any shop assistant may, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of sub-section (1) of this section, be permitted to work in such shop during the hours that such shop is permitted to remain open.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of sub-section (1) of this section, the working hours of any shop assistant may, solely for the purpose of stocktaking, be extended for not more than two hours on any one day (other than on a Sunday or a public holiday) on not more than four days in any one week and on not more than thirty days in any one year.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of this section an occupier, upon giving reasonable notice to the officer in charge of the police station of the district in which the shop is situate of the names of the assistants concerned and the dates upon which he intends to extend their working hours, may (on not more than two occasions in any year and solely for the purpose of stocktaking) permit such shop assistants, in any case where a Monday is a public holiday, to work on the Saturday afternoon, on the Sunday immediately preceding such Monday, and on such Monday. An occupier who avails himself of the provisions of this sub-section shall not be permitted to extend the hours of his shop assistants under the provisions of sub-section (3) of this section.

(5) Save as is provided in this section, and that a shop assistant may remain in a shop for a period of fifteen minutes after the prescribed closing hour or after the hours permitted for his employment for the purpose of serving a customer who has entered the shop before the prescribed closing hour, or for the purpose of closing the shop, an occupier shall not permit an assistant to remain in his shop for a greater number of hours than those permitted under, or after the closing hour prescribed by, this Ordinance.

(3) For the purpose of this section the expression “the same employer” shall include in case of the death of an employer, the legal representative, heir or legatee of that employer, or in the case of insolvency or liquidation of the employer the receiver or liquidator, so long as such representative, heir, legatee, receiver or liquidator continues to carry on the business of that shop and to employ that shop assistant therein.

Section 8 of the Principal Ordinance which it is proposed to amend:—

Sunday
closing.

8. All shops in townships and other areas to which this Ordinance applies shall be closed for the serving of customers on Sundays: Provided that where any local authority applies for exemption from Sunday closing the Governor in Council may grant such exemption either as to the whole or part of Sunday and either generally or in respect of any particular class of shops or trades.

Sub-section (1) of section 11 of the Principal Ordinance which it is proposed to amend:—

Approval of Governor in Council.

11. (1) After any order has been passed by a local authority it shall be submitted for the approval of the Governor in Council who shall consider any objections to the order and may either disallow the order or confirm the order with or without amendment. Every order so confirmed shall be published in the Gazette and thereupon shall have the force of law.

(6) Any shop assistant found in a shop after the closing hour prescribed by this Ordinance or after the hours permitted for his employment under this Ordinance shall be deemed to be in the employment of such occupier until the contrary is proved by such occupier."

(3) of the Principal
Ordinance.

Section 8 of the Principal
Ordinance.

5. Sub-section (1) of section 11 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by inserting therein, between the word "any" and the word "order", which appear in the first line thereof, the word "closing".

Amendment of Section 11 (1) of the Principal
Ordinance.

Section 15 of the Principal Ordinance which it is proposed to amend:—

Penalties.

15. In the case of any contravention of or failure to comply with the provisions of this Ordinance the occupier of the shop shall be guilty of an offence punishable with a fine not exceeding:—

(a) In the case of a first conviction five pounds (or in default of payment to simple imprisonment for a period not exceeding fourteen days);

(b) In the case of a second conviction ten pounds (or in default of payment to simple imprisonment for a period not exceeding one month);

(c) In the case of a third or subsequent conviction thirty pounds (or in default of payment to simple imprisonment for a period not exceeding two months):

Provided that in the case of a shop assistant employed after hours in contravention of the Ordinance the occupier shall not be guilty of an offence against the Ordinance if he proves that his shop assistant was engaged only in serving customers whom he was already serving or who were in the shop before the closing hour or that there was reasonable ground for believing that the article supplied to the customer was required in case of illness.

6. Section 15 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by deleting therefrom the proviso thereto.

Amendment of Section 15 of the Principal
Ordinance.

OBJECTS AND REASONS

Although the Shop Hours Ordinance, 1925, provides that a shop shall not be open for serving customers after a certain hour, yet, in fact, employees are frequently kept at work in the shop long after that hour behind closed doors. The object of this Bill is to remedy this state of affairs.

Section 5 of the Principal Ordinance at present provides that no shop assistant shall be employed in or about a shop for more than fifty hours including meal times in any one week or more than nine hours in any one day. In this Bill provision is made to the effect that subject to the exceptions hereafter mentioned no person shall employ any shop assistant for more than fifty hours in any one week including intervals for meals, or for more than eight hours in any one day excluding intervals for meals to be completed within nine hours from the commencement of the assistant's work, or on any Sunday or public holiday.

Provision is also made for the extension of the working hours of shop assistants during stocktaking and other emergency work which cannot be performed during the usual hours. There is a further provision to the effect that, except in exceptional circumstances, no assistant shall be permitted to remain in a shop for more than a quarter of an hour after closing time.

Finally, as the Principal Ordinance stands at present, all shops affected by it must be closed "for the serving of customers" on Sundays—it is provided in this Bill that such shops must be physically closed on Sundays.

No expenditure of public moneys will be involved if the provisions of this Bill become law.
