Clerk to the Legislative Council

A Bill for regulating Pensions, Gratuities and other Allowances to be granted in respect of the Service of European Officers in the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision by law for the granting of pensions, gratuities or other allowances in respect of the public service of European Officers in Kenya :

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Governor of Kenya, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Every such regulation when made shall be laid before the Legislative Council and shall be published in the Gazette: 40

Provided that until varied or revoked by any such regulations the regulations contained in the Schedule to this Ordinance shall be in force. 45

5. (1) No European officer shall have an absolute right to compensation for past services or to pension, gratuity or other allowance; nor shall anything in this Ordinance contained limit the right of the Crown to dismiss any officer without compensation. 60

(2) No European officer shall be granted a pension, gratuity or other allowance without a certificate from the head of his department, or, if he is himself the head of a department, from the Governor, to the effect that he has discharged the duties of his office with such diligence and fidelity as to justify the grant to him of such pension, gratuity or other allowance.

(3) Where it is established to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council that an European officer has been guilty of negligence, irregularity or misconduct, the pension, gratuity or other allowance may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, be reduced or altogether withheld.

- (d) on compulsory retirement for the purpose of facilitating improvement in the organisation of the department to which he belongs, by which greater efficiency and economy can be effected;

- (f) in the case of removal on the ground of inefficiency as hereinafter provided.

8. Where an European officer is removed from his office on the ground of his inability to discharge efficiently the duties thereof, and a pension, gratuity or other allowance cannot otherwise be granted to him under the provisions of this Ordinance, the Governor in Council, with the approval of the Secretary of State, may, if he considers it justifiable having regard to all the circumstances of the case, grant such a pension, gratuity or other allowance as he thinks just and proper, but in no case exceeding in amount that for which the officer would be eligible if he were suffering from some infirmity of mind or body likely to be permanent. Retirement for inefficiency.

retirement.

Maximum

10. (1) A pension granted to an European officer under this Ordinance shall not exceed two-thirds of the highest pensionable emoluments drawn by him at any time in the course of his service in Kenya. 10

(2) Where the European officer has been or is granted a pension or pensions in respect of other public service, he may be granted the full pension for which he is eligible in respect of his service in Kenya, but no person may at any time draw from the funds of Kenya an amount of pension which, when added to the amount of any pension or pensions drawn in respect of other public service, exceeds two-thirds of the highest pensionable emoluments drawn by such person at any time in the course of his service in Kenya or in other public service : 15 20

Provided that where such a person receives in respect of some period of public service, both a gratuity and a pension, the amount of such pension shall be deemed, for the purpose of this subsection, to the four-thirds of its actual amount.

(3) In a case falling under the limitation laid down by subsection (2), the amount of the pension to be drawn from the funds of Kenya shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of State, in order that it may be determined with due regard to the amount of any pension or pensions similarly to be drawn in respect of other public service. 25 30

11. Every pension granted to an European officer shall be subject to the following condition :— 40

Unless or until he has attained the age of fifty years or has completed twenty years' East African service, he may, if physically fit for service, be called upon by the Secretary of State to accept, in lieu of his pension, an office, whether in Kenya or in other public service, not less in value, due regard being had to circumstances of climate, than the office which he had at the date of the grant of his pension. 45

If a pensioner so called upon declines to accept the office for which he may have been selected, the payment of his pension may be suspended until he has attained the age of fifty years. 50

12. If any European officer to whom a pension has been granted under this Ordinance is appointed to another office in the service of Kenya, or in any other public service, then during his tenure of such office so much only (if any) of his pension from the funds of Kenya shall be paid to him per annum as, together with— 55

- (a) the annual emoluments of such office;
- (b) any annual amounts received on account of pension in respect of other public service; and

(c) where the officer receives, in respect of some period of public service, both a gratuity and a pension, an annual amount equal to one-third of such pension makes up an amount not greater than the highest pensionable emoluments drawn by such officer at any time in the course of his public service :

Provided that—

- 10 (1) where an European officer, in whose case an abatement of pension falls to be made under this section, has been granted a pension or pensions in respect of other public service the amount of pension to be drawn from the funds of Kenya shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of State, in order that it may be determined with due regard to the amount of any pension or pensions similarly to be drawn in respect of other public service ; and

- 20 (3) where the new office is that of Governor or High Commissioner of a British Dominion, Colony or Protectorate or a territory under British mandate or that of Governor in India the amount to be taken as the annual emoluments of such office for the purpose of this section shall be determined by the Secretary of State.

30 13. If any European officer to whom a gratuity without pension has been granted under this Ordinance is re-appointed to any office in the service of Kenya, his previous service may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, be taken into account for the purposes of pension, if he refunds the gratuity on such re-appointment.

Gratuity affected by re-employment.

35 14. No pension, gratuity or other allowance granted under this Ordinance shall be assignable or transferable, or liable to be attached, sequestered or levied upon for or in respect of any debt or claim whatsoever, other than a debt due to the Government.

