"On behalf of all Your Majesty's subjects in the many lands of your Colonial Empire, I offer you, Sir, their loyal and heartfelt congratulations.

Many of these countries are well known to Your Majesty personally, and the proud memory of your own visits, Sir, has been renewed by those Members of your Family whom they have rejoiced to honour. Throughout these distant lands, your Jubilee has been celebrated, and Your Majesty's own message has been heard. Infinite in their variety of race and creed and rule, the peoples of these lands are one in personal devotion to Your Majesty and in loyalty to Your Throne. Everywhere they are mindful of the wise and gracious solicitude with which you have ever watched over their interests and promoted their welfare, a solicitude in which Her Majesty the Queen has conspicuously shared. It is their earnest prayer that Your Majesty may long be spared to continue your high imperial task."
