28 No speech shall exceed ten minutes in length without the consent of the Board

29 The Chairman of the Board shall call the attention of the Board to continued irrelevance, tedious repetition, unbecoming language, or any breach of order on the part of a member, and shall direct such member, if speaking, to discontinue his speech, or in the event of persistent disregard of the authority of the chair, to retire for the remainder of the sitting

30 The Board may suspend and exclude any member or members who may disregard the authority of the chair, or who may wilfully obstruct the business of the Board, provided that no such suspension and exclusion shall be for a period of more than six weeks

31 No member shall address the Board more than once on any motion or amendment, the mover of the original motion may, however, reply, but he shall strictly confine himself to answering previous speakers, and shall not introduce any new matter into the debate. The right of reply shall not extend to the mover of an amendment which having been carried, has become the substantive motion.

32 Any member, whether he has spoken on the matter under discussion or not, may rise to a point of order, or in explanation, but such explanation shall be confined to some material part of his former speech which may have been misunderstood. A member so rising shall be entitled to be heard forthwith.

33 A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Board which shall be signified without debate, and it shall not be competent for any member to speak upon it after the mover has asked permission for its withdrawal, unless such permission shall have been refused.

34 The ruling of the Chairman of the Board on a point of order or on the admissibility of a personal explanation shall be final, and shall not be open to discussion.

38 Every amendment shall be read before being moved.

39 No amendment shall be discussed or put to the Board until it shall have been seconded.

40 A member shall not address the Board more than once on an amendment. The right of reply shall not extend to the mover of an amendment which, having been carried, has become a substantive motion. A member who has seconded an amendment in a formal manner shall be permitted afterwards to speak upon it.

41 Whenever an amendment upon an original motion has been moved and seconded, no second or subsequent amendment shall be moved until the first amendment shall have been disposed of. If an amendment be carried, the motion as amended shall take the place of the original motion, and shall become the question upon which any further amendment may be moved.

42 No member shall be at liberty to move more than one amendment upon any motion.

43 An amendment may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Board, which shall be signified without debate, and it shall not be competent for any member to speak upon it after the mover has asked permission for its withdrawal unless such permission shall have been refused

44 Any motion affecting the drafting or amendment of by-laws or legislation (except in the case of verbal amendments accepted by the Chairman of the Committee concerned) shall, before the Board finally vote thereon, be referred to the Committee within whose reference the matter lies, and such Committee shall report to the Board the general effect of such motion, if passed, upon existing by-laws or legislation. The motion shall then be considered by the Board together with any recommendations the Committee may see fit to make

That the Consideration of the Question be postponed

45 Any member of the Board may, at the conclusion of any speech, move that the consideration of the question be postponed to any stated period, or sine die. Such motion must be seconded, but it need not be reduced to writing. The mover may speak for not more than five minutes, but the seconder shall not be permitted to speak beyond formally seconding it. Upon such a motion being made, the mover of the question under debate may (without prejudice to his ultimate right of reply if the motion that the question be postponed be not carried) be heard in reply for five minutes, after which the question shall be put without further debate

46 If the postponement to a stated period be carried, the motion shall be placed first on the list of motions for the day to which it has been postponed

47 The motion may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Board signified without debate

That the Board do now Adjourn

48 Any member of the Board may, at the conclusion of any speech, move that the Board do now adjourn. Such a motion must be seconded, but it need not be reduced to writing. The mover may speak for not more than five minutes, but the seconder shall not be permitted to speak beyond formally seconding it. Upon such a motion being made, the mover of the question under debate may (without prejudice to his ultimate right of reply if the motion to adjourn be not carried) be heard in reply for five minutes, after which the question shall be put without further debate. If the motion be carried, the question under debate shall become a dropped motion

49 A second motion that the Board do now adjourn shall not be made within half an hour, unless in the opinion of the Chairman of the Board the circumstances of the question are materially altered

50 No member shall move or second more than one motion for the adjournment of the Board at one sitting

51 On a motion for the adjournment of the Board, it shall be competent for the Chairman of the Board, before putting that motion, to take the pleasure of the Board as to whether it will proceed to the transaction of unopposed business before adjourning. The motion to adjourn may be withdrawn by the mover with the consent of the Board signified without debate

That the Debate be Adjourned

52 Any member of the Board may, at the conclusion of any speech move that the debate be adjourned. Such a motion must be seconded, but it need not be reduced to writing. The mover may speak for not more than five minutes, but the seconder shall not be permitted to speak beyond formally seconding it. Upon such a motion being made, the mover of the question under debate may (without prejudice to his ultimate right of reply if the motion that the debate be adjourned be not carried) be heard in reply for five minutes, after which the question shall be put without further debate.

53 If the motion that the debate be adjourned be carried, the discussion shall be resumed at the next meeting of the Board and the Board shall proceed to the next business on the paper.

54 On resuming an adjourned debate, the member who moved its adjournment shall be entitled to speak first.

55 A second motion that the debate be adjourned shall not be made within half an hour.

56 No member shall move or second more than one motion for adjournment of the same debate.

57 The motion may be withdrawn by the mover with the consent of the Board signified without debate.

That the Question be now Put

58 It shall be competent for any member at the close of any speech to move, without debate, that the question be now put, and the motion, if seconded, shall be put forthwith. Should the motion be carried, the motion or amendment under debate shall be at once put.

59 A second motion that the question be now put shall not be made within half an hour.

That the Board do proceed to the next Business

60 It shall be competent for any member at the close of any speech to move, without debate, that the Board do proceed to the next business, and, if the motion be seconded, it shall be put forthwith.

61 When a motion is carried that the Board do proceed to the next business, the question under discussion shall be considered as dropped.

62 A second motion that the Board do proceed to the next business shall not be made within half an hour.

63 The motion may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Board, signified without debate.

VOTING

64 Every motion, duly proposed and seconded, shall be submitted to the Board by the Chairman of the Board, who shall call upon the members in favour of the motion to say "Aye," and those against to say "No", and he shall thereupon declare what he collects to be the sense of the Board.

Provided it shall always be in the power of any member to challenge the declaration of the Chairman of the Board and to demand a division.

65 Previously to the Chairman taking the division, the question before the Board shall be put again by the Chairman of the Board, and every member then present (with the exception of the member occupying the chair, with whom it shall be optional whether he votes or not) shall record his vote either for or against the question. The Chairman of the Board shall take the vote of each member separately, and such votes shall be recorded in the minutes, and the motion shall be declared carried or lost according to the numbers voting for or against it.

66 No member shall vote in a division unless he shall have been present when the question was put the second time.

67 When the Town Clerk shall have recorded all the votes cast, the Chairman of the Board shall announce the result of the division.

68 Applications for an appointment to an office the value of which exceeds £300 per year shall be called for by advertisement, except in cases where the Committee concerned may recommend the promotion of a member of the permanent staff. When applications are called for by advertisement, the Committee making the preliminary selection is (unless otherwise ordered) to submit to the Board the names of not more than three candidates indicating at the same time, if it think fit, the candidate whom it recommends the Board to appoint. If the Board, instead of adopting the recommendation of the Committee, resolves to vote upon the three candidates submitted, the Chairman of the Board shall put to the Board the three names in alphabetical order each member of the Board being at liberty to vote for one or more as he thinks fit, and the name of the candidate who has received the fewest votes shall be struck out. The Chairman of the Board shall then put the names of the other two candidates, and having declared which of them has received the most votes, he shall finally put the question whether such candidate shall be appointed to the office. If a majority of the members present vote in his favour, he shall be declared to be appointed. If a majority of those present vote against him, the matter of the appointment shall be referred back to the Committee concerned.