Pensions, etc., not to be assignable.

40 15. If any European officer to whom a pension or other allowance has been granted under this Ordinance is adjudicated a bankrupt or is declared insolvent by judgment of the Court, then such pension or allowance shall forthwith cease :

Pensions, etc., to cease on bankruptcy.

45 Provided always that in any case where a pension or allowance ceases by reason of the bankruptcy or insolvency of the pensioner, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State from time to time during the remainder of such pensioner's life, or during such shorter period or periods, either continuous or discontinuous, as he shall think fit, to cause all or any part of the moneys to which such pensioner would have been entitled by way of pension or allowance, had he not become a bankrupt or insolvent, to be paid to, or applied for the maintenance and personal support or benefit of all or any, to the exclusion of the other or others, of the following persons, namely, such pensioner and any wife, child or children of his, in such proportions and manner as the Secretary of State thinks proper, and such moneys shall be paid or applied accordingly.

Pensions, etc.,
to cease on
conviction.

16. If any European officer to whom a pension or other allowance has been granted under this Ordinance is sentenced to a term of imprisonment by any competent Court whether within or without Kenya for any crime or offence then, in every such case, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State to direct that such pension or allowance shall forthwith cease : 5

Provided always that the pension or allowance shall be restored with retrospective effect in the case of a person who after conviction at any time receives a free pardon :

And provided further that where a pension or allowance ceases for the reason aforesaid it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State to cause all or any part of the moneys to which the pensioner would have been entitled by way of pension or allowance to be paid to or applied for the benefit of any wife, child or children of the pensioner, or, after the expiration of his sentence, also for the benefit of the pensioner himself, in the same manner precisely and subject to the same qualifications and restrictions as in the case of bankruptcy hereinbefore provided. 10 15

Pensions, etc.,
to cease on accepting certain appointments.

17. If any European officer to whom a pension or other allowance has been granted under this Ordinance becomes either a director of any company the principal part of whose business is in any way directly concerned with Kenya, or an officer or servant employed in Kenya by any such company, without in every such case the permission of the Governor in writing first had and obtained, then in every such case it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the approval of the Secretary of State, to direct that such pension or allowance shall forthwith cease : 20 25

Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Governor with the approval of the Secretary of State, on being satisfied that the person in respect of whose pension or allowance any such direction shall have been given has ceased to be a director of such company or to be employed as an officer or servant of such company in Kenya, as the case may be, to give directions for the restoration of such pension or allowance, with retrospective effect, if he shall see fit, to such a date as he shall specify. 30 35

estate where an European officer dies in the service.

18. Where an European officer holding a pensionable office who is not on probation or agreement dies while in the service of Kenya, and during the five years preceding his death has continuously held pensionable office in Kenya or offices in other public service which were, when he held them, pensionable under the pensions regulations applicable to such service, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to grant to his legal personal representative a gratuity of an amount not exceeding one year's pensionable emoluments. 40 45

Pensions, etc.,
to dependents
when an European officer is killed on duty.

19. (1) Where an European officer holding a pensionable office, who is not serving on probation or agreement, dies as the direct result of injuries received--

(a) in the actual discharge of his duty ; and

(b) without his own default ; and

(c) on account of circumstances specifically attributable to the nature of his duties, while in the service of Kenya, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, with the approval of the Secretary of State, to grant in addition to the grant, if any, made to his 50 legal personal representative in accordance with section 18 of this Ordinance—

- 5 (i) if the deceased officer leaves a widow, a pension to the widow, while unmarried and of good character, at a rate not exceeding ten-sixtieths of his pensionable emoluments at the date of the injury or £10 a year, whichever be the greater, and also a gratuity not exceeding £1 multiplied by the total number of their years, starting from their ages at the time of their father's death and ending with 15 years, to each child alive at the date of the father's death, and a gratuity not exceeding £15 to any posthumous child :

Provided that the gratuities so granted shall not in the aggregate be less than £10 nor more than £60 ;

- 20 (ii) if the officer's wife predeceases him or if no pension is granted to her under the preceding subsection, and he leaves children who would have been eligible for gratuity if a pension had been granted to the widow, gratuities of twice the amount of the gratuities for which they would have been eligible in such circumstances ;

- 30 (iii) if the deceased officer does not leave a widow, and if his mother was wholly or mainly dependent on him for her support, a pension to the mother, while of good character and without adequate means of support, at a rate not exceeding the rate of the pension which might have been granted to his widow :

Provided that—

- 35 (a) if the mother is a widow at the time of the grant of the pension and subsequently remarries, such pension shall cease as from the date of remarriage ; and
- 40 (b) if the mother is not a widow and it appears that the deceased's father is in a position to support her, such pension shall cease from such date as the Secretary of State may determine.

