instructions as to taking and registering the Oath of Allegiance will be issued.

12. The above Instructions are not applicable in the case of a woman who was a British subject previously to her marriage to an alien, and whose husband has died or whose marriage has been dissolved, or in the case of persons relying on service under the Crown, or where the Certificate sought comes within one of the following exceptional classes, viz., Certificates of Naturalization which the Governor is empowered to grant—

- (a) to a person with respect to whose nationality as a British subject a doubt exists (s. 4 of the Act);
- (b) to minors in special cases (s. 5 of the Act); and
- (c) to persons who have been naturalized under repealed Acts (s. 6 of the Act).

Special instructions should be applied for by persons desiring any of these certificates.

* If the applicant is known by a name other than by his original name, both should be stated, thus :—

+ The place of birth should be stated, so far as practicable, in the form of a postal address, showing the province or other division of the country as well as the town or district in which the applicant was born.

‡ Nationality should be described accurately by reference to the Sovereign State of which the applicant is a subject, regard being had to the changes of nationality resulting from the Peace Treaties concluded after the Great War. If an applicant has lost the nationality he acquired at birth, or acquired any other nationality, his original nationality should nevertheless be specified, with a statement of the circumstances in which it was lost or the new one acquired.

§ A statutory declaration means a declaration of the nature provided for by the Statutory Declarations Ordinance, 1926.
