Colony and Protectorate of Kenya

GOVERNMENT NOTICE NO 258

His Excellency the Governor in Council has approved of the following Bill being introduced into the Legislative Council

H E BADER,
Acting Clerk of the Legislative Council

A Bill to Make Provision for the Adoption of Infants

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows —

1 This Ordinance may be cited as ‘ the Adoption of Short title Children Ordinance, 1933 ’

2 In this Ordinance “ the Court ” shall mean the Interpretation Supreme Court of Kenya

3 (1) Upon an application in the prescribed manner by any person desirous of being authorized to adopt an infant who has never been married, the Court may, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, make an order (in this Ordinance referred to as ‘ an adoption order ’) authorizing the applicant to adopt that infant Power to make adoption orders

(2) A person so authorized to adopt the infant and an infant authorized to be adopted are in this Ordinance referred to as an “ adopted ” and an “ adopted child ” respectively, and “ infant ” means a person under the age of twenty-one Adopter, adopted child defined

(3) Where an application for an adoption order is made by two spouses jointly, the Court may make the order authorizing the two spouses jointly to adopt, but save as aforesaid no adoption order shall be made authorizing more than one person to adopt an infant Joint adoption by spouses only

4 (1) An adoption order shall not be made in any case where— Restrictions on making adoption orders

- (a) the applicant is under the age of twenty-five years, or
- (b) the applicant is less than twenty-one years older than the infant in respect of whom the application is made

Provided that, where the applicant and the infant are within the prohibited degrees of consanguinity, it shall be lawful for the Court, if it thinks fit, to make the order notwithstanding that the applicant is less than twenty-one years older than the infant

Sole applicant male and infant female

(2) An adoption order shall not be made in any case where the sole applicant is a male and the infant in respect of whom the application is made is a female unless the Court is satisfied that there are special circumstances which justify as an exceptional measure the making of an adoption order

Consents
required

(3) An adoption order shall not be made except with the consent of every person or body who is a parent or guardian of the infant in respect of whom the application is made or who has the actual custody of the infant or who is liable to contribute to the support of the infant

Power of Court to dispense with consent

Provided that the Court may dispense with any consent required by this sub-section if satisfied that the person whose consent is to be dispensed with has abandoned or deserted the infant or cannot be found or is incapable of giving such consent or, being a person liable to contribute to the support of the infant, either has persistently neglected or refused to contribute to such support or is a person whose consent ought, in the opinion of the Court and in all the circumstances of the case, to be dispensed with

Application
by one of two spouses

(4) An adoption order shall not be made upon the application of one of two spouses without the consent of the other of them

not resident or domiciled in the Colony

(5) An adoption order shall not be made in favour of any applicant who is not resident and domiciled in the Colony or in respect of any infant who is not a British subject and so resident

5 The Court before making an adoption order shall be satisfied—

(a) that every person whose consent is necessary under this Ordinance and who consent is not dispensed with has consented to and understands the nature and effect of the adoption order for which application is made, and in particular in the case of any parent understands that the effect of the adoption order will be permanently to deprive him or her of his or her parental rights, and

Matters with respect to which Court to be satisfied
Consent

(b) that the order if made will be for the welfare of the infant due consideration being for this purpose given to the wishes of the infant, having regard to the age and understanding of the infant, and

Welfare of infant

(c) that the applicant has not received or agreed to receive, and that no person has made or given, agreed to make or give to the applicant, any payment or other reward in consideration of the adoption except such as the court may sanction

No consideration for adoption

6 The Court in an adoption order may impose such terms and conditions as the Court may think fit and in particular may require the adopted by bond or otherwise to make for the adopted child such provision (if any) as in the opinion of the Court is just and expedient

Terms and conditions of order

7 (1) Upon an adoption order being made, all rights, duties, obligations and liabilities of the parent or parents, guardian or guardians of the adopted child, in relation to the future custody, maintenance and education of the adopted child including all rights to appoint a guardian or to consent or give notice of dissent to marriage shall be extinguished, and all rights, duties obligations and liabilities shall vest in and be exercisable by and enforceable against the adopter as though the adopted child was a child born to the adopter in lawful wedlock, and in respect of the same matters and in respect of the liability of a child to maintain its parents the adopted child shall stand to the adopted exclusively in the position of a child born to the adopter in lawful wedlock

Effect of adoption order

Adopted child in position of lawful child of adopter

Provided that, in any case where two spouses are the adopters, such spouses shall, in respect of the matters aforesaid and for the purpose of the jurisdiction of any court to make orders as to the custody and maintenance of and right of access to children, stand to each other and to the adopted child in the same relation as they would have stood if they had been the lawful father and mother of the adopted child, and the adopted child shall stand to them respectively in the same relation as a child would have stood to a lawful father and mother respectively

order on proprietary rights

(2) An adoption order shall not deprive the adopted child of any right to or interest in property to which, but for the order, the child would have been entitled under any intestacy or disposition, whether occurring or made before or after the making of the adoption order, or confer on the adopted child any right to or interest in property as a child of the adopter, and the expressions "child", "children" and "issue" where used in any disposition whether made before or after the making of an adoption order, shall not, unless the contrary intention appears, include an adopted child or children or the issue of an adopted child

defined

(3) For the purposes of this section "disposition" means an assurance of any interest in property by any instrument whether inter vivos or by will including codicil