- 45 (2) When an European officer who is not qualified for either pension or gratuity dies in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, with the approval of the Secretary of State, to grant the pension or gratuities which might have been granted if his case had fallen under subsection (1), but no grant shall be made under section 18 of this Ordinance.

- 50 20. The provisions of this Ordinance shall apply to all European officers in the service of Kenya at or after the commencement of the Ordinance, and to all those who, having served in Kenya, have before the commencement of the Ordinance been transferred to other public service and are still in other public service at the commencement of this Ordinance :

- 55 Provided that if the Governor in Council is satisfied that any European officer to whom the provisions of this Ordinance apply has received an undertaking that he will be regarded as eligible for pension or gratuity under conditions more favourable to him than those prescribed by this Ordinance, the Governor in Council may direct that his pension or gratuity shall be computed with due regard to such undertaking.

SCHEDULE.

REGULATIONS FOR THE GRANTING OF PENSIONS, GRATUITIES AND OTHER ALLOWANCES TO EUROPEAN OFFICERS.

PART I.

Pensions to whom and at what rates to be granted.

1. Subject to the provisions of the European Officers' Pensions Ordinance, 1927, hereinafter called "the Ordinance," and of these regulations, every European officer holding a pensionable office in Kenya, who has been in the service of Kenya in a civil capacity for ten years or upwards, may be granted a pension at the rate of one four hundred and eightieth of his pensionable emoluments for each complete month of pensionable service, subject to the limit described in section 10 of the Ordinance.

Gratuities
where length of service does not qualify for pension.

2. Every European officer, otherwise qualified for a pension, who has not completed the minimum period of service qualifying for a pension, may be granted on retirement a gratuity not exceeding five times the annual amount of the pension which if there had been no qualifying period might have been granted to him under regulation 1.

Period of service in Kenya
qualifying for pension or
defined.

3. Subject to the provisions of section 6 of the Ordinance and of these regulations, service qualifying for pension or gratuity, as the case may be, shall be the inclusive period between the date on which an European officer begins to draw salary or half salary from Kenya funds and the date of his leaving the service of Kenya, without deduction of any period during which he has been absent on leave.

Service to be unbroken.

4. Service in respect of which pension or gratuity may be granted must be unbroken except in cases where the service has been interrupted by abolition of office or other temporary suspension of employment not arising from misconduct or voluntary resignation.

Computation of pensions and
gratuities.

5. For the purpose of computing the amount of an European officer's pension or gratuity the following periods shall be taken into account as pensionable service :—

- (a) Any periods during which he has been on duty;
- (b) Any period during which he received half salary from Kenya funds while proceeding to Kenya on first appointment;
- (c) Any periods during which he has been absent from duty on leave with full or half salary;
- (d) Any periods during which he has been absent from duty on leave without salary, granted on grounds of public policy with the approval of the Secretary of State, and during which he has not qualified for pension or gratuity in respect of other public service;

And any periods during which he has been absent on leave, other than those specified above, shall be deducted from the European officer's total service in order to arrive at his period of pensionable service.

Computation of pensions and
gratuities.
Service on the Active List of the Army, Navy
or Air Force.

6. For the purpose of computing the amount of the pension or gratuity of an European officer who, during some period of his service in a pensionable office in Kenya, has been on the active list of the Navy, Army, or of the Royal Air Force, the whole or any part of such period during which no pension contributions have been paid by Kenya, or, if paid, have been refunded, may be taken into account.

7. (1) For the purpose of computing the amount of an European officer's pension or gratuity—

Computation of pensions, etc., on what emoluments to be based.

- (a) in the case of an officer who has held one office for a period of three years immediately preceding the date of his retirement, the full pensionable emoluments payable to him at that date in respect of that office shall be taken ;
- (b) in the case of an officer who at any time during such period of three years has been transferred from one office to another, but whose pensionable emoluments have not been changed by reason of such transfer or transfers, the full pensionable emoluments payable to him at the date of his retirement in respect of the office then held by him shall be taken ;
- (c) in other cases the average of the full pensionable emoluments payable in respect of each of the offices substantively held by the European officer during his tenure thereof within such period of three years shall be taken :

Provided that if such average is less than the full pensionable emoluments which were payable to him at the date of the first transfer within such period of three years, the Governor in Council may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, grant him a pension calculated upon the full pensionable emoluments payable to him at that date.

(2) The estimated value of free quarters shall be taken as fifteen per centum of the initial salary of the officer's appointment, or of the actual salary if such salary is non-incremental :

Provided that—

- (a) the point in any scale of salary at which an efficiency bar occurs shall for this purpose be regarded as the initial salary of the appointment in the case of any officer who has passed such efficiency bar ;
- (b) the estimated value of free quarters shall not be reckoned as less than £50 per annum, nor, in the case of officers appointed to the service of Kenya after the commencement of the Ordinance, as more than £150 per annum.

8. Only service in a pensionable office shall be taken into account as pensionable service :

Non-pensionable service followed by pensionable service.

