GOVERNMENT NOTICE No 31

His Excellency the Governor in Council has approved of the following Bill being introduced into the Legislative Council

R W BAKER-BEALL,
Acting Clerk to the Legislative Council

A Bill to Amend the Public Health Ordinance

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows —

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Public Health (Amendment) Ordinance, 1938, and shall be read as one with the Public Health Ordinance (Chapter 124 of the Revised Edition), hereinafter referred to as the Principal Ordinance

Short title

Cap 124

2 Section 120 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by inserting therein as sub-section (3A) the following new sub-section —

Amendment of section 120
of the Principal Ordinance

“(3A) If the court is satisfied that the nuisance although removed since the service of the notice was not removed within the time specified in such notice the court may impose a fine not exceeding ten pounds on the person on whom such notice was served and may, in addition to or in substitution for such fine, order such person to pay all costs incurred up to the time of the hearing of the case”

complaint relating to such nuisance to be made before a magistrate and the magistrate shall thereupon issue a summons requiring the person on whom the notice was served to appear before him

(5) If the court is satisfied that the alleged nuisance although removed is likely to recur on the same premises, the court shall make an order on the author thereof or the occupier or owner of the dwelling or premises, as the case may be, requiring him to do any specified work necessary to prevent the recurrence of the nuisance and prohibiting its recurrence

(6) In the event of the person on whom such order as is specified in subsections (4) and (5) not complying with the order within a reasonable time the local authority or medical officer of health shall again cause a complaint to be made to a magistrate, who shall thereupon issue a summons requiring such person to appear before him and on proof that the order has not been complied with may impose a fine not exceeding ten pounds, and may also give directions as to the payment of all costs up to the time of the hearing

(7) Before making any order, the court may, if it thinks fit, adjourn the hearing or further hearing of the summons until an inspection, investigation or analysis in respect of the nuisance alleged has been made by some competent person

(8) Where the nuisance proved to exist is such as to render a dwelling unfit, in the judgment of the court, for human habitation, the court may issue a closing order prohibiting the use thereof as a dwelling until in its judgment the dwelling is fit for that purpose, and may further order that no rent shall be due or payable by or on behalf of the occupier of that dwelling in respect of the period in which the closing order exists, and on the court being satisfied that it has been rendered fit for use as a dwelling the court may terminate the closing order and by a further order declare the dwelling habitable, and from the date thereof such dwelling may be let or inhabited

Notwithstanding any such last-mentioned order, further proceedings may be taken in accordance with this section in respect of the same dwelling in the event of any nuisance occurring or of the dwelling being again found to be unfit for human habitation

OBJECTS AND REASONS

As the law stands at present the local authority, if it is satisfied of the existence of a nuisance, is required to serve a notice upon the author of the nuisance requiring its removal, and if the person upon whom the notice is served fails to comply with the requirements of such notice a complaint is made before a magistrate and thereupon a summons issues requiring the appearance before the court of the person on whom it is served. The court may then, if it is satisfied that the nuisance exists, order the offender to remove the nuisance, and may also impose a fine and give directions as to the payment of costs incurred.

Where, however, the nuisance is removed after the issue of the summons but before the hearing of the case, the court has no power to make an order as to costs and consequently local authorities are put to the expense of paying for the summons.

It is proposed to remedy this state of affairs by amending the Principal Ordinance on the lines set out in this Bill.

No expenditure of public moneys will be involved if the provisions of this Bill become law.
