(Note.—The words in italics were deleted by Ordinance No. 36 of 1932, but they are now to be revived—see Clause 3 of this Bill.)

3. The Chattels Transfer (Amendment) Ordinance, 1932, is hereby repealed, and the provisions of the Principal Ordinance repealed by the said amending Ordinance are hereby revived, and shall be deemed to have been of full force and effect as from the date of commencement of the Principal Ordinance: Provided that nothing in this section contained shall be deemed to invalidate or render void any mortgage or charge granted or created by a company incorporated or registered under the Companies Ordinance or the Companies Ordinance, 1933, and registered as a chattels mortgage prior to the commencement of this Ordinance.

Repeal of Ordinance
No. 36 of 1932
and revival of provisions repealed by that Ordinance.

Cap. 93.
No. 28 of 1933.

OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The provisions of the Registration of Titles (Amendment) Ordinance, 1933, made it clear that fixtures attached to land the subject of a charge under the Registration of Titles Ordinance will be available as security for the holder of such charge as if the transaction has been effected by a legal mortgage.

It is in consequence necessary to amend the Chattels Transfer Ordinance, 1930, to obviate the possibility of fixtures attached to land, which will now form part of a chargee's security, being also security for money advanced on chattels mortgage.

This is effected by Clause 2 of this Bill.

Clause 3 is necessitated by the fact that in 1932 an Ordinance was passed to provide for the creation of chattels mortgages by companies. That Ordinance was enacted because certain chattels mortgages granted by companies had been registered in error, but the fact was overlooked that other companies which, with a proper appreciation of the law, had registered such charges under section 109 of the Companies Ordinance might be adversely affected by their failure to register chattels mortgages as well.

Clause 3 provides that a company cannot grant or create a chattels mortgage, but at the same time preserves the validity of such chattels mortgages which have been accepted for registration.

No expenditure of public moneys will be involved if the provisions of this Bill become law.

Acting Clerk of the Legislative Council.

A Bill to Amend the Criminal Procedure Code.

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Criminal Procedure Code (Amendment) Ordinance, 1934, and shall be read as one with the Criminal Procedure Code, hereinafter referred to as the Principal Ordinance.

Short title.

No. 11 of 1930.

2. Section 11 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the addition at the end of sub-section (1) of the following proviso :—

Amendment of section 11 of the Principal Ordinance.

“Provided that where a sentence of corporal punishment is imposed by any subordinate court in addition to a sentence of imprisonment or detention such sentence shall be subject to the confirmation of the Supreme Court as is provided in this sub-section and no such sentence of corporal punishment shall be carried into effect until confirmed by the Supreme Court.”

3. Section 289 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby amended as follows :—

Amendment of section 289 of the Principal Ordinance.

(a) By the substitution of the following sub-section for sub-section (1) thereof :—

“(1) When the evidence of the witnesses for the prosecution has been concluded, and the statement or evidence on oath (if any) of the accused person before the committing court has been given in evidence, the court shall inform the accused person of his right to address the court, either personally or by his advocate (if any), to give evidence on his own behalf or to make an unsworn

(4) If the accused person, or any one of several accused persons, says that he means to give or adduce evidence, and the court considers that there is evidence that he committed the offence, the court shall call on the accused person to enter on his defence.

verbal statement and to call witnesses in his defence, and in all cases shall require him or his advocate (if any) to state whether it is intended to call any witnesses as to fact other than the accused person himself. Upon being informed thereof the judge shall record the same."

(b) By the substitution of the words:—

"If the accused person informs the court that he does not wish to exercise any of the rights mentioned in the last preceding sub-section" for the words—

"If he says that he does not"

which occur in the first line of sub-section (2) thereof.

OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to ensure that where a sentence of corporal punishment in addition to a sentence of imprisonment or a fine is imposed by any subordinate court such sentence shall be subject to the confirmation of the Supreme Court; and that no such sentence of corporal punishment shall be carried out until confirmed by the Supreme Court; and
- (b) to provide for the unsworn statement by an accused person at his trial before the Supreme Court. His Majesty's Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa has recently pointed out this defect and the question of amending the law has been considered to be of sufficient importance to justify a short Bill being introduced at an early date.

No expenditure of public moneys will be involved if the provisions of this Bill become law.

11. This Ordinance shall continue in force until the 31st day of December, 1938, and shall then expire provided that the Governor may by proclamation with the approval of the Legislative Council declare that this Ordinance shall remain in force until a date to be fixed in such proclamation.

OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This Bill provides for a levy on all sisal fibre produced in and exported from the Colony not exceeding ten cents per hundredweight or part thereof, the amount of such levy to be paid into a fund together with a grant-in-aid from the Government on a pound for pound basis.

The grant-in-aid is not to exceed £1,000 in respect of the first year and in any succeeding year to be determined, in respect of any sum payable in excess of £1,000, by the Governor in Council.

The fund is to be administered by a committee under the Chairmanship of the Director of Agriculture and is to be devoted to research in connexion with the sisal industry in accordance with the purposes set out in Clause 9 and in co-operation with the Tanganyika Territory where an Ordinance imposing an export tax on sisal for similar purposes was enacted in November, 1933.

The principles of the scheme provided for in the Bill were approved by the Agricultural Commission, 1929, and the Select Committee on the draft Estimates for 1930, recommended the introduction of legislation providing for the imposition of a levy, supplemented by a Government contribution. Financial difficulties then intervened and the scheme remained in abeyance until June, 1933, when it was revived jointly by the Kenya and Tanganyika Sisal Growers' Associations.

The provisions of the Bill are approved by the Kenya Sisal Growers' Association.

Clause 11 provides for expiry of the Ordinance on the 31st December, 1938, unless continued by proclamation with the approval of the Legislative Council.

Expenditure of public funds up to a maximum of £1,000 in 1934, and to a maximum of a sum equal to the proceeds of the levy in any succeeding year is entailed, if the provisions of the Bill become law.

OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The objects of this Bill are to remedy by amendments to the Principal Ordinance certain defects which have been disclosed in the working of the Ordinance since it came into operation last year.

The main features of the amendments are—

- (a) the fixing of the final date for the year 1934 as the 30th June, 1934, the final date being the last day upon which the tax can be paid without penalty;
- (b) the more exact definition of the classes of person who are taxpayers for the purposes of the Ordinance; this is effected by replacement of sections 2 (3) and 10 of the Principal Ordinance by clauses which are designed to clarify the position and to prevent, in the future, evasions of tax which the wording of the Principal Ordinance has hitherto made possible;
- (c) the introduction of various minor changes which practical experience has proved to be necessary for the efficient and equitable collection of the tax.

No expenditure of public moneys will be involved if the provisions of this Bill become law.

LOCUST REPORT, 25TH JANUARY, 1934.

The Red Locust.—The swarm near Vanga, reported last week, moved down to the coast and is proceeding in a generally northerly direction along the coast-line. Rice, maize, sugar cane, muhogo (cassava) and coco-nut plantations have suffered extensive damage, and the locusts have feasted in mangrove swamps.

A large swarm entered Kenya near Taveta on the 21st January, and was observed to be flying south-east and south. A swarm, which may be the same, is reported to-day flying over Bura, twenty miles west of Voi.

Locusts were reported at Kajiado on the 23rd January; the full extent of the swarm is not yet known; the general direction of flight was westerly.

It is essential to obtain the fullest information concerning these and other swarms and observers are requested to report immediately to the Department of Agriculture the size and direction of flight of any swarms seen.

The Migratory Locust.—The position remains unchanged. Investigation of the Subukia infestation has shown that the hopper bands are very scattered and show definite signs of change to the solitary phase. Apart from Nakuru district the Colony is clear of this species.