Provided that where an unbroken period of service in a civil capacity in an appointment other than a pensionable office is immediately followed by service in a pensionable office in one of the East African Dependencies, such period or any part of such period may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, be so taken into account.

9. Where an European officer has performed acting service in a pensionable office in Kenya, the period of such service may be taken into account as pensionable service :

Acting service.

Provided that—

- (1) the period of such acting service was not part of the pensionable service of the previous holder of the office and does not fall to be reckoned as part of the European officer's own pensionable service in other public service ;
- (2) this period of service is immediately preceded or followed by service in a substantive capacity in a pensionable office in Kenya.

Abolition or reorganisation of office.

10. If an European officer holding a pensionable office retire or be removed from the service in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organisation of the department to which he belongs, by which greater efficiency and economy can be effected, he may be granted a pension calculated in accordance with regulation 1 :

Provided, however, that if he has been in the service of Kenya for less than the qualifying period of ten years, he may be granted a pension calculated in accordance with that regulation as if there had been no qualifying period :

And provided also that the grant of such pension shall be subject to the condition that he shall be liable to be recalled to service in Kenya :

Provided further that if such an European officer is not qualified for other employment in the public service, and if there is no reason, in the opinion of the Governor, to expect that he can be shortly re-employed, a pension may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, be granted to him free from the above-mentioned condition.

European officers retiring on account of injuries.

11. (1) Where an European officer has been permanently injured—

- (a) in the actual discharge of his duty ; and
- (b) without his own default ; and
- (c) by some injury specifically attributable to the nature of his duty, and his retirement is thereby necessitated or materially accelerated, he may, if he is qualified for a pension under regulation 1, be granted, in addition to the pension granted to him under that regulation, an additional pension at the rate of the proportion of his actual pensionable emoluments at the date of his injury appropriate to his case as shown in the following table :—

When his capacity to contribute to his own support is—slightly impaired :	five-sixtieths.

impaired :	ten-sixtieths.
materially impaired :	fifteen-sixtieths.
totally destroyed :	twenty-sixtieths.

Provided that the amount of the additional pension shall, subject to the approval of the Secretary of State, be reduced to such an extent as the Governor shall think reasonable in the following cases :—

- (a) Where the injured European officer has continued to serve for not less than one year after the injury in respect of which he retires ;
- (b) Where the injured European officer is at the date of injury within ten years of the age at which he may be required to retire ; or
- (c) Where the injury is not the sole cause of retirement, but the retirement is caused partly by age or infirmity not due to the injury :

Provided also that the total amount of the additional pension shall not exceed the amount prescribed in section 10 (4) of the Ordinance.

(2) An European officer so injured, whose length of service is not such as to qualify him for a pension under regulation 1, but who is qualified for a gratuity under regulation 2, may nevertheless be granted in lieu of such gratuity a pension at the rate of one four hundred and eightieth part of his pensionable emoluments for each complete month of pensionable service together with such additional pension as might be awarded to him under the preceding part of this regulation if he were qualified for pension.

Pensions to injured European officers where service less than ten years.

(3) An European officer so injured who is not qualified for either a pension under regulation 1 or a gratuity under regulation 2 may nevertheless be granted a pension of the same amount as the additional pension which he might have been granted if he had been so qualified.

12. If any European officer to whom a pension has been granted under this Ordinance is appointed to another office in the service of Kenya, and subsequently retires in circumstances in which he may be granted a pension, he may be granted in lieu of his previous pension a pension computed as if the periods of his service had been continuous, and such pension may be based on his pensionable emoluments on his previous or final retirement from the service of Kenya, whichever may be the greater :

Computation of pensions. Re-employed pensioners.

Provided that if on his previous retirement he was paid a gratuity and reduced pension, the gratuity to be paid to him on final retirement shall be reduced by the amount of the gratuity already paid.

13. (1) In special cases an European officer holding a non-pensionable office may—

Gratuities to European officers who have served in a non-pensionable office.

(a) if he has served the Government for not less than seven years and is removed in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organisation of the department to which he belongs, by which greater efficiency and economy can be effected; or

(b) if he has served for not less than fifteen years and he retires in any of the cases set out in section 7 of the Ordinance, he be granted a compassionate gratuity not exceeding one pound or one week's pay, whichever is the greater, for each year of his service.

(2) Where an European officer has been transferred from a pensionable to a non-pensionable office and subsequently retires either from a pensionable or a non-pensionable office in circumstances in which he might have been granted a pension if he had continuously held a pensionable office, he may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, be allowed to count his service in the non-pensionable office as though it were service in the pensionable office which he held immediately prior to such transfer, and at the pensionable emoluments which were payable to him at the date of transfer.

European officers transferred from pensionable to non-pensionable office.

14. (1) Any European officer to whom a pension is granted under the Ordinance may, at his option exercisable as herein-after provided, be paid in lieu of such pension a pension at the rate of three-fourths of such pension together with a gratuity equal to ten times the amount of the reduction so made in the pension.

