OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The European Civil Service Provident Fund Ordinance, 1934, has not yet been brought into operation ; but in dealing with a similar measure for the Asian Civil Service certain anomalies in the Ordinance have been disclosed, and this Bill is designed to remove those anomalies and to effect certain verbal amendments to the Principal Ordinance.

It is not anticipated that any additional expenditure of public moneys will be involved if the provisions of this Bill become law.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE No. 785

His Excellency the Governor in Council has approved of the following Bill being introduced into the Legislative Council.

J. F. G. TROUGHTON,
Acting Clerk of the Legislative Council.

A Bill to Amend the Stamp Ordinance.

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title.

Cap. 57.

Amendment of section 2 of the Principal Ordinance.

No. 24 of 1930.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Stamp (Amendment) Ordinance, 1934, and shall be read as one with the Stamp Ordinance (Chapter 57 of the Revised Edition) hereinafter referred to as the Principal Ordinance.

2. Section 2 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by the insertion after paragraph (11) thereof of the following paragraph to be numbered (11A).

“(11A). ‘Gift’ means a transfer of movable or immovable property made voluntarily and without valuable consideration, but does not include an instrument under the Chattels Transfer Ordinance, 1930, nor a transfer under Article 59 of the Schedule to this Ordinance. Any conveyance or transfer (not being a disposition made in favour of a purchaser or incumbrancer or other person in good faith and for valuable consideration) shall, for the purposes of this definition be deemed to be a gift, and (except where marriage is the consideration), the consideration for any conveyance or transfer shall not for this purpose be deemed to be valuable consideration when the Commissioners are of opinion that by reason of the inadequacy of the sum paid as consideration or other circumstances the conveyance or transfer confers a substantial benefit on the person to whom the property is conveyed or transferred: Provided that the term ‘gift’ shall not include a transfer of movable or immovable property made voluntarily and without valuable consideration to a charitable institution recognized by the Commissioners.”

3. Article 59 of the Schedule to the Principal Ordinance as repealed and replaced by the Stamp (Amendment) Ordinance, 1927, is hereby amended by the deletion of paragraphs (a) and (b) thereof and the substitution therefor of the following :—

Amendment of Article 59 of Schedule to the Principal
Ordinance.
No. 13 of 1927.

Description of Instrument	Proper stamp-duty
59. Transfer— (a) of shares in an incorporated company or other body corporate, or (b) of debentures, being marketable securities, whether the debenture is liable to duty or not (i) without consideration ... (ii) in any other case ... Transfer (whether with or without consideration):—	Ten shillings. Half the duty on a conveyance (No. 22) on the amount or value of the consideration.

OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Gifts, without valuable consideration, or for a nominal consideration, bear ad valorem duty on the value of the property in England and in India, but the position is not clear under the Stamp Ordinance in Kenya. The intention of the Stamp Ordinance is that all instruments operating as gifts should bear ad valorem duty, but by a custom, which is becoming increasingly prevalent, ad valorem duty has been avoided by inserting a nominal money consideration in the instrument, thereby bringing the instrument within the definition of "conveyance" under the Ordinance, thus escaping with nominal stamp duty. By means of this custom Government has lost legitimate revenue.

By defining the term "gift", which is done in Clause 2 of the Bill, it will become impossible to bring an instrument of gift within the definition of "conveyance" under the Principal Ordinance, and, consequently, such instrument will have to pay ad valorem stamp duty.

The object of Clause 3 of the Bill is to vary the stamp duty payable on transfer of shares, so as to bring the duty more into line with the rates obtaining in other countries.

No expenditure of public moneys will be involved if the provisions of this Bill become law.

GENERAL NOTICE No. 1634

LOCUST REPORT, 30TH NOVEMBER, 1934.

Present Condition and Forecast.

KENYA.

THE RED LOCUST.

Definite improvement in the locust situation has occurred since the 14th of the month when the last report was issued. At that date reports from Tanganyika stated migration in that Territory to be definitely in northern and north-westerly directions. A report dated the 20th instant now states "the northerly direction of flight appears to have been arrested, and the general direction of flight appears to be south-west, except where green food is abundant on Kilimanjaro and Meru Mountains where locusts are content to remain." Therefore for the present, danger of infestation from the south and laying of eggs by swarms from Tanganyika is reduced for the time being. This southerly direction of migration may be temporary, but as the general tendency of flight of the red locust at this time of year when temperatures increase in countries is to the south, this direction may be maintained. In these circumstances, and there being no indication of invasion from Uganda, the outlook has improved.

With regard to locusts in the Colony, the Administrative Department reports two swarms in the Sotik area which are attended by thousands of predatory birds. Other swarms exist in various parts, but many districts are reported clear. No reports of damage to crops have been received.

Indications at present are that the forthcoming campaign in 1935 may be restricted to comparatively small areas. Nevertheless all sections of the public are earnestly requested to forward the fullest information possible to the Department of Agriculture through District Commissioners and the Police.

Acknowledgements.

It is desired to acknowledge valued assistance given by the neighbouring territories in keeping this Colony informed as to the situation in their areas. Especial thanks are due to the Director of Agriculture, Tanganyika, and his staff for forwarding information by telegram in addition to periodical reports. Kenya is also indebted to Tanganyika for valuable assistance rendered in the field. On the emergence of hoppers in the Voi District of this Colony early in the year assistance in combating them was offered by the Anti-Locust Service of Tanganyika and accepted with appreciation by this Department. This practical assistance enabled this infestation to be dealt with immediately and at a fraction of the cost which would have been incurred otherwise. In this and other instances the degree of co-operation achieved between the two territories is worthy of note.

A. G. BAILEY,
for Director of Agriculture.
