GOVERNMENT NOTICE NO. 79

His Excellency the Governor in Council has approved of the following Bill being introduced into the Legislative Council.

R. P. ARMITAGE,

Acting Clerk to the Legislative Council.

A Bill to Amend the Trade Unions Ordinance, 1937

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Trade Unions (Amendment) Ordinance, 1941, and shall be read as one with the Trade Unions Ordinance, 1937, hereinafter referred to as the Principal Ordinance.

No. 28 of 1937.

Repeal and replacement of section 2 of the Principal Ordinance.

Interpretation.

2. Section 2 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following section is substituted therefor:—

“2. In this Ordinance the expression “trade union” means any combination, whether temporary or permanent, the principal purposes of which are, under its constitution, the regulation of the relations between workmen and masters, or between workmen and workmen, or between masters and masters, whether such combination would or would not, if this Ordinance had not been enacted, have been deemed to have been an unlawful combination by reason of some one or more of its purposes being in restraint of trade:

Provided that nothing in this Ordinance—

(a) shall affect—

(i) any agreement between partners as to their own business;

(ii) any agreement between an employer and those employed by him as to such employment;

(iii) any agreement in consideration of the sale of the goodwill of a business or of instruction in any profession, trade or handicraft;

(b) shall preclude any trade union from providing benefits for its members.”

Amendment of the Principal Ordinance.

3. The Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by inserting therein, immediately after section 3C thereof, the following new section:—

Prohibition of actions of tort against trade unions.

3D. (1) An action against a trade union, whether of workmen or masters, or against any member or officials thereof on behalf of themselves and all other members of the trade union in respect of any tortious act alleged to have been committed by or on behalf of the trade union, shall not be entertained by any court.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the liability of the trustees of a trade union to be sued in the events provided for by section 3C of this Ordinance, except in respect of any tortious act committed by or on behalf of the trade union in contemplation or in furtherance of a trade dispute.”

OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of this Bill is to bring the law relating to Trade Unions into closer conformity with that existing in the United Kingdom and in other parts of the Empire by making provision for the safeguarding of Trade Unions against actions of tort.

The opportunity has also been taken of amending the definition of "trade union" with a view to securing uniformity with the legislation of other colonial territories.

No expenditure of public moneys will be involved if the provisions of this Bill become law.