Gratuity and reduced pension.

(2) The option referred to in subsection (1) shall be exercisable—

- (a) in the case of an European officer who, if he had been retired on grounds of ill-health at the date of the publication of this regulation in the Gazette, might have been granted a pension under the Ordinance; not later than six months after the said date of publication;
- (b) in the case of any other European officer; not later than one month after the earliest date on which, if retired on grounds of ill-health, he might be awarded a pension under the Ordinance, or within six months of the publication of this regulation in the Gazette, whichever shall be the later date for exercising the option :

Provided always—

- (i) that an European officer who has previously had the opportunity of exercising the option but has not done so may apply within one month of his subsequent marriage for permission to exercise the option, which permission may be granted at the Governor's discretion after examination of the officer by a Government Medical Board ;
- (ii) that the date of the exercise of the option shall be deemed to be the date of the receipt of his written notification addressed either to the Colonial Secretary in Kenya or to the Crown Agents for the Colonies ; and
- (iii) that if an European officer has exercised the option his decision shall be irrevocable so far as concerns any pension ultimately to be granted to him under the Ordinance.

PART II.

Special Regulations for European Officers with other Public Service.

Definitions.

15. For the purpose of these regulations—

“Scheduled Government” means any Government or Service included in the Schedule to these regulations;

“Service in the Group” means service under the Government of Kenya and under a Scheduled Government or Governments.

Application of Regulations in Part I.

16. Subject to the succeeding regulations, the provisions of regulations 8, 12, 13 and 14 shall apply to the case of an European officer who has been transferred to or from the service of Kenya from or to other public service, and the provisions of regulations 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 9 shall apply to the case of an European officer so transferred as if his whole service had been in Kenya :

Provided that in the application of regulation 14 to cases falling under the limitation of section 10 (2) of the Ordinance the words “such pension” in that regulation shall mean the amount of pension which he might have drawn from the funds of Kenya if he had not elected for a gratuity and reduced pension.

17. (1) Where the other public service of an European officer has been wholly under one or more of the Scheduled Governments and he has held a pensionable office in Kenya for a period of at least twelve months, and his aggregate service would have qualified him had it been wholly in Kenya for a pension under the Ordinance, he may, on his ultimate retirement from the public service in circumstances in which he is permitted by the law or regulations of the service in which he is last employed to retire on pension or gratuity, be granted a pension from Kenya of such an amount as shall bear the same proportion to the amount of pension for which he would have been eligible had his service been wholly in Kenya, as the aggregate amount of his pensionable emoluments during his service in Kenya shall bear to the total amount made up of such aggregate amount together with the aggregate amount of his pensionable emoluments from any of the Scheduled Governments:

Pension for service wholly within the group.

Provided that in determining the pension for which he would have been eligible if his service had been wholly in Kenya—

- (a) the final pensionable emoluments taken shall be those of his last period of service in the group;
- (b) no regard shall be had to regulation 11;
- (c) regard shall be had to the condition that pension may not exceed two-thirds of the final pensionable emoluments:

Provided further that any period of other public service in respect of which pension is not granted by the Scheduled Government concerned shall not be taken into account either in determining the amount of the pension for which he would have been eligible if his service had been entirely in Kenya or in calculating the aggregate amount of his pensionable emoluments.

(2) The aggregate amount of his pensionable emoluments shall be taken as the total amount of salary which the European officer would have drawn, and the total amount of the other pensionable emoluments, including any allowance authorised for an officer who is not provided with free quarters, which he would have enjoyed had he been on duty on full pay in his substantive office or offices throughout his period of service under each of the Scheduled Governments concerned.

18. Where the other public service of an European officer has not included service under any of the Scheduled Governments, and he has held a pensionable office in Kenya for a period of at least twelve months, and his aggregate service would have qualified him, had it been wholly in Kenya, for a pension under these regulations, he may, on his ultimate retirement from the public service in circumstances in which he is permitted by the law or regulations of the service in which he is last employed to retire on a pension or gratuity, be granted in respect of his service in Kenya a pension at the rate of one four hundred and eightieth part of the amount of his pensionable emoluments at the date of his transfer or retirement, as the case may be, from the service of Kenya for each month of his pensionable service in Kenya.

Pension where other service not within the group.

Pension when other service both within and not within the up.

19. Where a part only of the other public service of an European officer has been under one or more of the Scheduled Governments, the provisions of regulation 17 shall apply; but in calculating the amount of pension, regard shall be had only to service in the group.

Additional pension to European officers retiring on account of injury.

20. Where an European officer who has been transferred from other public service, and whose aggregate service would have qualified him, had it been wholly in Kenya, for a pension under these regulations, is compulsorily retired from the public service in the circumstances mentioned in regulation 11, he may, if at the time he is in the service of Kenya, be granted from the funds of Kenya the additional pension allowed by that regulation, in addition to the pension granted under regulation 17, 18 or 19, as the case may be.