Power to make
orders

8 (1) Upon any application for an adoption order, the Court may postpone the determination of the application and may make an interim order (which shall not be an adoption order for the purposes of this Ordinance) giving the custody of the infant to the applicant for a period not exceeding two years by way of a probationary period upon such terms as regards provision for the maintenance and education and supervision of the welfare of the infant and otherwise as the Court may think fit

interim order

(2) All such consents as are required to an adoption shall be necessary to an interim order but subject to a like power on the part of the Court to dispense with any such consent

subsequent order in respect of infant already subject to an order

9 An adoption order or an interim order may be made in respect of an infant who has already been the subject of an adoption order, and, upon any application for such further adoption order, the adopter or adopters under the adoption order last previously made shall, if living, be deemed to be the parent or parents of the infant for all the purposes of this Ordinance

10 The Court may make Rules for directing the manner in which applications to the Court are to be made

Rules to be made by the Court

Such Rules may provide for application for adoption orders being heard and determined otherwise than in open Court

11 For the purpose of any application under this Ordinance and subject to any Rules made thereunder, the Court shall appoint some person or body to act as guardian ad litem of the infant upon the hearing of the application with the duty of safeguarding the interests of the infant before the Court and where the body so appointed is a local authority the Court may authorize the authority to incur any necessary expenditure, and may direct out of which fund or rate such expenditure is to be defrayed, but nothing in this section shall be deemed to authorize the Court to appoint a local authority to act as a guardian ad litem of an infant except with the consent of that authority

Appointment of guardian ad litem for purpose of applications under the Ordinance

12 It shall not be lawful for any adopter or for any parent or guardian except with the sanction of the Court to receive any payment or other reward in consideration of the adoption of any infant under this Ordinance or for any person to make or give or agree to make or give to any adopter or to any parent or guardian any such payment or reward

Restriction on payments

13 Where at the date of the commencement of this Ordinance any infant is in the custody of, and being brought up, maintained and educated by any person or two spouses jointly as his, her or their own child under any de facto adoption, and has for a period of not less than two years before such commencement been in such custody, and been so brought up, maintained and educated, the Court may, upon the application of such person or spouses, and notwithstanding that the applicant is a male and the infant a female, make an adoption order authorizing him, her or them to adopt the infant without requiring the consent of any parent or guardian of the infant to be obtained upon being satisfied that in all the circumstances of the case it is just and equitable and for the welfare of the infant that no such consent should be required and that an adoption order should be made

Provision as to existing de facto adoptions

14 (1) The Registrar shall establish and maintain a register to be called the Adopted Children Register, in which shall be made such entries as may be directed to be made therein by adoption orders but no other entries

Adopted Children Register

Direction in adoption order to Registrar
General

(2) Every adoption order shall contain a direction to the Registrar General to make in the Adopted Children Register an entry recording the adoption in the form set out in the Schedule hereto

(3) If upon any application for an adoption order there is proved to the satisfaction of the Court —

(a) the date of the birth of the infant, and

(b) the identity of the infant with a child to which any entry or entries in the Register of Births relates, the adoption order shall contain a further direction to the Registrar General to cause such birth, entry or entries in the Register of Births to be marked with the word "Adopted", and to include in the entry in the adoption register recording the adoption the date stated in the order of the adopted child's birth in the manner indicated in the Schedule hereto

to be communicated to Registrar
General

(4) The Court shall cause every adoption order to be communicated in the prescribed manner to the Registrar General, and upon receipt of such communication the Registrar General shall cause compliance to be made with the directions contained in such order in regard both to marking any entry in the Register of Births with the word "Adopted", and in regard to making the appropriate entry in the Adopted Children Register

Certified copy
of entry in register evidence of adoption

(5) A certified copy of any entry in the Adopted Children Register if purporting to be sealed or stamped with the seal of the Registrar General's Office shall without any further or other proof of such entry —

(a) where the entry does not contain any record of the date of the birth of the adopted child, be received as evidence of the adoption to which the same relates, and

of entry as
date of birth

(b) where the entry contains a record of the date of the birth of the adopted child, shall be received not only as evidence of the adoption to which the same relates but also as evidence of the date of the birth of the adopted child to which the same relates in all respects as though the same were a certified copy of an entry in the Register of Births

(6) The Registrar General shall cause an index of the Adopted Children Register to be made and kept in the Registrar General's Office, and every person shall be entitled to search such index and to have a certified copy of any entry in the Adopted Children Register upon payment of such fee as may be prescribed

(7) The Registrar General shall, in addition to the Adopted Children Register and the index thereof, keep such other registers and books, and make such entries therein as may be necessary to record and make traceable the connexion between any entry in the Register of Births which has been marked ' Adopted ' pursuant to this Ordinance and any corresponding entry in the Adopted Children Register, but such last mentioned registers and books shall not be, nor shall any index thereof be open to public inspection or search, nor except under an order of the Court shall the Registrar General furnish any person with any information contained in or with any copy or extract from any such registers or books

Registers and books to be kept and entries to be made by Registrar General

15. The Governor in Council may make regulations for any matter, save the matter to be prescribed by the Court under section 10, which is by this Ordinance required to be prescribed

Power of Governor in Council to make regulations