Pension in respect of injury after less than twelve months' service in Kenya.

21. Where by reason of the fact that an European officer whose case falls under regulation 20 has held a pensionable office in Kenya for less than twelve months, he is not eligible for a pension under regulation 17, 18 or 19, as the case may be, he may, nevertheless, if at the time of his retirement he is in the service of Kenya, be granted from the funds of Kenya a pension of the same amount as the additional pension allowed by regulation 20.

Gratuities where length of service does not qualify for pension.

22. (1) Where an European officer who has been transferred to or from the service of Kenya from or to other public service, retires from the public service in circumstances in which he is permitted by the law or regulations of the service in which he is last employed to retire on pension or gratuity, but has not completed in the aggregate the minimum period of ten years' service qualifying him for a pension, he may be granted from the funds of Kenya a gratuity not exceeding five times the annual amount of the pension which, if there had been no qualifying period, might have been granted to him under regulation 17, 18 or 19, as the case may be.

Injury.

(2) Where such an European officer is compulsorily retired from the public service in the circumstances mentioned in regulation 11, he may, if at the time he is in the service of Kenya, be treated as if he had no other public service, but he shall not be granted, in addition, the gratuity for which he is eligible under subsection (1) of this regulation.

European officers transferred to other public service and retiring after less than twelve months' employment in last service.

23. Where an European officer who is transferred to other public service is not granted a pension or gratuity in respect of his employment in the service in which he is last employed, solely by reason of the fact that he has not completed twelve months' service therein, he shall not on that account be disqualified from receiving a pension or gratuity from the funds of Kenya, if otherwise eligible therefor.

SCHEDULE.

(Regulation 15.)

Uganda Protectorate.

Nyasaland Protectorate.

Zanzibar Protectorate.

Somaliland Protectorate.

Tanganyika Territory.

Kenya and Uganda Railway.

(Note.—The Secretary of State is at present considering the question as to what other Governments should be included in this Schedule. A complete Schedule will be published at a later date.)

OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of this Bill is to make provision for regulating the pensions, gratuities and other allowances to be granted in respect of the service of European officers in Kenya. At present this matter is governed by the Imperial Superannuation Acts dealing with superannuation allowances to be granted to civil servants.

The present Bill, including the Regulations, is based on a Model Ordinance which has been prepared under the direction of the Secretary of State after exhaustive enquiry in England by a Committee on Pensions and Passage Expenses of Colonial Officers. It is understood that all Dependencies both in East Africa and elsewhere have been instructed to introduce similar measures so as to secure uniformity in Colonial Pension laws.

The main points on which the Bill differs from the Superannuation Acts as at present applied in East Africa are as follows :—

- (1) Computation of pension on the basis of service calculated in months instead of years.

Under the existing law an officer's pension is calculated at the rate of one fortieth of his pensionable emoluments for each complete year of pensionable service. It is now proposed to calculate pensions at the rate of one four hundred and eightieth of an officer's pensionable emoluments for each month of pensionable service. (Vide Regulation 1).

- (2) Provision for gratuity and reduced pension at the option of the officer.

Officers are given the right to elect to take, in lieu of the full pension to which they are entitled, a reduced pension at the rate of three-fourths of such pension together with a gratuity equal to ten times the amount of the reduction so made in the pension. (Vide Regulation 14). This option has to be exercised not later than six months after the date of the publication of the Regulations in the Gazette. It is provided, however, that an officer who has had an opportunity of exercising the option but has not done so may, with the permission of the Governor and after examination by a Government Medical Board, exercise the option within one month of his subsequent marriage.

An option once exercised is declared to be irrevocable.

- (3) Provision for gratuity in the case of an officer who dies in the service.

The Governor in Council is empowered to grant a gratuity of an amount not exceeding one year's pensionable emoluments to the legal personal representative of an officer who dies while holding a pensionable office in Kenya and who during the five years preceding his death held continuously pensionable offices in Kenya or elsewhere (Vide Clause 18).

(4) Calculation or apportionment of pensions in cases of service in more than one Colony.

Reciprocal arrangements providing for the grant of pension based on an officer's final pensionable emoluments already exist as between the following East African Dependencies, namely, Kenya, Uganda, Nyasaland, Somaliland, Zanzibar and Tanganyika. It is now proposed to extend those arrangements to such other Colonies or Protectorates as may be included in the Schedule to the Regulations. The Secretary of State is at present considering the question as to what other Governments should be scheduled, and a complete Schedule will be published at a later date. The provisions relating to "mixed service" appear in Part II of the Regulations.

It will be noted that the definition of "service of Kenya" in Clause 2 of the Bill excludes officers serving under the High Commissioner for Transport. The reason for this exclusion is that since the issue of the Kenya and Uganda (Transport) Order in Council the High Commissioner and not the Governor in Council is the proper authority to make regulations regarding the pensions and gratuities of officers serving on the Kenya and Uganda Railway. It is anticipated that the High Commissioner will in due course make regulations on the lines of the proposed Ordinance, and, accordingly, the Kenya and Uganda Railway is included in the list of "scheduled Governments" referred to above.

By the direction of the Secretary of State provision is made to the effect that the Ordinance shall come into operation as from the first day of April, 1927.

The 20th day of November, 1926.

Present,

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS PRINCE HENRY.

EARL OF SEFTON.

HON. WILLIAM WATSON.

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870(a) to 1906,(b) it was amongst other things enacted that, where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that His Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of His Majesty's Dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions and qualifications as may be deemed expedient;

AND WHEREAS a Treaty was concluded on the 11th day of November, 1924, between His Majesty and the President of the Czechoslovak Republic for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India;

And the President of the Czechoslovak Republic—

Dr. Emil Spira, Head of Department in the Ministry of Justice;

Who, after having exhibited to each other their respective full powers, and found them in good and due form, have agreed upon the following articles:—

ARTICLE 1.

The High Contracting Parties engage to deliver up to each other, under certain circumstances and conditions stated in the present treaty, those persons who, being charged with or convicted of any of the crimes or offences enumerated in article 2, committed within the jurisdiction of the one Party, shall be found within the territory of the other Party.

ARTICLE 2.

Extradition shall be reciprocally granted for the following crimes or offences, provided that such crimes or offences be indictable and be punishable in accordance with the laws of that part of the territories of the High Contracting Parties in which the person claimed is found :—

1. Murder (including assassination, parricide, infanticide, poisoning) and attempt to murder.
2. Manslaughter.
3. Administering drugs or using instruments with intent to procure the miscarriage of women.
4. Rape.
5. Carnal knowledge, or any attempt to have carnal knowledge, of a girl under 14 years of age.

22. Malicious injury to property.

23. Dealing in slaves.

Extradition shall also be reciprocally granted for piracy and other crimes or offences committed anywhere at sea which, according to the laws of the High Contracting Parties, are extradition crimes or offences.

Extradition is also to be granted for participation in any of the aforesaid crimes or offences, provided that such participation be punishable by the laws of both Contracting Parties.

Extradition may also be granted at the discretion of the State applied to in respect of any other crime or offence for which according to the law of both the Contracting Parties, the grant can be made.

ARTICLE 3.

Each Party reserves the right to refuse or grant the surrender of its own subjects to the other Party.

ARTICLE 4.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed has already been tried and discharged or convicted, or is still awaiting trial in the State applied to, for the crime or offence for which his extradition is demanded.

If the person claimed should be under examination or under punishment in the State applied to for any other crime or offence, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial or, in case of his conviction, until the full execution of any punishment imposed on him.

ARTICLE 5.

The extradition shall not take place if, subsequently to the commission of the crime or offence or the institution of the prosecution or the conviction thereon, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of either State.

ARTICLE 6.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the crime or offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he proves that the requisition for his surrender has been made with a view to try or punish him for a crime or offence of a political character.

The State applied to or the courts of that State shall decide whether the crime or offence is of a political character or not.

ARTICLE 7.

A person surrendered can in no case be kept in custody or be brought to trial in the State to which the surrender has been made for any other crime or offence or on account of any other matters than those for which the extradition shall have taken place until he has been set at liberty and has had an opportunity of returning to the State by which he has been surrendered.

This stipulation does not apply to crimes or offences committed after the extradition.

ARTICLE 8.

The requisition for extradition shall be made through the diplomatic agents of the High Contracting Parties.

The requisition for the extradition of a person charged must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest or other judicial document of like nature issued by the competent authority of the State demanding the extradition, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the person charged is found, would justify his arrest if the crime or offence had been committed there.

If the claim for extradition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by the sentence of condemnation passed on him by the competent court of the State that makes the claim.

A person sentenced in contumaciam shall not be dealt with as a convicted person, but as a person charged.

The documents forwarded in support of the requisition shall be drawn up in the State (official) language of the State making it.

ARTICLE 9.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

ARTICLE 10.

A criminal fugitive may also be arrested before the requisition for his surrender is made, under a warrant or other judicial document of like nature issued by a competent judicial authority in either State, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings, as would justify the issue of a warrant or other judicial document of like nature if the crime or offence had been committed or the person convicted in that part of the territory of the two Contracting Parties in which the competent judicial authority exercises jurisdiction.

Notice of the date of his arrest shall be given forthwith to the diplomatic agent of the party claiming extradition.

The person arrested shall be discharged, in so far as the laws of the State where he has been arrested do not oppose, if within the term of forty days from his arrest a requisition for extradition shall not have been made, in accordance with the stipulations of this treaty, by the diplomatic agent of the State claiming his extradition.

The same rule shall apply to persons charged with or convicted of any of the crimes or offences specified in this treaty, and committed on the high seas on board any vessel of either State which may come into a port of the other.

ARTICLE 11.

The extradition shall take place only if the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to, either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime or offence had been committed in the territory of the same State, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the courts of the State which makes the requisition, and that the crime or offence of which he has been convicted is one for which extradition may be granted under this treaty.

ARTICLE 12.

Warrants, depositions and all other documents and copies thereof shall be accepted as evidence in support of a claim for extradition if they are signed or certified by a competent authority and are authenticated in the United Kingdom by the seal of a Secretary of State, and in the Czechoslovak Republic by the seal of the Minister of Justice.

ARTICLE 13.

If the individual claimed by one of the High Contracting Parties in pursuance of the present treaty should be also claimed by one or several other Powers on account of other crimes or offences committed within their respective jurisdictions, his extradition shall be granted to the State whose claim is earliest in date, unless such claim is waived.

This article shall not affect such treaties as have already previously been concluded by one of the Contracting Parties with other States.

ARTICLE 14.

If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the arrest of the fugitive, or within such further time as the State applied to, or its competent tribunal, shall direct, the fugitive shall be set at liberty in so far as the laws of the State where the person claimed has been arrested do not oppose.

ARTICLE 15.

All articles seized which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his arrest, and any articles that may serve as a proof of the crime or offence, shall be given up, if possible when the extradition takes place.

The State to whom extradition is granted shall nevertheless return any article so given up for a temporary purpose if the State granting extradition shall so require.

The above stipulations are subject to the rights of third persons and are applicable only so far as the law of the State concerned permits.

ARTICLE 16.

Each of the High Contracting Parties shall defray the expenses occasioned by the arrest within its territories, the detention and the conveyance to its frontier, of the persons whom it may have consented to surrender in pursuance of the present treaty.

The cost of supplying translations of the documents forwarded in support of the requisition under articles 8 and 12 shall be defrayed by the party claiming the extradition.

ARTICLE 17.

The stipulations of the present treaty shall be applicable, so far as the laws permit, to all His Britannic Majesty's Dominions, except to the self-governing Dominions hereinafter named—that is to say, the Dominion of Canada, the Commonwealth of Australia (including for this purpose Papua and Norfolk Island), the Dominion of New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, the Irish Free State, and Newfoundland—and India, provided always that the said stipulations shall be applicable to any of the above-named Dominions or India in respect of which notice to that effect shall have been given on behalf of the Government of such Dominion or India by His Britannic Majesty's Representative in the Czechoslovak Republic, and provided also that it shall be competent for either of the Contracting Parties to terminate separately the application of this treaty to any of the above-named Dominions or India by a notice to that effect not exceeding one year and not less than six months.

ARTICLE 18.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal, who has taken refuge in any of His Britannic Majesty's self-governing Dominions, Colonies, or Possessions to which this treaty applies, shall be made to the Governor-General, Governor, or chief authority of such self-governing Dominion, Colony or Possession by the chief consular officer of the Czechoslovak Republic in such self-governing Dominion, Colony or Possession.

Such requisition may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, and so far as the law of such self-governing Dominion, Colony or Possession will allow, to the provisions of this treaty, by the said Governor-General, Governor, or chief authority, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender or to refer the matter to His Britannic Majesty's Government.

Requisitions for the surrender of a fugitive criminal emanating from any self-governing Dominion, Colony, or Possession of His Britannic Majesty shall be governed, as far as possible, by the rules laid down in the preceding articles of the present treaty.

ARTICLE 19.

It is understood that the stipulations of the two preceding articles apply in the same manner as if they were possessions of His Britannic Majesty, to the following Protectorates, that is to say, the Bechuanaland Protectorate, Gambia Protectorate, Kenya Protectorate, Nigeria Protectorate, Northern Rhodesia, Northern Territories of the Gold Coast, Nyasaland, Sierra Leone Protectorate, Solomon Islands Protectorate, Somaliland Protectorate, Swaziland, Uganda Protectorate, and Zanzibar.

It is also understood that if, after the signature of the present treaty, it is considered advisable to extend its provisions to any British protectorates other than those mentioned above, or to any British-protected State, or to any territory in respect of which a mandate on behalf of the League of Nations has been accepted by His Britannic Majesty, the stipulations of the two preceding articles shall be deemed to apply to such protectorates or States or mandated territories from the date prescribed in the notes to be exchanged for the purpose of effecting such extension.

It is further understood that the provisions of the present treaty which apply to British subjects shall be deemed also to apply to natives of any British protectorate or protected State or mandated territory to which the stipulations of the two preceding articles apply or shall hereafter apply.

ARTICLE 20.

The present treaty, of which the English and Czechoslovak texts are equally authentic, shall come into force forty days after the date on which ratifications are exchanged. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties by a notice not exceeding one year and not less than six months.

It shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London as soon as possible.
